New Boot and Shoe Store,

NO. 12 DANIEL STREET,

Portsmouth, N. H.

THE undersigned would respectfully announce to the citizens of Portsmouth and vicinity that they have entered into copartnership in the firm name of

JOHN BUZZELL & CO.,

Have taken the Store in Daniel street, formerly occupied by Mr. E. A. Stevens, and stocked it with a good assortment of

BOOTS AND SHOES

Of every description, which they offer to the public at as low prices as they can be purchased for in Portsmouth or elsewhere. They also have in connection with their Store a manufactory of Boots and Shoes, and are prepared to make to order any description desired, in the best manner, and on the most liberal terms. Determined to merit, they hope to receive a fair share of public patronage. JOHN BUZZELL,
WM. H. FERNALD.

The subscriber takes this opportunity of presenting his compliments to his many friends in Portsmouth and vicinity, and respectfully soliciting their patronage in his new position, pledging himself to use every endeavor to serve them satisfactorily. During his experience of twelve years in the business he has labored to serve faithfully all who have entrusted their orders to his care; and trusting he has earned a reputation for fair and honorable dealing, he will strive in future to merit and retain it. Every article sold at the Store, where it will be his pleasure to serve his friends and find new ones, shall be represented, or if it shall prove otherwise the money shall be refunded, or entire satisfaction given. Please call and try us. Very respectfully,

Take this along with you.—'Tis just what you want.

The Great Specific of the Age.

OXYGENATED BITTERS!

THE ONLY SURE AND SAFE REMEDY EVER DISCOVERED

For the cure of

DYSPEPSIA,

IN ALL ITS VARIOUS FORMS, AS well as Liver Diseases, Fever and Ague, Billious Complaints, Bronchitis, General Debility, and all diseases of a kindred nature.

Read the following testimony from Dr. Henry E. Morrell, a skillful physician of N. Y. city. He says:—"The most effectual medicine to improve the tone and energy of the stomach is that prepared by Dr. George B. Green, of Windsor, Vt., and called the Oxygenated Bitters."

The Oxygenated Bitters do not contain a particle of alcohol in their composition, and are, of necessity, highly concentrated, to prevent the injurious action of the temperature of different climates. Each bottle, when diluted according to the directions, makes nearly half a gallon of medicine, as pleasant to the taste as lemonade; and as to quantity, quite the CHEAPEST MEDICINE.

I have employed them in a multitude of cases, and have uniformly found that, when used according to the directions, they gradually, but surely, remove, one by one, the various distressing symptoms which cluster around the confirmed Dyspeptic, restore the stomach to its lost energies, and thus lead the patient back to the enjoyment of permanent health and strength.

It has also been used by the following persons, and received their unqualified approbation:—

Prof. A. A. Hayes, M. D., State Assayer, Boston
Prof. E. E. Phelps, M. D., of Therapeutics and Materia Medica, Dartmouth College.
Hon. Myron Lawrence, Ex-President of Massachusetts Senate.
Hon. L. H. Arnold, formerly Governor of Rhode Island, now member of Congress.
Hon. J. F. Simmons, U. S. Senator from R. I

TRUE RELIGION.—It has been supposed by some, that austerity is the noblest feature of piety, and that in such an evil world as ours, we should move through it in haste, and turn from all scenes of intercourse with disgust, while they whose manners are courteous and cheerful, are deemed too free, and too gay to be religious. Such can be the impression of an imbecile piety, or of a malignant censoriousness. Religion is degraded, when it borrows from hypocrisy its whine, or from malignity its scowl.

MODESTY OR VANITY.—The fashionable dressmakers of Paris, who have long been in the habit of occupying the best seats at the Opera, are to be henceforth excluded from the first tier. But it seems that the ladies, whose offended delicacy has caused the measure of exclusion, were not so much outraged by the neighborhood of the damsels, as they were provoked at their superior beauty and the overwhelming elegance and richness of their toilets!

AMERICAN AND FOREIGN OFFICE.
Agency for business with US Patent Office, Washington,
76 State st, oppo. Kilby st, Boston.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION TO INVENTORS. The Subscriber (late Agent of the U. S. Patent Office, under the Act of 1837) determined to present advantages, in applying for Patents, superior to those offered to inventors by others, has made arrangements whereby the applications prepared and conducted by him, THIRTY DOLLARS (instead of twenty, as paid back by others,) will be remitted by him in case of failure to obtain a patent, and the withdrawal through him within thirty days after the rejection. Assignments and all necessary papers and drawings, for procuring patents in this and foreign countries prepared, and advice rendered on legal and scientific matters respecting inventions, and infringement of patents.

Inventors can not only here obtain their specifications on the most reasonable terms, but can here avail themselves of the experience of 20 years' practice, an extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and accounts of patents granted in this and other countries; besides being saved a journey to Washington, the usual great delay there as well as all personal trouble in obtaining their patents. Copies of claims of any patent furnished by remitting one dollar.—Assignments recorded at Washington.

R. H. EDDY,
Solicitor of Patents.

"During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, did business at the Patent Office, as Solicitor of Patents. There were few, if any persons acting in that capacity, who had so much business before the Patent Office; and there were none who conducted it with more skill, fidelity, and success. I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the best informed and most skilful Patent Solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.

Marine Insurance.

INSURANCE effected on Vessels, Freights and Cargoes, on favorable terms, in strong and reliable Companies by JOHN S. HARVEY & SON, Insurance Agents. 17

THE GREAT STANDARD REMEDY
FOR ALL PULMONARY DISEASES.

Containing neither Prussic Acid, Tartar Emetic, nor any other deleterious drug. Extensively used, tested and approved in New England, Canada, and the British Provinces during a period of THIRTY YEARS by Eminent Physicians, Clergymen, Professors of Colleges, Theological Seminaries, Scientific and Distinguished Public Men, and in fact by all classes in the community. See Pamphlets and wrappers containing Certificates, among which are those of Rev. Dr. LYMAN BEECHER, Boston, late President of Lane Theological Seminary, Cincinnati, Ohio.—Late Rev. Dr. LEONARD WOODS, Abbott Prof. of Theology in Andover Theological Seminary, Mass.—Hon. DANIEL P. THOMPSON, Secretary of State of Vermont.—N. F. WILLIAMS, Esq., formerly Collector of the Port of Baltimore, Md.—Rev. JOSIAH LITCH, Philadelphia,—and many others.

HOW EXTENSIVE MY PREPARATIONS.—JOHN A. BERRY, M. D., Saco, Me., says, "During a practice of twenty years, I have seen used all the popular remedies for Coughs, and am well satisfied that your VEGETABLE PULMONARY BALSAM is best, and I hope it will be better known and more generally used."

☞ Beware of Counterfeits and Imitations!!
Enquire for the article by its WHOLE NAME, "VEGETABLE PULMONARY BALSAM."

Prepared only by REED, CUTLER & CO., Druggists, 33 India street, Boston, Mass., and sold by Apothecaries and Country Merchants generally. Price New Style, large bottles, containing nearly four times the quantity of the small, $1. Old Style, small bottles, 50 cents.

HERTS BROTHERS
AMALGAMATED IRIDIUM ZINC & PLATINA
PENS.
WARRANTED NOT TO CORRODE.

HERTS BROTHERS, having been many years the Patentees and manufacturers of Metallic Pens, and during that time, having devoted their unceasing attention to improving and perfecting that useful and necessary article, the result of their unceasing efforts and numerous experiments has been the construction of a Pen on a new principle entirely new, combining all the advantages of the elasticity and clearness of the Quill, with six times the durability of the Steel Pen; and thus entirely obviating the only objection that has hitherto existed against the use of Steel Pens.

This Pen will be found an invaluable article in Offices, as they never need wiping, also to Banks and Schools, as they will not spatter nor cut the thinest paper, and are warranted anti-corrosive.

CAUTION.—The universal celebrity of these Pens having induced several disreputable Makers to foist upon the public a spurious imitation, it will please to be observed that each genuine Pen is stamped, "HERTS, BIRMINGHAM," and each box of Genuine Pens will contain a label with a fac-simile of the Manufacturers' name.

MANUFACTORY, BIRMINGHAM, ENGLAND.

DR. J. B. MARCHISI'S
Celebrated Catholicon,
FOR THE
RELIEF & CURE OF SUFFERING FEMALES.

IT stands pre-eminent for its curative powers in all the diseases for which it is recommended, and is usually called

FEMALE COMPLAINTS.

Of these are PROLAPSUS UTERI, or Falling of the Womb; FLUOR ALBUS, or Whites; CHRONIC INFLAMMATION OF THE WOMB; INCIDENTAL HEMORRHAGE, or Flooding; PAINFUL, SUPPRESSED, AND IRREGULAR MENSTRUATION, &c., with all their accompanying evils. (Cancer excepted) no matter how severe or of how long standing.

Let all interested call and obtain a pamphlet (free) containing ample proof, from the most respectable sources, of the beneficial results of its use; together with letters from highly experienced Physicians, who have used it in their practice, and speak from their own observations.

A WORD TO THE LADIES.

Should any entertain doubts as to the efficacy of the UTERINE CATHOLICON, I would respectfully state that I have for many years past, as my friends can well attest, been troubled with the disease for which this medicine is recommended, in its worst forms, and that by its use I have been entirely cured, and thus induced to accept an agency, and offer it for the benefit of others.

MRS. S. GAIT, 38 South street, Boston.

I feel it my duty to make known to the afflicted the virtues of MARCHISI'S UTERINE CATHOLICON, which has relieved me of Female Complaints of fifteen years' standing, and of so severe a nature, that latterly my physician suspected Cancer of the Womb. I suffered extremely, and at last was entirely disabled from attending to my usual pursuits. . . . It has given me more relief than any thing I have evered used for these difficulties. I will take pleasure in giving further details of my case to any lady who will call on me at 67 Mill street.

Deck-Reefing Gear.

By the application of this GEAR, the Topsails of any vessel may be Reefed from the deck with remarkable facility, and carry sail much longer than when rigged in any other way. This Gear can be readily applied to any old rig, and at less expense than any other now in use.

The following is an extract from a letter recently received from Capt. Pickering, of the ship Ocean Rover, of Portsmouth, concerning its merits:—

"It has given me perfect satisfaction, and I have only to regret that it is not applied to all the topsail yards. On the passage to this port, (Charleston, S. C.,) I experienced strong gales from the S. W. and had occasion to use it several times, and on every occasion it worked finely."

MUSICAL TASTE.—The New York Musical Review relates some amusing incidents which occurred to Mr. Wm. Mason during his recent concert tour through the West. Mr. M. is a son of Lowell Mason, and one of the finest piano players in the world.

His concerts were always closed by a series of "improvisations on themes handed in by the audience;" each auditor sending in the name of any piece he or she wished to hear improvised upon. Usually, a hatful of themes would be sent in; and as Mr. Mason could not introduce them all, he would select a half dozen or so, always taking those which had the greatest number of votes. At each concert, nearly the same pieces would be requested; a fact which shows a striking similarity in the musical repertoires and tastes of different communities throughout the country.—Jordan is a hard road to travel, and Old Hundred, seemed to be the greatest favorites with every audience; and requests were often sent in that "Mr. Mason would play Old Hundred with one hand, and Jordan with the other, at the same time;" which requests he sometimes complied with, to the great delight of the audience. "Old Hundred with one hand, and Yankee Doodle with the other;" "Casta Diva and Yankee Doodle both together;" "Hail! Columbia, and God save the Queen, both at once;" and many other similar requests were usually sent in, and frequently complied with. Mr. Mason was also often requested to improvise on Mozart's Requiem, the oratorio of the Messiah, or the Creation, and Mozart's Twelfth Mass, the opera of Norma or Somnambula, etc., etc., which requests he always respectfully declined, as he "had not time to work them up properly."

At Chicago, an elderly gentleman called on Mr. Mason, and informed him, that he and his family had come a fabulous distance to attend his concert; that there was one piece which they wanted much to hear—a fine piece, rather difficult, to be sure; but then it was so good, it would repay a performer for mastering it: his daughter "played it beautiful," and he hoped Mr. Mason would play it at his concert that evening. If he did not know it, he (the stranger) would get him a copy, and he (Mr. Mason) could probably learn it in the course of the day. Mr. Mason said he should be glad to accommodate the family, and asked the name of the composition. "It is the Java March," replied the enthusiastic old gentleman.

Every body who knows anything about piano playing, is aware that Java March is frequently the first tune given to beginners.

SALE OF THE WEBSTER FARM.—The farm, embracing 300 acres of land, stock, tools, buildings and furniture on the estate of the late Daniel Webster, at South Franklin, was sold on Thursday last, for the sum of $15,000. Rufus L. Tay, Esq., formerly of this city, now of Boston, was the purchaser. Mr. T. intends residing upon the place. Mr. T. was a poor boy, and was apprenticed to the carpenter's trade. He worked at that business in this place a dozen years ago. He then went to Boston and engaged in the coal business, and now has a "pocket full of rocks," acquired by industry and enterprise. May he live and thrive many years.—N. H. Patriot.

The Windham Co. Telegraph states on Saturday last, as Mr Dean and his wife, residents in West Killingly, Conn., were riding in that town, they wrapped their infant child closely in buffalo robes and blankets, for the purpose of protecting it from the cold. In their care for its comfort they neglected to give it fresh air, and it died of suffocation before they reached home.

The daily delivery of water to London during the last few months, has been little short of 100,000,000 gallons.

AN IMPORTANT WITNESS.—A writer in the Philadelphia Inquirer, says that among the American statesmen who have sustained the bills before Congress for the payment of the French Spoliations, should be named that spotless patriot, Chief Justice Marshall, who, for thirty five years, by his professional wisdom, deep knowledge of Constitutional law, and dignified deportment, shed a lustre upon the Supreme Court of the United States.—The writer remarks, that what adds importance to his testimony is, that he was Secretary of State in 1800, and wrote the very instructions, under which the treaty that led to the relinquishment of these claims, was negotiated. He well adds, they who will not believe such testimony as this, would not believe if one were to rise from the dead.

The Boston Post says that the Hon. Mr. Dean, of Ipswich, has been appointed by the Governor and Council, Commissioner of Insolvent Debtors, in place of Mr. Ingersoll, deceased.

Morning Chronicle.

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 7, 1855.

The Temperance paper, the Phœnix, asks whether we are in favor of a stringent prohibitory liquor law? We answer that we are in favor of a more stringent one than its candidate, Metcalf, ever observed in practice, or ever supported by his vote.—Concord Patriot.

This is a cutting reply to the Phœnix;—but it is no answer at all to the question.

A majority of the people of New Hampshire are determined to have a new liquor law; and they will have it. It may break down a few governors and parties who resist it, or who try to make capital out of it; but that is a small matter. The people ask all the candidates for Governor, Are you in favor of a prohibitory law? Three candidates say Yes. One, Governor Baker, preserves a dignified silence—and the Patriot, the leading paper in his support, when the same question is put to itself, answers by the evasion above quoted.

Some persons are evidently both opposed to the law, and afraid that it will pass. Nay, more than this, they are afraid that Metcalf, being helped into the Governor's chair by the prospective law, may fancy that one good turn deserves another, and so help the new law into operation. Not that he was ever a temperance man, any more than the Governor of Maine who signed their famous law;—but that he may keep his promise.

The West Chester (Penn.) Jeffersonian says, at a debating society in that county, a few evening since, the question of know nothingism was discussed, and it is a remarkable fact that the principal declaimer against naturalized citizens, and defender of the order, was a man who had four brothers hung during the revolution for treason, for furnishing the British with supplies, and acting as spies.

This scrap set Uncle Toby to cyphering. As well as he can remember, the revolution was closed in '83, by a treaty of peace, wherein Great Britain acknowledged our independence. From '83 to '55 would be about 72 years. The brothers who were hung for treason, if they were men, as he supposes, would be at least 20 years old, some time before the war closed. That would make them 90 and some over, now;—and their surviving brother, now a principal declaimer, must be a little the oldest debater there is out, in favor of Sam.

Take the story for all in all, it has a very ancient and fish like smell.

PALSY.—A letter from Washington to the Newburyport Herald, finds a great deal of fault with the K. Ns., and says:

Massachusetts as she stands upon the floor of the United States Senate looks as if she had been stricken with palsy. In the shadow of the great names of those, in whose lives her proudest history is written, and to whose principles of honor, of patriotism, of every public and private virtue, her respect and fidelity belonged, in the places honored by the former presence of such men as Webster and Everett, and the long line of honorable and distinguished men who preceded them, stand to day, two persons, whose names I cannot call to mind, the representatives of your proud old State; stand there with little credit to themselves, and a continual, a shameful, an unedfaceable reproach upon her.

Palsy! forsooth; in the person of Sumner, whose ample heighth, fine figure, and noble voice, only set off his well stored mind, his courteous deportment, and his increasing influence in the Senate, among all its members.

Palsy! in the person of a live Yankee—Wilson, the Natick cobbler, who has literally cut and hammered his own way up to the Senate House.

The writer can't call their names to mind. Doubtless he is no Senator then: for every Senator has found them out, and will not forget them.

A WONDERFUL COW.—The Mobile Tribune, speaking of remarkable cows boasted of in the papers from various parts, says:

"A gentleman in this vicinity—who is too modest to have his name mentioned—has a Devon cow, six years old, running at large on the commons every day, but kept up at night and well fed on bran, hay, vegetables, &c., which gave the past year 1620 gallons of milk. The dairy woman's memorandum is as follows:—First three months, average, six gallons of milk and twelve pounds of butter; second three months, five gallons and ten pounds; third three months, four gallons and eight pounds; fourth three months, three gallons and six pounds. The milk at forty cents per gallon, which is the common price here, would amount to $648. This shows the importance of having a full blooded cow. In the present instance the cost of keeping is no more than an ordinary country cow, and yet the value of milk for one year is nearly $650."

The ownership of a dozen such animals would constitute a perfect "milky way" to wealth and opulence.

POLYGAMY AND MORMONISM.—Elder O. P. Pratt, being in California, has thrown down the following challenge in the way of a discussion:

Resolved, That "Polygamy" is not contrary to the constitution and laws of the United States—the Scriptures, the laws of nature, or the laws of God.

For the Chronicle.

MY AIRY FLIGHT.

I have been watching the light, floating clouds
That glide so quickly o'er the high blue dome
Of Heaven; and Fancy takes me on
Her wings of might, and soars with me
Far up among them; while with noiseless tread,
Thought rushes through my brain. And now, methinks
That I can see them form into a chain
Of mountains. Now, in the centre rises one
High, far above the rest, and looking up
I can discern its towering top, brightly illumined,
On which the sun pours its resplendent ray
Of golden light. And now, I think, how I
Would love to stand upon its lofty height,
And gaze, with wonder, down on earth below:
See moving here, and there, with busy life,
Its throngs of beings, that one breath of God
Might sweep away, and all be chaos dark.
I'd look into th' abodes of men, and had
I power, I'd make the heart-strings of the rich
Throb with compassion, for his brother poor;
And quickly would I dry the rising tear
That I saw welling up in sorrow's eye,
And bid the saddened heart look far beyond
My mount of clouds, where "rest" was found.

And close beside this mountain, I see one
Yet smaller cloud, on which, I wish the power
Were mine, to float away, o'er land and sea,
And cast down many a glance on places where
I long have wished to roam. Lo! on I go
Swift over valley, hill, and cities wide.
I feel the warm air of the sunny South;
Breathe in the fragrance of the magnolia,
With its white blossom, bending to the breeze;
And after feasting sight with all
That Southern land can yield to please the eye,
I swiftly glide on to the distant West,
O'er its vast prairie lands, its growing towns,
List to the murmuring sound of life, and think
How oft the Red Man sent his arrow home
Into the warm heart of the bounding deer.
Now on I go to golden regions, where
The earth yields up the shining ore, that many Far from their glad, happy homes
Have come to gather,—which may add
Much joy, and comfort, to the loved left far Behind, and whom they hope to greet when they Have garnered up their share of tempting gold.

But Fancy tires; upon her fairy wing
She long hath borne me; yet I fain would go
To other lands; but faster droops she now,
And from her airy flight she bends,
While I alight once more on earth, to find
I too must still toil on, and meet alike
With all, its stern realities, until
The soul bursts from its "prison-house of clay,"
And soars to worlds away beyond the clouds,
Where Fancy cannot wing me in her flight.

South Framingham, Mass. S. L. B. D.

GENEROUS TRIBUTE TO GARRISON.—In giving notice to his congregation, on Sunday last, of the lecture delivered by Mr. Garrison on Tuesday evening, the Rev. Henry Ward Beecher paid a spontaneous and honorable tribute to that eminent philanthopist for his unswerving fidelity, during all the trials of the last twenty years and more, to the great principles enunciated by him at the beginning of his career. However widely we may differ from Mr. Garrison, said Mr. Beecher, on many important subjects, we cannot deny that, while multitudes, who ran well for a time, afterwards faltered and turned back, he has stood firm and unmoved, like a cliff in a storm, uttering his testimony against slavery with unwavering pertinacity, in the face of such opposition as it has been the lot of few men to encounter. He can look back on the history of the last twenty years and see the road over which he has travelled strewed with the wrecks of men, not a few of them ministers and Doctors of Divinity, who fell before the temptations of the time like grass before the mower. We admire heroism like this even when it is exhibited on the wrong side of a great public question; much more ought we to do so when we see it displayed in the service of Truth and Liberty. Mr. Beecher said, furthermore, that he had no sympathy with the narrowness which leads some clergymen to refuse to notify their congregation of lectures on such a subject as slavery, merely because the speaker did not agree with them in his theological views. He could wish that his congregation might be indoctrinated on the subject of slavery, as well as upon other great moral questions, by men holding evangelical views; but, alas! in this age we too often find sound theology in one pen and practical Christianity in another, and men must visit both to obtain the whole truth. He would not insult his congregation nor dishonor the truth he preached so much as to suppose for a moment that his work among them as a minister, on fifty-two Sundays in the year, could be frustrated and upset by a lecture from anybody. He would encourage his people to hear all sides of every public question, in order that they might be able to form an intelligent judgment as to their own duty.

We do not pretend to give Mr. Beecher's exact words, but the above is the substance of a speech which occupied some ten minutes. It was as honorable to the speaker as it was unexpected to us, and, we presume, to every one in his congregation.—New York Standard.

☞ A lady in Newburyport is about to procure a lithographic likeness of the venerable and Rev. Dr. Dana, which will be an ornament to hundreds of parlors.

LOCAL.

☞ Hon. John P. Hale did not fulfil the appointment at the Lyceum on Tuesday evening. His place was filled by Rev. Dr. Peabody, who lectured on Modern Spiritualism, which he explained as the somnambulic or erratic action of an overwrought or excited brain.

He illustrated his subject by pertinent reference to the dual organs of the body, and the two hemispheres of the brain. His explanations and conclusions were of course not in accordance with the views of media or spiritual circles; but his suppositions were ingenious, and his deductions by no means extravagant. He expects to see the present phenomena multiply with the increased interest of those who observe or experience them; and then predicts their decline and close; to be remembered and reproduced in some coming period.

The lecture was interesting to all who study such subjects.

For the Chronicle.

STATEMENT OF COLLECTOR CLEMENTS DENIED.—Messrs. Editors:—In the Chronicle of Tuesday morning, you state in these words, "The Collector of this port informs us that the Irishmen who were naturalized were not at the Custom House on Saturday." Now we do not wish to charge Mr. Collector Clements with uttering a direct and positive falsehood, when he made the above statement to you; but we are prepared to prove by gentlemen of this city, of the highest respectability, that they saw these Irishmen go into the Custom House on Saturday last, (whether they were inducted into the Collector's or Inspector's room, it matters not) and by one of these gentlemen, that he then and there made affidavit that a certain Irishman had resided in this city five years. AN AMERICAN.

DEATHS IN FEBRUARY.—Mr. Bell's monthly record of mortality in Portsmouth, during the past month, is as follows:

Males four—aged 10 months, 30 years, 43, 57.

Females nine—aged 4 years, 5, 5, 22, 29, 53, 69, 7, 9, 84.

Total for the month, thirteen. For the month of January the number was the same.

DEMOCRATIC MEETING.—Hon. John S. Wells, of Exeter, and others, are expected to address the Democrats of Portsmouth, this evening, at the Temple.

☞ Two or three young girls are wanting good places in small families in the country. Also, boys between the ages of 12 and 18 are wanting situations in the country to work on a farm. Apply to Amos Abbott, City Missionary.

THE BURNS ASSAULT CASE.—At the close of the evidence for the prosecution in this case at Dedham, Saturday, City Solicitor Hillard moved for a non suit, on the ground that the acts of the defendants were all strictly in accordance with law, and that the alleged assaults were not traced to them. Judge Merrick, after a few minutes reflection, said the case was an important one, involving many points of law and fact, and demanding a more careful consideration than he felt he could give it amid the hours of business of a court term. He should, therefore, report the case to the full bench, and submit to their assembled wisdom the decision upon the requests for nonsuit.

RESIGNATION.—At a meeting of the worshippers of the South Congregational church, Boston, convened by notice, on Monday evening, the pastor, Rev. F. D. Huntington, announced his intention to dissolve his connection with the Society, which has existed since 1842. Mr. Huntington has been offered the Hollis Professorship of Divinity at Harvard College.

CANADA.—The Postmaster General has determined that all newspapers shall pass free in Canada. We have noticed the passage in the House of Assembly of the "prohibitory liquor law." In connection with this, we observe that "the bar in connection with the saloon of the Assembly had been closed."

FIRE.—A new barn situated in Salisbury Mills Village, belonging to Isaac Tukesbury, was set on fire, at about 11 o'clock, on Sunday evening last. The barn contained the frame and materials for a new house, 400 wool pelts, and two tons of hay. Loss about $1500—no insurance.

IRISH BABIES.—We believe that it has already been remarked that the Irish are strange people. Whether such remark were original or not, it escaped us on reading an account of certain recent proceedings in one of the great Dublin work-houses. It appears that much controversy had arisen as to whether any poor little baby left at the establishment in question—that is, any foundling—should be baptised in the Protestant or the Catholic faith. A stormy struggle took place, and the opinion of the Irish law officers of the Crown taken upon this important subject. As might pe expected, coalition produced its usual results. Mr. Brewster, Attorney General, advised that the babies should be made Protestants, while Mr. Keogh, Solicitor General, recommended that they should be made Catholics. Finally, the Protestants won the day. But a speaker, named Roper, found consolation. He said that it was a pity to waste time upon such a matter, for, owing to the abominable system pursued in the workhouse, not one of the babies would be alive that day twelvemonth. We revert to our original, or borrowed proposition, that the Irish are strange people.—Punch.

AN APOTHECARY'S JOKE.—The Springfield Republican says that in North Adams, a few days ago, a number of young men who were bent upon having a good time, deputed one of their number to procure some brandy. The messenger represented to the apothecary that it was wanted for bathing purposes, and after some persuasion procured the desired article. The apothecary, however, suspecting something wrong, mixed a little antimony with the liquor before it left his hands. The consequence was that those who drank the brandy soon began to complain of illness, and finally imagined themselves poisoned. One hastened home to die in the bosom of his family, another made his will, and a third commenced repeating a prayer. They all, however, recovered eventually, and prosecuted the apothecary for a violation of the liquor law.

"Old Folks" Choir.

Agreeably to adjournment, the Old Folks Choir will meet at Exchange Hall on Wednesday Evening, March 7, at half-past 7 o'clock, for Rehearsal of the ancient sacred music, preparatory to the third Concert, to be given during the fourth week of March proximo—in aid of the Howard Benevolent Society. All who took part in the other Concerts, are invited to attend—and any who may not do so, are requested to leave the music books with either of the Committee of Arrangements, (Nath'l T. Moulton, N. L. Folsom, Thos. Norton, John Christie, A. Perry,) immediately. Per order,

The Greatest Medical Discovery of the Age, is

AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS.

They don't help complaints, but they cure them.
One Box has cured Dyspepsia.
Three Boxes have cured the worst cases of Scrofula
Two Boxes have cured Erysipelas.
One Box always cures the Jaundice.
Three Boxes are sure to cleanse the system from Bile—often less than one does it.
Two Boxes have completely cured the worst of ulcers on the leg.
Small doses seldom fail to cure the Piles.
One dose cures the headache arising from a foul stomach.
Strong doses often repeated expel every worm from the body. They should be given to children, who are always more or less afflicted with this scourge.
As a gentle Physic they have no equal.
One Box cures derangement of the Liver.
Half a Box cures a Cold.
They purify the Blood, and thus strike at the foundation of every disease.
As a Dinner Pill there is not their equal in the world.
They are purely vegetable, and can do no harm, but do accomplish an unaccountable amount of good.

RELIGIOUS LIBERTY.—In the U. S. Senate, on Thursday of the last week of the session, Mr. CASS moved that the Senate proceed to the consideration of the resolutions submitted by him some time since in relation to the subject of religious toleration to American citizens when travelling or residing in foreign countries—being the same which were reported at a previous session by Mr. Underwood, from the Committee on Foreign Relations.

The question being taken by yeas and nays, the resolutions were taken up—yeas 26, nays 8—as follows:

Yeas—Messrs. Adams, Allen, Benjamin, Bright, Brodhead, Brown, Cass, Chase,—Dodge of Wisconsin, Foot, James, Jones of Iowa, Mallory, Pearce, Pettit, Rusk, Sebastian, Seward, Shields, Stuart, Sumner,—Thompson of Kentucky, Wade, Weller, Wells, and Wilson—26.

NAYS.—Messrs. Butler, Clay, Evans, Fitzpatrick, Hunter, Johnson, Morton and Walker—8.

The resolutions were then agreed to.

These resolutions relate to worship, burials, &c., and are as direct a rebuke on Romanism as any one could ask.

THE COLLINS APPROPRIATION.—If the accounts from Washington to the New York papers be correct, the President's last veto has not resulted in saving any money to the Treasury for the present. In the Senate, Mr. Seward moved to attach the vetoed bill as an amendment to the naval appropriation bill with no other alteration than the omission of the clause which repealed the right of the United States to terminate the contract of Mr. Collins by giving six months' notice. The amendment was unanimously adopted in the Senate; it is stated that the House concurred and the President signed the bill. In this form, Mr. Collins will receive $858,000 annually for 6 years and be obliged simply to replace the "Arctic" with a new vessel, as was provided in the vetoed bill—but the United States may terminate the arrangement by giving six months' notice.—Boston Adv.

THE TEXAS CREDITORS' BILL SIGNED.—On Thursday the Texas Creditors' bill was returned to the Senate, signed by the President. There goes $7,750,000 to satisfy a claim against Government no more just than those which the President ignored by his veto of the Spoliation bill. Money goes easy enough when it is to be paid to the South.—Boston Journal.

NEW YORK, March 5.—The Sardinian frigate Des Genys, suspected of having a number of criminals on board, arrived below Sandy Hook last night. The Mayor will rigidly investigate the matter before any of the criminals are permitted to land.

A fire occurred in Union street, Brooklyn, yesterday morning, in which two sons of Mr. James Short, named James and Edward, aged 15 and 12 years, were consumed amid the flames. Another son was so badly burned that his life is despaired of.

PHILADELPHA, March 5.—Yesterday morning a female slave belonging to a planter in Louisiana, was taken from a vessel at Newcastle, Del. by the police of this city, and the kidnapper, named R. Warwick, was arrested and has been committed.

The London Morning Advertiser says that "Jenny Lind has entered into an engagement to re-visit England, in her professional capacity. From religious scruples, she has determined never more to appear before the public under any circumstances which could be construed into giving her sanction to theatrical or operatic performances. She has further resolved, that all her future exhibitions before the public, shall partake, more or less, of the character of sacred music; and, with this view, she has, we are informed, stipulated that she shall sing only in Exeter Hall. She is expected here some time in the month of April. Our readers are aware that Jenny Lind is now the mother of two children."

RUSSIAN POLICY.—The Newburyport Herald says, we did not deem the report received by telegraph on Saturday night last, of an autograph letter from the Emperor of Russia to the President of the United States, accompanying documentary evidence of a combination of the European power against the U. States, worthy of notice. It is highly probable that in view of the combination against him, the Emperor of Russia may have addressed a letter to the President, explanatory of his position, and quite naturally, he would allude to the evidence which has been already published far and wide of a determination on the part of England and France, upon the departure of the expedition for Russia, to crush American as well as Russian ambition.

All this, however, is nothing new. There has never been a doubt if the allied powers had succeeded in dictating terms to Russia, as easily and successfully as they anticipated, that they would immediately have turned their hostile demonstrations upon us, and demanded of us concessions and pledges similar to those which they required from Russia, and which would have undoubtedly led to war, because ultimately they would have so involved the controversy that neither party could have retreated without feeling itself liable to charges of disgraceful cowardice. The stubborn resistance of Russia has saved us from this calamity.

The Great Specific of the Age.
OXYGENATED BITTERS!
THE ONLY SURE AND SAFE REMEDY EVER DISCOVERED
For the cure of
DYSPEPSIA,
IN ALL ITS VARIOUS FORMS,
As well as Liver Diseases, Fever and Ague, Billious Complaints, Bronchitis, General Debility, and all diseases of a kindred nature.

We add the following testimony from Dr. Henry E. Morrell, a skillful physician of N. Y. city. He says:—"The most effectual medicine to improve the tone and energy of the stomach is that prepared by Dr. George B. Green, of Windsor, Vt., and called the Oxygenated Bitters."

The Oxygenated Bitters do not contain a particle of alcohol in their composition, and are, of necessity, highly concentrated, to prevent the injurious action of the temperature of different climates. Each bottle, when diluted according to the directions, makes nearly half a gallon of medicine, as pleasant to the taste as lemonade; and as to quantity, quite the CHEAPEST MEDICINE.

I have employed them in a multitude of cases, and have uniformly found that, when used according to the directions, they gradually, but surely, remove, one by one, the various distressing symptoms which cluster around the confirmed Dyspeptic, restore the stomach to its lost energies, and thus lead the patient back to the enjoyment of permanent health and strength.

It has also been used by the following persons, and received their unqualified approbation:—
Prof. A. A. Hayes, M. D., State Assayer, Boston
Prof. E. E. Phelps, M. D., of Therapeutics and Materia Medica, Dartmouth College.
Hon. Myron Lawrence, Ex-President of Massachusetts Senate.
Hon. L. H. Arnold, formerly Governor of Rhode Island, now member of Congress.
Hon. J. F. Simmons, U. S. Senator from R. I
Hon. Samuel S. Phelps, U. S. Senator from Vt.

IMPORTANT IMPROVEMENT
—IN—
Rotary Planing, Tonguing and Grooving Machines.
PATENTED NOVEMBER 21st, 1854.
THIS Improvement has been thoroughly tested and found to possess just what is necessary to perfect the rotary planer.

My machine will plane very much faster and better than any other now in use. I would particularly call the attention of those in want of machines for nice work, or for planing very thin, cross-grained or knotty material, to these machines, as it is impossible for them to tear or throw out loose knots.

My Clapboard Machine will plane and joint as fast as the clapboards can be put into the machine, and perform the work without sorting them so as to plane with the grain, upon any quality of clapboards, in a very superior manner, without tearing the thin edge.

Applications for rights and machines, or for further particulars, can be made to the Patentee,
JAMES A. WOODBURY.

INFORMATION FOR GEN. HOUSTON.—General Houston, in his recent lecture in this city, on Slavery, stated that a slave had never been know to commit suicide. In the last copy of the New Orleans Delta we received, we find an account of a coroner's inquest held on the body of Sampson Richardson, a negro slave who was advertised to be sold. The verdict was as follows: "Committed suicide by cutting his throat with a razor thereby severing the carotid artery, while in a fit of temporary insanity." The circumstances inducing the suicide were as follows, as stated by the Delta:

"He had deposited $1,200 with some man to purchase himself, and had lost it in consequence of mismanagement on the part of the man he trusted; and so it appears, he became insane. He could read and write, and scattered over his room were papers, in which he had written his ravings about the loss of his $1,200. Before he committed the fatal act, he took his best clothes from an armoire and wrote on a slate a request that he should be buried in them."

The just complaints of the unfortunate "chattel" at being swindled out of $1200, and what is more swindled out of himself, for with the $1200 he could have bought himself, and put down as the "ravings" of an insane man. Not a very logical deduction from the premises. The fact is worthy the attention of Gen. Houston. It would take him longer to prove with such an incident staring him in the face, that the slave is happier and more contented than he would be if free, than it will do lecture himself into the White House.—Boston Journal.

NOTICE TO CABINET MAKERS.

THE Subscriber, wishing to introduce into Portsmouth and vicinity, the use of his
PATENT SELF ACTING
TABLE LEAF SUPPORT,
would ask the attention of Cabinet Makers and others interested to this very desirable improvement in the mode of supporting Table Leaves. It is a substitute for the Fly Rail and Swivel now in use for that purpose.—it is as simple in its construction, as cheap, and much more convenient, requiring no stooping to raise or lower the Leaf.

Wishing to sell exclusive Rights to use them in that vicinity, any letters addressed to me desiring information as to terms, prices, &c., or Circulars and description, will be promptly attended to.

One or more persons could do a good business putting them on from house to house. To such they will be furnished at a discount from the retail price, which is 30 cents per Table. To those owning "Rights" they will be furnished at cost if desired. CHARLES PHELPS,

HERTS BROTHERS, having been many years engaged in the manufacture of Metallic Pens, and during that time, having devoted their unceasing attention to improving and perfecting that useful and necessary article, the result of their unceasing efforts and numerous experiments has been the construction of a Pen on a principle entirely new, combining all the advantages of the elasticity and clearness of the Quill, with six times the durability of the Steel Pen; and thus entirely obviating the only objection that has hitherto existed against the use of Steel Pens.

This Pen will be found an invaluable article in Offices, as they never need wiping, also to Banks and Schools, as they will not spatter nor cut the thinest paper, and are warranted anti-corrosive.

CAUTION.—The universal celebrity of these Pens having induced several disreputable Makers to foist upon the public a spurious imitation, it will please to be observed that each genuine Pen is stamped, "HERTS, BROTHERS' PATENT, 1853," and each box of Genuine Pens will contain a label with a fac-simile of the Manufacturers' name.

DR. J. B. MARCHISI'S
Celebrated Catholicon,
FOR THE
RELIEF & CURE OF SUFFERING FEMALES.

It stands pre-eminent for its curative powers in all the diseases for which it is recommended, usually called

FEMALE COMPLAINTS.

Of these are Prolapsus, or Bearing or Falling of the Womb; FLOOR ALBUS, or Whites; CHRONIC INFLAMMATION OF THE WOMB; INCIDENTAL HEMORRHAGE OF Flooding; PAINFUL, SUPPRESSED, or IRREGULAR MENSTRUATION, &c., with all their accompanying evils. (Cancer excepted) no matter how severe or of how long standing.

Let all interested call and obtain a pamphlet (free) containing ample proof, from the most respectable sources, of the beneficial results of its use; together with letters from highly experienced Physicians, who have used it in their practice, and speak from their own observations.

A WORD TO THE LADIES.

Should any entertain doubts as to the efficacy of the URSINE CATHOLICON, I would respectfully state that I have for many years past, as my friends can well attest, been troubled with the disease for which this medicine is recommended in the worst forms, and that by its use I have been entirely cured, and thus induced to accept an agency, and offer it for the benefit of others.

MRS. S. GAIT, 58 South street, Boston.

I feel it my duty to make it known to the afflicted the virtues of MARCHISI'S URSINE CATHOLICON, which has relieved me of Female Complaints of fifteen years' standing, and of so serious a nature, that latterly my physician suspected Cancer of the Womb. I suffered extremely, and at last was entirely disabled from attending to my usual pursuits. . . . . It has given me more relief than any thing I have ever used for these difficulties. I will take pleasure in giving further details of my case to any lady who will call on me at 67 Mill street.

Deck-Reefing Gear.

By the application of this GEAR, the Topsails of any vessel may be Reefed from the deck with remarkable facility, and carry sail much longer than when rigged in any other way. This Gear can be readily applied to any old rig, and at less expense than any other now in use.

The following is an extract from a letter recently received from Capt. Pickering, of the ship Ocean Rover, of Portsmouth, concerning its merits:—

"It has given me perfect satisfaction, and I have only to regret that it is not applied to all the topsail yards. On the passage to this port, (Charleston, S. C.,) I experienced strong gales from the S. W. and had occasion to use it several times, and on every occasion it worked finely."

NOTICE TO CABINET MAKERS.

THE Subscriber, wishing to introduce into Portsmouth and vicinity, the use of his
PATENT SELF SETTING
TABLE LEAF SUPPORT,
would ask the attention of Cabinet Makers and others interested to this very desirable improvement in the mode of supporting Table Leaves. It is a substitute for the Fly Rail and Swivel now in use for that purpose,—it is as simple in its construction, as cheap, and much more convenient, requiring no stooping to raise or lower the Leaf.

Wishing to sell exclusive Rights to use them in that vicinity, any letters addressed to me desiring information as to terms, prices, &c., or Circulars and description, will be promptly attended to.

One or more persons could do a good business putting them on from house to house. To such they will be furnished at a discount from the retail price, which is 30 cents per Table. To those owning "Rights" they will be furnished at cost if desired. CHARLES PHELPS,.

THURSDAY, MARCH 8, 1855.

THE CUBA PURCHASE.

The Boston Advertiser publishes the Report of Messrs. Buchanan, Mason, and Soule, on the subject of purchasing Cuba.

It appears that the three ministers thought it would be best for the United States to buy Cuba from Spain at an expense not exceeding one hundred and twenty millions of dollars which sum they thought best to offer. The administration thought otherwise; and hence Mr. Soule's recall.

It appears notwithstanding the repeated asseverations that the meeting of Messrs. Buchanan, Mason and Soule on the continent of Europe last summer, was accidental—that they were only journeying for pleasure—the real truth certainly was that they convened by the order of the President, through Mr. Marcy, to discuss the subject of the acquisition of Cuba.

They resolved that Cuba should be obtained by the United States by purchase from Spain.

It is stated in a subsequent part of the document that two-thirds of the sum might be advantageously expended by Spain in the construction of railways and "the remaining forty millions" would go towards liquidating her public debt.

The price proposed by the three ministers of the United States to be paid from our Treasury to Spain was accordingly one hundred and twenty millions of dollars. This enormous sum is the crowning glory of democratic economy!

In another part of the document, after alluding to a million and a half as the maximum revenue of the island, it is remarked that "under no possible circumstances could Cuba yield to Spain one per cent. on the amount which the United States are willing to pay for its acquisition." One per cent. on $120,000,000 would be $1,200,000.

It would appear that the administration at home became frightened at the extravagance of its representatives abroad — hence the change in our foreign policy already chronicled, and the recall of Mr. Soule.

It is not strange that this correspondence, although called for by Congress some time since, was withheld until the last moment of the session. Had it been read before the adjournment, it would have caused an amazement among the members, of which the President and his cabinet could doubtless form some idea.

The three ministers say, in the course of their report:

Cuba in its palmiest days never yielded her Exchequer, after deducting the expenses of its Government, a clear annual income of more than a million and a half of dollars. These expenses have increased to such a degree as to leave a deficit chargeable on the Treasury of Spain to the amount of six hundred thousand dollars.

In a pecuniary point of view, therefore, the Island is an incumbrance, instead of a source of profit to the mother country. Under no probable circumstances can Cuba ever yield to Spain one per cent. on the large amount which the United States are willing to pay for its acquisition.

But Spain is in imminent danger of losing Cuba without remuneration.

Extreme oppression, it is now universally admitted, justifies any people in endeavoring to relieve themselves from the yoke of their oppressors.

The sufferings which the corrupt, arbitrary and unrelenting local administration necessarily entails upon the inhabitants of Cuba, cannot fail to stimulate and keep alive that spirit of resistance and revolution against Spain which has of late years been so often manifested. In this condition of affairs, it is vain to expect that the sympathies of the people of the United States will not be warmly enlisted in favor of their oppressed neighbors.

We know that the President is justly inflexible in his determination to execute the neutrality laws, but should the Cubans themselves rise in revolt against the oppression which they suffer, no human power could prevent citizens of the United States and liberal-minded men of other countries from rushing to their assistance.

Besides, the present is an age of adventure, in which restless and daring spirits abound in every portion of the world. It is not improbable, therefore, that Cuba may be wrested from Spain by a successful revolution, and in that event she will not only lose the Island, but the price which we are now willing to pay for it—a price far beyond what was ever paid by one people to another for any province.

It may also be remarked that the settlement of this vexed question by the cession of Cuba to the United States would forever prevent the dangerous complication between nations to which it may otherwise give birth.

* * * *

As we shall have offered Spain a price for Cuba far beyond its present value, and this shall have been refused, it will then be time to consider the question, does Cuba in the possession of Spain seriously endanger our internal peace and the existence of our cherished Union?

Should this question be answered in the affirmative, then by every law human and divine, we shall be justified in wresting it from Spain, if we possess the power. And this upon the very same principle that would justify an individual in tearing down the burning house of his neighbor if there were no other means of preventing the flames from destroying his own home.

Under such circumstances we ought neither to count the cost nor regard the odds which Spain might enlist against us. We forbear to enter into the question whether the present condition of the Island would justify such a measure. We should, however, be recreant to our duty, be unworthy of our gallant forefathers and commit base treason against our posterity, should we permit Cuba to be Africanized and become a second St. Domingo, with all its attendant horrors to the white race, and suffer the flames to extend to our neighboring shores, seriously to endanger or actually to consume the fair fabric of our Union.

Here, fillibusterism and slavery, especially the latter, stand out openly in every paragraph. Does any reader ask, why these proposals, made by men who were sent out to make them, met with no more favor with the Cabinet at Washington, which sent them out?

We answer, that the elections, all over the country, in the mean time, had turned out to be so unfavorable to slavery, and to the administration too, that the Cabinet wisely considered themselves admonished to "make haste slowly." We can think of no better reason.

☞ Rev. Mr. Huntington, of Boston, it appears, has not been offered an appointment on the Hollis foundation; nor is he appointed to a strictly theological professorship. The appointment will be based on the new Plumer foundation. As an instructor in moral philosophy and "preacher to the College," Mr. Huntington will be placed in immediate connection with the students as their friend, their religious instructor and pastor. His connection with his parish closes next September.

HARPER'S NEW MONTHLY, for March, 1855.—We should have noticed two or three days since, the receipt of this work, from Fetridge & Co., Boston, via J. F. Shores of this city. It opens with an illustrated article on the Darien Expedition. Then come Ancient and Modern Artillery,—an article on Snakes, &c., &c.

The Police Pictures are Punchy and rich,—and so are the anecdotes in the Editor's Drawer.

CHEAP SHIRT MAKING IN NEW YORK.—The recent complaint of a shirt maker in New York, to Mayor Wood, that she had been swindled out of two dollars by her employer, has brought out some interesting facts touching the wages paid to shirt makers in that city. A cotemporary says:

"The standard price is 12 1-2 cents per piece, and the garment must be well made, as it has to undergo a thorough inspection, with bosom and collars—bringing from $1.12 1-2 to $1.25 at retail. The material in these shirts cost probably about 37 1-2 cents, so that the total cost is fifty cents, which leaves a clear profit to the employer of one half at least, for the purchase of the material, the cutting and the sale.

Two of these garments are, no doubt, a full day's work, making the extent of the weekly earnings one dollar and a half. With this miserable pittance many of them have to feed small families, pay house rent, and clothe themselves and children. It is needless to say that it cannot be done, and the consequence is a large amount of misery and destitution."

The case referred to was again before Mayor Wood, on Monday, when the attorney of the defendant promised that the money which had been withheld should be refunded. The Mayor again took occasion to denounce the system as a swindle upon those who were unable to protect themselves. He added that he was determined to break the entire system up, if it took the whole of his time and salary to do so.

Vive le Mayor Wood. He has an ear for all complaints, an eye for rogues, and a scourge for scoundrels.

"Father, how do they know when a man is insane?"

"Well, my son, if a man should seriously propose to sell the moon at public auction, you might conclude that he was insane."

"When that auction comes off, father, the proceeds will be given to the Insane Asylum, wont they?" A.

PAYMASTER'S TRAIN.—Residents along the line of the New York Central railway are once a month treated with a view of a singular train, consisting of one locomotive and a very neatly embellished car. This car is always occupied by one man, Mr. Stevens, paymaster of the road. Once a month he places a huge safe in it, orders out a locomotive, and starts for the West, distributing at the different stations along the line the monthly stipend due the many employees of the company. Though he starts with many thousands of dollars, he invariably returns nearly bankrupt. It is a very general remark among the operatives of the road that Paymaster Stevens's train, though the smallest, is by far the most pleasing in their eyes.—Albany Argus.

A FATAL LEAP.—We learn from the Cleveland Herald that Capt. Andrew Andrews, of Richmond Lake County, Ohio, leaped from the night express train, on the Lake Shore Road, near the Painesville Depot, on Friday last, and was so badly injured that he died on Saturday morning. He said he jumped off to save a half mile's travel to his home. He leaves a wife and three children.

FOR KANSAS. — The Boston Advertiser says, that the first regular spring party for Kansas will leave that city on Tuesday next. The number of this party is limited to two hundred. The price of through tickets to Kanzas city is but thirty seven dollars. Those who have been waiting for an opportunity to journey to the finest region of new country—where land is cheap and labor is valuable—will not fail to observe this announcement.

LOCAL.

OFFICE HOLDERS CANVASSING.

Uncle Toby has often been amused, but never greatly frightened, at the noise and confusion made about office holders interfering in elections. Why should they not interfere? Were they not for the most part put into their places as an approval of their political professions, and a reward for their political action? Does any man cease to have opinions when he takes an office? Must he conceal or deny them? Shall he abstain from voting? Or is there any good reason why he should not then as well as before, use his influence to convert others to his views, or engage them to act with him? The old man says he don't see any reason why custom house officers or any others should not take a part in governmental affairs, any more than why ministers should not. There has been a flood of words poured out against both—but there is no good reason against either.

If the minister neglects his appropriate work, or the custom house officer his—punish him accordingly. But if he does not, his political action is his own business, and nobody's else.

It will not be pretended, we think, that the officers of our custom house neglect their official business. They certainly are not so crowded with it, as to have no time to electioneer. Moreover, they were put into office by this administration, and would be most ungrateful, did they not render it all the lawful aid in their power.

And if Irishmen are to be naturalized, it does not matter much whether they and their papers are prepared at the custom house, the court house, or any other house. Other foreign productions pass through the custom house; why should not they? Neither side of the question, whether our new voters were prepared in the custom house or elsewhere, seems to us of any consequence at all.

If Patrick Rafferty should lecture, and advise his brethren to hurry up their papers, before our foolish laws are amended and made wiser, — we shall not blame him for the advice, nor them for taking it.

Our controversy is with the laws of naturalization and voting. We have long wished to see them amended; and now, as the evil from them has greatly increased, public opinion has risen up to do the work. In doing it they will probably break up all the previous parties: and one of them, now in danger in this State gets in all the new Irish voters that are to be had, to prevent a defeat.

We do not think that in so doing, the men who do this will violate any constitution, law, or compromise. We don't even believe they endanger our glorious Union. We should not be greatly surprised if they lost more votes by the re-action on American voters, than they gain by the accession of so many Irish.

But in attaching any particular blame to them, as officers, Uncle Toby desires to bear no part. They did, (if they did all this,) only what they had a perfectly legal, and to him unquestionable, right to do. The wisdom of the transaction is quite another thing—not here to be now discussed.

WORK AT THE NAVY YARD.

Messrs. Editors:—Understanding that some of the men lately employed at the Navy Yard are about to leave this vicinity to seek work at other places, and having received the following intelligence from a source that may be relied upon, I would give it for their benefit, that they may act advisedly.

In addition to the Franklin, which will be hurried on to completion, the Constitution will arrive about the first of May; upon which ships very extensive repairs will be made, so that more labor will be done at the yard than at any one season before, even should nothing more than the ships Franklin and Constitution be sent here. With these facts before us we would advise the mechanics not to be too hasty in engaging work for a long period.

A FRIEND TO MECHANICS.

NEW CASTLE TOWN MEETING.—On Tuesday last the town officers of New Castle were elected, being, we believe, the only instance in the State where the town officers are chosen before the State election.

Thomas Curtis was elected Town Clerk; and Theodore Frost, John Tarlton and Chandler Martin, Selectmen.

All these were candidates on the K. N. ticket; and they were elected, as we are informed, by about 20 majority over the ticket of the regular democratic party.

"Old Folks" Choir.

A greeably to adjournment, the Old Folks Choir will meet at Exchange Hall on Wednesday Evening, March 14, at half-past 7 o'clock, for Rehearsal of the ancient sacred music, preparatory to the third Concert, to be given during the fourth week of March proximo—in aid of the Howard Benevolent Society. All who took part in the other Concerts, are invited to attend—and any who may not do so, are requested to leave the music books with either of the Committee of Arrangements. [Nath'l T. Moulton, N. L. Folsom, Thos. Norton, John Christie, A Perry,] immediately. Per order.

mch5 7t J. F. PAYSON, Sec.

TROY, March 6.—John A. Griswold, democrat and anti-Nebraska Know Nothing, has been elected Mayor by about 200 majority. The rest of the ticket is in doubt.

The Greatest Medical Discovery of the Age, is

AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS.

They don't help complaints, but they cure them.
One Box has cured Dyspepsia.
Three Boxes have cured the worst cases of Scrofula
Two Boxes have cured Erysipelas.
One Box always cures the Jaundice.
Three Boxes are sure to cleanse the system from Boils—often less than one does it.
Two Boxes have completely cured the worst of ulcers on the leg.
Small doses seldom fail to cure the Piles.
One dose cures the headache arising from a foul stomach.
Strong doses often repeated expel every worm from the body. They should be given to children, who are always more or less afflicted with this scourge.
As a gentle Physic they have no equal.
One Box cures derangement of the Liver.
Half a Box cures a Cold.
They purify the Blood, and thus strike at the foundation of every disease.
As a Dinner Pill there is not their equal in the world.
They are purely vegetable, and can do no harm, but do accomplish an unaccountable amount of good.

CONCORD, N. H., March 6, 3 o'clock.—The People's Anti-Administration Mass Convention is now in session. The two largest halls in the city are filled to overflowing, and several thousand people are in the streets. At least ten thousand people are in attendance. Hon. John P. Hale is speaking at Phœnix Hall, and Hon. Geo. W. Nesmith at Depot Hall. The greatest enthusiasm prevails.

A second despatch from Concord estimates the number of persons present from abroad at six thousand.

In addition to Hon. John P. Hale and Mr. Nesmith, there were present as speakers, ex-Governor Anthony Colby, Jonathan Kittredge, M. W. Tappan, A. H. Cragin, Thos. M. Edwards, A. F. Stevens, and W. H. Gove, Esquires. Seth Webb, jr., Esq., of Boston, was also present and made a speech. So large a political gathering at the Capital of the Granite State has not been known since the enthusiastic days of "Tippecanoe and Tyler too!" The very best feeling and most cordial co-operation existed amongst all present, all opponents of slavery, and the Kanzas-Nebraska fraud; and the opinion is very prevalent that the Administration will be entirely defeated at the approaching election, which takes place next Tuesday. The appearance of the city was very lively, as train after train, from all quarters, arrived, crowded with passengers.

THE NEW YORK ACADEMY OF MUSIC.—We learn from the N. Y. Evening Post that Ole Bull has withdawn from the opera, which has been in operation for some time past, at the New York Academy of Music. Ole Bull, Maretzek and Strakosch were supposed to have been the originators and managers of the opera; but it is now understood that Ole Bull, who was thought to be the head and front of the concern, disclaims all responsibility for the financial management of the affair, and says that the capital was to be furnished by certain gentlemen, and that Max Maretzek was to be be musical director, he himself contributing his name and efforts to the scheme. This withdrawal, as might have been expected, created quite a sensation among the numerous artists and chorus singers whose salaries were unpaid, and on Monday morning, as soon as the tidings were spread, there was so much confusion at the Academy, so many threats and demonstrations of violence, and so many gesticulations and vociferations in German, Italian, French and broken English, that the police were called in to keep the dissatisfied singers in order.

FIRE PREVENTED BY A YOUNGSTER.—On Monday evening the residence of Wm. Barnicoat, Esq., Ex-Chief Engineer of the Fire Department, 372 Tremont st, Boston, was saved from serious damage, if not total loss by fire through the instrumentality of his little grandson George, about three years old. The little fellow has been put to bed for the night, and had been absent but a few minutes, when he returned to the room in which Capt. Barnicoat and family were seated, and in a hurried manner exclaimed, "Gan pa, Dordy fraid to sleep in dat room! room burn up, Gan pa." Captain Barnicoat instantly hastened to the room and found one of the window curtains on fire and in a blaze. With his accustomed and well known coolness, he managed to extinguish the fire, but not until the sash and casing of the window was considerably charred. It appears that the servant girl, who put "Dordy" to bed, accidentally set the curtain on fire from her lamp, and left the chamber without perceiving the fact.

NEW YORK, March 9.—The agent of the California steamers, via Nicaragua, advertises that on and after the 20th of April the sailing of these steamers will be changed to the 5th and 20th of each month, at a reduced fare to suit the times. This is a break up of the present weekly service, and a return to the opposition with the old Panama line.

The Sardinian frigate Des Genys has been discharged by the health officer and came up to the city today. The action of the authorities, in regard to her suspected passengers, has not transpired, but fifty-eight of the sixty three represent themselves as merely political exiles.

RICHMOND, March 6.—The mail agent between Raleigh and Waldon, named McGowan, was attacked yesterday by three men, for a trifling debt he owed. During the melee he was shot by his assailants in the head and body, some half dozen balls lodging in his person. When the cars left, he was supposed to be in a dying condition.

OSWEGO, March 6.—The election which took place to-day was very exciting. The entire Know Nothing vote was thrown for Samuel J. Holley, the soft shell candidate for Mayor. The whig and foreign vote was thrown for Mr. Littlejohn, who is elected by nearly 500 majority. It is reported that the Know Nothings spent $3,000 in hopes of gaining the day. Continual fighting is going on over the city this evening.

AUBURN, Mar. 6.—The election in this city today has resulted in the triumph of the know nothings over the people's ticket. The know nothing candidate for Mayor has about 200 over his opponent. The know nothings are in high glee this evening at the result.

CINCINNATI, March 6.—The municipal election at Newport, Ky., yesterday, resulted in the defeat of the American ticket.

The Indiana legislature have passed the State Bank Bill, and the Free Bank bill, and they are now laws.

The Great Specific of the Age.

OXYGENATED BITTERS!

THE ONLY SURE AND SAFE REMEDY EVER DISCOVERED For the cure of

DYSPEPSIA,

IN ALL ITS VARIOUS FORMS, As well as Liver Diseases, Fever and Ague, Bilious Complaints, Bronchitis, General Debility, and all diseases of a kindred nature.

Read the following testimony from Dr. Henry E. Morrell, a skillful physician of N. Y. city. He says:—"The most effectual medicine to improve the tone and energy of the stomach is that prepared by Dr. George B. Green, of Windsor, Vt., and called the Oxygenated Bitters."

The Oxygenated Bitters do not contain a particle of alcohol in their composition, and are, of necessity, highly concentrated, to prevent the injurious action of the temperature of different climates. Each bottle, when diluted according to the directions, makes nearly half a gallon of medicine, as pleasant to the taste as lemonade; and as to quantity, quite the CHEAPEST MEDICINE.

I have employed them in a multitude of cases, and have uniformly found that, when used according to the directions, they gradually, but surely, remove, one by one, the various distressing symptoms which cluster around the confirmed Dyspeptic, restore the stomach to its lost energies, and thus lead the patient back to the enjoyment of permanent health and strength.

It has also been used by the following persons, and received their unqualified approbation:—

Prof. A. A. Hayes, M. D., State Assayer, Boston
Prof. E. E. Phelps, M. D., of Therapeutics and Materia Medica, Dartmouth College.
Hon. Myron Lawrence, Ex-President of Massachusetts Senate.
Hon. I. H. Arnold, formerly Governor of Rhode Island, now member of Congress.
Hon. J. F. Simmons, U. S. Senator from R. I.
Hon. Samuel S. Phelps, U. S. Senator from Vt.
Hon. Wm. Upham, U. S. Senator from Vt.
Hon. Solomon Foote, Member of Cong. from Vt.
Hon. H. D. Foster, Member of Cong. from Pa.

IMPORTANT IMPROVEMENT

—IN—

Rotary Planing, Tonguing and Grooving Machines.

PATENTED NOVEMBER 21st, 1854.

THIS Improvement has been thoroughly tested and found to possess just what is necessary to perfect the rotary planer.

My machine will plane very much faster and better than any other now in use. I would particularly call the attention of those in want of machines for nice work, or for planing very thin, cross-grained or knotty material, to these machines, as it is impossible for them to tear or throw out loose knots.

My Clapboard Machine will plane and joint as fast as the clapboards can be put into the machine, and perform the work without sorting them so as to plane with the grain, upon any quality of clap boards, in a very superior manner, without tearing the thin edge.

Applications for rights and machines, or for further particulars, can be made to the Patentee,

JAMES A. WOODBURY.

OLD DOG TRAY.

The morn of life is past, and evening comes at last,
It brings me a dream of a once happy day,
Of merry forms I've seen, upon the village green,
Sporting with my Old Dog Tray.
Cho.—Old Dog Tray 's ever faithful,
Grief cannot drive him away;
He's gentle, he is kind—I'll never, never find
A better friend than Old Dog Tray.

The forms I called my own, have vanished one by one;
The loved ones, the dear ones, have all passed away;
Their happy smiles have flown, their gentle voices gone;
Cho.—Old Dog Tray 's ever faithful, &c.

When thoughts recall the past, his eyes are on me cast,
I know that he feels what my breaking heart would say,
Although he cannot speak, I'll vainly, vainly seek,
A better friend than Old Dog Tray.
Cho.—Old Dog Tray 's ever faithful, &c.

THE GREAT STANDARD REMEDY

FOR ALL PULMONARY DISEASES.

Containing neither Prussic Acid, Tartar Emetic, nor any other deleterious drug. Extensively used, tested and approved in New England, Canada, and the British Provinces during a period of THIRTY YEARS by Eminent Physicians, Clergymen, Professors of Colleges, Theological Seminaries, Scientific and Distinguished Public Men—and, in fact by all classes in the community. See Pamphlets and wrappers containing Certificates, among which are those of Rev. Dr LYMAN BEECHER, Boston, late President of Lane Theological Seminary, Cincinnati, Ohio—Late Rev. Dr. LEONARD WOODS, Abbott Prof. of Theology in Andover Theological Seminary, Mass.—Hon. DANIEL P. THOMPSON, Secretary of State of Vermont.—N. F. WILLIAMS, Esq., formerly Collector of the Port of Baltimore, Md.—Rev. JOSIAH LITCH, Philadelphia,—and many others.

HOW ESTEEMED BY PHYSICIANS.—JOHN A. BERRY, M. D., Saco, Me., says, "During a practice of twenty years, I have seen used all the popular remedies for Coughs, and am well satisfied that your VEGETABLE PULMONARY BALSAM is the best, and I hope will be better known and more generally used."

☞ Beware of Counterfeits and Imitations!!

HERTS BROTHERS, having been many years engaged in the manufacture of Metallic Pens, and during that time, having devoted their unceasing attention to improving and perfecting that useful and necessary article, the result of their unceasing efforts and numerous experiments has been the construction of a Pen on a principle entirely new, combining all the advantages of the elasticity and clearness of the Quill, with six times the durability of the Steel Pen; and thus entirely obviating the only objection that has hitherto existed against the use of Steel Pens.

This Pen will be found an invaluable article in Offices, as they never need wiping, also to Banks and Schools, as they will not spatter nor cut the thinest paper, and are warranted anti-corrosive.

CAUTION.—The universal celebrity of these Pens having induced several disreputable Makers to foist upon the public a spurious imitation, it will please be observed, that genuine Pens are stamped, "HERTS, BROTHERS' PATENT, 1852," and each box of Genuine Pens will contain a label with a fac-simile of the Manufacturers' name.

DR. J. B. MARCHISI'S Celebrated Catholicon,

FOR THE

RELIEF & CURE OF SUFFERING FEMALES.

It stands preeminent for its curative powers in all the diseases for which it is recommended, usually called

FEMALE COMPLAINTS.

Of these are PROLAPSUS UTERI, or Falling of the Womb; FLUOR ALBUS, or Whites; CHRONIC INFLAMMATION OF THE WOMB; INCIDENTAL HEMORRHAGE OF Flooding; PAINFUL, SUPPRESSED, AND IRREGULAR MENSTRUATION, &c., with all their accompanying evils. (Cancer excepted) no matter how severe or of how long standing.

Let all interested call and obtain a pamphlet (free) containing ample proof, from the most respectable source, of the beneficial results of its use; together with letters from highly experienced Physicians, who have used it in their practice, and speak from their own observations.

A WORD TO THE LADIES.

Should any entertain doubts as to the efficacy of the UTERINE CATHOLICON, I would respectfully state that I have for many years past, as my friends can well attest, been troubled with the disease for which this medicine is recommended, in its worst forms, and that by its use I have been entirely cured, and thus induced to accept an agency, and offer it for the benefit of others.

MRS. S. GAIT, 38 South street, Boston.

I feel it my duty to make known to the afflicted the virtues of MARCHISI'S UTERINE CATHOLICON, which has relieved me of Female Complaints of fifteen years' standing, and of so serious a nature, that latterly my physician suspected Cancer of the Womb. I suffered excessively, and was entirely disabled from attending to my usual pursuits. . . . It has given me more relief than any thing I have ever used for these difficulties. I will take pleasure in giving further details of my case to any lady who will call on me at 67 Mill street.

Deck-Reefing Gear.

By the application of this GEAR, the Topsails of any vessel may be Reefed from the deck with remarkable facility, and carry sail much longer than when rigged in any other way. This Gear can be readily applied to any old rig, and at less expense than any other now in use.

The following is an extract from a letter recently received from Capt. Pickering, of the ship Ocean Rover, of Portsmouth, concerning its merits:—

"It has given me perfect satisfaction, and I have only to regret that it is not applied to all the topsail yards. On the passage to this port, (Charleston, S. C.,) I experienced strong gales from the S. W. and had occasion to use it several times, and on every occasion it worked finely."

VIVE LA HUMBUG.—That the excitement about Burns is humbug all round, may be easily seen. We learn that the indefatigable Barnum is after him. In a letter to Hon. D. K. Hitchcock, of the Senate, Mr. Barnum says:

"I see that Burns, the fugitive slave, is bought and is on his way to Boston. I'll give him $500 to go into my Museum five weeks, and there tell his tale to our visitors, provided he don't first appear elsewhere in New York, and also provided he will commence in New York by the 15th of March, and as much sooner as may be."

Brother Barnum has as good a right to make money as the other humbugs, especially if people will worship niggers.—Boston Mail.

The Boston Courier of Monday, devotes three quarters of a column to a notice of Burns, who is not, we believe, to accept Barnum's offer, and says:

"It is a pity that Burns—since he has suffered himself to be lionized at all—did not accept Mr. Barnum's offer of $100 a week for five weeks. That sum would have put him in possession of funds to enable him to commence business which would give him an honest and comfortable livelihood."

Truly, Barnum's offer was not bad, and perhaps Burns would have promoted his own pecuniary interest more, by accepting the offer, than in any other way. But Burns, having been ransomed, not chiefly by persons commonly called abolitionists, has a work to do, in showing up slavery as it is, and in keeping before the people the remembrance of the martial law in Boston, in May, 1854.

We thank the Mail for putting us in mind of the money made by humbugs, especially where Burns is concerned.

The seizure of Burns, under color of a legal process by the United States, as a slave, in Boston, has been a most costly concern, to State, National, and City Treasuries, and the end is not yet.

The Marshal hired the offscouring of the streets of Boston, as a portion of his posse—the Mayor ordered out the Militia—and for these items the Treasury of the United States was bled pretty thoroughly.

A mob broke in the Court House doors, and in the melee somebody killed poor Batchelder, one of the marshal's temporary aids. Lots of men, black and white, have been taken up and examined, but as yet nobody punished, for this riot and murder. These trials cost Suffolk County something, and the State of Massachusetts also.

Now we have a new feature or two, in the beauty of the laws about these matters; Parker, Phillips and others, are to be tried as rioters, in consequence of what they said at a distance. This also costs money.

Besides this, Mr. Ela, a druggist, has a case now pending, against Marshal Freeman, Mayor Smith, and Gen. Edmunds,—in which he calls for large damages.

The soldiers seem to have been somewhat frightened, and not being quite sober, perhaps, they saw double. They saw a passer by, and of course he must be a fanatical abolitionist; he had a bottle, and it must contain vitriol. So they attacked him with force and arms, broke his bottle, spilt his ink, which was all it contained, beat him, and imprisoned him for a short space. For this injury he sues them at the law; and in the middle of a jury trial, the judge takes away the case, sends it up to the full bench, and dismisses the jury.

Judge Loring, for his share in the business, is now assailed by the popular clamor, and the Legislature, at great cost, are hearing arguments for and against his removal.

Now all the conflict and confusion of laws, and all this great waste of money, are for what? Why simply to give back to Colonel Suttle, who showed himself contemptibly mean, a man better than himself, whom he claimed as his slave. No, not this,—for he might have taken the price he set, before the trial closed. It was then to show the majesty of the law! Most majestic; a thousand white men, with arms in their hands and bricks in their hats, set on to catch and carry back into slavery one poor negro who had just fled away from it. Well, they carried him back in the steamer, (we forgot that this cost money,)—and then his master sold him to a negro trader,—and then Brother Grimes bought him back into freedom, and brought him back into New England. Here the people are now trying to free her from the shackles which her own sons have bound about her, in the fugitive act, and other subsequent kindred acts.

Was it to save the Union?—Very likely; and if a greater humbug can be devised than such saving as this,—a greater than Barnum must be the inventor.

Morning Chronicle.

FRIDAY, MARCH 9, 1855.

THE SECEDERS.

A friend, attached to the Democratic party, candid, liberal and kind to others, said to Uncle Toby, "Some say you seem to lean toward the Know Nothings." No, no! said he, they lean towards me, or rather towards my views, often and plainly expressed; they appear to favor my ideas of temperance, liberty, and national policy; but it seems that a great many men in this State, have not only leaned towards, but fallen in among the K. N.'s—and after remaining there several months, finding no office nor reward, have gone out again. The Concord Statesman gives the following account of the matter.

In the New Hampshire Patriot, about fifty men, straight-out Nebraska democrats, publish that they have withdrawn from the Order of K. N. in Concord. No reason whatever is assigned for their withdrawal, and the first thought naturally arising in the minds of Concord men, or any other people that are acquainted with the gentlemen composing the list, is, Why were they in the Order? They are, as a whole, men who do not rashly form new political relations. Some of them have been prominent in the democratic party here for many years, and exceedingly active in all our elections. Most of them sustain relations of close intimacy with the Cabal; and the descent of the ball on the staff of Greenwich Observatory no more exactly denotes that it is 12, meridian, than does a given political movement by those men indicate the opinion of the Concord Clique.

This list, as above stated, contains quite a number of substantial men. Why were they in the Order at all, unless to comply with desires expressed to them by men of much influence in the democratic party? Were they ignorant of the purposes and creed of the Order? Were they caught unawares in a trap? If so, they are not the men of discernment they have been taken to be by their fellow citizens. Have they been overawed in their opinions, and did they become members of the Order against the convictions of their understanding? Whatever be the cause, it is certain they are standing in a position which any voter who has regard for stability of purpose and consistency of action, would not court.

There is peculiar significance in this occurrence. It is the revelation of a material fact. It removes every vestige of doubt, if any doubt remained before this pronunciamento, that these men went into the Order at the suggestion and even through the importunity of the Cabal. The most prominent gentlemen whose names are given, joined the Order at its institution in this city. They were active so long ago as August. In September and October their ardor increased, so far as outsiders could discern; and not a solitary line, according to our recollection, appeared in the Patriot until this winter, and, indeed, until a few weeks ago, manifesting the least repugnance whatever to the Order, or to the position of these gentlemen within its folds.

We have taken very little concern in the matter of secessions from the Order popularly described by the not very complimentary term—'Know Nothings;' but this is a case of such description as should attract to it the careful observance of all the people of New Hampshire. It utterly neutralizes the force of four or five hundred columns of matter directed against the K. N.'s, since it is made certain that so much of the Order as exists at the Capital grew up under the auspices of the New Hampshire Patriot and Concord Clique. This is a circumstance, which, if ever in doubt, is now made clear as sunlight. What force, then, is there in any denunciation the Nebraska papers utter against the "Hindoos?" If they be "midnight assassins," why was the fact unexposed from August, 1854, to Jan., 1855? Why was the Patriot silent as the grave several months—no complaints heard of persecution on account of religious opinion—nothing said of intolerance and bigotry—if such mischief was threatened? But all speculation is useless, and indeed unnecessary. These democrats and thousands of others, went into the Order by the advice of the Cabal, to obtain political control of the new party. The Patriot has unwittingly unveiled the rank hypocrisy of democratic leaders, and unnecessarily exposed some very respectable men to the derision of their fellow citizens.

LAW AND RELIGION.

In the Supreme Court of Massachusetts, in the case affecting the church in Brattle Square, Boston, Judge Bigelow delivered the decision of the Court, to the effect that the house in Court street, in which the minister resides, may be sold, and the proceeds applied to the purchase of another house, to be used for the residence of the minister, in a part of the city more eligible for a private dwelling.

In the case affecting the church in Federal street, (Rev. Dr. Gannett's) Chief Justice Shaw delivered the decision of the Court to the effect that the First Presbyterian Society have no right or interest in the property of the Federal Street Church.

This is right. A more baseless claim was never set up by a pettifogger, than this which has now received its quietus. What was the presbyterian church in Boston, years ago, became by mutation, in later generations, congregational and unitarian.

And now, the presbyterian church in Boston, a new affair, having no connexion with the old, but bearing the same name and having a like creed, coolly come forward to the Court, and say, Give us this meeting-house; it belongs to us. But the Court say, No; you don't own a single brick there.

PRETTY MUCH THE SAME.—"Have you ever broken a horse?" inquired a horse-jockey. "No, not exactly," replied Simon, "but I've broken two or three wagons."

LOCAL.

CORRECTION.—It sometimes happens that in endeavors to correct one error, we make another, worse than the first. We have done something like this, and now hasten to undo it.

A correspondent, X., in Monday's Chronicle, stated that on Saturday, at the Custom House, certain Irishmen had their papers prepared, &c.

Being in the Custom House, in our daily call, on Monday, the collector complained of the paragraph as inaccurate, and wished us to obtain more correct information when we published any such matters. We understood him to deny the statement, and therefore said,

"The Collector of this port informs us, that the Irishmen who were naturalized, were not at the Custom House on Saturday; and that he had nothing to do with the transaction."

This called out our correspondent, "An American," who offers to prove the Irishmen were there.

Now, it appears that the Collector said "No Irishmen were in this office on Saturday; and I [he] had nothing to do" with the naturalization. By this office, he meant merely his own, the Collector's room; and did not intend to deny that the deed was done in the building, and by other officers of the Customs.

We had no intention to misrepresent him; and therefore take this method to correct our error.

It is now certain, that the Irishmen's papers were prepared in the Custom House building, but not in the Collector's office; and that they were prepared and inspected by officers of the customs, but not by the collector.

Editors of the Chronicle:—Gentlemen,—as some of the Custom House and other politicians hereabouts are reporting the story that the handbills announcing a lecture to Irishmen by P. H. Rafferty at the Cameneum on Wednesday evening was a Know Nothing trick, to which I was a party, I desire, through your columns, to state that said Rafferty did engage the Cameneum for that evening for the purpose named, and that he did make to me the statements noticed in a handbill calling the attention of Americans to the lecture. WILLIAM PLAISTED.

In addition to the above, we have seen a letter from Mr. Rafferty, to the Police Justice of this city, desiring him to hold a court for naturalization on Tuesday evening—and enclosing a handbill for Rafferty's lecture. It also requested him, if he could not procure the Court House, to employ a Mr. McCarthy to hire a hall, &c.

The police justice, as our readers know, does not attend to this business;—but the hall was hired, and the bills were posted by an Irish friend of Mr. Rafferty.

☞ There was a meeting at the Temple on Wednesday evening, called by the "Democratic" party in this city. The officers of the meeting were Augustus Jenkins and Sampson B. Lord, Esqs. The speakers were Hon. John S. Wells, Rev. O. A. Williams, and C. L. Woodbury, Esq. The attendance was large, and the proceedings rather animated. Mr. Williams professes to have withdrawn from a K. N. Council at Exeter; and was proceeding, as he said, to expose the Order—which last not suiting a large portion of the auditors, he received rather more hisses than cheers, and finally sat down.

Mr. Wells having lauded the character and conduct of the Germans and Irish in this country, and requested any person having testimony to the contrary, to offer it—Mr. Samuel Wilson, who is said to be a member of the Democratic party and opposed to the Americans, arose and asked some question respecting the migration of the Irishmen to Exeter, to be transformed into Americans. This created quite an explosion, and after a deal of verbal and actual opposition, Mr. Wilson left the hall.

Mr. Woodbury made a few remarks, and the meeting adjourned. The Americans, we are told, regard its influence as in their favor. It is said that hearty cheers were given there for that party.

NEW CASTLE.

Messrs. Editors:—Gentlemen, will you please correct your notice in the Chronicle of to-day, in relation to the election of Town officers at New Castle on the 6th inst. The facts are these:—A Democratic Moderator was chosen, and the Selectmen were chosen without opposition, being the same as last year. There was no feeling of opposition manifested by either party. THOS. O. OLIVER.

March 8, 1854.

We publish the above, to correct the error if there was any.

We did not say a word about the Moderator,—and suppose he was chosen by general consent. But on the Town Clerk there was a contest, as Capt. Oliver himself informs us. The K. N. candidate was Thos. Curtis; against him was run Wm. Vennard, Esq., as a citizens' candidate; but Mr. Curtis went in, as Capt. O. says, and as our informants all say, by about 20 majority. On this officer was the test, we suppose, of strength between the K. N.'s and others.

The only part of our statement denied or corrected by Capt. O. seems to be the contest for Selectmen. He admits, however, that the ticket chosen was run by the K. N.'s,—and does not know how many votes were thrown against it, but he thinks not many. He voted only once, himself, viz., for Moderator.

We have only to add, that our statements were made on the authority of as reliable men as there are in N. or elsewhere;—and to ask the town Clerk to send us, this day, an account of the votes as they were given, if any such account is preserved.

For the Chronicle.

PROSCRIPTION.—Messrs. Editors:—Is it right that persons employed at the Navy Yard, who are suspected of being connected with the order of Know Nothings, should be threatened that unless they sign a printed document which is being circulated among them, that they will be liable to receive their discharge?

These printed applications are addressed to the Councils, asking for dismission from the order. Tee persons who are circulating these papers exercise some authority over the workmen.

I believe it is a fact that no one is allowed to circulate any memorial, petition, &c. without permission from the Commandant. Has his consent been obtained? I do not think the worthy Commandant would tolerate such gross infringement on the rights of those employed at the Yard. If necessary, names can be given. MECHANIC.

☞ The Lecture before the Mercantile Association, on Thursday evening, was by Rev. Henry Giles, on the Humerous Element in Shakspeare's Characters. The lecturer is a Shakspearian enthusiast, and is master of his subject: but the audience were not very enthusiastic in the last half hour of a long lecture, in a cool room becoming cooler.

☞ We learn that the universally popular vocalist, Mrs. E. A. Wentworth, will probably give a concert in this her native city, in the course of a few weeks—accompanied by other distinguished performers, perhaps a tenor singer, a pianist, &c.

BLUE RUIN.—The recent decision of the Supreme Court, in certain liquor cases in Middlesex County, has settled a large number of other cases in that County. They were carried up on exceptions, and the ruling has been against the defendants. The parties will soon be arraigned for sentence.—Boston Mail.

This does not look as if the Massachusetts Law was exactly a dead letter.

AN IRISH YANKEE.—A few days ago, during a criminal trial at Worcester, Mass., a brother of the defendant was called as a witness. He testified that he wrote a certain letter to his brother, but very soon swore that he could not write at all. Upon being questioned in regard to his having written under his direction "by another man." Question by District Attorney—"Who was the man?" Witness—"It was my aunt." This reply, of course, produced a general laugh in Court, and the witness was informed that he might take his seat.

NOVEL MARRIAGE CEREMONY.—A correspondent of the Staunton Spectator states that the Rev. M. Brown of Bath county, Va., married a couple a few days since across the river—that is, the parson was on one side, and the bridegroom and his dulcinea on the other. This mode was resorted to on account of the water being impassable. The license was thrown across the stream by the bridegroom, after having wrapped it tightly around a stone.

RAILROAD ACCIDENT—MAN KILLED.—This forenoon, as the northern freight train approached this city, a man supposed to be L. H. Austin, of Montpelier, Vt., was run over and killed. He was in charge of two car loads of potatoes for Boston.—Lowell Courier.

CINCINNATI March 7.—The Legislature of Indiana has adjourned sine die, without electing an United States Senator or any State Officers, and these cannot be appointed by the Governor.

SIDNEY SMITH'S definition of the Popish Ritual: Posture and imposture, flections and genuflections, bowing to the right, courtesying to the left, and an immense amount of man milinery.

An Irish gentleman, slightly elevated, delivered himself of the following toast at a dinner party:—"Here's wishing ye may never die, nor noboby kill ye, till ye knock yer brains out against the silver knocker on yer own door."—Boston Mail.

The Greatest Medical Discovery of the Age, is

AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS.

They don't help complaints, but they cure them.
One Box has cured Dyspepsia.
Three Boxes have cured the worst cases of Scrofula
Two Boxes have cured Erysipelas.
One Box always cures the Jaundice.
Three Boxes are sure to cleanse the system from Boils—often less than one does it.
Two Boxes have completely cured the worst of ulcers on the leg.
Small doses seldom fail to cure the Piles.
One dose cures the headache arising from a foul stomach.
Strong doses often repeated expel every worm from the body. They should be given to children, who are always more or less afflicted with this scourge.
As a gentle Physic they have no equal.
One Box cures derangement of the Liver.
Half a Box cures a Cold.
They purify the Blood, and thus strike at the foundation of every disease.
As a Dinner Pill there is not their equal in the world.
They are purely vegetable, and can do no harm, but do accomplish an unaccountable amount of good.

Real Estate at Auction.

WILL be sold at Public Auction, on MONDAY, March 19, 1855, the BRICK TAVERN stand situated at EPPING CORNER. Said House is two stories high, and has been built but sixteen years; is in thorough repair, and convenient for a Public House. It also has a STABLE attached to it, 84 feet long and 40 wide. The house has been kept for the last ten years by H. G. O. RUNDLETT, and has a good share of patronage. An excellent chance for a profitable investment, for any one wishing to keep a Public House in the country.
Also, at the same time a lot of WOOD LAND, lying partly in Brentwood and partly in Epping, containing six acres, more or less There is about one hundred cords of wood standing on the same. The growth is mostly hard wood and is only one mile from the Depot of the Portsmouth & Concord Railroad, where there is a ready market for its sale.
Also, at the same time, one lot of TILLAGE LAND lying on the road leading to Chester.—This lot contains about thirty-five acres of land, and would make a good farm for any one wishing to build, as there is a very desirable site on the same for building, and it is situated only about one hundred rods from Epping Corner where there are good schools, three meeting houses, &c.—a good chance for a mechanic to purchase and build. There are two never-failing springs of water on the said lot. The land is in a high state of cultivation, and mostly fenced in by a stone wall. This affords a rare chance for any one to invest, and get a good interest for his money.
Also, at the same time and place, 3 yoke of good working Oxen—one yoke, five years old, 6 ft 9 in. girth; one yoke, 4 years old, girt 6 ft 7 in.; one yoke, 6 years old, girt 7 ft. One Ox-cart nearly new (a good one); 1 Harrow; 1 Plow; 6 Chains; 40 feet cable Chain; 3 ox Yokes, 2 Cows, 7 single Harnesses; 4 sets double harnesses, brass mounted; 4 stage do. brass mounted; 1 Stage Coach (9 passenger); 1 Chaise and Harness, (nearly new); 2 Concord Wagons; 1 two-seated Waggon, 1 top-Buggy and Harness, 4 Butcher's Carts (2 of them new and built by Abbott of Concord), 4 single Sleighs, 1 Butcher's Sleight (new), 1 Pung Sleigh, 2 new ox-Sleds, 1 Trotting Gig, 6 Buffalo Robes, 1 Job Wagon (iron axle), 5 Shoats, 100 cords Manure now under shelter.
Also, 4 good Horses—one of them a valuable Stud Horse, called the "Young Messenger," and is the best Stock horse in the State, as his stock will show for itself.
Also various other articles too numerous to mention.
All the above named property will be sold to the highest bidder and without reserve.
Terms made known at the sale. The property can be examined at any time before the sale by calling on the subscriber on the premises.
H. G. O. RUNDLETT.
Epping, March 8. A. F. YORKE, Auct.

MR. SOULE AT WASHINGTON.—The Courrier des Etats Unis thus speaks of Mr. Soule's appearance in the Representatives' Chamber at Washington :—

"It excited but a very rapid movement of attention. The ex-Senatar from Louisiana was received by his colleagues with the courtesy due to his merits, but not with the decided emotion which might have been expected. If moreover, Mr. Soule has in this respect been met with a greater reserve than might have been expected, he has on his side shown toward the President and Cabinet a very dignified coolness. His interview with Mr. Marcy appears to have been icy, and he refused to accept an invitation to dinner offered him by General Pierce. This attitude is easily understood and is perfectly legitimate. We have never approved of Mr. Soule's mission to Spain, but we understand the sentiments he must have experienced on seeing himself abandoned by those who had encouraged his policy, and on whose support he had thought he might depend till the last.

"Another important incident of the last hours of the session, and indirectly associated with the name of Mr. Soule and his diplomatic course, was the communication to Congress of a part of the documents relative to the conference of Ostend. If they had been a little sooner laid before the House what storms would have burst from this bundle of papers! Perhaps, however, it is only deferred, and the 34th Congress holds in reserve for us, in its debates, the tempests that the abrupt ending of the 33d has spared us."

THE NEW POSTAGE BILL.—The bill for the better regulation of our postal affairs, which has passed Congress during the last session, provides that after the commencement of the next fiscal quarter, the postage of all letters not exceeding a half ounce in weight, shall be three cents for any distance not exceeding three thousand miles; and ten cents for a greater distance. An additional rate of postage will be charged for every additional half ounce in weight. Upon all letters passing through or in the mail of the United States, excepting such as are to or from a foreign country, the postage is to be prepaid, except from letters and packages addressed to officers of the government on official business, which shall be so marked on the envelope.—Drop letters, or letters placed in the office for delivery only, and not for transmission through the mail, are to be charged as heretofore, one cent each, and letters which have been advertised as uncalled for, are to be charged with one cent each in addition to the regular postage. Any postmaster, or other person who sells postage stamps for a larger sum than that indicated on their face, is, upon conviction, to be fined not less than ten, nor more than five hundred dollars.

The postage bill, in order to afford greater security to valuable letters, also authorizes the Postmaster General to establish a uniform plan for the registration of such letters, on application of the parties posting them—requiring therefor, in every case, the payment of a registration fee of five cents—provided, however, that such registration shall not be compulsory, and it shall not render the post office department, or its revenue, liable for the loss of such letters or packets, or the contents thereof.

THE JUDSON LIBEL CASE.—This interesting trial, as has been stated by telegraph, was brought to a conclusion on Friday. At the opening of the Court on that day, Mr. O'Connor commenced to sum up the case for the defendant. He detailed the straightened circumstances of the widow, analyzed the motives which had induced the plaintiff to undertake the publication of his work, and contended that the imputation contained in the libellous article, that the publication of the plaintiff's work was a dishonorable attempt to deprive Mrs. Judson and those dependent upon her of the means of support, had been fully sustained by the evidence.

Mr. Willard, on the part of the plaintiff, dwelt particularly upon the difference between the two works published by Dr. Wayland and by Mr. Fletcher, and on the fact that Mr. Fletcher's work was better calculated to meet the wants of a large portion of the public. He commented also in severe terms upon what he considered to be the motives of the defendants in producing as evidence the correspondence between the plaintiff and Mrs. Judson.

The Judge, in charging the jury, briefly reviewed the case. He said that Dr. Wayland had no exclusive right to write a memoir of Dr. Judson. There was no doubt, however, that Mrs. Judson was necessitous, and as to Dr. Wayland's comments (the libellous paragraph published in Norton's paper) it was for the jury to decide whether or not it was justified by the evidence. If a man did act ungenerously, particularly towards a widow, he must submit to imputations of the character contained in the paragraph. The jury retired, and after the lapse of a few minutes returned a verdict for the defendant.—Boston Journal.

The Great Specific of the Age.

OXYGENATED BITTERS!

THE ONLY SURE AND SAFE REMEDY EVER DISCOVERED For the cure of

DYSPEPSIA,

IN ALL ITS VARIOUS FORMS, AS well as Liver Diseases, Fever and Ague, Billious Complaints, Bronchitis, General Debility, and all diseases of a kindred nature.

Read the following testimony from Dr. Henry E. Morrell, a skillful physician of N. Y. city. He says:—"The most effectual medicine to improve the tone and energy of the stomach is that prepared by Dr. George B. Green, of Windsor, Vt., and called the Oxygenated Bitters."

The Oxygenated Bitters do not contain a particle of alcohol in their composition, and are, of necessity, highly concentrated, to prevent the injurious action of the temperature of different climates. Each bottle, when diluted according to the directions, makes nearly half a gallon of medicine, as pleasant to the taste as lemonade; and as to quantity, quite the cheapest medicine.

I have employed them in a multitude of cases, and have uniformly found that, when used according to the directions, they gradually, but surely, remove, one by one, the various distressing symptoms which cluster around the confirmed Dyspeptic, restore the stomach to its lost energies, and thus lead the patient back to the enjoyment of permanent health and strength.

It has also been used by the following persons, and received their unqualified approbation:—

Prof. A. A. Hayes, M. D., State Assayer, Boston
Philip. M. Wright, M. D., of Therapeutics and Materia Medica, Dartmouth College.
Hon. Myron Lawrence, Ex-President of Massachusetts Senate.
Hon. L. H. Arnold, formerly Governor of Rhode Island, now Member of Congress.

DEATH OF AN INDIAN.—The venerable Indian of the Penobscot tribe, whose annual visits to this city have been marked by many citizens, was found drowned yesterday morning, near South Boston bridge, and his body was removed to the House of Reception in North Grove street. The name of the deceased is believed to have been ——— Low, and he was generally known and recognized from the fact of his limping manner of locomotion, owing to a crooked and stiff knee joint.—Boston Journal, Monday.

ASA BEMENT, Esq., a wealthy citizen of New London, Ct., (a native of Stockbridge, Mass.,) died very suddenly, 27th ult., while on the stage coming from Stockbridge to Pittsfield. Mr. B. was on the driver's seat, and had been amusing himself with driving. When within three miles of Pittsfield he relinquished the reins, and in a few moments his head dropped upon his breast. He was immediately taken inside the stage, and all haste made for the village, but before reaching the hotel, he died, having gasped but once.

AMERICAN AND FOREIGN OFFICE.
Agency for business with US Patent Office, Washington,
76 State st., opposite Kilby, Boston.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION TO INVENTORS. The Subscriber (late Agent of the U. S. Patent Office, under the Act of 1837) determined to present advantages, in applying for Patents, superior to those offered by others, has made arrangements whereby on applications prepared and conducted by him, THIRTY DOLLARS (instead of twenty, as paid back by others,) will be remitted by him in case of failure to obtain a patent, and the usual fee charged only within thirty days after the rejection. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments and all necessary papers and drawings, for procuring patents in this and foreign countries prepared, and advice rendered on legal and scientific matters respecting inventions, and infringement of patents.

Inventors can not only here obtain their specifications on the most reasonable terms, but can have avail themselves of the experience of 20 years' practice, and extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and correct accounts of patents granted in this and other countries: besides being saved a journey to Washington, the usual great delay there as well as all personal trouble in obtaining their papers. Copies of claims of any patent furnished by remitting one dollar.—Assignments recorded at Washington.

R. H. EDDY.

"During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, did business at the Patent Office, as Solicitor of Patents. There were few, if any persons acting in that capacity, who had so much business before the Patent Office; and there were none who conducted it with more skill, fidelity, and success. I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the best informed and most skillful Patent Solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a more competent, faithful and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents."

THE GREAT STANDARD REMEDY
FOR ALL PULMONARY DISEASES.

Containing neither Prussic Acid, Tartar Emetic, nor any other deleterious drug. It is extensively used, tested and approved in New England, Canada, and the British Provinces during a period of THIRTY YEARS by Eminent Physicians, Surgeons, Professors of Colleges, Theological Seminaries, Scientific and Distinguished Public Men,—and, in fact by all classes in the community. See Pamphlets and wrappers containing Certificates, among which are those of Rev. Dr LYMAN BEECHER, Boston, late President of Lane Theological Seminary, Cincinnati, Ohio.—Late Rev. Dr. LEONARD WOODS, Abbott Prof. of Theology in Andover Theological Seminary, Mass.—Hon. DANIEL P. THOMPSON, Secretary of State of Vermont.—N. F. WILLIAMS, Esq., formerly Collector of the Port of Baltimore, Md.—Rev. JOSIAH LEECH, Philadelphia,—and many others.

HOW EXTENSIVE IS PATRONAGE.—JOHN A. BERRY, M. D., Saco, Me., says, "During a practice of twenty years, I have seen used all the popular remedies for Coughs, and am well satisfied that your VEGETABLE PULMONARY BALSAM is best, and I hope will be better known and more generally used."

HERTS BROTHERS'
AMALGAMATED IRIDIUM ZINC & PLATINA
PENS,
WARRANTED NOT TO CORRODE.

HERTS BROTHERS, having been many years engaged in the manufacture of Metallic Pens, and during that time, having devoted their unceasing attention to improving and perfecting that useful and necessary article, the result of their unceasing efforts and numerous experiments has been the construction of a Pen on a principle entirely new, combining all the advantages of the elasticity and clearness of the Quill, with at times the durability of the Steel Pen; and thus entirely obviating the only objection that has hitherto existed against the use of Steel Pens.

This Pen will be found an invaluable article in Offices, as they never need wiping, also to Ministers and Schools, as they will not spatter nor cut the thinest paper, and are warranted anti-corrosive.

CAUTION.—The universal celebrity of these Pens having induced several disreputable Makers to foist upon the public a spurious imitation, it will please to be observed that each genuine Pen is stamped, "HERTS BROTHERS' PATENT, 1853," and each box of Genuine Pens will contain a label with a fac-simile of the Manufacturers' name.

DR. J. B. MARCHISI'S
Celebrated Catholicon,
FOR THE
RELIEF & CURE OF SUFFERING FEMALES.

It stands pre-eminent for its curative powers in all the diseases for which it is recommended, usually called

FEMALE COMPLAINTS.

Of these are PROLAPSUS UTERI, or Falling of the Womb: FLOOR ALBUS, or Whites: CHRONIC INFLAMMATION OF THE WOMB; INCIDENTAL HEMORRAGE or Flooding; PAINFUL MENSTRUATION, AND IRREGULAR MENSTRUATION, &c., with all their accompanying evils. (Cancer excepted) no matter how severe or of how long standing.

Let all interested call and obtain a pamphlet (free) containing simple proof, from the most respectable sources, of the beneficial results of its use; together with letters from highly experienced Physicians, who have used it in their practice, and speak from their own observations.

A WORD TO THE LADIES.

Should any entertain doubts as to the efficacy of the UTERINE CATHOLICON, I would respectfully state that I have for many years past, as my friends can well attest, been troubled with the disease for which this medicine is recommended, in all its forms, and that by its use I have been entirely cured, and thus induced to accept an agency, and offer it for the benefit of others.

MRS. S. GAIT, 89 South street, Boston.

I feel it my duty to make known to the public the virtues of MARCHISI'S UTERINE CATHOLICON, which has relieved me of Female Complaints of fifteen years' standing, and of so serious a nature, that latterly my physician suspected Cancer of the Womb. I suffered extremely, and at last was entirely disabled from attending to my usual pursuits. . . . . It has given me more relief than any thing I have ever used for these difficulties. I will take pleasure in giving further details of my case to any lady who will call on me at 67 Mill street.

MORNING CHRONICLE.

BY MILLERS & GRAY. PORTSMOUTH, N. H., SATURDAY, MARCH 10, 1855. VOLUME 6. NO. 33.

THE DAILY MORNING CHRONICLE

FRANK W. MILLER, SAMUEL GRAY, & THOS. W. MILLER,

At No. 4 Exchange Buildings,

Pleasant Street,.....PORTSMOUTH, N. H.

TERMS $4 a year, or $3 if paid strictly in advance.

[The Weekly Chronicle,

A family newspaper, containing the news of the week, with carefully selected miscellany, &c., is published as above, every Saturday morning.

TERMS $1 a year, in advance. Delivered on any railroad or stage route leading from Portsmouth, free of expense to subscribers. Postage in Rockingham County, free.

ADVERTISING.

For a Square (sixteen lines nonpareil) or less, one insertion 50 cts., three insertions $1, and liberal terms for continuance.

Yearly, quarterly or monthly advertisers liberally accommodated.

Unless otherwise ordered, all advertisements inserted in the Daily, also receive two or three insertions in the Weekly Chronicle, without extra charge.

Both papers having large circulation in Portsmouth, Kittery, New Castle, Greenland, Epping; on the Eastern and the Portsmouth & Concord Railroads, &c., renders the Chronicle an excellent advertising medium.

☞ Obituary Communications charged as advertisements. Notices of Funerals, 25 cts. each. Advertisements of articles lost, 25 cents if not found, 50 cts. if found.

☞ All accounts settled semi-annually.

JOB AND CARD PRINTING promptly executed.

V. B. Palmer, American Newspaper Agent, is the only authorized agent for this paper in the cities of Boston, New York and Philadelphia; and is duly empowered to take advertisements and subscriptions at the same rates as required by us. His receipts will be regarded as payments.

MECHANICS' WIVES. — Speaking of the middle rank of life, a good writer observes:—"There we behold woman in all her glory; not a doll to carry silk or jewels; not a puppet to be flattered by profane adoration—reverenced to-day, discarded to-morrow—always jostled out of the place which nature has assigned her by sensuality or by contempt—admired, but not respected—desired, but not esteemed—ruled by passion, not affection—imparting her weakness, not her constancy, to the sex she could exalt, the source and mirror of vanity; we see her a wife, partaking the care and cheering the anxiety of a husband, dividing the toils, and by her diligence spreading cheer around her; for his sake, sharing the decent refinements of the world without being vain of them, placing all her joys and happiness in the man she loves. As a mother, we find her an affectionate and ardent instructor of her children whom she has tended from their infancy, training them to thought and benevolence, addressing them as rational beings, preparing them to become men and women in their turn. Mechanics' daughters become the best wives in the world."

This is a beautiful picture of a good woman; and a true picture of one that is almost good for nothing. But if any man is foolish enough to fancy that either of these characters are confined to one condition or occupation in community, and to act accordingly,—he will wake up some fine morning to find himself on the stool of repentance.

IMPRISONMENT FOR DEBT.—The members of the present Legislature are undoubtedly favorable to the abolition of the grab law. We will take the liberty to say that nothing short of an entire, absolute, and unqualified repeal and recission of this law will accomplish the least good. "The cases of fraud," where imprisonment for debt is to be still allowed, must be very carefully defined and comprehended within the strictest limits—there must be no loose, indefinite enactment, which sharp legal practitioners can manufacture into a slip-not and lasso whenever a creditor becomes bilious and savage; for in that case, if a man happens to owe five or ten dollars, instead of being consigned to the debtor's apartment of a jail, he will find himself peering through the grates of a cell, his board paid by the public and not by the creditor, as it now is. In fact, if these "cases of fraud" are not defined beyond the possibility of a doubt or ambiguous construction, so that the keenest Quirk can find no legal means to gratify the malice of a Shylockian creditor, it will be better to let the law, in this regard, remain as it is. Because, where a mere civil process is now resorted to, after the repeal, a criminal one, with a decided snapper to it, will be called into requisition by malice and avarice.—Boston Chronicle.

This is sound doctrine. The present law, in Massachusetts, on this subject,—is an exceedingly oppressive and mean law, though much better than the old. We trust they will now make a good one.

A NOVEL WAY OF GIVING SATISFACTION. A good story, not related in Sabine's "Notes on Duelling," is told of Incledon, the ballad singer, who was apt, on some occasions, to give offence by his brusque and almost rude deportment. Being called on by a person for satisfaction for an affront—probably unintended by Incledon—he found him at breakfast. Having heard his business, Incledon took a posture and executed "Black-eyed Susan" in his unequalled style. "There," said he to his auditor, who stood breathless with surprise and admiration, "if that does not satisfy you, you are the most unreasonable fellow I ever met with, for it has given complete satisfaction to several thousands."

Incledon was a noble singer and a clever fellow, both in the English and Yankee senses of the word. His notes, as they gushed out at the windows of the Masonic Hall in Newburyport, in the summer of 1818, will linger in our thought, and are readily reproduced to the ear.

GREAT SOUL BETTER THAN GREAT FISTS. If you have an enemy and knock him down with your fists, he is a worse enemy than before; if you hate him, he will hate you in return; if you injure him in any way, you injure yourself more; but if you are kind to him and conquer him by love, you destroy an enemy and make a friend. If there is a boy in school with a club foot don't let him know you ever saw it. If there is one who has a drunken father, don't reproach him of it. If there is a lame boy, give him some place in the play that will not require running. If there is a dull one, help him get his lessons. If he reproaches you, speak kindly to him. In every thing and every where show that a great soul is superior to all meanness and stronger than all enmity.

Morning Chronicle.

SATURDAY, MARCH 10, 1855.

CATHOLIC INFALLIBILITY.

The Portsmouth Chronicle cannot get out of the dilemma of telling untruths, by any questions put to individuals. Let him consult our books of authority, and from them he will learn Catholic doctrine. We have sent the man of the Chronicle a Catechism for his guidance in future. Let him tell the truth—This is all we want.—Boston Pilot.

We see no dilemma; there is only one horn, viz. a charge of falsehood. We repelled that charge, not by our questions, but by the answers of an intelligent and excellent member of the Roman Church, showing that certain fasts must be kept, not from any conviction of utility or benefit, but merely to comply with a church rule. This we call a surrender of the conscience into the keeping of the priesthood. We also repelled the charge by mentioning the burning of John Rogers and others, by the sainted Queen Mary of England, called by some protestants Bloody Mary—as an instance in which a Romanist burnt his brother at priestly dictation.

Unless we greatly mistake the meaning of Bronson, the Pilot, Bp. Hughes and Bp. Ives, the Roman Church does not allow to individuals the right of private judgment in matters of religion. This, to us, covers the whole ground. It gives the conscience, or what the Quakers call the Light Within, no play.

Not only so; in the Catechism, (for which we think thank the Pilot, though we have examined the book before,)—we find in Chap. 5 the question, Are we bound to obey the commandments of the Church? Answer, Yes. The 2d of these commandments relates to Fasts.

In Chapter 2, we read this question, Can the Church err in what she teaches? Answer, No; she cannot err in matters of faith.

In Chap. 3 of the 2d part—Question, What is absolution? Answer, It is the remission of our sins which the priest imparts, in virtue of the power he has received from Christ.

Quest.—Who are the Priests that can exercise this power? Ans. Those only, who are appointed by the Bishop.

Now these extracts show, 1st, that the member of the Roman Church gives up his conscience to the church, i. e. the priests; 2d, that he must count the church, i. e. the collective body of priests, infallible, free from error; and 3d, that he must believe that certain approved priests can remit his sins.

If these extracts do not bear out our statements, then we do not understand what conscience, or the right of private judgment, means.

FOREIGN VOTERS.

Messrs. Editors:—These few days I have heard many persons inveighing, in strong language, against foreigners, for the part they are taking in politics; and I cannot help thinking how unjust this is. The part that foreigners take in politics, whatever it may be, is only such as Americans have allowed them to take—yes, and incited them to take. If left to themselves, they would seldom think of politics—having plenty of work, good food at reasonable prices, and a resort to the charities of the town, in case of destitution—advantages unknown in Europe, and with the blessings of which they are evidently impressed, by their flocking here in such numbers.

Escaped from the oppression of his home, the foreigner, on arriving here, asks only freedom and food; and would not give a thought to the government that dispensed these blessings, were he not solicited to turn his mind that way—by whom? by American citizens, who, unwilling to trust the decisions of political questions to American born men, desire to give weight to their side by calling in the dead, unthinking weight of the so called foreign vote.

No matter which side does this, it is a crime. These men, born under a despotism, have no knowledge of our institutions; and their vote (no matter how long they may have resided among us) is a dead vote. In their own country they have shown themselves, and are at this present time showing themselves, wholly incapable of self government. No people of the Catholic religion have ever enjoyed, for a length of time, a good government, as any one may see by consulting history. Look at Ireland, France, Austria, Spain, Italy, &c. Can these men, who cannot govern themselves at home, be of any assistance to us in carrying on our government? Our institutions are admitted by all, to rest only on the bible and common schools. What good, then, can the vote of an ignorant foreigner do us? one who has never read the bible? Their ignorance is such, that they suffer themselves to be led by the advice of designing priests, in regard to which side to vote on.

If this evil is neglected till the weight of the foreign vote is sufficient to turn the scale, then Americans will rise up, as one man, and resort to deeds of blood, to restore the equilibrium. Why is it not wiser to nip the evil in the bud, when we can do it—not by the sword—but by the ballot box?

If all Americans will vote in favor of abolishing the naturalization laws, they will do a good deed to the American nation. They will be at once preventing an immense deal of bribery and corruption, and making the ballot box tell the real American feeling.

Suppose foreigners could not vote, they could in no way endanger our institutions, and even the catholic religion would be rendered comparatively harmless. Nay we should even welcome the oppressed to our free shores, and their sons would have like rights with our sons.

JUSTICE TO ALL.

[Correspondence of the Boston Bee.]

MARBLEHEAD, March 6, 1855.

Mr. Editor:—The election in this town passed off quietly yesterday, (the legality of which is doubtful, no check list being used, nor was the Moderator sworn as usual,) the result of which was the election of the Citizens ticket by from 2 to 7 majority over the "Independent American Ticket." "Sam," I am informed, declined nominating his sons, but preferred that the near relatives should make the nominations.

The most amusing part of the proceedings was the vote of the town, "to distribute the liquor (spiritous) in the hands of the agents, equally among the legal voters of the town."

It is the intention of the Committee to perform that duty at the adjourned meeting, Saturday, March 17. Bring your tumbler.

SAM'S COUSIN.

This appears to be a rum victory—and of course leaves no place in Marblehead where liquors are sold legally, for any purpose.

HOW IS IT?—The Independent Democrat of March 8, contradicts the Patriot's statement, about Mr. Metcalf's being "Slave Commissioner," and says,

Mr. M. is not and never was a Commissioner. If true, it were a matter of no consequence. Charles Sumner, Freedom's eloquent Senator, holds the office, and is ready to discharge the first and last slave brought before him. But Mr. Metcalf, we repeat, does not now and never did hold it; having never qualified himself by taking the requisite oath.

☞ Fetridge & Co. Boston, have sent us, via J. F. Shores, Jr. of this city, a neat and well printed volume, entitled Harvestings, or Sketches in Prose and Verse, by Sybil Hastings. The pieces are eighteen in number.

We have read one of the first, viz. The Quaitcast and the Heiress, and find it a romance of great power and beauty; as is also the last, entitled Thread drawn from Life, an Autobiography. Such a book of short, spirited, beautiful tales, must be popular.

☞ By the new Postage Law all letters are to be prepaid after the 1st of July next.—After Jan. 1, 1856, the Post Master General may require the Post Masters to affix stamps to letters which are not stamped by the person sending the.

On letters to be transported more than 3000 miles, the rate has been advanced from 6 to 10 cents.

POLITICS.—An independent correspondent thinks that the American party has so befogged the old line politicians, that they don't know just what they are about. He is put in mind of an old skipper, who hailed a craft that he could hear better than see, through the fog, with "Ship ahoy! what barque is that? where's that brig from? where's that schooner bound?" Our correspondent says the editors seem very doubtful about the Know Nothings, and are continually changing their point of attack, in order that if one shot misses, some other may hit.

SUDDEN DEATH.—The Biddeford Union states that Joseph Leavitt, of Saco, died in a Bowling saloon on Hill street, Biddeford, last Saturday. Leavitt was drunk, and in a dispute clenched with a young man, and both fell to the floor, when L. faltered, and presently died. He was 35 years old, and leaves a wife and two children. "A Citizen" calls for the thorough enforcement of the Maine Law.

CHARLESTOWN.—About 20 of the workmen in the Navy Yard, at work on the steam frigate "Merrimac," belonging to the shipwrights department are called "rimmers," whose labor precedes that of the caulkers in the preparation of a vessel for service, struck on Wednesday. Their present wages is $1.75. They demand $2.25. Their demand was not acceded to by the Commodore. In consequence of the strike, the caulkers, about fifty in number, are idle.

In Sardinia, within a month the King has lost, mother, wife and brother,—an awful cumulative misfortune, which the majority of his subjects are likely to deem a judgment of God for the attempted suppression of monastic institutions and sale of ecclesiastical estates, in condemnation of which the Holy See has fulminated. The population of the whole kingdom of Sardinia is about five millions; the Protestants —mostly Waldenses,—do not exceed twenty-two thousand, nor the Jews eight thousand. The Catholic clergy of every description are numerous, the people still devout.—Newburyport Herald.

SCARCITY OF FODDER.—Cattle are dying in many parts of Ohio for want of food. The Cleveland Herald says the destitution of fodder is greater than it has been for many winters, and everywhere the loss of cattle in consequence is severely felt.

THE OLD FOLKS' CONCERT.

FREETOWN, MASS., March 6, 1855.

Messrs. Editors:—I observed in a late number of the Chronicle, that the "Old Folks" are to give a Concert for the benefit of the Poor That is a fine idea. I thought so much of it that I could not find how to keep still. I sung over the Anthem, "Blessed is he that considereth the poor," &c., on the 225th page of the Ancient Harmony Revived, and noted two errors of ommission, in the words. One is at the close of page 226,—where there are no words printed,—there should be the words "Follow after Charity." At the close of page 227, where the words are, "shall strengthen him on a bed of languishing," it should read, "shall strengthen him upon a bed of languishing." It is necessary for the measure. Well, I presume the "Old Folks" will sing it.

I then took up another of the sweet productions of Billings: the tune named Raleigh, on page 260 of the same book. As I sung this over, Bass, Tenor, Treble, I could not help coveting a poet's pen to produce a piece to sing to that tune. If I could have had the head of him who wrote the Song for the last "Old Folks' Concert," I am sure I could have succeeded. But the best I could readily produce was the following

PLEA FOR THE POOR.

What mournful notes are those we hear,
Which fill our hearts with grief and fear?
Is it the wailing of the poor,
Who cry in sorrow at our door?

How long shall their affliction last?
How long shall they, mid wintry blasts,
Or in the biting cold of morn,
Bewail their lot and wait forlorn?

Shall we in pity give relief,
And dry up every source of grief?
Shall we with gen'rous hand bestow
A blessing on the child of woe?

A Christian may be waiting there,
A child of faith, a child of prayer;
Sent by the Lord who reigns above,
To prove our faith, and test our love.

An angel-form may be disguised,
A saint, in Heaven most highly prized,
And ask for money at our door,
As one of earth's deserted poor.

And now, shall we, who hope for bliss,
In charity be found amiss;
And know that he who came to save,
For poverty, owned not his grave?

Can we forget his words of truth,
And spurn the poor, in age or youth;
And hear him say, when him we see,
"Surely you did it unto me?"

It's true, a child of vicious life,
A man of revelry and strife,
Or guilty wretch, of many years,
May beg for charity, with tears.

But who is he who never yet
A sin committed to regret?
To him, the privilege alone
Is given, as first "to throw a stone."

Kindness may make the heart relent;
Perhaps the sinner may repent;
And with him then we'll oft repair
To God's own house, the house of prayer.

With heavenly anthems there we'll sing
The praise of Christ, our Lord and King;
Who, though he borrowed e'en his grave,
Was rich in grace, the poor to save.

Yours, very truly,
A. G. COMINGS.

NAVY YARD POLITICS.—In relation to the communication in our paper of Friday, signed "Mechanic," we are informed that if papers or documents of any political description have been circulated among the workmen at our Navy Yard for their signatures, as implied in the article referred to, it has been done without the knowledge or consent of the Commandant. He would not permit documents or papers of a political character, referring to any party or parties, to be so circulated in the Yard, as he would regard such a proceeding to be wrong and improper in a public establishment.

One of the Yard Regulations is the following:—

"No person whomsoever, is allowed to circulate for subscription, or for any other object, any memorial or petition for any purpose whatever, amongst the persons belonging to this Yard, or those employed therein, without special permission from the Commandant."

BOARD OF ALDERMEN.—In the Board of Aldermen, on Thursday evening, the use of Jefferson Hall was granted to J. P. Morse, on Monday evening, March 12.

Amos Trott resigned the office of Assistant Marshal, to take effect on the 12th inst.

Sundry bills were approved.

JUVENILE SINGING SCHOOL. — See Mr. Pearson's advertisement of a new term commencing this afternoon. Mr. P. is a popular and efficient teacher, for pupils of all ages.

☞ Rev. Mr. Fanton will commence his ministrations as Pastor of the Pleasant street Christian Society, at their church, to-morrow.

NEW CASTLE VOTES.—We have received a statement of them, from one of the Selectmen:—

For Town Clerk, K. N.		42
	Opposition	19
For Selectmen, K. N.		42, 41, 39
	Opposition	20, 19, 19
For Collector, K. N.		38
	Opposition	36

In relation to the Collector, there was a question of temperance, increasing and somewhat changing the vote.

This return verifies our first statement.

AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS.

They don't help complaints, but they cure them.
One Box has cured Dyspepsia.
Three Boxes have cured the worst cases of Scrofula
Two Boxes have cured Erysipelas.
One Box always cures the Jaundice.
Three Boxes are sure to cleanse the system from Boils—often less than one does it.
Two Boxes have completely cured the worst of ulcers on the leg.
Small doses seldom fail to cure the Piles.
One dose cures the headache arising from a foul stomach.
Strong doses often repeated expel every worm from the body. They should be given to children, who are always more or less afflicted with this scourge.
As a gentle Physic they have no equal.
One Box cures derangement of the Liver.
Half a Box cures a Cold.
They purify the Blood, and thus strike at the foundation of every disease.
As a Dinner Pill there is not their equal in the world.
They are purely vegetable, and can do no harm, but do accomplish an unaccountable amount of good.
Prepared by DR. J. C. AYER, Lowell, Ms., and sold by every respectable Druggist in New England.
Agents in Portsmouth, W. R. PRESTON, J. H. THACHER, and D. KIMBALL, and sold by the Druggists throughout the United States. 2m f1 d&w

RIOTOUS.—The Daily Patriot, speaking of the People's Great Mass Meeting held at Concord, on the 5th inst., says:

"From about 2 o'clock, when the liquor began to operate, up to about 5, Maine street from the Phenix to the American House presented a continued scene of rioting and fighting." * * It also says, "the quantities of RUM furnished to these fellows," were "by the order or connivance of those charged with the arrangements for the meeting."

It then adds—"Bear in mind, people of New Hampshire, that this was a great MAINE LAW demonstration!"

Verily, if this be all true, we presume the rowdies who love Rum will all vote the American or K. N. ticket. We shall see, however; and in the mean time the statements seem to us extravagant, though there was much noise and confusion out of doors.

The Manchester Mirror says of this matter:

"Most went to Concord to hear the speeches and make a demonstration. Some of them, we are sorry to say, made a bad demonstration on Main street. Some boys got into a difficulty which ended in fight after fight among those of a larger growth. For a couple of hours the street was a perfect 'bear garden,' reminding us of the days of 'Cork muster.' We saw four different men knocked down, and any quantity of fisting. However, the masses present were in the Halls and knew nothing of the disturbances."

This extract sounds like something probable. The occurrence of a drunken riot, of any extent, however, offers a strong reason for some law or gospel, whereby such doings may be prevented. The Concord Statesman says,

There is no doubt whatever that such irregularity as was witnessed here on Tuesday, was got up in part by Democrats of this city and Manchester. Two plans were concocted, —one to bring reproach upon the immense Convention by drunken democratic rowdies, sent hither from below, and the other to set the affair down as a "failure" and a "fizzle." The "bunged" eyes and broken heads, of which mention is made by the Patriot, were the exclusive property of its own children. If not so, why were those arrested let off with no fine or punishment whatever? We make this statement upon reliable information.—The conversation of certain democrats was heard by a man who was an involuntary listener, &c., &c.

The Reporter gives a similar account.

The reader will judge for himself, between these conflicting stories.

NEW YORK, March 8.—After an examination to-day, Judge Stuart issued warrants for the arrest of several persons charged with aiding in the escape of Baker, the murderer of Bill Poole. Several members of the police department are suspected of conniving at and assisting in the flight of the murderer.

NOTICE TO CABINET MAKERS.

THE Subscriber, wishing to introduce into Portsmouth and vicinity, the use of his
PATENT SELF ACTING
TABLE LEAF SUPPORT,
would ask the attention of Cabinet Makers and others interested to this very desirable improvement in the mode of supporting Table Leaves. It is a substitute for the Fly Rail and Swivel now in use for that purpose,—it is as simple in its construction, as cheap, and much more convenient, requiring no stooping to raise or lower the leaf.

Wishing to sell exclusive Rights to use them in that vicinity, any letters addressed to me desiring information as to terms, prices, &c., or Circulars and description, will be promptly attended to.

One or more persons could do a good business putting them on from house to house. To such they will be furnished at a discount from the retail price, which is 30 cents per Table. To those owning "Rights" they will be furnished at cost if desired.

Portsmouth, March 1, 1855.

Real Estate at Auction.

WILL be sold at Public Auction, on MONDAY, March 19, 1855, the BRICK TAVERN stand situated at EPPING CORNER. Said House is two stories high, and has been built but sixteen years; is in thorough repair, and convenient for a Public House. It also has a STABLE attached to it, 94 feet long and 40 wide. The House has been kept for the last ten years by H. G. O. RUNDLETT, and has a good share of patronage. An excellent chance for a profitable investment, for any one wishing to keep a Public House in the country.

Also, at the same time a lot of WOOD LAND, lying partly in Brentwood and partly in Epping, containing six acres, more or less There is about one hundred cords of wood standing on the same. The growth is mostly hard wood. It is only one mile from the Depot of the Portsmouth & Concord Railroad, where there is a ready market for its sale.

Also, at the same time, one lot of TILLAGE LAND lying on the road leading to Chester.—This lot contains about thirty-five acres of land, and would make a good farm for any one wishing to build, as there is a very desirable site on the same for building, and it is situated only about one hundred rods from Epping Corner where there are good schools, three meeting houses, &c.—a good chance for a mechanic to purchase and build. There are two never-failing springs of water on the said lot. The land is in a high state of cultivation, and mostly fenced in by a stone wall. This affords a rare chance for any one to invest, and get a good interest for his money.

Also, at the same time and place, 8 yoke of good working Oxen—one yoke, five years old, 6 ft 9 in. girth; one yoke, 4 years old, girt 6 ft 7 in.; one yoke, 6 years old, girt 7 ft. One Ox-cart nearly new (a good one); 1 Harrow; 1 Plow; 6 Chains; 40 feet cable Chain; 3 ox Yokes, 2 Cows, 7 single Harnesses; 3 sets double harnesses, brass mounted; 4 stage do. brass mounted; 1 Stage Coach (9 passenger); 1 Chaise and Harness, (nearly new); 2 Concord Wagons; 1 two-seated Waggon, 1 top-Buggy and Harness; 4 Butcher's Carts (2 of them new and built by Abbott of Concord), 4 single Sleighs, 1 Butcher's Sleigh (new), 1 Pung Sleigh, 2 new ox-Sleds, 1 Trotting Gig, 6 Buffalo Robes, 1 Job Wagon (iron axle), 5 Shoats, 100 cords Manure now under stable.

Also, 4 good Horses—one of them a valuable Stud Horse, called the "Young Messenger," and is the best Stock horse in the State, as his stock will show for itself.

Also various other articles too numerous to mention.

All the above named property will be sold to the highest bidder and without reserve.

Terms made known at the sale. The property can be examined at any time before the sale by calling on the subscriber on the premises.
H. G. O. RUNDLETT.

The Great Specific of the Age.
OXYGENATED BITTERS!
THE ONLY SURE AND SAFE REMEDY EVER DISCOVERED
For the cure of
DYSPEPSIA,
IN ALL ITS VARIOUS FORMS,

AS well as Liver Diseases, Fever and Ague, Bilious Complaints, Bronchitis, General Debility, and all diseases of a kindred nature.

Read the following testimony from Dr. Henry E. Morrell, a skillful physician of N. Y. city. He says:—"The most effectual medicine to improve the tone and energy of the stomach is that prepared by Dr. George B. Green, of Windsor, Vt., and called the Oxygenated Bitters."

The Oxygenated Bitters do not contain a particle of alcohol in their composition, and are, of necessity, highly concentrated, to prevent the injurious action of the temperature of different climates. Each bottle, when diluted according to the directions, makes nearly half a gallon of medicine, as pleasant to the taste as lemonade; and as to quantity, quite the CHEAPEST MEDICINE.

I have employed them in a multitude of cases, and have uniformly found that, when used according to the directions, they gradually, but surely, remove, one by one, the various distressing symptoms which cluster around the confirmed Dyspeptic, restore the stomach to its lost energies, and thus lead the patient back to the enjoyment of permanent health and strength.

It has also been used by the following persons, and received their unqualified approbation.—

Prof. A. Hayes, M. D., State Assayer, Boston
Prof. E. E. Phelps, M. D., of Therapeutics and Materia Medica, Dartmouth College.
Hon. Myron Lawrence, Ex-President of Massachusetts Senate.
Hon. L. H. Arnold, formerly Governor of Rhode Island, now member of Congress.

SPEED OF THE TRAIN. — "Speaking of speed," said a wag the other day, "I reckon they travel some on the Hudson River Railroad; I stepped in the car at Albany, got fairly seated at Hudson, lighted my cigar at Poughkeepsie, spit out of the window at Peekskill, and hit a man at Sing Sing. The telegraph poles looked like a close picket fence, and going to the end of the train, I found we had a rope walk and ten pin alley in tow, each filled with a brick—both stuck straight out like the tail of a kite, without touching the track—and were used merely to steady the cars."

A caviller in our vicinity, the other day, says the Lowell Courier, tried to put down his opponent with the question, "If Noah did send out a dove that never returned, where did it go to?" "Why," retorted his unyielding antagonist, "I suppose somebody shot it!"

IMPORTANT IMPROVEMENT
—IN—
Rotary Planing, Tonguing and Grooving Machines.
PATENTED NOVEMBER 21ST, 1854.

THIS Improvement has been thoroughly tested and found to possess just what is necessary to perfect the rotary planer.

My machine will plane very much faster and better than any other now in use. I would particularly call the attention of those in want of machines for nice work, or for planing very thin, cross-grained or knotty material, to these machines, as it is impossible for them to tear or throw out loose knots.

My Clapboard Machine will plane and joint as fast as the clapboards can be put into the machine, and perform the work without sorting them so as to plane with the grain, upon any quality of clap boards, in a very superior manner, without tearing the thin edge.

Applications for rights and machines, or for further particulars, can be made to the Patentee,

IMPORTANT INFORMATION TO INVENTORS. The Subscriber (late Agent of the U. S. Patent office, under the Act of 1836) determined to present advantages, in applying for Patents, superior to those offered to inventors by others, has made arrangements whereby one principal, prepared and conducted by him, THIRTY DOLLARS (instead of twenty, as paid back by others,) will be remitted by him in case of failure to obtain a patent, and the withdrawal through him within thirty days after the rejection. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments and all necessary papers and drawings, for procuring patents in this and foreign countries prepared, and advice rendered on legal and scientific matters respecting inventions, and infringement of patents.

Inventors can not only here obtain their specifications on the most reasonable terms, but can here avail themselves of the experience of 20 years' practice, an extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and correct accounts of patents granted in this and other countries; besides being saved a journey to Washington, the usual great delay there, as well as all personal trouble in obtaining their patents. Copies of claims of any patent furnished by remitting one dollar.—Assignments recorded at Washington.

R. H. EDDY,
Solicitor of Patents.

"During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, did business at the Patent Office, as Solicitor of Patents. There were few, if any persons acting in that capacity, who had so much business before the Patent Office; and there were none who conducted it with more skill, fidelity, and success. I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the best informed and most skilful Patent Solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a gentleman more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents."

THE GREAT STANDARD REMEDY
FOR ALL PULMONARY DISEASES.

Containing neither Prussic Acid, Tartar Emetic, nor any other deleterious drug. Extensively used, tested and approved in New England, Canada, and the British Provinces during a period of THIRTY YEARS by Eminent Physicians, Clergymen, Professors of Colleges, Theological Seminaries, Scientific and Distinguished Public Men,—and, in fact by all classes in the community. See Pamphlets and wrappers containing Certificates, among which are those of Rev. Dr LYMAN BEECHER, Boston, late President of Lane Theological Seminary, Cincinnati, Ohio.—Late Rev. Dr. LEONARD WOODS, Abbott Prof. of Theology in Andover Theological Seminary, Mass.—Hon. DANIEL P. THOMPSON, Secretary of State of Vermont.—N. F. WILLIAMS, Esq., formerly Collector of the Port of Baltimore, Md.—Rev. JOSIAH LITCH, Philadelphia,—and many others.

HOW ESTEEMED BY PHYSICIANS.—JOHN A. BERRY, M. D., Saco, Me., says, "During a practice of twenty years, I have been used all the popular remedies for Coughs, and am well satisfied that your VEGETABLE PULMONARY BALSAM is best, and I hope will be better known and more generally used."

☞ Beware of Counterfeits and Imitations!!

HERTS BROTHERS
AMALGAMATED IRIDIUM ZINC & PLATINA
PENS.
WARRANTED NOT TO CORRODE.

HERTS BROTHERS, having been many years engaged in the manufacture of Metalic Pens, and during that time, having devoted their unremitting attention to improving and perfecting that useful and necessary article, the result of their unceasing efforts and numerous experiments has been the construction of a Pen on a principle entirely new, combining all the advantages of the elasticity and clearness of the Quill, with six times the durability of the Steel Pen; and thusentirely obviating the only objection that has hitherto existed against the use of Steel Pens.

This Pen will be found an invaluable article in Offices, as they never need mending, nor to Banks and Schools, as they will not spatter nor cut the thinest paper, and are warranted anti-corrosive.

CAUTION.—The universal celebrity of these Pens having induced several disreputable Makers to foist upon the public a spurious imitation, it will please to be observed that each genuine Pen is stamped, "HERTS, BROTHERS' PATENT, 1853," and each box of Genuine Pens will contain a label with a fac-simile of the Manufacturers' name.

DR. J. B. MARCHISI'S
Celebrated Catholicon,
FOR THE
RELIEF & CURE OF SUFFERING FEMALES.

It stands preeminent for its curative powers in all the diseases for which it is recommended, usually called

FEMALE COMPLAINTS.

Of these are PROLAPSUS UTERI, or Falling of the Womb: FLUOR ALBUS, or Whites: CHRONIC INFLAMMATION OF THE WOMB; INCIDENTAL HEMORRHAGE or Flooding; PAINFUL, SUPPRESSED AND IRREGULAR MENSTRUATION, &c., with all their accompanying evils. (Cancer excepted) no matter how severe or of how long standing.

Let all interested call and obtain a pamphlet (free) containing ample proof, from the most respectable sources, of the beneficial results of its use; together with letters from highly experienced Physicians, who have used it in their practice, and speak from their own observations.

A WORD TO THE LADIES.

Should any entertain doubts as to the efficacy of the UTERINE CATHOLICON, I would respectfully state that I have for many years past, as my friends can well attest, been troubled with Female diseases, for which this medicine is recommended, in its worst forms, and that by its use I have been entirely cured, and thus induced to accept an agency, and offer it for the benefit of others.

MRS. S. GAFF, 38 South street, Boston.

I feel it my duty to make known to the afflicted the virtues of MARCHISI'S UTERINE CATHOLICON, which has relieved me of Female Complaints of fifteen years' standing, and of so serious a nature, that latterly my physician supposed a Cancer of the Womb. I suffered extremely, and at last was entirely disabled from attending to my usual pursuits. . . . It has given me more relief than any thing I have ever used for these difficulties. I will take pleasure in giving further details of my case to any lady who will call on me at 67 Mill street.

Deck-Reefing Gear.

By the application of this GEAR, the Topsails of any vessel may be Reefed from the deck with remarkable facility, and carry sail much longer than when rigged in any other way. This Gear can be readily applied to any old rig, and at less expense than any other now in use.

The following is an extract from a letter recently received from Capt. Pickering, of the ship Ocean Rover, of Portsmouth, concerning its merits:—

"It has given me perfect satisfaction, and I have only to regret that it is not applied to all the topsail yards. On the passage to this port, (Charleston, S. C.,) I experienced strong gales from the S. W. and had occasion to use it several times, and on every occasion it worked finely."

GREAT TRIUMPH OF SPEED.—The Express train on the Hudson River Road reached Hudson, yesterday morning at 11:16, and came from there to East Albany (thirty miles) in twenty-five minutes! Passengers were landed in the Central Railroad Depot, in thirty minutes from the time of leaving Hudson! The engine was the Huron, C. Robinson, engineer; conductor, J. Patterson.—Albany Argus, Sat.

[If the train had met with some terrible accident while running at this rate of speed, the praise of the newspapers would have been changed to indignant denunciation.]—Newburyport Herald.

DEATH BY LOCKJAW.—Mrs. Avice Stanard, the woman, who, in jumping from the cars at Lynn upon the Eastern Railroad, on the 24th of February last, was run over and had both legs crushed, died at the Massachusetts General Hospital last night of lockjaw, the result of the injuries received. The deceased was twenty-six years of age, and a resident of Lynn, where she has a husband living. She was well known to the travellers upon the Eastern Railroad, as a pedler of books in the cars.—Boston Traveller.

When the Earl of Brandford was brought before Lord Loughborough to be examined upon application for a statue of lunacy against him, the Chaucellor asked him, "How many legs has a sheep?" "A live sheep, or a dead one?" asked Bradford. "Is it not the same thing?" said the Chancellor. "No, my Lord, a live sheep has four, a dead one but two—there are but two legs of mutton, the other are shoulders."

In Noblesville, Ia., Mrs. Julia Freyberger brought suit against Mountjoy, for damages caused by liquor sold by the defendant to the plaintiff's husband. She charged that the defendant's liquor has made her husband a drunkard, has caused him to lose his time and waste his money, and claimed one thousand dollars damages. The jury gave her a verdict for $500.

A fellow, calling himself J. A. Thompson, stopped at the Mansion House, in Salem, a few days since, and left with the bar-keeper a good looking package, superscribed to his nominal address, and marked "samples." He left without paying his bill, and the package was opened, and found to contain two stones, rolled up in hay.

Times have changed since Johnson exclaimed on hearing that Goldsmith died £3,000 in debt, "was ever poet so trusted before?" Southey died worth about £7,000, and Wordsworth as much, while Rogers is a Millionaire.—N. Y. Post.

Just as the bridal party at his son's wedding had repaired to the festive board, Benjamin Carper, Esq. of Fincastle, Va., dropped dead, having been in good health to that moment.

NOTICE TO CABINET MAKERS.

THE Subscriber, wishing to introduce into Portsmouth and vicinity, the use of his

PATENT SELF ACTING
TABLE LEAF SUPPORT,

would ask the attention of Cabinet Makers and others interested to this very desirable improvement in the mode of supporting Table Leaves. It is a substitute for the Fly Rail and Swivel now in use for that purpose,—it is as simple in its construction, as cheap, and much more convenient, requiring no stooping to raise or lower the Leaf.

Wishing to sell exclusive Rights to use them in that vicinity, any letters addressed to me desiring information as to terms, prices, &c., or Circulars and description, will be promptly attended to.

One or more persons could do a good business putting them on from house to house. To such they will be furnished at a discount from the retail price, which is 50 cents per Table. To those owning "Rights" they will be furnished at cost if desired.

ELECTION PROSPECTS.

Speaking of New Hampshire Election, the Portland Eastern Argus, says,

In point of importance politically, there has seldom occurred a State election in which so much was involved as in the present contest; which seems to be waged with an earnestness and devotion to principle, on the part of the democracy, worthy of all praise.

* * * * *

There is no hypocritical trimming to isms, no base truckling to prejudices, no timid temporising with false doctrines; but the issues are fairly met, and the great principles proclaimed by the fathers of the republic, and embodied in our institutions, are supported and defended with a zeal and resolution entirely worthy the democracy of the old Granite State.

Well; it may be so; but so far as our reading extends, among the campaign Patriots, Unions, &c. the principal business has been to get into the K. N. lodges, hoping to carry the election; then to get out again, because it did not work right; and then to fight the know nothings, as bravely as Don Quixote tilted against the wind-mills. Much loud talk have we heard about Hindoos, foul dens, oaths, perjuries and renunciations—but very little about principles of any sort.

Now let us hear the Argus on the prospect:

In this contest they have to meet single handed the combined forces of all the isms and odds and ends of the day. They are all marshaled against it, and it is almost to be feared may be powerful enough for the time, to defeat it; yet if in spite of abolitionism, nigrism, free-soilism, know nothingism and everything else, it shall prove victorious, it will be such a triumph as has hardly occurred since the election of Jackson. Indeed the democracy of that State is aroused as it has not before been, since that memorable contest and triumph. God speed the right and give them the victory.

But should fortune be adverse, not a whit less will praise be due to those gallant defenders of democratic principles.

THOMAS JEFFERSON.

The following paragraphs, from the introduction of Rayner's Life of Jefferson, are well worthy of general attention.

From the commencement of the Revolutionary struggle down to the period of his death, Mr. Jefferson's predominating fear was, that the rights of the people would be disregarded. Neither was his love of liberty and of human happiness confined to one race of men. So early as 1769, upon his first taking a seat in the legislature of Virginia, he had the hardihood to rise amidst that body of "inexorable planters," and propose a bill for the "permission of the Emancipation of Slaves."

Whilst a member of the Continental Congress, he made use of these remarkable words:—

"It can never be too often repeated, that the time for fixing every essential right on a legal basis, is while our rulers are honest, and ourselves united. From the conclusion of this war we shall be going down hill. It will not then be necessary to resort every moment to the people for support. They will be forgotten, therefore, and their rights disregarded. They will forget themselves but in the sole faculty of making money, and will never think of uniting to effect a due respect of their rights. The shackles, therefore, which shall not be knocked off at the conclusion of this war, will remain on us long, will be made heavier and heavier, till our rights shall revive, or expire, in a convulsion."

RIGHTS OF JURORS.—The Senate of Massachusetts have passed a bill on this subject, by a vote of 17 to 8. In the debate, Mr. Warren of Suffolk, moved to amend by striking out in the first section the words giving the juries authority to decide at their discretion "both the fact and the law involved in the issue, or to find a special verdict at their election;" and to substitute therefor, "according to law and the facts presented in evidence."

This amendment was rejected.

The Boston Courier says:

"The bill is of no importance whatever, though some people may think otherwise."

We think otherwise. This legislative action will strengthen the confidence of jurors in the use of their own brains. A respectable jury will attach due importance to the law knowledge of a respectable bench; but if Justice Shallow or Judge Jeffries lay down the law, the jury will weigh it, find it wanting, and bring in their verdict, Mene Tekel!

REST FOR THE HEAD.—We have seen an ingenious contrivance, to be attached to the sides of a railroad car, forming a convenient and comfortable rest, for the heads of the passengers, in which a feeble, infirm or sick person may comfortably rest, or the sleeper may have a nap without nodding.

It was invented by Mr. J. N. Williams, of Dubuque, Iowa,—and has been applied to cars on the Hudson River, and the Harlem Railroads, where the rests are now in use.

☞ Rev. Frederick T. Gray, of Boston, aged 51, died in that city on Friday. He was pastor of the Bulfinch street church, and has been to California to plant a church there.

QUEER LEVY.—The authorities of Cincinnati have attached the Presbyterian grave yard for non payment of taxes ($19,000.) Will the laws of Ohio allow them to take the stones for building purposes?

ANOTHER FUGITIVE LAW.—It seems to have escaped the "Fugitive Slave eye" of Senator Seward and his associates, that in the bill providing for more efficient discipline in the Navy, Section 11 provides that whoever entices away any one from the naval service of the United States, or conceals any seaman or boy, and refuses to deliver him up, is made subject to imprisonment for one year and $300 fine.

This provision is about the same as the provision in the Fugitive Slave Law, in the case of a negro fugitive, but in this, only a white sailor or boy is the subject of legislation. I deed, if most of the provisions of this bill had been for negroes, instead of white men, there would have been a terrible clatter in Congress about it.—Ex. paper.

We are sorry to see Congress travelling backward; yet they often do so. There is some difference, however, between the sailor and slave. The sailor enlists by signing his name, and is then held by stringent laws.—The slave does not enlist at all, but is held by a man who stole his mother, or by one whose grandfather stole his grandmother.

CONCERTS.—An Old Folks' Concert was given at Augusta, last week, with great success. The programme was as follows:—After a voluntary by human organs to the tune of Maxim's Turner, in Watts' words, "Come Holy Spirit, heavenly Dove," an address was made by Mr. Drew, which was followed by a prayer from Rev. Dr. Tappan; after which the whole choir went into the delightful work of the evening with the spirit and understanding also. It was good to be there. Such a season is refreshing—sanctifying. So says brother Drew of the Intelligencer.

The Old Folks of Portland, gave a concert at Gorham, on Tuesday evening, at the Congregational church. The church, which will seat five or six hundred, was well filled, and the audience seemed highly gratified—not to say surprised—at the complete success of the performances.

What must these old folks have been able to do when young, was a question which arose in many minds. If at this time of life what must have been the majesty of their flight, in earlier years, as on youthful pinions they soared high into the Empirean of ancient melody?

So royally they rode—
And on the wings of mighty winds
Came flying all abroad.

After the concert, the singers, together with several of their Gorham friends, adjourned to the Narragansett House, where they partook of an elegant and bountiful collation, prepared in Johnson's always excellent style—and devoted an hour or so to general jollity such as would have done credit even to those of a younger generation.

The company broke up at a seasonable hour, and returned by a special train of cars to Portland.

COLLINS versus VANDERBILT.—The war of interests between Collins and Vanderbilt, the two extensive steamboat proprietors, has been transferred from the halls of Washington to the columns of the New York press, and is opened by a long letter from Mr. Vanderbilt to the editors of the New York Tribune. In this letter Mr. Vanderbilt states that the Collins line is not doing so poor a business as it represents. He says:

"By the device of paying interest upon stock in lieu of dividends, and by the conversion of accumulated income into the capital, they have been able to represent to a sympathizing and patriotic people that their business has been disastrous, and that they have received no dividends. Contracting, in 1847, to build five steamships, and to make twenty round voyages per annum, for which they were to receive nineteen thousand two hundred and fifty dollars ($19,250) per voyage, they have succeeded in satisfying their contract by the construction of but four; and, since 1852, have been receiving from the National Treasury the sum of thirty-three thousand dollars ($33,000) per voyage, in lieu of the sum for which the service was originally contracted to be rendered, and this for twenty-six voyages in lieu of twenty."

It is said by the warm advocates of the Collins monopoly, that the ships of the Collins line are the perfection of naval architecture, and that their speed is unattainable by others. Mr. Vanderbilt begs leave to dissent from this belief, and announces that he stands ready to contract with government, and give security for the performance of his contract, to "transport the mails from New York to Liverpool twice a month, for the term of five years, in ships of equal or superior description to those of the Collins line, and at an average time of twenty-four hours less than the average time in which the ships of that line have hitherto performed their voyages, and to render the service for the sum of nineteen thousand two hundred and fifty dollars ($19,250) per round voyage," or a little more than one-half the compensation now given to Collins. If it were not madness for a private individual to attempt to compete against a monopoly deriving such stupendous protection from the treasury, he would even be willing to undertake the Atlantic mail service without further compensation than that desirable from the established rate of ocean postage. Mr. Vanderbilt defends the President for his veto, declares that he did not bribe him, and hopes that if any bribes were offered in Washington, in connection with the steamer appropriation bill, they will be exposed to the public. The following is one of his concluding paragraphs:

"But it is said that I am always in opposition, and that the same spirit of resistance which has often hitherto governed my action has influenced it now. In answer to this imputation I have only to say, that this is the same spirit which founded this great Republic, and which is now drawing the commerce of the world to our shores. It was the same spirit which unchained the fetters which legislation similar in principle to that against which I now protest, once fastened upon the Hudson. Repress it if you dare, and before many centuries shall have passed away, your greatness and your glory, and your commerce will have gone still farther west."

Johnson says the greatest magicians of the age are paper-makers—they transform the beggar's rags into sheets for editors to lie on.

LOCAL.

"Truth, every word Truth."—We have little or no doubt, that the "respectable person" in the Gazette, tells the truth about a certain Wood and Coal Dealer, belonging to the North Church and the K. N.s; There is little doubt that the said dealer in fuel, who sometimes pulls down churches and does other out-of-the-way things, did, wilfully and feloniously, and at the instigation of the—[we beg pardon—don't mention him]—approach certain Celts, otherwise called Irishmen, in the night time, that is to say, on Sunday evening, and then and there did advise them to stay at home, neither going to Exeter Court nor town meeting, but to mind their work, and get their living, leaving the Yankees to govern the city and take care of the schools; and he the said dealer in fuel, being instigated as aforesaid, did further advise them, if they must become American citizens, to vote the American ticket, and thus help their best friends, who had been helping them to live when times were hard and victuals dear; and furthermore, he the said dealer, did, by much fair speech, persuade and induce many of said Celts or Irishmen to remain at home, and so they did not become American citizens at all at all.

All this, being against the peace and dignity of the State, (not to mention the Church) it is to be hoped the offender will be dealt with in such a way as to save the Union, and uphold the Majesty of the Law.

☞ The last guns, previous to election, will be fired this evening. The American party are to have a meeting at Jefferson Hall, and the Anti-American Party at the Temple. Both parties appear confident of success, tho' one side is fighting with the energy of despair; while the other is sustained by the prestige of success in other states.

FIRE.—The alarm of fire, on Saturday night, about half-past eleven o'clock, was caused by the burning of a house in Kittery, belonging to Mr. Samuel Leach. It had been occupied by two families; one of which removed on Wednesday, and the other on Saturday, about noon. The latter, it is said, swept up the ashes and dust, neatly, into the fire place, and put up the wooden fire board in front. Probably some unnoticed spark lingered in the heap, and re-kindled the mass. At any rate, the neighbors were aroused from their beds by the light, late in the evening, and too late to do anything but to see the house burn to the ground. We understand it was insured.

NEW SONG.—We are indebted to our old friend H. S. Thompson, Esq., for a copy of his new and beautiful song and chorus, "Effie, the Maid of the Mill." The numerous admirers of his "Lilly Dale," "Ida May," &c., will find this well worthy a place with his other popular compositions. We hope to hear him sing it, with his new quartette of gentlemen singers, in this city, ere long.

☞ Post Masters, Town Clerks, Depot Masters, and Railroad Conductors, in our vicinity, are requested to send in returns of votes on Tuesday P. M. if possible.

A REDEEMED FAMILY.—The family of a respectable and industrious colored man of this city, consisting of a mother and three children, in whose behalf Senator Sumner has recently taken much interest, and who have been redeemed from slavery in Washington by the contributions of many of our citizens, arrived in Boston this morning. They accompanied Mr. C. H. Brainerd from the Federal city, and we learn that they experienced no difficulty in securing seats in the first class cars, throughout their journey. The little girl, whose daguerreotype has excited so much interest at the State House during the past few weeks, was an object of much attention from her fellow passengers, and received many presents from those with whom she met. Her fair skin and fine intelligent features, have induced many persons to insist that she must be called "Ida May."—Boston Transcript.

An immense freight train arrived at the depot in Chicago on Saturday afternoon, from over the Chicago and Aurora Railroad, consisting of sixty long cars, each heavily loaded with produce of various kinds. It was brought in by two engines, and as it glided over the prairies and passed into the city, it formed a sight worth looking at. The value of the produce brought in by that single train could not fall short of $25,000.

MISS MARTINEAU'S ILLNESS.—Parker Pillsbury writes to the Liberator:—"Miss Martineau is in the last stages of life. The affection of the heart, from which she has long suffered, seems almost to have reached its crisis—a crisis always fatal. Last week she seemed almost gone. She sent farewells to her friends, and arranged for her burial. This week she revives a little, and may live, possibly, a few months yet—though her physicians assure her she holds her life now only 'from minute to minute.'"

POCKETING.—The President has raised a storm of indignation from the Western Democrats for pocketing the bill passed by Congress for the improvement of the St. Clair Flats. All the Michigan delegation but one were in Washington on the 6th, and were exceedingly enraged at the action of the President. They are all Democrats. President Pierce had no constitutional scruples, however, at signing a Southern bill for the Savannah River.—Boston Cour.

THE BRIGADIERSHIP.—The President has appointed Persifer Smith, a very meritorious officer, Brigadier General. Gen. Shields was recommended by Whigs and Democrats of the last Congress, but in the present state of popular excitement the President declined giving that recommendation the consequence which would have followed it under other circumstances.—Boston Cour.

A CLERGYMAN'S OPINION OF THE VEGETABLE PULMONARY BALSAM. The Rev. JOSIAH LITCH, of Philadelphia, Pa., writes:—"I was in 1853 entirely cured of a cough which had reduced me almost to a skeleton, by the use of the Vegetable Pulmonary Balsam. I have continued to use and recommend it ever since, and I regard it as one of our great staple family medicines for coughs. I do not think it second to any pulmonary medicine before the public." The Greatest Medical Discovery of the Age, is

AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS.

They don't help complaints, but they cure them.
One Box has cured Dyspepsia.
Three Boxes have cured the worst cases of Scrofula
Two Boxes have cured Erysipelas.
One Box always cures the Jaundice.
Three Boxes are sure to cleanse the system from Boils—often less than one does it.
Two Boxes have completely cured the worst of ulcers on the leg.
Small doses seldom fail to cure the Piles.
One dose cures the headache arising from a foul stomach.
Strong doses often repeated expel every worm from the body. They should be given to children, who are always more or less afflicted with this scourge.
As a gentle Physic they have no equal.
One Box cures derangement of the Liver.
Half a Box cures a Cold.
They purify the Blood, and thus strike at the foundation of every disease.
As a Dinner Pill there is not their equal in the world.
They are purely vegetable, and can do no harm, but do accomplish an unaccountable amount of good.

MURDER MOST FOUL.—The Traveller has an account of the cold-blooded murder of two old ladies at South Gardner, Mass., in a letter from that place, which says:—

A fiendish crime has been committed in this vicinity, between Baldwinville and Gardner. Two aged maiden sisters, living alone, some distance from their neighbors, were cruelly killed on Tuesday night. The sisters slept in separate rooms, and had gone to bed. One was killed on the bed, by repeated blows of a large chair-round, and the other was felled with the same weapon as she was coming from her bed-room adjoining, (probably to see what ailed her sister,) and then a large stone had been thrown on her to complete the infernal deed. One lay on the bed, the other at the foot on the floor. Both were awfully beaten upon the head. The intent of the murderer was robbery, as everything was ransacked. They were poor, were somewhere near 60 years of age, and were sisters of the late Abner Kneeland, the Infidel. Both pious. A vagrant Frenchman has been arrested on suspicion of being the murderer.

The Traveller adds:— The murder, when announced in Fitchburg on Thursday night, at once created an intense excitement. The fact that there appeared to be no motive for the crime—the victims being without any valuable moveables or money—was considered a remarkable circumstance. It is thought a mistake was made, as there is another maiden couple about a half mile distant from the place of the murder, who are well off, but who, however, do not keep any great amount of money in the house.

BURNING OF A CAR ON THE K. & P. RAILROAD.—A car belonging to the freight train on the Kennebec road, which left Portland Wednesday morning, took fire near Brunswick, and was burnt to the wheels, together with its valuable contents, consisting of various articles of rich furniture belonging to T. J. Southard of Richmond. Among the furniture were a magnificent mirror, costly window curtains, and Brussels carpets. Some of the articles were enveloped in tow, in which, probably, a spark from the engine lodged.—The whole loss is about $2,000.

This car was the seventh from the engine, and was immediately unshackled upon the discovery of the fire. There was no water near, and the engine speedily ran into Brunswick, gave the alarm, and some firemen went back, but were too late to do any good.—Portland Adv.

HARRISBURG, March 8.—A series of resolutions was offered in our Senate today to annul the adjournment of the convention of both houses until October, and fixing the adjournment to the 20th of March. Referred to the Judiciary Committee, so that there is another chance for a trial to elect a U. S. Senator.

PROMOTING DOWNWARDS.—The N. York journals are making themselves merry over the appointment of J. Romeyn Broadhead of that city to the office of Consul General to Simoda, Japan. Mr. Brodhead now enjoys the lucrative office of Naval Officer at New York, which is worth, it is said, ten or twelve thousand dollars a year, and the Consulship at Japan is supposed to be about as interesting in its comforts and revenue as the Governship of the Island of Barrataria, the perplexities of which were too severe for the philosophy of Sancho Panza. An intimation is given that the President desires to appoint William C. Walker, member of the late Congress from that city, to the present place of Mr. Brodhead, and that the latter has exhibited some heresy in regard to the infallibility of the head of the Democratic church. The Journal of Commerce of yesterday states by authority that Mr. Brodhead declines the new office at the antipodes, and says also that the naval office is worth eight thousand dollars per annum.

Edward Mills, Esq. a well known and distinguished architect, died at Washington, last Saturday, under melancholy circumstances, which adds another to the many warnings given to men in this country of the danger and uncertainty, especially to men of sensitive minds in trusting to public patronage and official station for a livelihood. He had superintended the erection of the post office, patent office and other public edifices in that place, and was architect of the national monument. Provision has just been made for completing two of the buildings begun upon his plans. He thought he had been promised the superintendency of them, but learned a few days since that they were to be placed under the supervision of Capt. Bowman and Capt. Meigs of the engineer corps. The disappointment was too much for him. He became deranged and died.—Newburyport Herald.

Portsmouth, March 1, 1855.

Real Estate at Auction.

WILL be sold at Public Auction, on MONDAY, March 19, 1855, the BRICK TAVERN stand situated at EPPING CORNER. Said House is two stories high, and has been built but sixteen years; is in thorough repair, and convenient for a Public House. It also has a STABLE attached to it, 94 feet long and 40 wide. The House has been kept for the last ten years by H. G. O. RUNDLETT, and has a good share of patronage. An excellent chance for a profitable business, for any one wishing to keep a Public House in the country.

Also, at the same time a lot of WOOD LAND, lying partly in Brentwood and partly in Epping, containing six acres, more or less. There is about one hundred cords of wood standing on the same. The growth is mostly hard wood and is only one mile from the Depot of the Portsmouth & Concord Railroad, where there is a ready market for its sale.

Also, at the same time, one lot of TILLAGE LAND lying on the road leading to Chester.—This lot contains about thirty-five acres of land, and would make a good farm for any one wishing to build, as there is a very desirable site on the same for building, and it is situated only about one hundred rods from Epping Corner where there are good schools, three meeting houses, &c.—a good chance for a mechanic to purchase and build. There are two never-failing springs of water on the said lot. The land is in a high state of cultivation, and mostly fenced in by a stone wall. This affords a rare chance for any one to invest, and get a good farm for any one wishing.

Also, at the same time and place, 3 yoke of good working Oxen—one yoke, five years old, 6 ft 9 in. girth; one yoke, 4 years old, girt 6 ft 7 in.; one yoke, 6 years old, girt 7 ft. One Ox-cart nearly new (a good one); 1 Harrow; 1 Plow; 6 Chains; 40 feet cable Chain; 3 ox Yokes, 2 Cows, 7 single Harnesses; 4 sets double harnesses, brass mounted; 4 stage do. brass mounted; 1 Stage Coach (9 passenger); 1 Chaise and Harness (nearly new); 2 Concord Wagons; 1 two-seated Waggon, 1 top-Buggy and Harness, 4 Butcher's Carts (2 of them new and built by Abbott of Concord), 1 single Sleighs, 1 Butcher's Sleigh (new), 1 Pung Sleigh, 2 new ox-Sleds, 1 Pung, Trotting Gigs, Buffalo Robes, 1 Job Wagon (iron axle), 5 Shoats, 100 cords Manure now under stable.

The Great Specific of the Age.

OXYGENATED BITTERS!

THE ONLY SURE AND SAFE REMEDY EVER DISCOVERED

For the cure of

DYSPEPSIA,

IN ALL ITS VARIOUS FORMS.

As well as Liver Diseases, Fever and Ague, Bilious Complaints, Bronchitis, General Debility, and all diseases of a kindred nature.

Read the following testimony from Dr. Henry E. Morrell, a skillful physician of N. Y. city. He says:—"The medicinal agent which seems to have the tone and energy of the stomach is that prepared by Dr. George B. Green, of Windsor, Vt., and called the Oxygenated Bitters."

The Oxygenated Bitters do not contain a particle of alcohol in their composition, and are, of necessity, highly concentrated, to prevent the injurious action of the temperature of different climates. Each bottle, when diluted according to the directions, makes nearly half a gallon of medicine, as pleasant to the taste as lemonade; and as to quality, quite the CHEAPEST MEDICINE.

I have employed them in a multitude of cases, and have uniformly found that, when used according to the directions, they gradually, but surely, remove, one by one, the various distressing symptoms which cluster around the confirmed Dyspeptic, restore the stomach to its lost energies, and thus lead the patient back to the enjoyment of permanent health and strength.

It has also been used by the following persons, and received their unqualified approbation:—

Prof. A. A. Hayes, State Assayer, Boston
Prof. E. E. Phelps, M. D., of Therapeutics and Materia Medica, Dartmouth College.
Hon. Myron Lawrence, Ex-President of Massachusetts Senate.
Hon. J. H. Anthony, formerly Governor of Rhode Island, now member of Congress.

A HEARTFELT SENTIMENT INOPPORTUNELY EXPRESSED.—A large and brilliant party was given in fashionable circles, a few weeks since, not a hundred miles from our metropolis, and the festivities were kept up to so late an hour that the fair hostess became completely wearied out. Some fifteen minutes after the lady supposed the last of her guests had left, she walked into the supper room, where the gas had been turned down, and gave vent to her wearied spirit by ejaculating—"Thank God, they are all stuffed and gone!" "Not quite all," squeaked out a voice, "I have returned to find an ear ring which I supposed was dropped while at the supper table." The hostess's chagrin can be better imagined than described, when on turning round she discovered one of her nearest fashionable neighbors. —Boston Post.

IMPORTANT IMPROVEMENT

—IN—

Rotary Planing, Tonguing and Grooving Machines.

PATENTED NOVEMBER 21st, 1854.

THIS Improvement has been thoroughly tested and found to possess just what is necessary to perfect the rotary planer.

My machine will plane very much faster and better than any other now in use. I would particularly call the attention of those in want of machines for nice work, or for planing very thin, cross-grained or knotty material, to these machines, as it is impossible for them to tear or throw out knots.

My Clapboard Machine will plane and joint as fast as the clapboards can be put into the machine, and perform the work without sorting them so as to plane with the grain, upon any quality of clap boards, in a very superior manner, without tearing the thin edge.

Applications for rights and machines, or for further particulars, can be made to the Patentee,

AMERICAN AND FOREIGN OFFICE.

Agency for business with US Patent Office, Washington,

76 State st, opp. Kilby st, Boston.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION TO INVENTORS. The Subscriber (late Agent of the U. S. Patent Office, under the Act of 1837) determined to present advantage, in applying for Patents, superior to those offered by competitors, has made arrangements whereby on applications prepared and conducted by him, THIRTY DOLLARS (instead of twenty, as paid back by others,) will be remitted by him in case of failure to obtain a patent, and the withdrawal through him within thirty days after the rejection. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments and all necessary papers and drawings, for procuring patents in this and foreign countries prepared, and advice rendered on legal and scientific matters respecting inventions, and infringement of patents.

Inventors can not only here obtain their specifications on the most reasonable terms, but can here avail themselves of the experience of 20 years' practice, an extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and correct accounts of patents granted in this and other countries; besides being saved a journey to Washington, the usual great delay there, as well as all personal trouble in obtaining their patents through him within thirty days after the rejection. Copies of claims of any patent furnished by remitting one dollar.—Assignments recorded at Washington.

R. H. EDDY,

Solicitor of Patents.

"During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, did business at the Patent Office, as Solicitor of Patents. There were few, if any persons acting in that capacity, who had so much business before the Patent Office; and there were none who conducted it with more skill, fidelity, and success. I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the best informed and most skilful Patent Solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them as early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.

HERTS BROTHERS, having been many years engaged in the manufacture of Metallic Pens, and during that time, having devoted their unceasing attention to improving and perfecting that useful and necessary article, the result of their unceasing efforts and numerous experiments has been the construction of a Pen on a principle entirely new, combining all the advantages of the elasticity and clearness of the Quill, with six times the durability of the Steel Pen; and thus entirely obviating the only objection that has hitherto existed against the use of Steel Pens.

This Pen will be found an invaluable article in Offices, as they never need wiping, also to Banks and Schools, as they will not spatter nor cut the thinest paper, and are warranted anti-corrosive.

CAUTION.—The universal celebrity of these Pens having induced several disreputable Makers to foist upon the public a spurious imitation, it will please to be observed that each genuine Pen is stamped, "HERTS, BIRMINGHAM PATENT, 1853," and each box of Genuine Pens will contain a label with a fac-simile of the Manufacturers' name.

MANUFACTORY, BIRMINGHAM, ENGLAND.

May be had, Wholesale, at the Manufacturers' DEPOTS,

DR. J. B. MARCHISI'S

Celebrated Catholicon,

FOR THE

RELIEF & CURE OF SUFFERING FEMALES.

It stands preeminent for its curative powers in all the diseases for which it is recommended, and usually called

FEMALE COMPLAINTS.

Of these are PROLAPSUS UTERI, or Falling of the Womb; FLUOR ALBUS, or Whites; CHRONIC INFLAMMATION OF THE WOMB; INCIDENTAL HEMORRAGE or Flooding; PAINFUL, SUPPRESSED, AND IRREGULAR MENSTRUATION, &c., with all their accompanying evils. (Cancer excepted) no matter how severe or of how long standing.

Let all interested call and obtain a pamphlet (free) containing ample proof, from the most respectable sources, of the beneficial results of its use; together with letters from highly experienced Physicians, who have tested its efficacy in their practice, and speak from their own observations.

A WORD TO THE LADIES.

Should any entertain doubts as to the efficacy of the URINARY CATHOLICON, I would respectfully state that I have for many years past, as my friends can well attest, been troubled with the disease for which this medicine is recommended, in its worst forms, and that by its use I have been entirely cured, and thus indeed to consider myself under an offer it for the benefit of others.

MRS. S. GAIT, 38 South street, Boston.

I feel it my duty to make known to the afflicted the virtues of MARCHISI'S URINARY CATHOLICON, which I received from one of your agents, within fifteen years' standing, and of so serious a nature, that latterly my physician suspected Cancer of the Womb. I suffered extremely, and at last was entirely disabled from attending to my usual pursuits. . . . . . I have found relief that any thing I have ever used for these difficulties. I will take pleasure in giving further details of my case to any lady who will call on me at 67 Mill street.

Deck-Reefing Gear.

By the application of this GEAR, the Topsails of any vessel may be Reefed from the deck with remarkable facility, and carry sail much longer than when rigged in any other way. This Gear can be readily applied to any old rig, and at less expense than any other now in use.

The following is an extract from a letter recently received from Capt. Pickering, of the ship Ocean Rover, of Portsmouth, concerning its merits:—

"It has given me perfect satisfaction, and I have only to regret that it is not applied to all the topsail yards. On the passage to this port, (Charleston, S. C.,) I experienced strong gales from the S. W. and had occasion to use it several times, and on every occasion it worked finely."

A RELIC OF ANCIENT DAYS.—A woman named Margaret King, alias Margaret Megrath, ninety-two years of age, who took lodings at Station No. 2, Boston, on Tuesday night, was brought into Station No. 1, Wednesday evening, in a state of intoxication. The police say that she has a plump, rosy face, a firm step, and a strong voice. It is also true that she has a strong appetite for intoxicating liquors, is no stranger in the Police Court, and has been brought into the Station House ten times for the last six months, raving crazy from drink. On Saturday night last she was brought in in that condition, and while there commenced an attack upon a woman in the same cell, in which she displayed a remarkable knowledge of the pugilistic art. She states that she has lived in Boston for sixty years, has had three husbands, who are dead or have run away. She is now a resident of the North End.

DENTAL HISTORY OF LOUIS NAPOLEON. A New York dentist says, in his advertisment, that on the occasion of a late presentation of Americans, at the Tuilleries, the Emperor recognized said dentist as the man who pulled a tooth for him in New York, twenty years ago. This ingenious piece of puffery has attracted the attention of one who professes to know the dental history of Louis Napolion in this country—"that the only teeth extracted from the head of the illustrious exile during his sojourn in this country, were drawn from him by virtue of an instrument commonly known as a poker —at that time, in the hands of an abandoned female, whose character and history are familiar to the police.—N. Y. Times.

A friend informs us that the little steamer Surprise, built to run on the Androscoggin, and which we recently reported in "winter quarters," has rather a novel shelter. The owners drew her upon the shore in a cove, and built a saw mill over the steamer, using the engines as a motive power for the mill, while the mill answers the purpose of a boat house. We have heard doubts expressed as to the practicability of navigating the Androscoggin, at that point; but have not the least fear but that the owners who give the steamer such employ in the winter will make it do its appropriate duty in the summer.—Oxford Democrat.

A destitute family in Hagerstown, Pa., to whom an order was given, last week, upon a store for necessaries of life by a relief committee of that town, headed its list of wants with three pints of whisky!

NOTICE TO CABINET MAKERS.
THE Subscriber, wishing to introduce into Portsmouth and vicinity, the use of his
PATENT SELF ACTING
TABLE LEAF SUPPORT,
would ask the attention of Cabinet Makers and others interested to this very desirable improvement in the mode of supporting Table Leaves. It is a substitute for the Fly Rail and Swivel now in use for that purpose,—it is as simple in its construction, as cheap, and much more convenient, requiring no stooping to raise or lower the Leaf.
Wishing to sell exclusive Rights to use them in that vicinity, any letters addressed to me desiring information as to terms, prices, &c., or Circulars and description, will be promptly attended to.
One or more persons could do a good business putting them on from house to house To such they will be furnished at a discount from the retail price, which is 30 cents per Table. To those owning "Rights" they will be furnished at cost if desired. CHARLES PHELPS,

FOREIGN VOTERS.

Messrs. Editors:—Supposing an ocean steamer to pick up, midway of the Atlantic, a boat containing a dozen Irish or French emigrant peasants; and that the captain and crew, after administering to their wants, and assuring them of every kindness,—should determine that it was but just that these unfortunate men should be consulted as to the working and management of the engine, the use of the nautical instruments on board, and the amount of sail to be carried on the vessel. Would they not be considered mad, and in case of any accident befalling the ship, be held responsible for their folly?

Supposing a merchant, hitherto successful, should, without the least solicitation on their part, instead of following his own tried judgment, put it to vote among the laborers employed in his warehouses and on his wharves, whether such a voyage should be made, such a vessel chartered, or such and such cargoes purchased. Would he not lose credit immediately, and be pronounced a fanatic?

Not less mad are we Americans, to call upon ignorant foreigners for their opinion in our great national questions. If we could only see this matter in its true light, not an American (unless an office holder, or other compromised person) would delay a moment in abolishing, entirely, all laws permitting foreigners to vote.

Z.

IMPORTANT MOVE AGAINST SOUTHERN INTERESTS IN CUBA.—For the first time a gentleman, native and resident of Cuba, the Count of Cannongo, has been appointed civil Governor of Havana. It is a matter of speculation why this extraordinary selection of an intelligent Cuban has been made for so important a post. There is one circumstances in connection with the history of the Count de Cannongo worthy of consideration, which may possibly afford a clue to the mystery.—Between the year 1841 and 1844 several reports were obtained by the local government of Cuba, from parties selected to advise on the proposed British treaty for the emancipation of the negroes imported since 1820, and preparatory to the penal law for the execution of the treaty for the suppression of the slave trade. One of these reports was written and presented by the Count de Cannongo, and it was then the only instance of an opinion manifested officially in favor of the emancipation of the slaves, and decidedly abolitionary.—N. Y. Herald.

We call attention to this, as an evidence of liberality, good sense and humanity, on the part of the government of old Spain. Will any American, calling himself a freeman, and above all, a friend of liberty anywhere, stand up and tell us why Spain shall not commission a Creole as Goveror of Cuba? and will he tell us also why the slaves on that island must always toil in hopeless bondage?

When the French Republicans freed the slaves in St. Domingo, did they ask us?—When there was an effort to re enslave them, and they did their deed of blood, did they ask us? When England apprenticed and then freed the slaves in Jamaica, &c. did she ask us?

If not, why should Spain? Oh, Spain is weaker than France or England, and we are stronger now than we were then.

And this is the present state of things, is it? Tyrannical, oppressive, Catholic, priest-ridden Spain, really makes a motion in favor of liberty—and we, free, liberty-loving, protestant America, mean to put our veto on freedom, for fear it should damage "Southern interests"—that is, the interest of slavery, in one of its meanest forms.

Let all statesmen and all political economists who take this ground, remember that there is a North, an East and a West, as well as a South,—and that political parties and political events, now, are some of the most uncertain things in this uncertain world.

The following is the quantity of Breadstuffs exported from the United States, since the 1st of September last.

	Flour.	Wheat.	Indn Corn.
New York, March 6,	277,648	156,218	3,308,214
New Orleans, Feb 24,	51,605	2,277	293,625
Baltimore, March 3,	158,075	22,734	246,695
Philadelphia, Mar 3,	76,867	15,048	475,377
Other ports, March 1,	44,748	5,700	25,764
Total,	608,739	201,977	4,259,266
Same period last y'r,	2,675,051	6,687,347	2,883,631

This shows a large decrease of Flour and Wheat, but a large increase of Corn. The corn is of course nearly all of the crop of 1853; the crop of 1854 which goes to market this year, will show a large deficiency, probably.—Newburyport Herald.

A BASE SLANDER EXPOSED.

END OF A POLITICAL PRIEST.—One of the Rev. 3,000.—A Rev. Mr. Moore, who, for a year or two, manifestly edified the good people of Portsmouth, by reading to them, as his own, the sermons of others, and when his borrowed stock run short, commenced preaching his own "native" know nothingism, piously dragging his Rev. soap locks through the political quagmire, has at length asked a dismission from his charge to avoid being dismissed without asking it.

The Rev. Gentleman, to cultivate his christian humility and meekness, had a magnificent church built, which can probably never be paid for, and in the mean time contracted debts, on his own account, to the amount of some three or four thousand dollars, which he had not the means, and probably not the disposition, to pay, and so cheated his creditors, while abusing more honest and much better men than himself because they had the misfortune to be of foreign birth, or professed, and, we trust, practiced a different religion from his own. It is to be hoped that the sea gulls of old Strawberry Bank, will henceforth learn to reserve a part, at least of their reverence and worship for the Deity, instead of bestowing it all upon such political Jesuits as Moore.

As for the Rev. Mr. Moore himself, whose conscientious scruples are said to have restrained him from preaching temperance to the patronising rummies of his flock—reserving all his holy ammunition for his political paixhan; we advise him to join hands with the Rev. Mr. Jackson in the editorial department of the Phœnix. They would make as beautiful a pair of birds as were ever hatched from the dust, or ashes, of human rottenness and corruption.

The above scrap of intelligence appeared as editorial in the Democratic Republican of the 7th inst., published at Haverhill, N. H. We are authorized (says the Manchester American) by a gentleman residing in Portsmouth, who is a member of Mr. Moore's congregation, to state that it is a tissue of falsehood from beginning to end. Rev. Mr. Moore has not asked a dismission, nor is there any immediate prospect of his being dismissed. His people are well united in him, as a general thing. He has not preached "Know-Nothingism," nor any other political ism. He did, indeed, sometime ago preach a sermon against the Nebraska iniquity, which gave offence to one or two demagogue politicians. That's all. As to his being involved in debt, the facts are, he has recently paid a large sum in consequence of being bound for others, while in Philadelphia. To pay the debts of others, he has been obliged to appropriate his salary, which has deprived him of the means of the immediate payment of his debts in Portsmouth, but the means will soon be furnished him by his friends. No man acquainted with the facts impeaches his integrity in the matter.

The new meeting house, spoken of by the Republican, the people are abundantly able to pay for.

Such are the facts furnished us by Mr. Brooks, conductor on the Portsmouth Railroad, the gentleman to whom we alluded above. This piece of wholesale slander carries upon the face of it its own confutation, and it deserves the severest rebuke from every friend of truth and justice.

Much whispering has taken place in this city within 48 hours, as to who wrote the false and libellous article in the Haverhill Republican. We have no knowledge of who he is; but we can readily infer what he is, from the manner and matter of his piece. He must be a thoroughly unscrupulous and reckless wire-puller, who cares not what mischief he may do, or what pain he may inflict, if he may only stave off a few votes, by a tissue of false accusations. He must be also a fervent worshipper of slavery, and a devoted admirer of Douglass and Pettit; for he begins with an intended fatal blow at one of the Rev. 3,000, who dared to sign their names to a protest against wickedness and folly in high places. He must also be exceedingly narrow and mean in his conceptions of honesty and justice; for he takes inability to pay, as probable proof of intent to cheat.

The clergyman thus assailed, is sufficiently defended in the statements of Mr. Brooks, copied from the Manchester American;—but we have one word for the Republican, a paper which we do not see, but which is edited, we understand, by W. H. Reding, a native of this place. The libel is inserted as editorial; certainly not because the editor makes the statements of his own knowledge; for most of them are falsehoods, and therefore nobody knows them. Let him, therefore, come out like a man, and correct the whole of them. His correspondent condemns as a cheat, a man of generous impulse and liberal soul, whose chief fault is that he imprudently but kindly lent his name to a friend in business; the friend died; the debt fell on the surety; and with his own debts, was more than he could readily pay. The correspondent condemns as a plagiarist, a writer who is careful in giving credits. He styles a man a political Jesuit, who is singular open and free on all subjects, and who is by no means an ardent politician, in the pulpit or out of it. He charges him with having the magnificent church built!—Here we pause; it is built; and it is magnificent: but Mr. Moore has not much more to do with building it, or paying for it, than Uncle Toby. The Building Committee, however, who have it in charge, are rather richer than both of them: and it will be news to the people of this city, to learn that any bills on the New North Church can be bought at a discount.

The "sea Gulls of Old Strawberry Bank," gullible as they may seem, cannot quite swallow such a dose as this: and if the "beautiful bird" who wrote the article, will but show himself in his own plumage, the sea-gulls will be likely to drive him to the mountains with a full chorus of screams.

The editor of the Republican owes it to himself and to justice, either to give the name of his correspondent, or to contradict and correct his statements, and thus do what he can towards abating the libel, and diminishing the damages.

IDA MAY.—We are informed that the beautiful little white girl, recently bought out of slavery in Washington, by Senator Sumner, is now in this city, at the Rockingham House, and at the solicitation of a number of persons who saw her last evening, will remain until 10 1-2 o'clock this morning. Those who would like to see her can do so by calling at the above named house. Subscriptions will be received at the same time for a chrystalotype likeness of her; the proceeds of which are to be applied for the purchrse of a boy, the only remaining member of the family now in slavery.

☞ On account of the Annual Election, today, there will be no Lyceum Lecture this evening. Hon. John P. Hale will give the next lecture, on Tuesday evening, March 20.

☞ Post Masters, Town Clerks, Depot Masters, and Railroad Conductors, in our vicinity, are requested to send in returns of votes this P. M. if possible.

A REMARKABLE CASE.—Upon the post mortem examination of the body of Bill Poole, the pugilist, who was recently killed in New York, it was ascertained that the ball entered the breast between the fifth and sixth rib, perforating the wall of the chest, extending through the pericardium, and was found buried in the centre of the heart. The appearance of the heart, when taken out, indicated no bruise, although it was covered with inflammatory matter, and somewhat enlarged. It is remarkable that Poole should have lived nearly a fortnight with such a wound, during which time hopes were even entertained of his recovery.

BISHOP IVES.—A rumor has been circulated by one of the city papers that Bishop Ives, the recent convert to Catholicism, is at present in a state of extreme destitution, and that his circumstances are such that he is compelled to solicit alms for his daily sustenance. We are informed by reliable authority that this report is utterly false. Dr. Ives is at present, and has been ever since his return from Europe, occupying the summer residence of Archbishop Hughes, at Manhattanville, where in retirement he devotes his time to literary labors.—*N. A CLERGYMAN'S OPINION of the VEGETABLE PULMONARY BALSAM. The Rev. JOSIAH LITCH, of Philadelphia, Pa., writes:—"I was in 1853 entirely cured of a cough which had reduced me almost to a skeleton, by the use of the Vegetable Pulmonary Balsam. I have continued to use and recommend it ever since, and I regard it as one of our great staple family medicines for coughs. I do not think it second to any pulmonary medicine before the public." The Greatest Medical Discovery of the Age, is

AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS.

They don't help complaints, but they cure them.
One Box has cured Dyspepsia.
Three Boxes have cured the worst cases of Scrofula
Two Boxes have cured Erysipelas.
One Box always cures the Jaundice.
Three Boxes are sure to cleanse the system from Boils—often less than one does it.
Two Boxes have completely cured the worst of ulcers on the leg.
Small doses seldom fail to cure the Piles.
One dose cures the headache arising from a foul stomach.
Strong doses often repeated expel every worm from the body. They should be given to children, who are always more or less afflicted with this scourge.
As a gentle Physic they have no equal.
One Box cures derangement of the Liver.
Half a Box cures a Cold.
They purify the Blood, and thus strike at the foundation of every disease.
As a Dinner Pill there is not their equal in the world.
They are purely vegetable, and can do no harm, but do accomplish an unaccountable amount of good.
Prepared by DR. J. C. AYER, Lowell, Ms., and sold by every respectable Druggist in New England.
Agents in Portsmouth, W. R. PRESTON. J. H. THACHER, and D. KIMBALL, and sold by the Druggists throughout the United States. 2m f1 d&w

GOOD MUSIC.—The Mendelsohn Quartette Club, of Boston, are giving a series of concerts in Newburyport, assisted by Mrs. E. A. Wentworth. Speaking of the first, the Herald says:—

Three of the original band, the brothers Fries and T. Ryan, remain; and two new members—one we recognize as a member of the late Germania Society, and the other from the "father land of song," Germany—now compose the club. Time has wrought no other change, nor could we desire any; for that which was originally all-satisfying cannot be improved.

They gave us some pieces not before performed in Newburyport—one of these was the Overture to the Crown Diamonds, by Auber; another, Pleyel's Hymn, with variations, a sweet and touching thing.

Mrs. Wentworth exceeded expectation; and that is saying a great deal, when the best musical critics have stamped her genuine. Her voice is a pure soprano; without angles or or sharp edges, and more resembling in quality that of Jenny Lind's than any other singer we have ever heard. In the Lark Song, especially, this was apparent, in which her bird-like trilling was so smoothly executed, as to give the impression of a superior natural gift, unobscured by the obtrusive prominence of evident and labored artistic skill. In her "Comin' thro' the Rye," she extemporized some changes, which deservedly "brought down the house." Mrs. Wentworth is hereafter a success in Newburyport: this was decided impromptu by the audience, who encored each piece of hers on the programme, in repeating which she very obligingly gratified them. Indeed, her general appearance is as modest and lady-like as one could desire.

FASHIONABLE INTELLIGENCE.—The New York papers continue to publish tender bulletins of the condition of the respected devils who came so near exterminating each other a little while ago. The unhappy but valorous Poole is no more. Sad to relate, Mr. Jim Turner's arm must be amputated. Painful to declare, the indefatigable Baker has sailed for the Sandwich Islands, and will henceforth shoot only the unsophisticated children of that isk. The esteemed Harvey Young has been held to bail in $500 for a murder or two, and ex-policeman Wilder rescued him from quod.—Boston Atlas.

The New York Herald has the following item on the same subject:

Bill Poole, the pugilist, who was so savagely assaulted and shot at Stanwix Hall a couple of weeks ago, died at his residence in Christopher street, early yesterday morning, from the effects of his wounds. While it is painful to reflect upon the untimely end of this young man, it is consoling to know for a certainty that the bloody affray in which he received his death wound, has resulted in ridding our city of several of its least desirable inhabitants.

If all the parties, on both sides of this quarrel, could have destroyed one another, the State would have suffered no less.

MARINE DISASTER AND LOSS OF LIVES. Ship Wm. A. Cooper, Captain Sears, from Savannah of and for Boston, went ashore at 8 o'clock morning of 10th inst., on the beach of the Fourth Cliff, Scituate—weather thick, with snow, at the time. Three of the crew attempted to land in a boat, but it was capsized and they were all drowned. At 11 o'clock the life boat made an attempt to reach the ship, which, however, proved unsuccessful.

The crew were taken off by the life boat at 9 o'clock, A. M., Sunday, and landed on the beach. The boat made two trips taking off eight persons the first time, and ten the second.

Mr. John Murray, express Messenger from the Merchants' Exchange, states that on his way down he found the snow so deep, and so much drifted, that he was obliged to employ men at some points, to open a way with shovels.

WILMINGTON, Del., March 10.—Three buildings belonging to Garelsches Powder Mills, were blown up this afternoon, instantly killing a man named John Kane, and seriously wounding three others, who are not expected to recover. The explosion was terrific, the shock being felt a distance of several miles.

PRINCETON, N. J., March 12.—Nassau Hall, (a College,) was destroyed by fire last evening. The students lost their furniture, books, clothing, &c. Cause of the fire unknown. Loss $50,000; insured for $16,000.

SNOW STORM.—A severe snow storm prevailed along the South Shore and at Cape Cod on Friday and Saturday last, which was but little felt at Boston. We learn that the train for Barnstable which left the city Saturday afternoon, did not proceed farther than Middleboro', being prevented by the snow; the passengers returned to Boston. The train from Barnstable had not arrived at Middleboro' when they left. The storm was most severe at New Bedford and vicinity.

AN IMPORTANT DECISION.—A decision has been made by Judge Treat of St. Louis to the effect that the endorsers of a draft are not liable, in consequence of not having been notified by the holders of the protest. Instead of mailing notice to the endorsers, the holders sent a notice of protest to the bank from whom they had received the draft.

ANOTHER UNIVERSALIST COLLEGE.—It is said that $70,000 has been raised for the establishment of a Universalist College, to be located at Salisbury, Illinois. Thirty thousand more is required before the charter will take effect, and this, it is believed, will be procured before June next. This, we believe, is the second college connection with the Universalist denomination in the U. States.

KINDNESS.—The Universalist, Orthodox, and Methodist societies of Malden, tendered the use of their houses respectively to the Baptists, whose church was burnt last week.

Mr. Richardson, of the Baltimore Argus, having paid Boston a visit, writes on his return home, that the Maine Law is not strictly enforced in that city. He appears to have been much pleased with his visit, charmed to a T.

Real Estate at Auction.

WILL be sold at Public Auction, on MONDAY, March 19, 1855, the BRICK TAVERN stand situated at EPPING CORNER. Said House is two stories high, and has been built but sixteen years; is in thorough repair, and convenient for a Public House. It also has a STABLE attached to it, 94 feet long and 40 wide. The House has been kept for the last ten years by H. G. O. RUNDLETT, and has a good share of patronage. An excellent chance for a profitable investment, for any one wishing to keep a Public House in the country.

Also, at the same time a lot of WOOD LAND, lying partly in Brentwood and partly in Epping, containing six acres, more or less. There is about one hundred cords of wood standing on the same. The growth is mostly hard wood and is only one mile from the Depot of the Portsmouth & Concord Railroad, where there is a ready market for its sale.

Also, at the same time, one lot of TILLAGE LAND lying on the road leading to Chester.—This lot contains about thirty-five acres of land, and would make a good farm for any one wishing to build, as there is a very desirable site on the same for building, and it is situated only about one hundred rods from Epping Corner where there are good schools, three meeting houses, &c.—a good chance for a mechanic to purchase and build. There are two never-failing springs of water on the said lot. The land is in a high state of cultivation, and mostly fenced in by a stone wall. This affords a rare chance for any one to invest, and get a good interest for his money.

Also, at the same time and place, 3 yoke of good working Oxen—one yoke, five years old, 6 ft. 9 in. girth; one yoke, 4 years old, girt 6 ft. 7 in.; one yoke, 6 years old, girt 7 ft. One Ox-cart nearly new (a good one); 1 Harrow; 1 Plow; 6 Chains; 40 feet cable Chain; 1 Box Yokes, 2 Cows, 7 single Harnesses; 4 sets double harnesses, brass mounted; 4 stage do. brass mounted; 1 Stage Coach (9 passenger); 1 Chaise and Harness, (nearly new); 2 Concord Wagons; 1 Spring-seated Wagon, 1 top-Buggy and Harness, 4 Butcher's Carts (2 of them new and built by Abbott of Concord), 4 single Sleighs, 1 Butcher's Sleigh (new), 1 Pung Sleigh, 2 new ox-Sleds, 1 Trotting Gig, 6 Buffalo Robes, 1 Job Wagon (iron axle), 5 Shoats, 100 cords Manure now under stable.

Also, 4 good Horses—one of them a valuable Stud Horse, called the "Young Messenger," and is the best Stock horse in the State, as his stock will show for itself.

Also various other articles too numerous to mention.

All the above named property will be sold to the highest bidder and without reserve.

Terms made known at the sale. The property can be examined at any time before the sale by calling on the subscriber on the premises.

H. G. O. RUNDLETT.

The Great Specific of the Age.
OXYGENATED BITTERS!
THE ONLY SURE AND SAFE REMEDY EVER DISCOVERED
For the cure of
DYSPEPSIA,

IN ALL ITS VARIOUS FORMS, as well as Liver Diseases, Fever and Ague, Billious Complaints, Bronchitis, General Debility, and all diseases of a kindred nature.

Read the following testimony from Dr. Henry E. Morrell, a skillful physician of N. Y. city. He says—"The most effectual medicine to improve the tone and energy of the stomach is that prepared by Dr. George B. Green, of Windsor, Vt., and called the Oxygenated Bitters."

The Oxygenated Bitters do not contain a particle of alcohol in their composition, and are, of necessity, highly concentrated, to prevent the injurious action of the temperature of different climates. Each bottle, when diluted according to the directions, makes nearly half a gallon of medicine, as pleasant to the taste as lemonade; and as to quantity, quite the CHEAPEST MEDICINE.

I have employed them in a multitude of cases, and have uniformly found that, when used according to the directions, they gradually, but surely, remove, one by one, the various distressing symptoms which cluster around the confirmed Dyspeptic, restore the stomach to its lost energies, and thus lead the patient back to the enjoyment of permanent health and strength.

It has also been used by the following persons, and received their unqualified approbation:—

Prof. A. A. Hayes, M. D., State Assayer, Boston
Prof. E. K. Phelps, M. D., of Therapeutics and Materia Medica, Dartmouth College.
Hon. Myron Lawrence, Ex-President of Massachusetts Senate.
Hon. L. H. Arnold, formerly Governor of Rhode Island, now member of Congress.

IMPORTANT IMPROVEMENT
—IN—
Rotary Planing, Tonguing and Grooving Machines.

PATENTED NOVEMBER 21st, 1854.

THIS Improvement has been thoroughly tested and found to possess just what is necessary to perfect the rotary planer.

My machine will plane very much faster and better than any other now in use. I would particularly call the attention of those in want of machines for nice work, or for planing very thin, cross-grained or knotty material, to these machines, as it is impossible for them to tear or throw out loose knots.

My Clapboard Machine will plane and joint as fast as the clapboards can be put into the machine, and perform the work without sorting them so as to plane with the grain, upon any quality of clapboards, in a very superior manner, without tearing the thin edge.

Applications for rights and machines, or for further particulars, can be made to the Patentee, JAMES A. WOODBURY.

AMERICAN AND FOREIGN OFFICE.
Agency for business with the Patent Office, Washington,
76 State st., opp. Kilby st., Boston.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION TO INVENTORS. The Subscriber (late Agent of the U. S. Patent Office, under the Act of 1837) determined to present advantages, in applying for Patents, superior to those offered to inventors by others, has made arrangements whereby on applications prepared and conducted by him, THIRTY DOLLARS (instead of twenty, as paid back by others,) will be remitted by him in case of failure to obtain a patent, and the withdrawal through him within thirty days after the rejection. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments and all necessary papers and drawings, for procuring patents in this and foreign countries prepared, and advice rendered on legal and scientific matters respecting inventions, and infringement of patents.

Inventors can not only here obtain their specifications on the most reasonable terms, but can here avail themselves of the experience of 20 years' practice, an extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and correct accounts of patents granted in this and other countries; besides being saved a journey to Washington, the usual great delay there, as well as all personal trouble in obtaining their patents. Copies of claims of any patent furnished by remitting one dollar.—Assignments recorded at Washington.

R. H. EDDY,
Solicitor of Patents.

"During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, did business at the Patent Office, as Solicitor of Patents. There were few, if any persons acting in that capacity, who had so much business before the Patent Office; and there were none who conducted it with more skill, fidelity, and success. I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the best informed and most skilful Patent Solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents."

HERTS BROTHERS, having been many years engaged in the manufacture of Metallic Pens, and during that time, having devoted their unceasing attention to improving and perfecting that useful and necessary article, the result of their unceasing efforts and numerous experiments has been the construction of a Pen on a principle entirely new, combining all the advantages of the elasticity and clearness of the Quill, with six times the durability of the Steel Pen; and thus entirely obviating the only objection that has hitherto existed against the use of Steel Pens.

This Pen will be found an invaluable article in Offices, as they never need wiping, also to Banks and Schools, as they will not spatter nor cut the thinnest paper, and are warranted anti-corrosive.

CAUTION.—The universal celebrity of these Pens having induced several disreputable Makers to foist upon the public a spurious imitation, it will please to be observed that each genuine Pen is stamped, "HERTS, BROTHERS' PATENT, 1853," and each box of Genuine Pens will contain a label with a fac-simile of the Manufacturers' name.

DR. J. B. MARCHISI'S
Celebrated Catholicon,
FOR THE
RELIEF & CURE OF SUFFERING FEMALES.

It stands preeminent for its curative powers in all the diseases for which it is recommended, usually called

FEMALE COMPLAINTS.

Of these are PROLAPSUS UTERI, or Falling of the Womb; FLUOR ALBUS, or Whites; CHRONIC INFLAMMATION OF THE WOMB; INCIDENTAL HEMORRAGE OF Flooding; PAINFUL, SUPPRESSED, AND IRREGULAR MENSTRUATION, &c., with all their accompanying evils, (Cancer excepted) no matter how severe or of how long standing.

Let all interested call and obtain a pamphlet (free) containing ample proof, from the most respectable sources, of the beneficial results of its use; together with the testimony of highly experienced Physicians, who have used it in their practice, and speak from their own observations.

A WORD TO THE LADIES.

Should any entertain doubts as to the efficacy of the UTERINE CATHOLICON, I would respectfully state that I have for many years past, as my friends can well attest, been troubled with the disease for which this medicine is recommended, in its worst forms, and that I have tried its use I have been entirely cured, and thus induced to accept an agency, and offer it for the benefit of others.

MRS. S. GAIT, 38 South street, Boston.

I feel it my duty to make known to the afflicted the virtues of MARCHISI'S UTERINE CATHOLICON, which has relieved me of Female Complaints of fifteen years' standing, and of so serious a nature, that latterly my physician suspected Cancer of the Womb. I suffered extremely, and at last was entirely disabled from attending to my usual pursuits. . . . . . It has given me more relief than any thing I have ever used for these difficulties. I will take pleasure in giving further details of my case to any lady who will call on me at 67 Mill street.

Deck-Reefing Gear.

By the application of this GEAR, the Topsails of any vessel may be Reefed from the deck with remarkable facility, and carry sail much longer than when rigged in any other way. This Gear can be readily applied to any old rig, and at less expense than any other now in use.

The following is an extract from a letter recently received from Capt. Pickering, of the ship Ocean Rover, of Portsmouth, concerning its merits:—

"It has given me perfect satisfaction, and I have only to regret that it is not applied to all the topsail yards. On the passage to this port, (Charleston, S. C.,) I experienced strong gales from the S W. and had occasion to use it several times, and on every occasion it worked finely."

LITTLE DENNIE.

Little Dennie was the only son of a clergyman, who, some years since, lived on the shore of Lake George. This was before the commencement of the temperance reformation, when every family kept intoxicating liquors constantly on hand, and used them as an occasional, if not as a daily beverage.—Taught by the example of the father and his guests, the little boy contracted a love for strong drinks, that gave his parents most painful apprehensions on his account, and was the subject of their frequent but unavailing remonstrance. At length, at a barn raising which he had been permitted to attend, and where he had free access to a keg of liquor, he became dead drunk, and was laid upon a board under a tree.

About 4 o'clock his father called to accompany him home. Not seeing him, he eagerly inquired for his child; they pointed him to the place where he lay. With a heart full of sorrow, he carried him home to his mother and sisters. Together his parents watched by his bed during the tedious night that followed, not knowing but the dreadful stupor would result in his death; but fully resolved if he lived, not to leave untried any effort that might promise to save him.

It was not until the evening of the second day that he was restored to perfect consciousness. His parents thought it best not to speak to him of the cause of his illness for some days, hoping his own reflections would do him much more good; but in this they were disappointed—he did not exhibit the first symptom of remorse or consciousness that he had done wrong.

About a week after the event just related, his father invited him one pleasant morng to take a walk. Their road lay along the shore of the lake, and was lined with stately trees on either side. For a time they walked on in silence.

Dennie, said he, do you know what it was made you sick the other day?

Why, I suppose I drank too much rum, he artlessly replied.

Well, my son, do you know that I think you are in danger of becoming a drunkard?

Why, father, I know you tell me so, but I am not afraid of it. You drink rum every day, and you are not a drunkard; and when I get old enough to know how much it will do for me to drink, then I can keep from being drunk too.

They both seated themselves on a rock near the shore, and most faithfully did his father speak of the evils of intemperance, then, taking a small gold watch from his pocket, which Dennie had long desired to call his own, he said, Dennie, if you will promise me that you will never drink any more rum, I will give you this gold watch. Will you do it?

Rising from his seat, and looking his father full in the face, he replied, If it is wrong for me to drink rum, I scorn to be hired not to drink it. But I will tell you, sir, what I will do. If it is wrong for me to drink, it is wrong for you, and if you stop drinking, I will.

Had a flash of lightning burst from the cloudless sky above them, his father would not have been more startled. How could he preach or perform the laborious duties of a pastor without his daily glass of bitters?—How could he get up a cold winter's night, and go to pray by the bed of some dying parishioner, without a glass of something to prevent him taking cold? How could he attend the various ecclesiastical meetings of the church without something to help him bear the fatigues of the journey? The sacrifice was indeed great, but the welfare of his child demanded it. And summoning all his resolution with a faltering voice, he replied—I will do it, my son!- And thus they pledged themselves to Total Abstinence there.

The lake, the trees, and the pure blue sky, were their only witnesses, save only that Holy Being who is everywhere. As they retraced their steps, his father, taking the little watch from his pocket, gave it to Dennie, and said, My son, you have long wished that I would give you this watch. It is now yours as long as you keep your promise. Should that ever be broken, I shall expect you to return it to me;—till then, let it be a token to you of this promise we have now made.

Years have passed; and the same little Dennie is now a distinguished clergyman in one of the most populous western cities. Four bright little boys call him father. The same little gold watch decorates his parlor wall, and often does he point to it and tell of his danger and of his escape from the whirlpool of INTEMPERANCE.

HAUNTED HOUSES.—The Lynn Daily says that there is a good two-story house on Sagamore street, in that city, which has stood empty more than a year. Nobody will live in it because it is haunted. For the same reason, says the Worcester Transcript, there is a house in Austin street, in that city, which remains untenanted. Several attempts have been made to reside in it, but all to no purpose, the families having moved into it one night, only to move out again the next morning.

We can hardly conceive of any superstition more pitiable than this. We remember a fine old house on State street, Newburyport, at the corner of Pleasant street, which stood vacant many a year, for a similar reason. But when the town revived its trade and bustle, then strangers rushed in, and filling that house as well as the rest, soon put all the ghosts to flight, so effectually that they have never troubled the house from that day to this.

High rents are very apt to dislodge the ghosts from haunted houses. They can't stand such Jewing.

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 14, 1855.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ELECTION.

This election occurred on Tuesday. Towards this election much attention has been attracted, and much importance has been attached, as occurring in the President's State of nativity and residence.

In Wards Nos. 1 and 3 in this city, only two tickets were run, viz. by the American and Democratic parties. In Ward 2, the Whigs had a ticket of their own, a part of which was made from the American ticket.

The Democratic party fought alone, and were defeated in Nos. 1 and 2, but maintained their supremacy in No. 3.

Below will be found the vote for State and County officers, and for Mayor, in the several Wards. It will be seen that Mr. Walker has been re-elected Mayor by a handsome majority.

CONCORD, March 13.—The classed towns of Woodstock and Lincoln, yesterday, elected Benj. J. Fox, opposition, Representative.—Fox had 64, A. Wothers 59. They sent a democrat last year.

BIDDEFORD, ME.—This new city held its first charter election, on Monday. D. E. Somes had 706 votes for Mayor, and was elected. W. P. Haines had 497, and there were 4 scattering. Mr. Somes had a majority in every ward. Mr. Haines is a distinguished member of the Democratic party; and Mr. Scmes is said by his friends to be the leader of the American Anti Nebraska and Temperance forces.

The aldermen chosen are: Ward 1, Geo. Clark; 2, Cyrus K. Lunt; 3, James Andrews; 4, Amos W. Page; 5, Daniel Stinson; 6, W. H. Hanson; 7, E. H. C. Hooper.

It is understood that the whole city government will favor the enforcement of the Maine law.

AN ELEGANT EXTRACT.

Our legislators should understand, and we have no doubt they do, that the hotels and genteel restaurants are productive of more mischief than the low groggeries. Shut up what are called respectable drinking-houses, and seven-eighths of the low drunkeries would die natural deaths.—Boston Eve. Telegraph.

Comment. The above extract from the Temperance Organ is as pretty a specimen of petty malice as one can run across in a summer's day. These Prohibition fanatics and their organs have declared war against the business interests of this city, against the very interests which foster, support and keep them in existence to spit their venom upon anything and everything that contributes in the least to make Boston the great commercial centre that it is. Fortunately, the malice of these fanatics is impotent. They are like vipers biting at files. If their notions could be carried into effect, in five years from this time grass would be growing in State street, and Boston would present the same dilapidated and disconsolate appearance which characterizes the old, tradeless, worn-out commercial Emporia of Italy. Shut up the hotels and a portion of the warehouses, is the cry now. Next the Legislature will be petitioned to put an interdict upon commerce generally, as inimical to the rural simplicity and primeval agricultural mode of life, which, it will be alleged, should be led by the whole human race.—Boston Chronicle.

We copy these articles as fair specimens of what is said on both sides. And now let us say, that a respectable and genteel Hotel, need not be a drinking house for strong drinks. There are some excellent Hotels now in Boston, that have not been drinking houses for many years. So also a Grocery, wholesale or retail, or both, may exist and thrive without being a tippling shop, and without selling liquors. Grass don't grow in Portland this year, any faster than it grew ten years ago.

Don't be frightened. The spirit trade will not die utterly in Boston this year, we think: —nor do we suppose that the people would all desert the spot, if it should.

LOCAL.

IDA MAY.—We saw her at the Railroad Station in this city on Tuesday; and should not have had the least suspicion that she was a slave, or related to an enslaved race. She is a white child, whiter than the average complexion in our schools or churches. This instance, among thousands, shows that slavery does not regard color, but would as readily imbrute the white as the black.

The Boston Courier says:

Mary Eildred Botts, the young female slave, who was liberated through the agency of Senator Sumner, was in the Senate Chamber on Saturday, under the charge of Mr. Brainard, who came with her from Washington. She is a good looking child, with a pale face a very little freckled, chesnut colored hair, and has no striking characteristics of the negro race in her features.—Boston Courier.

☞ The members of the Y. M. Christian Association are notified that their Annual election of officers takes place this evening.

MORE NEW HAMPSHIRE GOLD DIGGINGS.—The Exeter News Letter says that for some six weeks past five men have been industriously employed in digging for gold in the neighboring town of Stratham, under the direction of a woman from Portsmouth, who pretends to have discovered, by means of a divining rod, the precise locality of the precious metal.

The Boston Herald says that, under the laws relating to imprisonment for debt, as they now exist in Massachusetts, upwards of eight hundred persons were incarcerated in the Cambridge street jail during the year 1854, and, in a previous year, the number of cases amounted to thirteen hundred.

And yet thousands of people in Boston, do not know or suppose that any, or but very few, men, are in jail for debt in their midst.

PRESENT TO CAPT. INGRAHAM.—The chronometer to be presented to Capt. Duncan N. Ingraham, United States Navy, from the working classes of England, as the result of a penny subscription, in token of admiration and approval of his course in the memorable case of Martin Kosta, had been received at Charleston. The instrument, which is considered equal to the best of its class, presents the following inscription: "Presented to Capt. Ingraham, of the United States Navy, by some thousands of the British working classes, for his noble conduct in rescuing Kosta, the Hungarian refugee, from the Austrian authorities, April, 1854."

UNIQUE QUOTATION.—Such of our readers as are fond of the transcendental may admire the following, which we take from an old English novel:

"Our hero then touching his left hand to the shoulder of his horse he rose perpindicularly, like a pyramid of fire, and again descended on his seat, as a flake of snow on a rosebud. He then touched his white wand to the neck of his steed, who instantly mounted the air, like a winged Pegasus; while the Duchess cried out, thinking her Harry a gone man; but he returned as composed as though he were seated on a bed of cotton."

The United States sloop-of-war Decatur, Commander Sterrett, has arrived at Valparaiso. The Decatur left Rio Janeiro, Sept. 21st, in company with steamer Massachusetts, bound to the Pacific. When a short time out they encountered a severe hurricane in which the Massachusetts received so much damage that she was compelled to put back for repairs. The Decatur was lost sight of during the gale, and it was vaguely reported that she probably foundered at the time. At our last previous advices from Valparaiso she was about one hundred and sixteen days out, during which time nothing had been heard from her, and it was feared that she was lost, or had met with some serious disaster.

The clipper ship John Land, from Boston for San Francisco, had arrived at Tabiti in distress. Had been fallen in with by the whaler D. M. Hall, which rendered assistance on terms of abandonment. Subsequently both crews mutinied. The U. S. Consul at Tahiti, and the captain, Dornin, of U. S. sloop-of-war Portsmouth had taken the matter in hand. The conduct of the whaling captain was much censured.

The barque American sailed from Tahiti for Pitcairn's Island Dec. 15, having on board Meigs, the defaulter.

CONVALESCENCE OF THE HON. JOHN M. WOOD.—It is with great pleasure that we announce the convalescence of Mr. Wood, who for several days has been dangerously ill. We know that every citizen of Portland will receive this intelligence with a pleasure equal to our own.—Portland Adv.

Hon. George Rogers, the democratic candidate for congress, has been elected selectman of Topsham, Maine, where a coalition between the whigs and democrats was successful in defeating the know nothings.—Boston Post.

The snow drifts down at Plymouth are eight or ten feet deep. The Plymouth railroad train, however, came through on Monday morning. Passengers from Boston for Duxbury, took the stage at Kingston depot on Saturday evening, but the stage stuck in the snow, and they had to walk and wade about four miles. The descendants of the pilgrims had to break out their roads on Monday.

FAST DAY.—In Massachusetts Gov. Gardner has appointed Thursday, April 5.

It is stated that Rev. F. T. Gray's life was insured for $40,000.

A CLERGYMAN'S OPINION OF THE VEGETABLE PULMONARY BALSAM. The Rev. JOSIAH LITCH, of Philadelphia, Pa, writes:—"I was in 1852 entirely cured of a cough which had reduced me almost to a skeleton, by the use of the Vegetable Pulmonary Balsam. I have continued to use and recommend it ever since, and I regard it as one of our great staple family medicines for coughs. I do not think it second to any pulmonary medicine before the public." The Greatest Medical Discovery of the Age, is
AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS.
They don't help complaints, but they cure them.
One Box has cured Dyspepsia.
Three Boxes have cured the worst cases of Scrofula
Two Boxes have cured Erysipelas.
One Box always cures the Jaundice.
Three Boxes are sure to cleanse the system from Boils—often less than one does it.
Two Boxes have completely cured the worst of ulcers on the leg.
Small doses seldom fail to cure the Piles.
One dose cures the headache arising from a foul stomach.
Strong doses often repeated expel every worm from the body. They should be given to children, who are always more or less afflicted with this scourge.
As a gentle Physic they have no equal.
One Box cures derangement of the Liver.
Half a Box cures a Cold.
They purify the Blood, and thus strike at the foundation of every disease.
As a Dinner Pill there is not their equal in the world.
They are purely vegetable, and can do no harm, but do accomplish an unaccountable amount of good.
Prepared by DR. J. C. AYER, Lowell, Ms., and sold by every respectable Druggist in New England.
Agents in Portsmouth, W. R. PRESTON. J. H. THACHER, and D. KIMBALL, and sold by the Druggists throughout the United States. 2m f1 d&w

FROM CALIFORNIA.

NEW YORK, March 12.—The steamship Illinois, from Aspinwall via Norfolk, where she put in for coal, 10th inst., arrived at this port this evening, bringing San Francisco dates to 16th ult., $1,160,000 in specie on freight, and about 300 passengers. She sailed from Aspinwall 2d inst., and passed several vessels of war off the coast of Cuba. Business was rather better. No rain of any consequence had fallen.

The legislature was still balloting for a U. S. Senator. The fiftieth ballot was taken on the 15th, and resulted as follows:—Gwinn 41, Edwards 36, Roman 15, Broderick 12, Scattering 5. Necessary to a choice, 56.

FROM THE SANDWICH ISLANDS.

H. H. Field, bearer of despatches from the Sandwich Islands, came passenger in the Illinois, and states that there are now no hopes of annexation, the King and his advisers being opposed to it.

The dates from Honolulu are to Jan. 27. Annexation negotiations has ceased by order of the king.

ALBANY, March 12.—The President of the New York State Temperance Society has issued the following call to the friends of temperance throughout the State:—The Prohibitory Law is in danger. Let all temperance men who can do so rally at the State Capitol. Let those who cannot, meet at home, and forward immediately their resolutions to their Representatives in the Senate. No time should be lost. The crisis is at hand. The bill may be shorn of its strength, or entirely lost, unless its friends rally to its support.

NEW YORK, March 11.—The heavy N. W. gales of yesterday and last night have subsided, and to-day we have fine mild weather.

An unknown schooner foundered in the terrible gale of yesterday, near Sandy Hook.—She is near the middle of the lower bay, with her mast heads in sight.

The funeral of Bill Poole was largely attended this afternoon. The streets presented the appearance of a gala day. Probably not less than twenty thousand persons were in Broadway during the passage of the procession.

THE MURDER IN SOUTH GARDNER, MASS. The two women murdered in South Gardner last week, were respectively 85 and 75 years of age. It is supposed from appearances that the murder occurred on Tuesday night, as one of the bodies was partially frozen. The first discovery was made at eight o'clock on Wednesday evening, by a young man who went there to obtain milk. The man first arrested has been discharged, and another man, a Canadian, has been arrested as the murderer. The names of the deceased were Miriam Kneeland, and Sarah K. Phinney, the latter being a widow.

THE SNOW STORM.—The New Bedford Mercury says that in Edgartown, Martha's Vineyard, the snow storm of Friday night was more severe than any which has been before experienced for thirty years. A number of dwelling houses in the valleys were completely embedded in snow above the windows of their second stories.

NEW YORK, March 12.—The steamship Star of the West sailed for San Juan, Nic., to-day, with a fair complement of California passengers.

It is stated that Lewis Baker, the murderer of Bill Poole, was got off to sea yesterday, in a vessel bound to the Canary Islands, and that the authorities intend despatching a steamer after her.

Midnight—No signs yet of the Pacific.

WASHINGTON, March 12.—Last night a married daughter of Mr. Wales, one of the capitol police, left her home mysteriously; and she was found this morning, in a neighbor's kitchen, with her throat cut. She was a highly accomplished lady.

BANGOR, March 12.—At the municipal election to-day, J. T. K. Hayward, K. N., and also a nominee of the citizens' caucus, was elected mayor over Wm. H. Mills, by the following vote:—Hayward, 1,356; Mills, 756. Aldermen and Councilmen of the same stamp were elected by similar majorities.

RONDOUT, March 12.—The steamer Santa Claus reached this place, from New York, this morning. The captain reports considerable quantities of ice between Newburg and here.

FUGITIVE SLAVE CASE.—A rumor was current in this city on Saturday, that one or more persons were here from the South in search of a runaway slave. It is said the Vigilance Committee, having received information of the matter, hurried the fugitive off towards Canada.—Boston Adv.

Real Estate at Auction.

WILL be sold at Public Auction, on MONDAY, March 19, 1855, the BRICK TAVERN stand situated at EPPING CORNER. Said House is two stories high, and has been built but sixteen years; is in thorough repair, and convenient for a Public House. It also has a STABLE attached to it, 94 feet long and 40 wide. The House has been kept for the last ten years by H. G. O. RUNDLETT, and has a good share of patronage. An excellent chance for a profitable investment, for any one wishing to keep a Public House in the country.

Also, at the same time a lot of WOOD LAND, lying partly in Brentwood and partly in Epping, containing six acres, more or less. There is about one hundred cords of wood standing on the same. The growth is mostly hard wood and is only one mile from the Depot of the Portsmouth & Concord Railroad, where there is a ready market for its sale.

Also, at the same time, one lot of TILLAGE LAND lying on the road leading to Chester.—This lot contains about thirty-five acres of land, and would make a good farm for any one wishing to build, as there is a very desirable site on the same for building, and it is situated only about one hundred rods from Epping Corner where there are good schools, three meeting houses, &c.—a good chance for a mechanic to purchase and build. There are two never-failing springs of water on the said lot. The land is in a high state of cultivation, and mostly surrounded by a stone wall. This affords a rare chance for any one to invest, and get a good interest for his money.

Also, at the same time and place, 3 yoke of good working Oxen—one yoke, five years old, 6 ft 9 in. girth; one yoke, 4 years old, girt 6 ft 7 in.; one yoke, 6 years old, girt 7 ft. One Ox-cart nearly new (a good one); 1 Harrow; 1 Plow; 6 Chains; 40 feet cable Chain; 3 ox Yokes, 2 Cows, 7 single Harnesses; 4 sets double harnesses, brass mounted; 4 stage do. brass mounted; 1 Stage Coach (9 passenger); 1 Chaise and Harness, (nearly new); 2 Concord Wagons; 1 two-seated Waggon, 1 top-Buggy and Harness, 4 Butcher's Carts (2 of them new and built by Abbott of Concord), 4 single Sleighs, 1 Butcher's Sleigh (new), 1 Pung Sleigh, 2 new ox-Sleds, 1 Trotting Gig, 6 Buffalo Robes, 1 Job Wagon (iron axle), 5 Shoats, 100 cords Manure now under stable.

Also, 4 good Horses—one of them a valuable Stud Horse, called the "Young Messenger," and is the best Stock horse in the State, as his stock will show for itself.

Also various other articles too numerous to mention.

All the above named property will be sold to the highest bidder and without reserve.

Terms made known at the sale. The property can be examined at any time before the sale by calling on the subscriber on the premises.
H. G. O. RUNDLETT.

The Great Specific of the Age.
OXYGENATED BITTERS!
THE ONLY SURE AND SAFE REMEDY EVER DISCOVERED
For the cure of
DYSPEPSIA,
IN ALL ITS VARIOUS FORMS,

AS well as Liver Diseases, Fever and Ague, Bilious Complaints, Bronchitis, General Debility, and all diseases of a kindred nature.

Read the following testimony from Dr. Henry E. Morrell, a skillful physician of N. Y. city. He says:—"The most effectual medicine to improve the tone and energy of the stomach is that prepared by Dr. George B. Green, of Windsor, Vt., and called the Oxygenated Bitters."

The Oxygenated Bitters do not contain a particle of alcohol in their composition, and are, of necessity, highly concentrated, to prevent the injurious action of the temperature of different climates. Each bottle, when diluted according to the directions, makes nearly half a gallon of medicine, as pleasant to the taste as lemonade; and as to quantity, quite the CHEAPEST MEDICINE.

I have employed them in a multitude of cases, and have uniformly found that, when used according to the directions, they gradually, but surely, remove, one by one, the various distressing symptoms which cluster around the confirmed Dyspeptic, restore the stomach to its lost energies, and thus lead the patient back to the enjoyment of permanent health and strength.

It has also been used by the following persons, and received their unqualified approbation:—

Prof. A. A. Hayes, M. D., State Assayer, Boston
Prof. E. E. Phelps, M. D., of Therapeutics and Materia Medica, Dartmouth College.
Hon. Myron Lawrence, Ex-President of Massachusetts Senate.
Hon. I. H. Arnold, formerly Governor of Rhode Island, now member of Congress.

IMPORTANT IMPROVEMENT

Rotary Planing, Tonguing and Grooving Machines.

PATENTED NOVEMBER 21st, 1854.

THIS Improvement has been thoroughly tested and found to possess just what is necessary to perfect the rotary planer.

My machine will plane very much faster and better than any other now in use. I would particularly call the attention of those in want of machines for nice stock, or for planing very thin, straight-grained or knotty material, to these machines, as it is impossible for them to tear or throw out loose knots.

My Clapboard Machine will plane and joint as fast as the clapboards can be put into the machine, and perform the work without sorting them so as to plane with the grain, upon any quality of clapboards, in a very superior manner, without tearing the thin edge.

Applications for rights and machines, or for further particulars, can be made to the Patentee,

AMERICAN AND FOREIGN OFFICE.
Agency for business with US Patent Office, Washington,
76 State st, oppo. Kilby st, Boston.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION TO INVENTORS. The Subscriber (late Agent of the U. S. Patent office, under the Act of 1837) determined to present advantages, in applying for Patents, superior to those offered to inventors by others, has made arrangements whereby on application prepared and conducted by him, THIRTY DOLLARS (instead of twenty, as paid back by others,) will be remitted by him in case of failure to obtain a patent, and the withdrawal through him within thirty days after the rejection of the invention. Specifications, Assignments and all necessary papers and drawings, for procuring patents in this and foreign countries prepared, and advice rendered on legal and scientific matters respecting inventions, and infringement of patents.

Inventors can not only here obtain their specifications on the most reasonable terms, but can have avail themselves of the experience of 20 years' practice, an extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and correct accounts of patents granted in this and other countries; besides being saved a journey to Washington, the usual great delay there, as well as all personal trouble in obtaining their patents. Copies of claims of any patent furnished on remitting one dollar.—Assignments recorded at Washington.

R. H. EDDY,
Solicitor of Patents.

"During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, did business at the Patent Office, as Solicitor of Patents. There were few, if any persons acting in that capacity, who had so much business before the Patent Office; and there were none who conducted it with more skill, fidelity, and success. I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the best informed and most skilful Patent Solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents."

HERTS BROTHERS, having been many years engaged in the manufacture of Metalic Pens, and during that time, having devoted their unceasing attention to improving and perfecting that useful and necessary article, the result of their unceasing efforts and numerous experiments has been the construction of a Pen on a principle entirely new, combining all the advantages of the elasticity and clearness of the Quill, with six times the durability of the Steel Pen; and thus entirely obviating the only objection that has hitherto existed against the use of Steel Pens.

This Pen will be found an invaluable article in Offices, as they never need wiping, also in Banks and Schools, as they will not spatter nor cut the thinest paper, and are warranted anti-corrosive.

CAUTION.—The universal celebrity of these Pens having induced several disreputable Makers to foist upon the public a spurious imitation, it will please to be observed that each genuine Pen is stamped, "HERTS, BROTHERS' PATENT, 1853," and each box of Genuine Pens will contain a label with a fac-simile of the Manufacturers' name.

DR. J. B. MARCHISI'S
Celebrated Catholicon,
FOR THE
RELIEF & CURE OF SUFFERING FEMALES.

It stands preeminent for its curative powers in all the diseases for which it is recommended, usually called

FEMALE COMPLAINTS.

Of these are PROLAPSUS UTERI, or Falling of the Womb; FLUOR ALBUS, or Whites; ULCERATION OF THE WOMB; INCIDENTAL HEMORRHAGE OF FLOODING; PAINFUL, SUPPRESSED, AND IRREGULAR MENSTRUATION, &c., with all their accompanying evils. (Cancer excepted) no matter how severe or of how long standing.

Let all interested call and obtain a pamphlet (free) containing much good, from the most respectable sources, of the beneficial results of its use; together with letters from highly experienced Physicians, who have used it in their practice, and speak from their own observations.

A WORD TO THE LADIES.

Should any entertain doubts as to the efficacy of the UTERINE CATHOLICON, I would respectfully state that I have for many years past, as my friends can well attest, been troubled with the disease for which this medicine is recommended, in its worst forms, and that by its use I have been entirely cured, and thus induced to accept an agency, and offer it for the benefit of others.

MRS. S. GAIT, 38 South street, Boston.

I feel it my duty to make known to the afflicted the virtues of MARCHISI'S UTERINE CATHOLICON, which has relieved me of Female Complaints of fifteen years' standing, and of so serious a nature, that latterly my physician suspected Cancer of the Womb. I suffered extremely, and at last was entirely disabled from attending to my usual pursuits. . . . It has given me more relief than any thing I have ever used for these difficulties. I will take pleasure in giving further details in my case to any lady who will call on me at 67 Mill street.

FOSTER'S PATENT

Deck-Reefing Gear.

By the application of this GEAR, the Topsails of any vessel may be Reefed from the deck with remarkable facility, and carry sail much longer than when rigged in any other way. This Gear can be readily applied to any old rig, and at less expense than any other now in use.

The following is an extract from a letter recently received from Capt. Pickering, of the ship Ocean Rover, of Portsmouth, concerning its merits:—

"It has given me perfect satisfaction, and I have only to regret that it is not applied to all the topsail yards. On the passage to this port, (Charleston, S. C.,) I experienced strong gales from the S. W. and had occasion to use it several times, and on every occasion it worked finely."

Morning Chronicle.

THURSDAY, MARCH 15, 1855.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ELECTION.

We have not thought it best to set up a table of votes from telegraphic returns. The Boston Post of Wednesday morning says,

In 87 cities and towns, the total vote stands, for Metcalf 16,317, Baker 11,054, Bell 1,569, Fowler 372. Metcalf's present majority over all 3,322. In the above towns, and a few others, from which we have reports, the know nothings have elected 163 representatives, the democrats 24, and the whigs 2.

Our latest despatch from Concord, dated 1.30 A. M., says—The democrats concede the election of Metcalf by at least 3,000 majority, all the opposition members of congress, and at least two-thirds of the legislature.

The Post adds:

We had rather a bad storm here yesterday, but there was a much worse one in New Hampshire.

The Boston Courier says:

The "Know Nothings" swept over the whole state, and carried all their candidates, where they were of any consequence. In Manchester, Concord, Portsmouth, Dover, Somersworth, and other large towns, the vote is so largely in favor of the Know Nothings, that we can only see that Col. Baker, the administration candidate for Governor, is in a hopeless minority. The figures are entirely against him, and the Pierce administration is most woefully wounded in the house of its friends.

Such a sweep in New Hampshire politics was never heard of before. Our invisible friends, the "Know Nothings," have taken the State by the force of their organization, and by the caving in of the major part of the Whig and Free Soil strength. The Whigs had a most excellent candidate for Governor in Mr. Bell, but as they had no chance to elect him, they ran away from him, and a large portion of them voted for one of the most obnoxious Democrats that they had ever met with in their state contests, and he is elected Governor.

The great misfortune of the Democrats is in losing the Legislature which has to elect two United States Senators. It is presumed that when the new Legislature meets in June next, it will choose Mr. Bell for the full term, and John P. Hale as the successor of Mr. Atherton.

We don't think it is quite certain yet, who will be Senators. We have some ideas as to who will not be.

The New Hampshire Patriot has been telling us all winter—

"Satan's Kingdom's tumbling down!"

In consequence of this warning, we were not wholly unprepared to see something turn up; but we must say there is rather more of a shower than we expected.

The Patriot says:

"The returns we give of the election held in this State yesterday, are sufficient to show that the various factions banded together under the black and dirty flag of Know Nothingism, have triumphed completely. This result was regarded as not improbable by a large portion of our friends, but we confess that we were not prepared for it—that we did not believe that a majority of the people of New Hampshire could be thus led astray from the path of duty, of justice, and of sound principle, by the wretched humbuggery and palpable trickery of the corrupt and mercenary demagogues whom they have so often repudiated. But we were mistaken. Knavery, chicanery and fraud have triumphed, and the banded factions have secured full control of the government. How they will use their ill-gotten power, time will show."

The Patriot concedes the election of Metcalf, the three opposition Congressmen, nine or ten of the twelve Senators, and two-thirds or more of the members of the House.

The Boston Journal of Wednesday evening has returns from 177 towns, which retain the same general character as the first returns.—In regard to the Legislature, it has the election of 189 Opposition to 53 Democrats to the House.

		1676	2026

The above table, taking the vote for Governor in 6 towns, and last year's Gov. vote in 2, —as Senatorial votes, shows Bufford's election to the Senate by about 350 majority.

EXETER.—Our correspondent at Exeter states that the Congressional vote there was, for Pike 447, Kittredge 151. From all the Congressional votes we have seen, Pike's majority appears to be larger than Metcalf's, in the district.

CITY OF PORTLAND.—The Argus informs us that Mr. Cahoon will not be a candidate for Mayor this spring; that he will retire with the personal respect of all parties; and that for his successor, the Know Nothing Lodge of that city have nominated NEAL DOW.

NOT BAD TO TAKE.

Hon. John Appleton, of Portland, editor of the Eastern Argus, has been appointed Secretary of Legation to London. In his paper of March 12, he says:

It is proper to inform our readers that we shall be absent, for a time, from our editorial chair. Before they have read this article, we shall be on our way to join the U. S. Legation at London. When we were invited to this place a few weeks ago, we felt obliged to decline it, and we then stated in the Argus, that we had no intention of going abroad. A change of circumstances, however, has induced us to comply with the President's request. In so doing we shall be withdrawn from a daily intercourse with our readers, but we hope to communicate with them every week, and to be able to make them participate a little with us in the pleasures of sight-seeing abroad. The Argus will undergo no change of ownership or of politics.

This is what we call comfortable.

The next paragraph condemns the Morrillites, after which the editor says:

Let our political friends be of good cheer. They will surely triumph at last. Let them establish their principles, agree upon their platform, and then, with one accord, under a banner whose devices are too plain to be misunderstood, let them fight on, until their enemy has disappeared!

We take no farewell of our readers, because we mean to meet them, as we have said, every week. But we wish them all health and happiness, and a generous faith in Democratic principles.

That must be indeed a generous faith, which lays hold on principles which are yet to be established; walks on a platform yet to be agreed upon; and fights under a banner whose devices are not yet emblazoned.

A grain of mustard seed is no touch to it.

It is possible, after all, that Mr. Appleton, unconsciously to himself, makes a distinction between Democratic principles, in his last line, and the principles to be agreed upon, a few lines before.

There is certainly a great difference. The Democratic principle is, that governmental power rightly resides in the whole people.—This is simple, plain, easily understood. On the other hand, the principles hereafter to be established by a certain party in Maine may be this thing, or that thing, or nothing.

☞ The National Magazine for March, contains—The City of the Sultan, with Engravings; a pleasant Sketch of John Bunyan, with 16 agreeable illustrations; also, Jane de Montport, David and Jonathan, Ruth and Naomi, each with a fine illustrative cut.—There is a good variety of matter in the number, besides. Rev. Mr. Spalding, Agent in this city.

☞ The Newburyport Herald has an indignant article against imprisonment for debt. It closes with the following paragraph:

It is of no use to say that the imprisonment is short, and they can swear out; as short as it is, it brings distress to hundreds of families—it is ruinous to many individuals, and there is no reason why the innocent should suffer with the guilty. Let those who hold back, who defraud, who conceal property and cover up their iniquity, suffer as their crimes deserve; and let them suffer for the crime, and not for debt; but there should be no law in this Commonwealth, boasting of its humanity and christianity, that takes the poor man from his family and puts him in jail because he is so unfortunate as to be poor; or that ranks poverty with felony and treason. Let the legislature make clean work of the matter, and wipe the barbarism from the statute books forever.

ILLINOIS.—It is stated that the Governor of Illinois will refuse to give Judge Trumbull a certificate of his election to the United States Senate, on the ground that the Judge is not eligible, under the clause of the constitution which prohibits any Judge of the Supreme Court from accepting any other office during the term for which he was elected Judge, nor for one year after the expiration of such term. Judge Trumbull has resigned the office of Judge, but the term for which he was elected has not yet expired.

The Chicago Times, a Douglas paper, which opposed Judge Trumbull's election, says:—

"We believe that Judge Trumbull's election is in strict accordance with the constitution of the United States, as much so as would have been the election of General Shields. That his election is unconstitutional, so far as the constitution of this State is concerned, we think is too plain to be disputed, but we have no hesitation in saying that the provision of the State constitution is void—being in conflict with the Constitution of the United States."

FUGITIVE SLAVE EXCITEMENT.—Quite an excitement occured at the City Hotel, in Pittsburg, on Wednesday morning. It appears a gentleman named Slaymaker, and his aunt, from Lancaster, Pa., arrived there en route for Illinois, having with them a colored female. The colored waiters of the hotel, supposing her to be a slave, seized Mr. S. while sitting at the breakfast table, and held him until the woman had been taken off to the house of a colored barber. Fortunately, she established, to the satisfaction of her abductors, that she was free, and was permitted to rejoin her friends and leave for Illinois.

The New York Tribune says, that in the first eight Sundays of 1854, with open grog shops, there were 900 arrests made in New York city; and on the first eight Sundays of 1855, with the grog shops closed, there were 338. So much does crime decrease with the decrease of rum. The Newburyport Herald adds,—If they could be closed every day in the week, and if there was a mayor in every city of the Union to enforce the law, is there any doubt that beneficial results would follow?

IMPROVEMENT IN KITTERY.—The Eastern Argus says, the Naval Appropriation Bill authorizes the Secretary of the Navy to permit the Seavey's Island Bridge Company to connect with the navy-yard at Kittery, Maine, a bridge extending thereto from said Seavey's Island at such poin thereto as he shall direct, and may permit a right of way through said yard from said bridge in such direction and under such regulations as the commandant of the yard for the time being shall establish under the authority of the Navy Department: Provided, That no expense whatever in connecting the bridge, or making said way across the same shall be incurred by the United States, and said bridge and said right of way, may at any time, be discontinued by the Secretary of the Navy.

☞ See advertisement of Mr. Wenzel's Picture Fair. The distribution is to be made this evening. Every ticket-holder will get a picture, worth about as much as the ticket, and many will obtain very valuable paintings.

PASTORAL DISMISSION.—Rev. David Burt, pastor of the Congregational Church at Raymond, has asked a dismission, which has been granted by an Ecclesiastical Council. The sole reason was ill health. He had been settled but three years and 4 months. He served the congregation faithfully, and evinced greater regard for the defence and progress of truth than popular applause; exhibiting the traits of a reformer, that should always be found in those who profess to be "set for the defence of the gospel." It is the fervent wish of all his friends that he may yet be able to bless men with gospel manifestations.—Exeter News Letter.

The 4 o'clock train from Portsmouth to Concord, on Monday afternoon, when just beyond Hooksett, ran off the track from the want of attention by the switchman, and proceeded several rods to the edge of a twenty-foot embankment, when it fortunately stopped. No person was injured.

PRESENTATION.—The choir, consisting of some seventy five persons, who performed at the Old Folks' Concert, Exeter, before parting presented their Musical Director, Dea. John T. Gordon, with an elegant pair of gold-bowed spectacles, as a tesimony of their high appreciation of his services. The presentation speech was made by Maj. A. P. Blake, of the Squamscott House, and was just the thing. News Letter.

A DOG TAKING ORDERS.—A friend, who resides at Somerville, has a yellow dog which he received some time ago from an Irishman, which has recently, it would seem from his manners, "joined the order," as the saying is. If an Irishman approaches within a gun-shot of his master's house the dog attacks him and keeps up a surly howl as long as the obnoxious individual remains in sight.—Boston Cour.

SEVERER THAN THE MAINE LAW.—The "Eastern Prince" of the Chinese insurgents has issued a proclamation respecting temperance, in which, after proclaiming God's abhorrence of drunkenness, he proceeds to forbid all princes and nobles, ministers of state and people, men and women, to indulge in the use of wine, even privately, under penalty of being beheaded.

AN ARGUMENT AGAINST HANGING.—The law abolishing capital punishment in Michigan took effect on the second day of March, 1847, since which time, a period of nearly eight years, only fifteen persons have been convicted of murder, and sentenced for life to solitary confinement at hard labor in the State Prison.

THE PRICE OF NEGROES.—In Camden, South Carolina, a few ago, nineteen slaves belonging to the estate of Mrs. Brevard were sold at auction for $24,575, which is an average of more than $650. The number included several children and old negroes.

"Old Folks" Choir.

THE next meeting, for business and Rehearsal, will be at EXCHANGE HALL, On SUNDAY EVENING, March 18, at 7 o'clock. All who intend joining in the Concert to be given on Wednesday Evening March 28th, for the benefit of the poor through the Howard Benevolent Society, are invited to attend.

Committee of Arrangements—Nath'l T. Moulton, N. L. Folsom, Thos. Norton, John Christie, A. Perry. Musical Director, John Christie.

A CLERGYMAN'S OPINION OF THE VEGETABLE PULMONARY BALSAM. The Rev. JOSIAH LITCH, of Philadelphia, Pa., writes:—"I was in 1853 entirely cured of a cough which had reduced me almost to a skeleton, by the use of the Vegetable Pulmonary Balsam. I have continued to use and recommend it ever since, and I regard it as one of our great staple family medicines for coughs. I do not think it second to any pulmonary medicine before the public." The Greatest Medical Discovery of the Age, is

AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS.

They don't help complaints, but they cure them.
One Box has cured Dyspepsia.
Three Boxes have cured the worst cases of Scrofula
Two Boxes have cured Erysipelas.
One Box always cures the Jaundice.
Three Boxes are sure to cleanse the system from Boils—often less than one does it.
Two Boxes have completely cured the worst of ulcers on the leg.
Small doses seldom fail to cure the Piles.
One dose cures the headache arising from a foul stomach.
Strong doses often repeated expel every worm from the body. They should be given to children, who are always more or less afflicted with this scourge.
As a gentle Physic they have no equal.
One Box cures derangement of the Liver.
Half a Box cures a Cold.
They purify the Blood, and thus strike at the foundation of every disease.
As a Dinner Pill there is not their equal in the world.
They are purely vegetable, and can do no harm, but do accomplish an unaccountable amount of good.

Prepared by DR. J. C. AYER, Lowell, Ms., and sold by every respectable Druggist in New England.

REVIEW

The Speech of Hon. J. R. Chandler,

OF PENNSYLVANIA,

On the Political Power of the Pope!

[Delivered in the House of Representatives, Jan. 10, 1855.]

By Rev. John Claudius Pitrat,

A Member of the University of France; Founder and Ex-Editor of the Journal "La Presse du Peuple," in Paris; author of "Jesuitism Unveiled," also of "Paul and Julia;" and formerly a Roman Catholic Priest.

Edw. W. Hinks & Co., Publishers,
Joy's Building, 81 Washington street.

THIS Work, from its stern rigidity of logic in meeting the arguments of Mr. Chandler, following him, as it does, step by step through the the entire length of his speech, unveiling in a masterly manner the subtlety of the Roman Catholic Theology in reference to the temporal power of the Pope, is better adapted to the enlightenment of the people upon the political influence of the Papal power, particularly in the United States, than any work heretofore published. Not a line of Mr. Chandler's Speech is suppressed in this review, but the whole is taken up, sentence by sentence, and

His Defence of Papacy is entirely Overthrown.

72 Pages. PRICE—per single copy, 12½ cents; per dozen, $1; per hundred, $7. Persons at a distance inclosing to the Publishers $1.25 (post paid) will receive one doz. copies of the Review free of postage.

TEN DAYS LATER FROM EUROPE.

ARRIVAL OF THE PACIFIC.

NEW YORK, March 14.—Steamship Pacific, Captain Comstock, has just arrived, bringing London dates to the 27th ult.

In parliament Roebuck's motion of inquiry into the conduct of the war was carried.—Messrs. Gladstone, Herbert and Graham resigned.

Lord John Russell has been appointed Colonial Secretary.

Lord Raglan is reported to have resigned. Lord Lucan has been recalled.

Cotton quiet; some descriptions 1-2d lower. Breadstuffs slightly declined. Consols unchanged.

Joseph Hume is dead.

The Vienna Peace Conference will be opened in a few days. All parties profess an anxiety for peace.

It is officially announced by the Allies, that on the 17th, Gen Liprandi, with 40,000 Russians and 70 guns, attacked the Turks at Eupatoria. Omar Pacha commanded the Turks. The battle lasted four hours, when the Russians retired, with a loss of 500.

Affairs before Sebastopol are entirely unchanged.

There was much distress in England, owing to the unusually severe winter. Great riots had occurred at Liverpool and London, in consequence; but the weather having moderated, and a large number of ships having arrived, giving employment to many of the sufferers, the riots had ceased.

Rumor gives Lord Elgin a seat in the Cabinet as a member of the Board of Control.

The members of the Government express confident hopes that the pending negotiations will lead to an honorable peace, although war measures continue all over Europe.

Louis Napoleon seems determined to proceed to the Crimea. England and Austria have advised him to stay at home.

Russia has declared war against Sardinia.

It is stated, but not confirmed, that Tuscany has joined the Western powers, but Naples had not.

The Russian force was superior to that of the Turks at Eupatoria. The English shotted and shelled the Russians severely.

On the 19th, the royal assent was given to the North American Fisheries Bill.

DREADFUL ACCIDENT.

CONCORD, Mar. 13.—This morning, while the balloting for a moderator was going on at the town meeting at Meredith Village, part of the floor of the new Town House fell through, precipitating about 300 persons a distance of eighteen feet, upon a pile of stones, rubbish, &c. Six of these, George Clark, John Ommead, John Leavitt, Hiram Plummer, B. C. Tuttle, and Thomas Eastman, were so severely injured, that no hopes are entertained of their recovery. Of 43 others, injured, some had both legs broken, and the others had thigs, arms, legs and ribs broken, and many are in most imminent danger. Twenty six men were considerably bruised, and all who fell were more or less hurt. The scene was a fearful one, and the election proceedings were stopped. A defective joist was said to be the cause of the disaster. The building was new, and was erected by Mr. George Cram, in strict accordance with specifications. The gap through which the unfortunate men fell was 30 feet by 14. Two men were reported to have died before the train left Meredith Village, at 2 o'clock.

The Meredith Bridge Democrat, Extra, of Wednesday morning, says James Durgin and John O. M. Ladd are dead. Nathaniel Nichols and George Clark are reported dead.

A defective joist might be the occasion of the disaster; but the cause of it lies further back in the modern and foolish style of erecting slender buildings, especially public buildings.

HOMICIDE ON SHIPBOARD.—There was a disturbance on Saturday night, among the crew on board the ship Lady Suffolk, lying in Nantasket Roads, bound to Mobile, which resulted in the death of one of their number. It appears that the men were intoxicated, and had a fight in the forecastle, but it was quelled, and the men retired to their berths. Soon afterwards, one of them, named James McCoy, got up to light his pipe, when another named Tobias Johnson, immediately got out of his berth, took a sheath knife and stabbed McCoy in the side, wounding him so severely that he died about twenty minutes afterwards. Capt. Tarleton, of the Harbor Police, went down to the ship yesterday, accompanied by Coroner Smith, arrested Johnson, and brought him up to the city, together with four or five of the crew, to be used as witnesses, and committed them to jail.—Boston Adv.

The New York Herald tells of a secret society in Canada, resembling the Know Nothings, but with an oath of secrecy stronger and more binding, having for its object the release of the province from allegiance to the crown, and the formation of an independent republic. The lodges are said to be numerous, extending to most of the townships.

The Kinney expedition is entirely broken up, by the withdrawal of Kinney and others from the enterprise. So it is said, and we shall see if it proves true. It is certain that the object was the revolution of Central America, and the implanting of negro slavery there.

A terrible affray at Sand Hill, on the Yuba river, is recorded. It grew out of a dispute about a mining claim. Three men were killed, including Mr. Rice, from Washington Me., and Mr. Webster, from Concord, N. H.

Four retailers of "Orange county milk" were arrested at New York on Saturday, upon the affidavit of a person who saw them drive their carts up to a pump and fill their cans, at the same time putting in a white powder. Sixty infants died in New York last week in convulsions.—Boston Post.

Geo. Stacey, the young man arrested for the murder of the old ladies in Gardner, has been committed for trial in Worcester, bloody clothes and the possession of money since the murder, which he had not before, being suspicious circumstances against him.

Real Estate at Auction.

WILL be sold at Public Auction, on MONDAY, March 19, 1855, the BRICK TAVERN stand situated at EPPING CORNER. Said House is two stories high, and has been built but sixteen years; is in thorough repair, and convenient for a Public House. It also has a STABLE attached to it, 94 feet long and 40 wide. The House has been kept for the last ten years by H. G. O. RUNDLETT, and has a good share of patronage. An excellent chance for a profitable investment, for any one wishing to keep a Public House in the country.

Also, at the same time a lot of WOOD LAND, lying partly in Brentwood and partly in Epping, containing six acres, more or less. There is about one hundred cords of wood standing on the same. The growth is mostly hard wood and is only one mile from the Depot of the Portsmouth & Concord Railroad, where there is a ready market for its sale.

Also, at the same time, one lot of TILLAGE LAND lying on the road leading to Chester.—This lot contains about thirty-five acres of land, and would make a good farm for any one wishing to build, as there is a very desirable site on the same for building, and it is situated only about one hundred rods from Epping Corner where there are good schools, three meeting houses, &c.—a good chance for a mechanic to purchase and build. There are two never-failing springs of water on the said lot. The land is in a high state of cultivation, and mostly fenced in by a stone wall. This affords a rare chance for any one to invest, and get a good return for his money.

Also, at the same time and place, 3 yoke of good working Oxen—one yoke, five years old, 5 ft 9 in. girth; one yoke, 4 years old, girt 6 ft 7 in.; one yoke, 6 years old, girt 7 ft. One ox-cart nearly new (a good one); 1 Harrow; 1 Plow; 6 Chains; 40 feet cable Chain; 3 ox Yokes, 2 Cows, 7 single Harnesses; 4 sets double harnesses, brass mounted; 4 stage do. brass mounted; 1 Stage Coach (9 passenger); 1 Chaise and Harness, (nearly new); 2 Concord Wagons; 1 two-seated Waggon, 1 top-Buggy and Harness, 4 Butcher's Carts (2 of them new and built by Abbott of Concord), 4 single Sleighs, 1 Butcher's Sleigh (new), 1 Pung Sleigh, 2 new ox-Sleds, 1 Trotting Gig, 6 Buffalo Robes, 1 Job Wagon (iron axle), 5 Shoats, 100 cords Manure now under stable.

Also, 4 good Horses—one of them a valuable Stud Horse, called the "Young Messenger," and is the best Stock horse in the State, as his stock will show for itself.

Also various other articles too numerous to mention.

All the above named property will be sold to the highest bidder and without reserve.

Terms made known at the sale. The property can be examined at any time before the sale by calling on the subscriber on the premises.

The Great Specific of the Age.

OXYGENATED BITTERS!

THE ONLY SURE AND SAFE REMEDY EVER DISCOVERED

For the cure of

DYSPEPSIA,

IN ALL ITS VARIOUS FORMS, AS well as Liver Diseases, Fever and Ague, Billious Complaints, Bronchitis, General Debility, and all diseases of a kindred nature.

Read the following testimony from Dr. Henry E. Morrell, a skillful physician of N. Y. city. He says:—"The most effectual medicine to improve the tone and energy of the stomach is that prepared by Dr. George B. Green, of Windsor, Vt., and called the Oxygenated Bitters."

The Oxygenated Bitters do not contain a particle of alcohol in their composition, and are, of necessity, highly concentrated, to prevent the injurious action of the temperature of different climates. Each bottle, when diluted according to the directions, makes nearly half a gallon of medicine, as pleasant to the taste as lemonade; and as to quantity, quite the CHEAPEST MEDICINE.

I have employed them in a multitude of cases, and have uniformly found that, when used according to the directions, they gradually, but surely, remove, one by one, the various distressing symptoms which cluster around the confirmed Dyspeptic, restore the stomach to its lost energies, and thus lead the patient back to the enjoyment of permanent health and strength.

It has also been used by the following persons, and received their unqualified approbation:—

Prof. A. A. Hayes, M. D., State Assayer, Boston
Prof. E. E. Phelps, M. D., of Therapeutics and Materia Medica, Dartmouth College.
Hon. Myron Lawrence, Ex-President of Massachusetts Senate.
Hon. L. H. Arnold, formerly Governor of Rhode Island, now member of Congress.
Hon. J. F. Simmons, U. S. Senator from R. I.

IMPORTANT IMPROVEMENT IN

Rotary Planing, Tonguing and Grooving Machines.

PATENTED NOVEMBER 21st, 1854.

THIS Improvement has been thoroughly tested and found to possess just what is necessary to perfect the rotary planer.

My machine will plane very much faster and better than any other now in use. I would particularly call the attention of those in want of machines for nice work, or for planing very thin, crossgrained or knotty material, to these machines, as it is impossible for them to tear or tarpon out loose knots.

My Clapboard Machine will plane and joint as fast as the clapboards can be put into the machine, and perform the work without sorting them so as to plane with the grain, upon any quality of clapboards, in a very superior manner, without tearing the thin edge.

Applications for rights and machines, or for further particulars, can be made to the Patentee, JAMES A. WOODBURY.

AMERICAN AND FOREIGN OFFICE.
Agency for business with US Patent Office, Washington,
70 State st., opp. Kilby st., Boston.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION TO INVENTORS. The Subscriber (late Agent of the U. S. Patent Office, under the Act of 1837) determined to present advantages in applying for Patents, superior to those offered by numerous others, has made arrangements whereby on applications prepared and conducted by him, THIRTY DOLLARS (instead of twenty, as paid back by others,) will be remitted by him in case of failure to obtain a patent, and the strictest of Secrecy kept within thirty days after the rejection. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments and all necessary papers and drawings, for procuring patents in this and foreign countries prepared, and advice rendered on legal and scientific matters respecting inventions, and infringement of patents.

Inventors can not only here obtain their specifications on the most reasonable terms, but can here avail themselves of the experience of 20 years' practice, an extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and correct accounts of patents granted in this and other countries: besides being saved a journey to Washington, the usual great delay there, as well as all personal trouble in obtaining their patents. Copies of claims of any patent furnished by remitting one dollar.—Assignments recorded at Washington.

R. H. EDDY,
Solicitor of Patents.

"During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, did business at the Patent Office, as Solicitor of Patents. There were few, if any persons acting in that capacity, who transacted more business before the Patent Office; and there were none who conducted it with more skill, fidelity, and success. I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the best informed and most skilful Patent Solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents."

"PATENT OFFICE, ——

"R. H. EDDY, Esq., Boston, Mass.

HERTS BROTHERS
AMALGAMATED IRIDIUM ZINC & PLATINA
PENS.
WARRANTED NOT TO CORRODE.

HERTS BROTHERS, having been many years engaged in the manufacture of Metallic Pens, and during that time, having devoted their unceasing attention to improving and perfecting that useful and necessary article, the result of their unceasing efforts and numerous experiments has been the construction of a Pen on a principle entirely new, combining all the advantages of the elasticity and clearness of the Quill, with six times the durability of the Steel Pen; and thus entirely obviating the only objection that has hitherto existed against the use of Steel Pens.

This Pen will be found an invaluable article in Offices, as they never need wiping, also to Banks and Schools, as they will not spatter nor cut the thinest paper, and are warranted anti-corrosive.

Caution.—The universal celebrity of these Pens having induced several disputable Makers to foist upon the public a spurious imitation, it will please to be observed that each genuine Pen is stamped, "Herts Brothers' Patent, 1853," and each box of Genuine Pens will contain a label with a fac-simile of the Manufacturers' name.

DR. J. B. MARCHISI'S Celebrated Catholicon,

FOR THE RELIEF & CURE OF SUFFERING FEMALES.

It stands pre-eminent for its curative powers in all the diseases for which it is recommended, usually called

FEMALE COMPLAINTS.

Of these are Prolapsus Uteri, or Falling of the Womb; Fluor Albus, or Whites; Chronic Inflammation of the Womb; Incidental Hemorrhage or Flooding; Painful, Suppressed, and Irregular Menstruation, &c., with all their accompanying evils. (Cancer excepted) no matter how severe or of how long standing.

Let all interested call and obtain a pamphlet (free) containing ample proof, from the most respectable sources, of the beneficial results of its use; together with letters from highly experienced Physicians, who have used it in their practice, and speak from their own observations.

A WORD TO THE LADIES.

Should any entertain doubts as to the efficacy of the Uterine Catholicon, I would respectfully state that I have for many years past, as my friends can well attest, been introduced into the families in which this medicine is recommended, in its worst forms, and that by its use I have been entirely cured, and thus induced to accept an agency, and offer it for the benefit of others.

MRS. S. GAIL, 60 South street, Boston.

I feel it my duty to make known to the afflicted the virtues of Marchisi's Uterine Catholicon, which has relieved me of Female Complaints of fifteen years' standing, and, of so serious a nature, that latterly my physicians suspected Cancer of the Womb. I suffered extremely, and at last was entirely disabled from attending to my usual pursuits.

It has given me more relief than any thing I have ever used for these difficulties. I will take pleasure in giving further details of my case to any lady who will call on me at 67 Mill street.

FOSTER'S PATENT

Deck-Reefing Gear.

By the application of this GEAR, the Topsails of any vessel may be Reefed from the deck with remarkable facility, and carry sail much longer than when rigged in any other way. This Gear can be readily applied to any old rig, and at less expense than any other now in use.

The following is an extract from a letter recently received from Capt. Pickering, of the ship Ocean Rover, of Portsmouth, concerning its merits:—

"It has given me perfect satisfaction, and I have only to regret that it is not applied to all the topsail yards. On the passage to this port, (Charleston, S. C.,) I experienced strong gales from the S W. and had occasion to use it several times, and on every occasion it worked finely."

FICTITIOUS SPIRITS.

We don't mean ardent spirits, good reader, but counterfeit ghosts. The New York Herald publishes a curious communication from San Francisco. It appears that some months since, the writer, Mr. F. C. Ewer, of San Francisco, took it into his head to prepare for the California Pioneer Magazine, a fiction of rather a bold and original conception, undertaking to describe the sensations of a dying man during the moment of dissolution, and sketching the scene which opens to the soul as it enters upon its second existence.

Mr. Ewer says:

Knowing that the subject would necessarily involve me in ideas somewhat metaphysical in their character, I determined, in order to render what I had to write the more attractive, to surround it with a story in the narrative style.

My first difficulty was to account apparently for the manner in which the strange information concerning death and the physique of the future world was to reach the earth; and it occurred to me that the best mode of overcoming this difficulty would be to assume a fictitious character, describe his death, represent him as conversing up to the last moment, and then allow him to give the remainder of his experience of death, and a description of that which was opening to his gaze, by means of "spiritual manifestations," so called. I gave the name of John F. Lane to my leading fictitious character, located the occurrences in San Francisco, and entitled the article, "The Eventful Nights of August 20th and 21st."

Two or three months after it was published, I received a letter from Judge Edmonds, in which he stated that his attention had been called to the article by a friend in San Francisco, and that he had copied the first half of it into the November number of "The Sacred Circle." This was quite a surprise to me, but the surprise was as nothing to my astonishment on being made acquainted by him with the fact that he had several 'spiritual' interviews with my defunct fictitious character, 'John F. Lane.' * * *

To complete this singular history, allow me to state that Judge Edmonds, in laying before his readers the first half of my article, publishes the letter from his friend, Mr. J. E. Austin, of this city, with a statement that he gives the article for what it is worth. In his December number, however, he publishes the conclusion, with a prefix, in which he says, that although some who have read the article doubt its truth, there is nothing in it too marvellous for him to believe; and, finally, settles the matter, so far as he is concerned, by an additional prefix, dated Nov. 4th, in which he publishes a report of a spiritual conversation about the affair between himself and Lane, containing, among other curious announcements from the latter, a promise to the effect that further communications were to come from him through me. I merely desire, by way of parenthesis, to inform Judge Edmonds and his friends, that I said all I wished to say in 'the Eventful Nights'—that I consider Mr. John F. Lane exceedingly dead, and that I do not intend to write another fiction in which he shall figure.

A spiritual medium, named Rodolph, lectured in Syracuse, on Saturday evening, on the origin of the Devil. His conclusion was, that this celebrated character was of heathen origin, and purely imaginary. A short speech, says the Standard, was at the same time made by the spirit of Daniel Webster, regretting his disregard of the claims of humanity while on earth, and especially a short speech made in Syracuse in relation to the prospective execution of the Fugitive Law.

Henry Ward Beecher says—"I never knew an early rising, hard working man, careful of his earnings and strictly honest, who complained of bad luck. A good character, good habits, and good industry are impregnable to the assaults of all ill luck that fools ever dreamed of."

THE WINTER IN ITALY.—The winter here has thus far been wet, chilly and disagreeable, differing entirely from the last, which was uniformly clear and cold. The Americans are pushing on for Rome and Naples, though from all accounts the weather is much the same in these more southern cities. In no part of "Sunny Italy" is the winter-climate favorable for invalids, but "still they come!"—Correspondence Newark Advertiser.

Previous to Mr. Soule's arrival in Paris on his way to England, an article appeared in the Republican Siecle, ostensibly from Madrid, to the following effect:—"Mr. Soule has quitted our capital. The evening before his departure, he took official leave of the queen. Isabel gave him a most flattering reception—such a one as indicated an affectionate interest."

The Independance Belge announces the intended emigration of Victor Hugo to the United States. The death of his brother, Abel Hugo, affected him so deeply that he has resolved to quit his retreat at Jersey, and try a change of scene. The two brothers, in their literary tastes and political opinions, were entirely opposed to each other.

RUM WORKS.—John Green, aged about eighteen years, was found in a dying condition, lying upon the ground in Oxford, on Sunday morning last. He died shortly after. Evidences were sufficient to cause the supposition that his death was occasioned by rum. Boston Times.

Morning Chronicle.

FRIDAY, MARCH 16, 1855.

THE PRESIDENT'S OPINION. — A letter from Concord, to the Boston Post, dated March 14, says—

Although defeated, the 27,000 good and true democrats in the State are neither conquered nor disheartened. Every man feels that he has nobly done his duty, and thanks God this morning that he is not a Hindoo. I have been permitted to copy the following high-toned sentiment from a late private letter of our patriotic President to a friend in this city, which is pertinent to the point. The letter is dated about a week ago. Gen. Pierce says—

"I am naturally anxious about the result of the election in New Hampshire. But tell my friends that, if after a contest conducted with the ability, honor and courage with which this has been, we are defeated, such defeat, under such circumstances, will never disturb me for a moment. If you could have carried the State with the aid of any one of the isms, by a majority of 20,000, and would have consented to do so, I should, in my feelings, have sounded the depths of humiliation. As it is, no disappointment can depress me."

Will somebody, who understands such matters, please to harmonize these statements, with the well known and never disputed fact, that such men as Governor Baker, Rev. Mr. Williams, and fifteen hundred others of whom President Pierce here speaks, actually embraced Know-Nothing Ism; and probably did so in the hope to escape this defeat.

THE BOSTON TIMES.— This well known and able paper of the Democratic party in Massachusetts, makes merry over the crash in New Hampshire, in a little article, headed with a picture of two circus-clowns turning somersets, and says,—

The above elegant engraving will give our readers an idea of the situation of the old parties in the Granite State at the present writing—all heels over head!

We are happy to inform our readers that the reports of the Concord Patriot, to the effect that nearly five thousand Know Nothings had left their lodges, is strictly true—they left them, it appears, to go to the polls and vote the Know Nothing ticket!

We would also inform our readers that the communication in the Times, averring that five hundred Know Nothings had left a lodge in a certain town, must have been written under a delusion, as there are not that number of voters in the place!

EASTERN ARGUS.—This is, as most of our readers know, the organ, in Portland, of the present federal administration. The Argus of March 15, says,

Gov. Baker of New Hampshire, will soon issue a proclamation for a day of Fasting, Humiliation and Prayer. It is expected to be very solemn and pathetic. "Sam" don't intend to keep the day, as he is fast enough already, and prays on the spoils. His day of "humiliation" will come.

MAINE LEGISLATURE.—A friend in the legislature has sent us a copy of the Revised and improved Maine Law, which is now before the Legislature.

In the House on Monday, the consideration of the liquor bill was resumed, and debate proceeded on the question of allowing churches to provide themselves with wine for sacramental purposes.

Mr. Cole of Harrington, contended that sacramental wine need not contain any alcoholic properties, and that the churches could supply themselves with suitable wine, without violating the liquor law.

Messrs. Brown of Bridgton, and Jones of China, spoke against the Senate amendment, only two voting in favor. [So agents are prohibited from selling wine for sacramental purposes.]

An attempt was made to amend, so as to say, each town shall establish a liquor agency, instead of may, as it now reads: it was voted down, 25 to 64. Imprisonment for first offence in selling, was sustained, 36 to 48.

LUXURIES.—The Boston Advertiser of March 15, gives the following item of business in the Massachusetts Legislature on Wednesday.

In the House various orders of enquiry were adopted, one of them having in view the expulsion from the Clerk's desk, of tobacco, snuff, and camomile flowers, which have been furnished for the use of the members.

This upsets all Uncle Toby's ideas of legislative dignity and propriety. The old man was heard to say in his haste, that if he were clerk, he would expel the dirty stuff without waiting for orders.

The city of Portsmouth supplies its Alms House with snuff and tobacco for the inmates; but we never heard that the State of New Hampshire filled the State House with snuff and tobacco, or cider and peanuts for the legislators.

THE NEW POSTAGE LAW, requiring prepayment of all letters within the United States, will go into operation on the first of April, as appears by a circular from the Postmaster General.

This is an excellent provision; and the law is, on the whole, a great improvement on former postage laws. But it does not, as it ought, abolish franking. That yet remains to be done, by little and little.

Brigham Young, the Prophet, thinks that St. Paul, in saying that a bishop should be the husband of one wife, meant, not to interdict him from having any more, but that he should have at least one wife to begin with.

HUNT'S MERCHANTS' MAGAZINE,—for March (published by Freeman Hunt, New York,) contains, as usual, a mass of most valuable information. Among the articles is the following, on

THE PERILS OF MINING IN ENGLAND.

A petition has been addressed to the House of Commons from the "pitmen," or miners, working in the collieries of Durham and Northumberland. Upwards of 3,000 of these poor people subscribed their names or their marks to its contents. The leading allegation of the memorial is sufficient to establish its character. "About one thousand persons," it is said, "are killed annually in the mines of this country." "What," says the London Times, "would be said or thought if, once in every twelvemonth, an entire regiment, with all its officers, such as we now see it marching out for embarkation, were to be totally destroyed by some frightful catastrophe? On what conclusions should we have formed if, while we were admiring the splendid exhibitions at Chobham last summer, we had been assured on statistical proof that every man of the 10,000—infantry, cavalry, and artillery, guards, rifles, and Highlanders—would come to a violent death in his own country by the year 1863? Yet this is actually the rate at which we kill our miners—10,000 in ten years. A good deal used to be said, and with great reason, about the terrible mortality in our squadrons on the African station. Now, the total mean force of men employed on that duty for a period of twenty-one years was 20,604, and the total amount of deaths in that number, during that period from all causes, disease and accidents included, was 1,338; so that one year and a half destroys more lives in our coal mines than were destroyed in twenty-one years by the climate of Africa and the casualties of sea service. Nor is this all; for, as the petitioners declare, they are suffering also such continuous and perpetual injury from the standing condition of the mines that many of them are brought prematurely to their graves."

IGNORANCE OF LEARNED SCHOLARS.—A correspondent of the Boston Transcript, H. K. O., of Lawrence, Mass., refers to the following amusing statements which occur in the Encyclopædia of Geography, a ponderous 8vo. of 1600 pages, edited by Hugh Murray, F. R. S. E., assisted by Professors Wallace and Jameson, of the University of Edinburgh, and Professor Hooker, of the University of Glasgow, and Mr. Swainson, F. R. S., and F. L. S., and published in Edinburgh.

'The United States territory is separated from Canada by the St. Lawrence River.' (p. 1827.)

'New England, now the most flourishing of the States,' &c. (p. 1387.)

'The President continues in office four years, and may be re-elected. But this has not taken place with any except Washington.' (p. 1338.)

'The general aspect of the Eastern States, is that of an unbounded forest." (p. 1340)

'The rivers running across the Eastern States have been united at different points, and it is expected that a continued interior line from North to South, will be ultimately formed.' (The writer is speaking of canals. p. 1342.)

'Dr. Franklin, once on a journey, judged it wise to bear upon his person a label, expressing his name, his business, whence he came, and whither he was going.' (p. 1343)

'There are twenty five colleges, and seventy four academies, under the patronage of the general legislature, and a national university has been planned.' (p. 1344.)

'Boston, the capital of Massachusetts, of the State of New England, and, until lately, of the whole Union, is built on a peninsula.' 'East Boston, where all the business is carried on, consists of a number of narrow streets and alleys,' &c. (p. 1346.)

'New Hampshire, stretching south from Massachusetts, occupies a very great part of the surface of New England,'—and in this State 'nothing is more common than to see a grandmother at forty, and the mother and daughter are often suckling children at the same time!!!' (p. 1347.)

THE SPOLIATION SUFFERERS.—A letter from Washington states that the disappointed and twice vetoed French Spoliation claimants do not intend to cease their endeavors. They will come with increased force upon the next Congress, and in that they expect confidently to carry the last vetoed bill, by a constitutional majority of two-thirds, at the next session. They do not propose to go before the Court of Claims, as has been suggested, and the court would probably decide that the recent act establishing the court does not embrace those claims. It will be observed, however, that the court is to consider all such cases as Congress may refer to it, and they may refer these claims for examination and adjudication. It has often been proposed by the parties that they should be referred to some legal tribunal. Boston Courrier.

A new Religious Society—Spiritualists—has been formed in Chelsea, that is composed of the greater part of the Unitarian Society, with Rev. Henry J. Hudson at their head, who has become preacher for the new society, together with many Orthodox, Baptists and Methodists, making a large and flourishing church.

MERCANTILE LIBRARY ASSOCIATION.—The total receipts from both courses of lectures delivered the past winter before the Association were $3,887 50. Expenses $3,401 50, leaving a balance of $436. Hon. Thomas H Benton, and Hon. Geo. R. Russell, declined receiving any compensation for their services. But one course is to take place hereafter. Two don't pay.—Boston Bee.

A bill has been reported in the New York Senate, which provides that no estate, real or personal, shall hereafter be bequeathed, devised or conveyed to any corporation, body politic or person, for pious or charitable uses, except by deed or will, duly acknowledged and attested at least six months before the decease of the testator.

FIVE CENT SAVINGS BANK.—The Boston Savings Bank, School street, is progressing finely.—Since its commencement, in May last, it has opened accounts with seventy-three hundred persons. Its average deposits are now more than fourteen hundred dollars, daily.

LOCAL.

NEWCASTLE TOWN MEETING.

We have a small account to settle with the N. H. Patriot, relating to Newcastle Town Meeting. The books are now posted, and here is the account current, with days, dates, and facts.

On the 6th of March, the town officers of Newcastle were chosen: on the 7th we converted with citizens of N., and from them learned that certain men were chosen Town Clerk and Selectmen, and that

All these were candidates on the K. N. ticket; and they were elected, as we are informed, by about 20 majority over the ticket of the regular democratic party.

This statement we published on the 8th.

On the same day, Capt. Thos. E. Oliver handed in a note for publication, signed by himself, requesting us to "correct" our notice, and saying

The facts are these:—A Democratic Moderator was chosen, and the Selectmen were chosen without opposition, being the same as last year. There was no feeling of opposition manifested by either party.

This note, as a matter of course, we published on the 9th; and with it we also published Capt. Oliver's verbal statements to us, in answer to our questions. These statements quite neutralized the note, making the correction amount to nothing.

The Daily Patriot of the 10th, published Capt. Oliver's Note, saying,

This "letter from Capt. Oliver, a highly respectable citizen of that town, published in the Portsmouth Chronicle, effectually explodes this 'Hindoo' electioneering lie."

The Patriot, however, did not publish our correction of Capt. O.'s correction, nor even alluded to it;—but added the following appendage:

A friend of ours wishes to bet $25 that the Democrats will carry the town on Tuesday next.

Now mark the sequel. Here it is, in the shape of a full return of Newcastle Votes on the 13th.

	For Moderator.
Verranus C Rand	78	Thomas Curtis	63
	For Governor.
Ralph Metcalf	78	Nath B Baker	67

Now, this return bears out our statement from first to last: but it destroys the attempted correction, root and branch. As a piece of news, the whole item was of little consequence; but we aim to be historically correct, in relation to elections as well as every thing else, and are willing to correct and amend ten times, if need be, to set history right. When, however, any one undertakes to correct us, and we correct him on the spot and at the time,—the whole account together, or its substance, is the only true statement.

We do not complain that the Daily Patriot in the suppressio veri above exhibited, did injustice to us; but we do respectfully ask, Did it not deceive its own readers? And was not this done with eyes open, and with our plain statement in full view?

☞ Rev T Starr King lectured before the Mercantile Association on Thursday evening, giving the Story of Constantine and his Times, with its Lessons.

It was an admirable lecture, and was heard with fixed attention for an hour and a half in spite of the cool and smoky atmosphere of the room.

☞ An Election will be held, according to law, this day, in Ward 3, (Old South,) to choose one Common Councilman, instead of Mr. Thos. S. Gammon, who declines.

☞ The K Ns of Exeter, rang the church bells and fired cannon on Thurday noon, in honor of their victory in this State.

SCHOOL HOUSES.

Now that we have a City Government which can be organized, and can work together,—by all means let us have large, airy, comfortable school rooms, for the Boys' and Girls' High Schools. There has been abundance of talk on this question. Now, let us have action; beginning with designs from the most approved models elsewhere; and then inviting proposals for suitable sites, with prices annexed.

SCHOOL DISTRICT MEETINGS.— District No. 1, will hold its Annual Meeting on March 28, at half past 7 in the evening.

District No. 2, will hold its meeting on the same day, at 4 o'clock in the afternoon.

The Greatest Medical Discovery of the Age, is
AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS.
They don't help complaints, but they cure them.
One Box has cured Dyspepsia.
Three Boxes have cured the worst cases of Scrofula
Two Boxes have cured Erysipelas.
One Box always cures the Jaundice.
Three Boxes are sure to cleanse the system from Bolls—often less than one does it.
Two Boxes have completely cured the worst of ulcers on the leg.
Small doses seldom fail to cure the Piles.
One dose cures the headache arising from a foul stomach.
Strong doses often repeated expel every worm from the body. They should be given to children, who are always more or less afflicted with this scourge.
As a gentle Physic they have no equal.
One Box cures derangement of the Liver.
Half a Box cures a Cold.
They purify the Blood, and thus strike at the foundation of every disease.
As a Dinner Pill there is not their equal in the world.
They are purely vegetable, and can do no harm, but do accomplish an unaccountable amount of good.
Prepared by DR. J. C. AYER, Lowell, Ms., and sold by every respectable Druggist in New England.
Agents in Portsmouth, W. E. PRESTON, J. H. THACHER, and D. KIMBALL, and sold by the Druggists throughout the United States. 2m f1 d&w

CONCORD, March 15.—Returns from 205 towns give the following result:

Metcalf 31,735, Baker 25,584, Bell, 3,206, Fowler 1,164. These towns last year gave Baker 28,153; all others 27,140.

Twenty-three towns and voting places remain to be heard from. These gave, last year, Baker 1990, all others 1039. The returns from these places will probably reduce Metcalf's majority to 1200 or 1500.

BALTIMORE, March 13.—Extensive fires are prevailing in the woods of South Carolina and Georgia. A despatch from Columbia says:—"Tremendous fires are raging all around us. In and about Lexington, houses, mills, fences, and a vast amount of property have been destroyed, and at last accounts the town itself was threatened with destruction. On the Charlotte road, the woods for many miles are on fire. Many saw mills and dwellings have been burnt, and the railroad has caught fire in several places, causing an interruption to travel.

In Camden, the railroad depot, a number of houses and the telegraph poles have been consumed, thereby preventing any communication with the North. On the South Carolina Railroad, the woods on both sides of the track are burning, and a car loaded with cotton was consumed near Gadsden yesterday. It was feared that the track would also take fire. The woods are also burning on the Greenville road. There was a tremendous gale yesterday, rendering fruitless all efforts to stay the flames.

The Savannah papers also say that fires were raging extensively in the pine woods, between that city and Macon. The railroad was in great danger, and cotton trains had ceased running.

BALTIMORE, March 14th.—The Southern mail as late as due has arrived. The Charleston Courier gives additional details of the destruction caused by the fires in the woods in South Carolina and Georgia. Many houses, mills and a great deal of other property had been destroyed, together with several railroad trains of cotton. Whole plantations with all the buildings on them had been swept away. The turpentine distillers also suffered. 300,000 turpentine boxes were burnt.

The Charleston military companies were called out to settle the difficulties on the North Eastern Railroad, and 30 rioters had been arrested.

MORE ABOUT THE STORM.—We learn from Cape Cod that the storm was very severe there, and that a considerable number of vessels were wrecked. Our correspondent at Provincetown writes:—"The gale commenced here on Saturday morning at 3 o'clock, and continued until 11 o'clock at night. It was equal to the great gale of 1853."

The schr. Hutoka, Capt. Drinkwater, of Northport, Me., went ashore in the breakers, near the house of the Humane Society, and all hands were lost. She was from Norfolk with naval stores.

The body of Capt. Jonathan Sears, of the ship Wm. A. Cooper, was washed ashore at Scituate, on Monday. He was about 26 years old, and belonged in Yarmouth.

HORRIBLE!—The political contest is as active in Virginia as it has been in New Hampshire, and the language of the press of the Old Dominion is more grandiloquent than that of its sister at the North, but its epithets are a little more choice than those principally used in the Granite State. Thus, the Richmond Enquirer says of the Know Nothings:—"Every Democrat should burn with a vindictive desire to dip his dagger in the blood of the assassin that conspires not only destruction of the party, but the overthrow of the liberties of the country." This sounds bloody, but those who read the Virginia journals know that the savage words are only used in a Pickwickian sense.—Boston Courier.

MEREDITH TRAGEDY.—A letter from the scene of the late disaster at Meredith, on election day, reports James W Dargan, George Clark, Nathaniel Nichols, S M Tuck and J O M Ladd as dead. Many others are fatally injured. Over 100 persons had bones broken.

THE FREMONT LAND CASE.—The decision of the great California land case by the Supreme Court of the United States, is in favor of Col. Fremont. We learn from the National Intelligencer that opinion of the court was delivered by Chief Justice Taney, dissenting opinions being given by Justices Catron and Campbell.

Real Estate at Auction.

WILL be sold at Public Auction, on MONDAY, March 19, 1855, the BRICK TAVERN stand situated at EPPING CORNER Said House is two stories high, and has been built but sixteen years; is in thorough repair, and convenient for a Public House. It also has a STABLE attached to it, 94 feet long and 40 wide. The House has been kept for the last ten years by H. G. O. Blake, and has a good share of patronage. An excellent chance for a profitable investment, for any one wishing to keep a Public House in the country.

Also, at the same time a lot of WOOD LAND, lying partly in Brentwood and partly in Epping, containing six acres, more or less There is about one hundred cords of wood standing on the same. The growth is mostly hard wood and is only one mile from the Depot of the Portsmouth & Concord Railroad, where there is a ready market for its sale.

Also, at the same time, one lot of TILLAGE LAND lying on the road leading to Chester.—This lot contains about thirty-five acres of land, and would make a good farm for any one wishing to build, as there is a very desirable site on the same for building, and it is situated only about one hundred rods from Epping Corner where there are good schools, three meeting houses, &c.—a good chance for a mechanic to purchase and build. There are two never-failing springs of water on the said lot. The land is in a high state of cultivation, and mostly fenced in by a stone wall. This affords a rare chance for any one to invest, and get a good interest for his money.

Also, at the same time and place, 3 yoke of good working Oxen—one yoke, five years old, 6 ft. 9 in. girth; one yoke, 4 years old, girt 6 ft. 7 in.; one yoke, 6 years old, girt 7 ft. One Ox-cart nearly new (a good one); 1 Harrow; 1 Plow; 6 Chains; 40 feet cable Chain; 8 ox Yokes, 2 Cows, 7 single Harnesses; 4 sets double harnesses, brass mounted; 4 stage do. brass mounted; 1 Stage Coach (9 passengers); 1 Chaise and Harness, (nearly new); 2 Concord Wagons; 1 two-seated Waggon, 1 top-Buggy and Harness, 4 Butcher's Carts (3 of them new and built by Abbott of Concord), 4 single Sleighs, 1 Butcher's Sleigh (new), 1 Pung Sleigh, 2 new ox-Sleds, 1 Tedding Gig, 6 Buffalo Robes, 1 Job Wagon (iron axle), 6 Shoats, 100 cords Manure now under stable.

Also, 4 good Horses—one of them a valuable Stud Horse, called "Young Messenger," and is the best Stock horse in the State, as his stock will show for itself.

Also various other articles too numerous to mention.

All the above named property will be sold to the highest bidder and without reserve.

Terms made known at the sale. The property can be examined at any time before the sale by calling on the subscriber on the premises.

The Great Specific of the Age.
OXYGENATED BITTERS!,
THE ONLY SURE AND SAFE REMEDY EVER DISCOVERED
For the cure of
DYSPEPSIA,

IN ALL ITS VARIOUS FORMS, As well as Liver Diseases, Fever and Ague, Bilious Complaints, Bronchitis, General Debility, and all diseases of a kindred nature.

Read the following testimony from Dr. Henry E. Morrell, a skillful physician of N. Y. city. He says:—"The most effectual medicine to improve the tone and energy of the stomach is that prepared by Dr. George B. Green, of Windsor, Vt., and called the Oxygenated Bitters."

The Oxygenated Bitters do not contain a particle of alcohol in their composition, and are, of necessity, highly concentrated, to prevent the injurious action of the temperature of different climates. Each bottle, when diluted according to the directions, makes nearly half a gallon of medicine, as pleasant to the taste as lemonade; and as to quantity, quite the CHEAPEST MEDICINE.

I have employed them in a multitude of cases, and have uniformly found that, when used according to the directions, they gradually, but surely, remove, one by one, the various distressing symptoms which cluster around the confirmed Dyspeptic, restore the stomach to its lost energies, and thus lead the patient back to the enjoyment of permanent health and strength.

It has also been used by the following persons, and received their unqualified approbation:—

Prof. A. A. Hayes, M. D., State Assayer, Boston
Prof. E. K. Phelps, M. D., of Therapeutics and Materia Medica, Dartmouth College.
Hon. Myron Lawrence, Ex-President of Massachusetts Senate.
Hon. L. H. Arnold, formerly Governor of Rhode Island, now member of Congress.

A QUEER RECOMMENDATION.—Hon. Zadoc Pratt lectured before the Mechanics' Institute in New York, on Thursday evening, and a New York paper advised every body to go, because the gentleman "had dressed the hides of more horses than any man in the country." Zadoc is a tanner.

VERY GOOD.—The New Orleans Picayune, in complimenting the New York Mirror, says of its perusal of the latter:—"We, in this, at all events, resemble the most beautiful of its readers—that there is nothing which gives us more pleasure than a daily glance at the Mirror."

At Painesville, Ohio, a dancing party for the relief of the poor raised $75. Those who could not conscientiously patronize a dance, appointed a committee to raise funds for the same object, who collected $1 in money, two pieces of pork and five pounds of butter.

The Namasket Gazette speaks of the great buttonwood trees planted more than a hundred years ago by Rev. Roland Thatcher, the first pastor of the Congregational church in Wareham, and says they are yet as strong as ever.

The father of Matt. Ward, the murderer, who brought suit against the city of Louisvill, for injuries done his house by the mob last spring, has lost his suit on demurrer. He gets no compensation.

BOUNTY LANDS.

TO all who have been in the Naval or Military Service of the United States since 1790, procured by

THO'S PEMBER,
No. 15 Devonshire Street, Boston.

Congress has passed "The Old Soldiers' Bounty Land Bill" which grants 160 acres to all the seamen, marines, militia, volunteers, wagoners, teamsters, rangers and regulars, now surviving, who served as above for a period exceeding four teen days; and to the widows or minor children of such as are deceased. The Advertiser will give prompt attention to all cases of this description, and possesses unusual facilities for their speedy settlement. March 5, 1855. 1m

THE GREAT STANDARD REMEDY
FOR ALL PULMONARY DISEASES.

Containing neither Prussic Acid, Tartar Emetic, nor any other deleterious drug. Extensively used and tested and approved in New York, England, Canada, and the British Provinces during a period of THIRTY YEARS by Eminent Physicians, Clergymen, Professors of Colleges, Theological Seminaries, Scientific and Distinguished Public Men,—and, in fact by all classes in the community. See Pamphlets and wrappers containing Certificates, among which are those of Rev. Dr Lyman Beecher, Boston, late President of Lane Theological Seminary, Cincinnati, Ohio.—Late Rev. Dr. Leonard Woods, Abbott Prof. of Theology in Andover Theological Seminary, Mass.—Hon. Daniel F. Thompson, Secretary of State of Vermont.—N. F. Williams, Esq., formerly Collector of the Port of Baltimore, Md.—Rev. Josiah Litch, Philadelphia,—and many others.

HOW ESTEEMED BY PHYSICIANS.—JOHN A. BERRY, M. D., Saco, Me., says, "During a practice of twenty years, I have seen used all the popular remedies for Coughs, and am well satisfied that your VEGETABLE PULMONARY BALSAM is best, and I hope will be better known, and more generally used."

AMALGAMATED IRIDIUM ZINC & PLATINA
PENS,
WARRANTED NOT TO CORRODE.

HERTS BROTHERS, having been many years engaged in the manufacture of Metallic Pens, and during that time, having devoted their unceasing attention to improving and perfecting that useful and necessary article, the result of their unceasing efforts and numerous experiments has been the construction of a Pen on a principle entirely new, combining all the advantages of the elasticity and clearness of the Quill, with the times the durability of the Steel Pen; and thus entirely obviating the only objection that has hitherto existed against the use of Steel Pens.

This Pen will be found an invaluable article in Offices, as they never need wiping, also to Banks and Schools, as they will not spatter nor cut the thinest paper, and are warranted anti-corrosive.

CAUTION.—The universal celebrity of these Pens having induced several disreputable Makers to foist upon the public a spurious imitation, it will please to be observed that each genuine Pen is stamped, "HERTS, BROTHERS' PATENT, 1853," and each box of Genuine Pens will contain a label with a fac-simile of the Manufacturers' name.

DR. J. B. MARCHISI'S
Celebrated Catholicon,
FOR THE
RELIEF & CURE OF SUFFERING FEMALES.

It stands pre-eminent for its curative powers in all the diseases for which it is recommended, usually called

FEMALE COMPLAINTS.

Of these are PROLAPSUS UTERI, or Falling of the Womb: FLUOR ALBUS, or White: Retention, Inflammation of the Womb; Incidental Hemorrhage or Flooding; Painful, Suppressed, and Irregular Menstruation, &c., with all their accompanying evils. (Cancer excepted) no matter how severe or of how long standing.

Let all interested call and obtain a pamphlet (free) containing full proof, from the most respectable sources, of the beneficial results of its use; together with letters from highly experienced Physicians, who have used it in their practice, and speak from their own observation.

A WORD TO THE LADIES.

Should any entertain doubts as to the efficacy of the Uterine Catholicon, I would respectfully state that I have for many years past, as my friends can well attest, been intrusted with the sale of that for which this medicine is recommended, in its worst forms, and that by its use I have been entirely cured, and thus induced to accept an agency, and offer it for the benefit of others.

MRS. S. GAIT, 38 South street, Boston.

I feel it my duty to make known to the afflicted the virtues of Marchisi's Uterine Catholicon, which has relieved me of Female Complaints of fifteen years' standing, &c., of so serious a nature, that infactory physicians suspected Cancer of the Womb. I suffered extremely, and at last was entirely disabled from attending to my usual pursuits. . . . . It has given me more relief than any thing I have ever used for these difficulties. I will take pleasure in giving further details of my case to any lady who will call on me at 67 Mill street.

FOSTER'S PATENT
Deck-Reefing Gear.

By the application of this GEAR, the Topsails of any vessel may be Reefed from the deck with remarkable facility, and carry sail much longer than when rigged in any other way. This Gear can be readily applied to any old rig, and at less expense than any other now in use.

The following is an extract from a letter recently received from Capt. Pickering, of the ship Ocean Rover, of Portsmouth, concerning its merits:—

"It has given me perfect satisfaction, and I have only to regret that it is not applied to all the topsail yards. On the passage to this port, (Charleston, S. C.,) it experienced a gale from the S. W. and had occasion to use it several times, and on every occasion it worked finely."

THE "HIGHER LAW" AND THE LOWER. On Saturday, one of our citizens who holds a berth in the Boston custom house, before coming home bought a lot of fine trout for his Sunday dinner, making them into an official looking yellow paper bundle; he then took his dinner at a restaurant, sitting by the side of a strong free soil senator, who had made up a similar bundle of gobd abolition documents for his Sunday feast. Our friend, on reaching home, delivered his bundle to the Hibernian damsel, with a charge to forthwith clean the contents. With watering mouth and eager anticipation, he put his head into the kitchen to see how the work progressed, and there stood Biddy by the opened package, holding up three of Theodore Parker's sermons on the "higher law." "Sure, sir, them ain't trout," said she. "Good gracious, no!" groaned our friend, as he slowly became convinced that he had changed bundles in Boston with the abolition senator, and had brought away that which he regarded quite as scaly as his trout, but infinitely less digestible. As the senator had a great speech to prepare, we fear that the two bundles fell into mutually unappreciative hands, though the trout would much sooner commend themselves to the maw of a tyro than would the sermons.—Lowell Cour.

HORACE GREELEY'S BELIEF.—"I have, he has lately written, "for thirty years, earnestly hoped and believed that our Father in Heaven will bring the whole human race into a state of willing and perfect reconciliation to himself and obedience to his laws, consequently one of complete and unending happiness. But as to the time when and the means whereby this consummation is to be attained, I have no immovable conviction; though my views have generally accorded nearly with those held by the Unitarian Restorationists. In other words, I believe that the moral character formed in this life, will be that in which we shall awake in the life to come; and that many die so deeply stained and tainted by lives of transgression and depravity, that a tedious and painful discipline must precede and prepare for their admission to the realms of etenal purity."

A DRIVING TRADE.—One of the editors of the Galveston News has lately paid a visit to Eagle Pass, on the Rio Grande, and by way of amusement went over on the Mexican side of the river, danced at fandangoes, waltzed lovingly with the Mexican girls at a dime for fifteen whirls, had a good time generally, and so forth, besides having his horse stolen. He says the town (Pesdas Negras) is a promising place, and, upon the whole, thriving—that smuggling is carried on extensively, and is thought respectable and profitable, but that horse-stealing is the staple on both sides of the river, and the only really reliable constant trade.

RUM'S DOINGS.—At Gennessee, N. Y., on the M. and M. R. R., is a drunkery kept by a cripple. While "dead drunk," and lying helpless upon the track, both his legs were run over and severed from his body. The legless sot, seated on a stool, now, by the aid of his wife, does what he can for the injury of others. Last Sunday, he sold rum to a boy fourteen years of age. While drunk, the boy froze to death. The corpse, as it was carried home, was the first news which greeted his friends.—Boston Bee.

We have a horrid story from Port Gibson, Miss., showing the lamentable effects of falling from grace. It seems that a member of the church who had been suspended, had made application to be reinstated, and all members consented except Dr Woodward, the pastor. The excommunicated member became indignant, and while the trial was in progress, he rushed upon Rev. Dr Woodward, and stabbed him to the heart, in front of the pulpit of the Methodist church. The reverend martyr expired instantly.—Boston Post.

At Lewisville, Indiana, a Methodist preacher by the name of Scott was knocked down, stabbed and killed by a man named Hickman. Boston Post.

Morning Chronicle.

SATURDAY, MARCH 17, 1855.

MORE COMMENTS.

We have already given extracts from the N. H. Patriot, Boston Post and Times, and Portland Argus, exhibiting their views and feelings, as they look at our recent election. We now give an extract from another quarter, viz., the (Concord) Independent Democrat.

We have always believed that, whenever the issue of Freedom and Slavery was distinctly presented to the people of this State, a majority would be found true to Freedom. Last Tuesday proclaims that we were not mistaken. The issue was presented. The verdict has been taken and entered of record. By her popular vote for Governor; by sending three tried and true champions of free American principles to Congress; by electing an overwhelming majority of free men with free principles to the Legislature, has New Hampshire uttered a three-fold voice for Liberty, Equality, Fraternity and everlasting Right. * * * * Cowering and quivering before the indignation they have aroused, the panders of Slavery, Intemperance, Catholicism and every manner of evil, lie stunned and prostrate at the people's feet.

We thank God and the People for it. We thank the power of Principle and Truth for it. We can almost thank the insufferable wickedness of the men, whose treason to liberty and country, kindled a flame in the hearts of the people which has burned them up. Such be the fate of all traitors, in all time.

THE TUMBLE-DOWN TOWN HOUSE.—Our readers know already, that the Town House in Meredith, which fell through and killed the people on Town Meeting Day, was a new building, erected last summer, and said to be "exactly according to specification," by which we understand it was a miserable cheap thing, let out by contract to the lowest bidder.

The building, at the time of the disaster, was crowded with people. The N. H. Patriot thus describes it:

It is internally, 80 feet in length by 50 in width. The front portion is level with the street, and the eastern end is raised on brick and wood supports, some 18 feet above the level of the soil below. That part of the floor which fell in, was situated near the eastern end, and within three feet of the desk at the same end, and extended into the area of the Hall some fourteen feet. The width of the gap was 30 feet, and the depth to which the unfortunate individuals fell, was 18 feet.

The centre joist, or beam, in the defective portion of the flooring, fell in first, piling those who went through the gap in one mass below.

A very brief examination enabled us to discover that the joist in the centre of the portion of the floor which fell in, was rotten near the middle; also that the tenons of the cross joists had not been inserted in their mortises more than one inch on either side. A full pressure on the floor, such as that furnished by the thickly wedged crowd Tuesday, would make it subside considerably, and reduce the depth of the tenons in the mortises in a corresponding degree; but had not the rotten joist broken, no danger could have been apprehended on that account. As it was, the whole space of 30 by 14 feet of the floor, joisting, braces and all, fell in.

From this description we do not hesitate to say, that it was a flooring not fit to be made. It is not to find fault with what is done and cannot be undone, however, that we copy this; but rather for the purpose of warning this city and all towns within our reach, to make all their public buildings, not only strong enough to make it probable that they will stand,—but also a trifle stronger than absolute need seems to require, so that every body, even the most timid, may feel safe, in the conviction that they cannot be thrown down by a crowd.

KANSAS AND THE SQUATTERS.—The Newburyport Herald mentions several parties of emigrants, some of them from that city, going out to Kansas;—and says:—

These persons will reach the territory in time to vote for the first Legislative Council, the election coming off the last part of this month. From the rumors that reach here, however, it is probable the slaveholders from Missouri will out-vote all o hers. Senator Atchison has gone up to attend to the matter, as he did last season; and while there are but few slaves or slave holders actually residents, yet under what they call "squatter sovereignty"—the right to go over the line and vote and return again to their homes—the Missourians, who are determined to establish slavery there, will do as they please for the present. The time must come when this will stop, or there will be serious and bloody work before Kansas is admitted as a State.

This is a beautiful illustration of "the Great Principle" of Popular Sovereignty and Self Government, for which so many patriots of the Douglas and Nebraska order, fought, and almost bled and died, politically, some months ago.

Considerable excitement was occasioned in the New Jersey legislature, last week, by the announcement of an attempt to bribe one of the members, $1000 being offered him for his vote.

The bribery committee of the New Jersey legislature have reported the names of prominent, respectable men who attempted to bribe certain members. Whether they will be punished is another question.—Boston Post.

Exactly: but they ought to be, beyond question. Otherwise the legislature sanction bribery, and invite further bribes.

Ex-Senator Badger, of North Carolina, has opened a law office in Washington, for the purpose of practicing in the new court of claims. The Washington Organ speaks of him as one of the ablest lawyers in the Union.

He is an able lawyer who is able to "get a living" by the legitimate practice of his profession, without douceurs from "institutions," or extraordinary fees for doing political or lobbying jobs. A fair, honest lawyer may be a good member of society, and against such no prejudice ought to be entertained.—Boston Post.

Ex-Senator Badger is the man who wished to raise the pay of Congressmen, because he spent all his pay and $3,000 per annum besides, in living in Washington. He must be an extravagant man; but "political and lobbying jobs" are numerous and profitable in Washington.

THE SENATE AND COUNCIL.—The Concord Reporter of Friday, states that additional returns received, indicate that the American Party have elected their candidates in every Senatorial and Councillor District in New Hampshire.

CONCORD.—On Tuesday the 13th, as we learn from the Reporter, in the city of Concord, the whole American ticket for city and ward officers, in every ward, was carried. Rufus Clement was chosen Mayor, by 1214 votes: Ezra Carter had 653.

DESPERATE ATTEMPT AT SUICIDE IN CAMBRIDGE.—On Thursday evening between the hours of 5 and 7 o'clock, Mrs. Minerva Hastings, wife of Mr. Isaac Hastings, who is now in California made a desperate attempt at suicide. She was found in her room, at the house of her father-in-law, with a ghastly wound in her throat, which she had inflicted. At eight o'clock in the morning she was still alive, but no hopes are entertained of her recovery. The cause of this rash act is supposed to have been aberration of mind, resulting from the absence of her husband, who has been gone from home three years, and not having received that kindness from him which she thought was due her. A few days ago she received a letter from him desiring her to come to California, as he never intended to return here. This, with other questionable acts of her husband, and also being in ill health, was the probable cause of her attempt at self-murder.—Boston Herald.

LABOR IN ITALY.—What the Italians of this day lack is invention, at least in the useful arts. The inventive faculty seems to have run out, as the creative spark has gone out, with the light of past ages. Nor will they adopt the inventions of others, they are so suspicious of innovations on old usages. A modern plough would be here eyed as an insurrectionist; or the motions of a labor saving saw or scythe as democratic movements, to be at once put down. It makes one's back ache to see two able bodied men sweating away at a hand saw, their very foreheads sending forth steam enough, meanwhile, to saw fifty boards to their one, if they did but know it; or one poor man tugging single handed at some slow instrument of barbarism, which takes more time in fitting and turning it to use, than is left for using it. To go forth into these fields is to learn lessons of patience from man and beast—to meditate whole sermons on reform, while the superannuated plow 'drags its slow length along' in the track of its forefathers.

Henry A. Wise having gone over the State of Virginia, fighting the shadow of Know Nothingism, raving and foaming like a wild, mad man, has at last got tired out, and gone quietly to his home. If his labors do not prove more beneficial in the state as a whole, than in the towns which have had their local elections and all gone for the American ticket, it will be a sorry day for him. Alexandria, where he made his grand speech of five hours, and was thought to have killed the monster, gave a native majority of more than five hundred for Mayor, the other day; and the Washington Organ says, the State of Virginia is sure to go the same way by not less than 10,000 majority. Alas! for poor Wise, if that be the case.—Newburyport Herald.

The Postmaster at Exeter, in sending his return to the Boston papers, did not send the figures, but simply a line, saying "Every thing gone to the d—l."

The new Legislature of New Hampshire is said to be one of the ablest bodies that ever assembled in that State. Instead of proscribing the talent and intellect of the State, the dominant party have invited the most distinguished men of the State to places of honor and trust.—Newburyport Herald.

NEW YORK, March 14.—THE POOLE CASE. It was reported to-day, at Judge Stu rt's office, that Baker, the murderer of Poole, left the brig Isabella Jewett when she was becalmed in the bay, and landed on the Jersey shore. Officers have been sent in pursuit.

At Templeton, Mass., on the 13th, Edward Hosmer had his right foot sawed off by a circular saw in his mill, and died while the doctors were amputating the stump. He had been representative, selectman, assessor, &c., and was much esteemed.

THE MURDERER CHAPMAN.—Chapman, the young man who murdered Mr. Coners at Sherbourne, over a year since, and who has once been tried, one of the jury holding out against a conviction, is, it is said, dying of consumption.

South Africa appears to be nearly as far morally advanced as the society at Utah. One of the Zulu chiefs, called Ed Corzan, rejoices in the possession of twenty wives, all of whom are daily dismissed to the labors of the field.

WASHINGTON, Mrch 14.—Late Mexican advices represent the people as leaving the capital, and state that numerous failures of traders in that country were taking place.

The wharves and slips owned by New York city have been let about 7 per cent. under last year's prices.

LOCAL.

REMEMBER THE POOR.—There are scores of little boys and girls in this city, who are so scantily clothed and so destitute of shoes, that they cannot attend church or Sabbath school on Sunday, and are mortified when they go to the day school. Some have no shoes at all, and are obliged to absent themselves from school, while doubtless there is clothing enough in the city—that will only be food for moths the coming summer—to make these children comfortable. Seventy five cents or a dollar will furnish a good boy a pair of shoes that would send him to the Sabbath and day schools rejoicing. Second hand clothing or money to aid the poor, will be thankfully received at the office of the City Missionary, No. 74 State street.

GOSPORT.—We watched with eagerness for news from Gosport. Here, we thought, is a place secure from "Sam's" influence. But we were mistaken. By the attention of John W. Randall, the vigilant Town Clerk, we have received information of the election.—Baker has 14 votes, Metcalf 12. William C. Newton, democrat, is elected representative.—Gazette.

[We have been reading of late the volume of poems by B. P. Shillaber, Esq., of this city, published a year or two since, entitled "Rhymes with Reason and Without." Mr. S. is widely known as a humorous writer, but few who have not seen this volume are aware how much of deep poetic feeling there is in the man. There is touching pathos in the following lines. We have often looked over the so-called specimens of our American poets, and among those who are highly lauded in such works, we have seen many poems which will not compare in merit with quite a number of this volume.]—Boston Telegraph.

WITHERED GRASS.

Like the still surface of the little lake,
The heart is ruffled by the merest breath;
A word, a look, a flower, will oft awake
A crowd of memories from their seeming death.

And late a simple tuft of faded grass
Did rustle o'er my heart-strings with a tone
Of old affection, which had slept, alas!
Since the blest object of that love had flown.

My mind recalled therein the image fair,
Of her who bound the flowers in all their pride;
But who, more frail than summer-blossoms are,
Bowed her fair head, and in her spring-time died.

I lived again the love-illumined hours,
When sweet communion cast around its spell,
Beneath the arches of those fragrant bowers,
Adorned with roses that she loved so well.

Anew her smile made bright the hastening day,—
How fleet it flew with Annie by my side!
Her eye beamed on me with its golden ray,
Her cheek still blushed in youth and beauty's pride.

Her voice once more its tender music poured
Upon my eager, all-attentive ear,
And every syllable, of old adored,
My listening spirit bowed itself to hear.

Her little hand sought mine, in beauteous trust;
Her rounded cheek was press'd against my own;
Alas! remembrance turns the hand to dust,
The rounded cheek in memory lives alone;

Until the veil dividing us is riven,
When, roaming on that bliss-environed plain,
To our enfranchised spirits it is given
To join in loved companionship again.

E'en though an angel's crown adorn her head,
Though bliss ecstatic be around her cast,
I can but deem the love once on me shed
Is constant still, enduring to the last.

Rev. R. Cadden stated in the Methodist Baltimore Convention, the other day, that two hundred preachers of that body chewed tobacco, and one hundred smoked cigars, all of them expending $6,000, which he said would support two missionaries in China. Some of the preachers defended themselves, affirming that tobacco did them good, though Bishop Waugh said, he did not see how any minister of God could make such a statement

Pliny Cooley, in Palmer, has been fined $17 47 for kissing Mrs. Mary Clark, against her will. Upon this, the Don Juan of the Springfield-Republican impudently says—"We know damsels over there who wouldn't make a fuss about such a little matter."—The editor of the Republican had better keep what he knows to himself, and not print it in his newspaper.—The "damsels" will hardly thank him.

A CLERGYMAN'S OPINION of the VEGETABLE PULMONARY BALSAM. The Rev. JOSIAH LITCH, of Philadelphia, Pa., writes:—"I was in 1853 entirely cured of a cough which had reduced me almost to a skeleton, by the use of the Vegetable Pulmonary Balsam. I have continued to use and recommend it ever since, and I regard it as one of our great staple family medicines for coughs. I do not think it second to any pulmonary medicine before the public." The Greatest Medical Discovery of the Age, is

AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS.

They don't help complaints, but they cure them.
One Box has cured Dyspepsia.
Three Boxes have cured the worst cases of Scrofula
Two Boxes have cured Erysipelas.
One Box always cures the Jaundice.
Three Boxes are sure to cleanse the system from Bile—often less than one does it.
Two Boxes have completely cured the worst of ulcers on the leg.
Small doses seldom fail to cure the Piles.
One dose cures the headache arising from a foul stomach.
Strong doses often repeated expel every worm from the body. They should be given to children, who are always more or less afflicted with this scourge.
As a gentle Physic they have no equal.
One Box cures derangement of the Liver.
Half a Box cures a Cold.
They purify the Blood, and thus strike at the foundation of every disease.
As a Dinner Pill there is not their equal in the world.
They are purely vegetable, and can do no harm, but do accomplish an unaccountable amount of good.
Prepared by DR. J. C. AYER, Lowell, Ms., and sold by every respectable Druggist in New England.

March 15.

FOUR DAYS LATER FROM EUROPE.

ARRIVAL OF THE AFRICA.

HALIFAX, March 15.—The royal mail steamship Africa, Capt. Harrison, from Liverpool, at 10 o'clock on the morning of the 3d inst., arrived here to day.

MOST IMPORTANT.—Latest.—Death of the Emperor of Russia.—London, Friday night, 2d. This evening in the House of Lords, Lord Clarendon rose and said—"I think it my duty to communicate to your lordships the contents of a telegraphic despatch, which I received half an hour ago, from Her Majesty's Minister at the Hague, that the Emperor Nicholas of Russia died this morning at one o'clock, of pulmonic apoplexy, after an attack of influenza. I have also received a despatch from Her Majesty's Minister at Berlin, stating that the Emperor died about midnight. An hour before this despatch arrived, I received accounts from Lord John Russell, at Berlin, stating that the Emperor was at the point of death, and had taken leave of his family. Although this event occurred as short time ago as between 12 and 1 o'clock this morning, there can be no doubt, under these circumstances, of the authenticity of it." In the House of Commons, Lord Palmerston made a similar statement.

THE WAR.—There is no important news from the seat of war.

Feb. 15.—The condition of the French army is reported to be excellent. It is reported that the North side of Sebastopol is to be invested.

Feb. 16.—Nothing doing.

Feb. 17.—Official details of the bottle of Eupatoria.—Admiral Bruat telegraphs the following:—"Montebello, Kameiach, Feb. 20—On the 17th the town of Eupatoria was attacked on the eastern side, by the Russians, with 80 pieces of artillery, six regiments of cavalry under Gen. Korff, twelve regiments of infantry (about 25,000 men) under orders from Gen. Osten Sacken. The combat lasted from half-past 5 until 10 o'clock in the morning. The Russians were vigorously repulsed, with a loss estimated at 500 killed, and wounded in proportion. The Turks had 88 killed and 250 wounded. Selem Pasha, General of the Egyptian division, and Col. Rustem Bey were killed. Eighteen French were killed or wounded on shipboard. The attack has not been renewed by the Russians. The steamers at anchor in the roadstead contributed energetically to the defence of the town. Admirals Lyons and Bruat have sent six steamers to Eupatoria. BRUAT."

DEATH OF NICHOLAS.

The Boston Courier says, the latest intelligence from Europe is of rather an astounding character. Nicholas, the Emperor of Russia, the great man in the politics of Europe, is reported to be dead. What influence this fact may have upon the movements on the chequerboard of European politics, remains to be seen. The news of minings and skirmishes at the Crimea is nothing is comparison with the statement that the head of the opposition to the "Western Powers" has been cut off by death. If Nicholas is dead, the world must look at the policy of his successor before it makes up its mind with regard to the prospects of peace, or the chances of the "balance of power" in Europe.

The Emperor Nicholas was born on the 6th of July, 1796, and he was, consequently, fifty-nine years of age. He was, in form and feature, the handsomest man in Europe. It is said that Lord Londonderry, after a visit to his court, declared if all the millions who compose his subjects, were assembled, his commanding figure, his symmetrical and intellectual features, and his princely bearing, would be selected from them all as designed by the God of Nature for their chieftain. His mind was of the highest order, of sleepless activity and indomitable energy—uniting in that wonderful combination which made Napoleon the master spirit of his age, the comprehensiveness of the man of genius with the practical man's acquaintance with details.—He was alike at home every where—in the army, in the navy, in the cabinet. His untiring energies were ever active in controling the hetrogeneous interests of his boundless empire.

Real Estate at Auction.

WILL be sold at Public Auction, on MONDAY, March 19, 1855, the BRICK TAVERN stand situated at EPPING CORNER. Said House is two stories high, and has been built but sixteen years; is in thorough repair, and convenient for a Public House. It also has a STABLE attached to it, 94 feet long and 40 wide. The House has been kept for the last ten years by H. G. O. RUNDLETT, and has a good share of patronage. An excellent chance for a profitable investment, for any one wishing to keep a Public House in the country.

Also, at the same time a lot of WOOD LAND, lying partly in Brentwood and partly in Epping, containing six acres, more or less There is about one hundred cords of wood standing on the same. The growth is mostly hard wood and is only one mile from the Depot of the Portsmouth & Concord Railroad, where there is a ready market for its sale.

Also, at the same time, one lot of TILLAGE LAND lying on the road leading to Chester.—This lot contains about thirty-five acres of land, and would make a good farm for any one wishing to build, as there is a very desirable site on the same for building, and it is situated only about one hundred rods from Epping Corner where there are good schools, three meeting houses, &c—a good chance for a mechanic to purchase and build. There are two never-failing springs of water on the said lot. The land is in a high state of cultivation, and mostly fenced in by a stone wall. This affords a rare chance for any one to invest, and get a good interest for his money.

Also, at the same time and place, 3 yoke of good working Oxen—one yoke, five years old, 6 ft 9 in. girth; one yoke, 4 years old, girt 6 ft 7 in.; one yoke, 6 years old, girt 7 ft. One Ox-cart nearly new (a good one); 1 Harrow; 1 Plow; 6 Chains; 40 feet cable Chain; 3 ox Yokes, 2 Cows, 7 single Harnesses; 4 sets double harnesses, brass mounted; 4 stage do. brass mounted; 1 Stage Coach (9 passenger); 1 Chaise and Harness, (nearly new); 2 Concord Wagons; 1 two-seated Waggon, 1 top-Buggy and Harness, 4 Butcher's Carts (3 of them new and built by Abbott of Concord), 4 single Sleighs, 1 Butcher's Sleigh (new), 1 Pung Sleigh, 2 new ox-Sleds, 1 Trucking Sleigh, 6 Buffalo Robes, 1 Job Wagon (iron axle), 5 Shoats, 100 cords Manure now under stable.

Also, 4 good Horses—one of them a valuable Stud Horse, called the "Young Messenger," and is the best Stock horse in the State, as his stock will show for itself.

Also various other articles too numerous to mention.

All the above named property will be sold to the highest bidder and without reserve.

Terms made known at the sale. The property can be examined at any time before the sale by calling on the subscriber on the premises.

H. G. O. RUNDLETT.

The Great Specific of the Age.

OXYGENATED BITTERS!

THE ONLY SURE AND SAFE REMEDY EVER DISCOVERED For the cure of

DYSPEPSIA,

IN ALL ITS VARIOUS FORMS, as well as Liver Diseases, Fever and Ague, Bilious Complaints, Bronchitis, General Debility, and all diseases of a kindred nature.

Read the following testimony from Dr. Henry E. Morrell, a skillful physician of N. Y. city. He says:—"The most effectual medicine to improve the tone and energy of the stomach is that prepared by Dr. George B. Green, of Windsor, Vt., and called the Oxygenated Bitters."

The Oxygenated Bitters do not contain a particle of alcohol in their composition, and are, of necessity, highly concentrated, to prevent the injurious action of the temperature of different climates. Each bottle, when diluted according to the directions, makes nearly half a gallon of medicine, as pleasant to the taste as lemonade; and as to quantity, quite the CHEAPEST MEDICINE.

I have employed them in a multitude of cases, and have uniformly found that, when used according to the directions, they gradually, but surely, remove, one by one, the various distressing symptoms which cluster around the confirmed Dyspeptic, restore the stomach to its lost energies, and times health back to the enjoyment of permanent health and strength.

It has also been used by the following persons, and received their unqualified approbation:—

Prof. A. A. Hayes, M. D., State Assayer, Boston
Prof. E. E. Phelps, M. D., of Therapeutics and Materia Medica, Dartmouth College.
Hon. Myron Lawrence, Ex-President of Massachusetts Senate.
Hon. I. H. Arnold, formerly Governor of Rhode Island, now member of Congress.

AMUSING AND INSTRUCTIVE.

PRESIDENT HITCHCOCK'S
History of a Zoological Temperance Convention held in Central Africa, CONTAINING MANY CONVERSATIONS.

READ the following notice from a distinguished Clergyman:—

"We are not accustomed to laugh outright, or be convulsed with laughter, yet we have never found it more difficult to restrain our risibilities than while perusing this most ingenious satire; and yet with all its comical, diverting, and laughable scenes, the most solemn, important and instructive lessons are couched in every page.—Young should read it—parents, teachers, preachers everybody."

Patents.

AMERICAN AND FOREIGN OFFICE.
Agency for business with US Patent Office, Washington,
76 State st, oppo. Exchange, Boston.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION TO INVENTORS. The Subscriber (late Agent of the U. S. Patent office, under the Act of 1837) determined to present advantages, in applying for Patents, superior to those offered to inventors by others, his business arrangements on applications prepared and conducted by him, THIRTY DOLLARS (instead of twenty, as paid back by others,) will be remitted by him in case of failure to obtain a patent, and the withdrawal through him within fifty days after the rejection of the claims. Specifications, Assignments and all necessary papers and drawings, for procuring patents in this and foreign countries prepared, and advice rendered on legal and scientific matters respecting inventions, and infringement of patents.

Inventors can not only here obtain their specifications on the most reasonable terms, but can here avail themselves of the experience of 20 years' practice, an extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and correct accounts of patents granted in this and other countries; besides being saved a journey to Washington, the usual great delay there, as well as all personal trouble in obtaining their patents. Copies of claims of any patent furnished by remitting one dollar.—Assignments recorded at Washington.

R. H. EDDY,
Solicitor of Patents.

"During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, did business at the Patent Office, as Solicitor of Patents. There were few, if any persons acting in that capacity, who had so much business before the Patent Office; and there were none who conducted it with more skill, fidelity, and success. I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the best informed and most skilful Patent Solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents."

"PATENT OFFICE, ——

"R. H. EDDY, Esq., Boston, Mass.

"SIR:—Your facilities for the prosecution of any business connected with this Office, are equal to those of any other agent. I am very respectfully,
Yours, &c., THOMAS EWBANK,
Commissioner of Patents."

AMALGAMATED IRIDIUM ZINC & PLATINA
PENS.
WARRANTED NOT TO CORRODE.

HERTS BROTHERS, having been many years engaged in the manufacture of Metallic Pens, and during that time, have been devoted their unceasing attention to improving and perfecting that useful and necessary article, the result of their unceasing efforts and numerous experiments has been the construction of a Pen on a principle entirely new, combining all the advantages of the elasticity and clearness of the Quill, with six times the durability of the Steel Pen; and thusentirely obviating the only objection that has hitherto existed against the use of Steel Pens.

This Pen will be found an invaluable article in Offices, as they never need wiping, also to Banks and Schools, as they will not spatter nor cut the thinest paper, and are warranted anti-corrosive.

CAUTION.—The universal celebrity of these Pens having induced several disreputable Makers to foist upon the public a spurious imitation, it will please to be observed that each genuine Pen is stamped, "HERTS BROTHERS' PATENT, 1853," and each box of Genuine Pens will contain a label with a fac-simile of the Manufacturers' name.

DR. J. B. MARCHISI'S
Celebrated Catholicon,
FOR THE
RELIEF & CURE OF SUFFERING FEMALES.

It stands pre-eminent for its curative powers in all the diseases for which it is recommended, usually called

FEMALE COMPLAINTS.

Of these are PROLAPSUS UTERI, or Falling of the Womb: FLOOR ALBUS, or WHITES: CHRONIC INFLAMMATION OF THE WOMB; INCIDENTAL HEMORRHAGE OF THE UTERUS: SUPPRESSED AND IRREGULAR MENSTRUATION, &c., with all their accompanying evils. (Cancer excepted) no matter how severe or of how long standing.

Let all interested call and obtain a pamphlet (free) containing simple proof, from the most respectable sources, of the beneficial results of its use; together with letters from highly experienced Physicians, who have used it in their practice, and speak from their own observations.

A WORD TO THE LADIES.

Should any entertain doubts as to the efficacy of the UTERINE CATHOLICON, I would respectfully state that I have for many years past, as my friends can well attest, been troubled with Female Weakness, for which this medicine is recommended, in its worst forms, and that by its use I have been entirely cured, and thus induced to accept an agency, and offer it for the benefit of others.

MRS. S. GAY, 38 South street, Boston.

I feel it my duty to make known to the afflicted the virtues of MARCHISI'S UTERINE CATHOLICON, which has relieved me of Female Complaints of fifteen years' standing, and of so serious a nature, that infinitely overpaying my long and severe sufferings from the effects of the Disease of the Womb. I suffered extremely, and at last was entirely disabled from attending to my usual pursuits. . . . It has given me more relief than any thing I have ever used for these difficulties. I will take pleasure in giving further information, if any case to any lady who will call on me at 67 Mill street.

AN OLD TIMES CONCERT.

The people of Chelsea were enlivened last Thursday evening by hearing a concert, given by "The Continentallers"—a musical organization of the place—whose object is to revive the church melody which flowed from the hearts, as well as from the heads of their fathers. This melody, from some cause, is neglected, or so diluted by modern book-makers that the old fervor of spirit which characterized it has fled, leaving it but a matter whose merit is in execution alone, as mechanical as the manufacture of the paper on which it is printed.

The Continentallers have been in existence about two years, and have diligently pursued their object by stated private rehearsals, but have given only one public concert previous to that of Thursday. The association proposed a concert for the benefit of the Winnisimmet Benevolent Society, which was readily responded to, and a crowded hall was the result—some eight hundred people being present. The whole expense of the concert was borne by the association, and the gross receipts given for the benevolent object.

At half-past 7, the Continentallers, numbering about seventy, marched into position, under the lead of Col. Fay, whose tall form, surmounted by a three-cornered cocked hat, seemed the embodied Spirit of the Past, whose face was lighted up with a glow that imparted happiness by the magnetism of its kindness. He made a brief speech to the audience, informing them who the Continentallers were, and their objects. They claimed, he said, to be a remnant of the continental army, who had formed their organization for the purpose of keeping alive the love of old melody and old manners, which might aid in training the younger portion of the community, which, he hoped, when they, in turn, were old, would not depart from them. The object of the present gathering was a benevolent one, but he hoped it would afford amusement, besides. He particularly requested the audience to keep still, because, he said, the old singers had never been able to find any note in the cleff to chord with the whisper.

The antiquity claimed for the association caused some mirth, as its larger part was composed of young and vigorous man and womanhood, whom nothing but closed eyes (and it was hard for those not continentallers to close the eyes with such fair faces before them) and ancient music could ever cheat the senses into believing.

There were many 'venerables' present, on whom the frosts of years had springled their rime—venerable, but not to be called old for many years to come—whose voices were as fresh and strong as when they sung Coronation or Old Hundred forty years ago.

One of the younger members of the party was dressed in full continental costume, from hat to shoes—the hat one that was worn at Lexington fight—reminding one of the lines of Holmes:

"The old three-cornered hat,
And breeches, and all that,
Are so queer."

After preliminary rosining of bows and thumbing of fiddle-strings, among the orchestra of one bass-viol, one violincello, four violins, and a brass horn—the musical conductor took his place before the audience; and the Continentallers took up their line of march back a hundred years into the realm of ancient melody, through the gate of Lenox—the invocatory character of the hymn being very appropriate:

"Ye tribes of Adam, join," &c.

This was sung very finely, with the olden spirit that has made the roof-tree of many a village church and school-house ring in times of old, and made vocal the New England firesides in continental times, "When we lived under the king," lifting New England men up into an atmosphere of freedom that gave them strength in the time of trial.

"Devotion" next followed, to the lines,

"Sweet is the day of sacred rest," &c.

succeeded by sterling old Montgomery:

"Early my God, without delay,
I haste to seek thy face."

Then followed Milford, a magnificent old English fugue, which was as magnificently sung, carrying one away in the whirl of its graceful eccentricities,—the different parts chasing each other in melodious flights along the scale, and culminating in a harmonious whole at the close.

On and on sublimely marched the Continentallers, through New Jerusalem, which "——comes down,

Adorned with shining grace,
From the third heaven, where God resides,
That holy, happy place"— and dwelt awhile where

"Shepherds watched their flocks by night,
All seated on the ground," when

"The angel of the Lord came down,
And glory shone around."

If ever the glory of the scene could be imparted by sound, it was done in the rendering of this beautiful old tune. The "glory shone around"—it could be seen and felt—it dwelt in the emphatic beat of the hand, the flashing eye of the singer, and rolled in a sublime wave of sound over the spirits of all the listeners.

We have not room to devote to a description of each of the thirty pieces sung, but among the number were included Complaint, with its beautiful prayer; and Invitation, with the Song of Solomon embodyed in graceful measure—

"Come, my beloved, haste away," and Newburg:

"Let every creature join
To praise the eternal God;"

and Psalm 34th:

"Through all the changing scenes of life;"

and grand old Ocean, that carries in its melody the swell of "the towering waves," when the "winds arise" at the Almighty command; and Majesty, and Delight.

But the greatest pleasure was caused by the singing of the "Easter Anthem"—

"Our Lord has risen from the dead,"—

which made faith quicken by its triumphant strains, and live in new hope of the glories of immortality, the execution of which was worthy of the composition, and carried all away by the majesty and force of its melodious power.

The concert closed with "Old Hundred," in which the audience joined most heartily. During its performance, the high backed pews of the old church, the singing seats, the sounding board, the gown and bands of old formality, the wardens and tithing men, all swept, like the spirits of Kossuth's countrymen, before our gaze, and the years that came between, with their changes, were momentarily forgotten, to be recalled by the drum and fife of a fire company taking an evening airing outside.

The evening was as pleasant a one as we ever passed. Mr. Slow, who was present, said it was worth all the Italian operas, although it was doubted if he had ever heard one.

Old singers, who had sat in the "seats" fifty years ago, couldn't keep still, but beat time and sung with the rest, and Col. Fay, more conspicuous than any one else, sang all over. From boots to cocked hat he was one mass of music. He sung in every hair, in every fibre of his body, in every article of his clothing.

A request being made on behalf of the audience, that the concert should be repeated; the colonel, as "military commander" of the Continentallers, replied in their behalf that they would accede, and the audience broke up.

Morning Chronicle.

MONDAY, MARCH 19, 1855.

NEW HAMPSHIRE.—We congratulate the people of our sister State, that their State election will be holden to-morrow, and that the principal actors in the contest,—who are now 'infamous liars,' 'drunken rowdies,' 'Irish vagabonds,' 'Custom House bullies,' 'imbecile minions,' 'mad jackalls of Popery,' 'Thugs,' 'Hindoos,' 'sheep thieves,' etc., etc., according to the showing of the different journals,—will return to their usual places, as decent members of society, and remain in that position for ten months at least. 'Our army swore terribly in Flanders,' but neither Uncle Toby nor Corporal Trim ever heard such language as is used by the New Hampshire politicians in speaking of each other's parties and partizans. It will be a comfort to find that this Billingsgate style of conducting journals will be changed for a season after to-morrow, for one party will be so soundly thrashed that its members will not have a word to say, while the other will be in such an exulting mood that they will not know that they have merely been flogging such characters as are quoted above, but will look upon their opponents as very good fellows, who take a drubbing without snivelling or complaint.—Boston Courier of March 12, the day before election.

Uncle Toby never had any taste for that kind of political warfare which consists in applying hard names or opprobrious epithets; and he dislikes and disapproves it, whenever and wherever it is done. Once or twice, only, has it happened, that in paragraphs which did not meet his eye before insertion, the term "Anti American" was inserted, as the descriptive name of the "Democratic party."

We have no objection to discussing principles, and sifting facts, as long and as earnestly as may be desired by our readers,—but if any body wishes for billingsgate language, let him apply to the professors thereof.

Principles have been abundantly discussed in the Chronicle editorially ever since its commencement: but it may surprise some of its readers, (particularly those who do not subscribe for it,) to be told that, (with the two exceptions, above named,) nothing has been said editorially in the Chronicle this year, 1855, which has a partizan character. And lest any such non-subscriber should be offended as well as surprised, we engage, if any of them will find any such offensive or partizan editorial matter in our file for that period, to republish it, with our acknowledgment of the error we are now making.

When we say this, we lay no claim to be Neutral, Dumb, Silent, or Indifferent. These qualities we never claimed; but from the beginning we promised to be Independent, and intended to be fair; and we have been so, to the best of our ability. We aim to promote Liberty, Intelligence, Temperance and Order. And consequently we oppose the several evils which stand opposed to these good things.—This we endeavor to do by publishing facts and arguments on both sides: sometimes with comment, and sometimes without. In the same way we treat election predictions and election returns; impartially, fairly, independently: often leaving the reader to draw his own inferences, and very often to answer our questions, instead of doing these things for him.

When a question can be fairly presented to a jury or a democracy, they will commonly make a fair decision; and we have generally found the readers of this paper a democracy of this description. We have strong hopes of the republic; strong confidence in the American people.

CHOICE EXTRACTS.

From the Concord Daily Patriot of March 7.

The 'Hindoo' meeting here yesterday, was most emphatically a failure.

The speaking was of the very dimmest kind. No men of reputation were present from abroad, and the most respectable of their home orators kept away or refused to speak. The chief speakers were Jack Hale, Amos Tuck, Tappan, 'Old Kit,' ex Gov Colby, Nesmith, T. M. Edwards, 'Cock Robbin' Flanders, Pat Cragin, A. F. Stevens and other 'small fry' of home speakers, together with a few unknown fellows from Massachusetts.

From the same, March 10.

'Sam' is sick! The stampede increases! They come out by scores! Behold how they scatter!

We have information from various sections of the State, which satisfies us that more than fifteen hundred members have withdrawn from the 'Hindoo' order within the last week; and we have no doubt that a thousand more will withdraw before the day of election. These are not all democrats—many whigs and free soilers have withdrawn, and all who have done so will vote the democratic ticket.

More than thirty-five hundred have withdrawn since the Manchester Convention.

MORE 'HINDOO' FUNERALS.—'Satan's kingdom's tumbling down' all over the country, and the democracy of New Hampshire are about to give it its death blow. Push on the column!

* * * * *

We have never fought a political contest with more constant and increasing courage, and we close our labors with the most confident belief that the efforts of the democracy will be rewarded with a glorious victory.

The Charleston Mercury gives Senator Houston a severe castigation for his lecture on slavery in Boston. It complains that he was too mild and too measly-mouthed and too good natured. If he had indulged in ferocious absurdities instead of feeble ones, the Mercury would have been perfectly delighted.—Atlas.

MORE RETURNS.

The Boston Bee of Saturday says that Returns from all the towns but ten in New Hampshire give

FOR GOVERNOR.

Metcalf,	34,691
Baker,	26,263
Bell,	4,020
Fowler,	987
Total,	65,961

It is probable that the returns to come will reduce these figures, though they will not alter the complexion of matters.

The Legislature will stand about as follows:

Metcalf's majority 1889. Nineteen towns to be heard from, which last year gave Baker 1,457, Bell 438, Perkins 299. Metcalf is without doubt elected by a majority of about fifteen hundred or a thousand.

Pike's majority for Congress is about 3000; Cragin's about 4000.

There is a 'Bumble' among us—an American Bumble, that would delight the heart of Dickens to meet with. The governor and council visited the State Alms House at Bridgewater, the other day, and a councillor made this speech to the boys: "Boys, I want you all to look at me! Look directly at me, for I am going to say something to you. How many of you would like to be members of the governor's council? Now, if you will only do what is right at all times, and never steal, nor lie, nor swear, you may all some day rise to eminent stations. I was once a poor boy myself, but I always calculated to do what was right. I never would steal, or lie, or use bad language. I was an apprentice in my youth, but have now become one of the governor's council! Now, boys, never let me hear of your doing anything wrong. Always do what is right; never cheat, or steal, or lie, or swear, and you may become a great man!"—Springfield Republican.

NIAGARA BRIDGE.—This wire suspension bridge has been completed, and the cars have actually passed over it.

The bridge is of 822 feet span, and is 234 feet above the dashing waters below.

Any person who has passed over the suspension bridge for carriages at the same place, can realize what strength of nerve it required to pass in the first train over this new bridge.

It was built under the supervision of Mr. John A. Roebling, of Trenton, N J., who is doubtless an accomplished engineer, and has calculated carefully the strength of the structure. It is but proper to state, however, that Mr. Stevenson, who is regarded as the first of English engineers, has decided against the safety of this species of bridge for Railroads, on account of the strain from vibration. We have now an opportunity to test the accuracy of his decision upon this point; though we could wish that the almost gossamer structure of wire work, had been suspended over a less frightful chasm, than that at Niagara, for experimenting upon its safety in supporting car loads of passengers.

A correspondent of the Rochester American thus describes the passage of the first train that passed over it:—

"Although every precaution had been taken to keep the matter secret, yet for an hour or more, crowds of people assembled on either shore in the vicinity of the bridge. At three o'clock, P. M., the locomotive "London," of the Great Western Railway, having on board Mr. Roebling, the writer, and seven or eight others, started from the station in Elgin, Canada, and moved over to the American side, where it was greeted with the loud huzzas of the multitude on shore. On returning to the Canada side and making another trip, every fear seemed to have left even the most timid, and the engine and its load, on this occasion, may be safely set down at thirty (30) tons, and yet it occasioned no more perceptible motion in the bridge than an ordinary wagon or team. During this second trip, Mr. Roebling, with carefully adjusted instruments, ascertained that the total deflection at the centre, caused by the engine and load at that point, was exactly three inches."

THE UBIQUITOUS AND IMMORTAL MR. JAMES GUARD.—For a number of weeks past a gentleman under a cloud, giving this name, has, at short intervals, applied at the Police stations for a place "to tie up to."—A theft being committed in the harbor, James Guard was arrested charged with the offence. Witnesses swore positively to seeing him in the very act of taking the property, and he would have been convicted had not a police officer sworn that, at the time of the theft, Mr. Guard was not only locked in the arms of Morpheus, but locked up in the station house. On Monday night, Mr. Guard, in a wet and defunct condition, was taken from the water at the foot of Commerce street. The "crowner" sat upon him, and the verdict was that he was accidentally drowned. But on Thursday night, in walked Mr. Guard, a resurrectionized blackguard, to the profound astonishment of the officer then occupying the station house. He did not not exclaim,—"Be thou a spirit of health or goblin damned!"—but he gave Guard, who, though a sprite, had still an earthly appetite, a ticket for soup. We felicitate Mr. Guard upon the established fact that his double is indubitably drowned.—Boston Herald.

The new dome of the capitol at Washington, for which $100,000 were appropriated, will increase the present altitude of that edifice to 250 feet—or only fifteen feet less than that of the spire of Trinity Church, New York.

LOCAL.

FLUID ACCIDENT.

On Friday evening last, at the City Hotel, as the aged widow of the late William Fernald, was lighting a small fluid lamp, one of the tubes of which was without a wick, the fluid came in connection with the flame, causing the explosion of the lamp, and setting the clothes of the old lady on fire and burning one side of her face and neck and her arms and hands very severely, though it is hoped that her injuries may not prove fatal. In extinguishing the flames, her son, Wm. Fernald, jr. the landlord of the City Hotel, burned all the fingers of both hands quite severely, and his wife narrowly escaped injury, with the loss of a large portion of her clothing.

The frequent accidents resulting from the use of burning fluid and camphene, should not only warn people against them, but should banish them from every dwelling where there is any regard for the safety of its inmates. Under all circumstances these articles are positively dangerous, and with the exercise of the greatest care, accidents frequently happen.

OLD TIMES RENEWED.—On the outside this morning will be found an amusing and interesting account of one of the old times musical entertainments, which have within a year or two become so popular throughout New England—eclipsing everything else in interest and success. So great has been the demand for the books of "ancient harmony revived," that the three editions published since 1848, are entirely exhausted. The programme for the third concert in Portsmouth, in another column, contains many of the best, most familiar and popular of the old tunes and anthems.

☞ The Newburyport Veteran Artillery are to give a grand Levee at their City Hall, on Wednesday Evening, March 21st, in aid of the company. A Standard will be presented by Miss M. Brown, from an association of ladies, and received by Maj. Eben. Bradbury for the company. Music by the Newburyport Brass Band, and H. F. Thompson's Vocal Club. Tickets for a gentleman and lady, 50 cts.; ladies' tickets, 25 cts.

THREE BARRELS OF THE JUICE OF THE MAPLE DRANK BY A COW IN HALF AN HOUR!—A resident in Boston now and then gives some amusing and interesting information concerning what occurred among the first settlers of his native place, in New Hampshire. In those early times many of the families manufactured nearly, if not quite all, their own sugar from the juice of the maple trees upon their own farms, several of them turning out many hundred pounds weight every year; and in speaking upon the subject recently, and particularly of the marked superiority in the quality and flavor of the article they made over the imported sugars, he related, among other things, that he had known not less than three barrels of maple sap to be drank by one cow within half an hour. This statement did not fail to excite a burst of surprise and incredulity from those present; and having been requested to explain how such an apparently marvellous occurrence could have been, he stated that upon a certain occasion, the sugar makers upon his father's estate collected together three barrels of the choicest sap, carefully strained and boiled the liquid down to a single pailful, put a piece of board over the pail, and went to work at a distant portion of the maple orchard. Returning within half an hour, they found the favorite cow of the family had, in their absence, knocked the cover from the pail with her horns, and was then taking the last mouthful of concentrated sweets from that vessel. As the workmen approached, the cow turned and marched off, tossing up her head as much as to say, if they would boil down three barrels more of sap, she would call again the next day, and make another meal of it.—Boston Trans.

K. N. CAUCUSING OF THE CITY GOVERNMENT.—It is very funny to see the K. N. members of the city government, Aldermen, Councilmen and President—resorting to one of the committee rooms immediately after the adjournment of the Council on each Thursday evening. Last night it is supposed that the "Water Board" was the subject under discussion—and it is hinted that certain of the faithful who are a little shaky on the question of Mayor Smith's veto, were to be taken into consideration. At any rate, these secret midnight conclaves of members of our city government, augur no good to the city, and account quite plausibly for the admirable manner in which the majority of the Council vote together.—Boston Jour.

On the 28th ult., a citizen of Morgan county, Va., while hunting, wounded a huge bear, which immediately attacked him, struck his empty rifle from his hand, and hurled him to the ground, biting him severely. His dogs, meanwhile, caused the bear to leave the hunter, who after a desperate struggle, succeeded in killing his ferocious antagonist with a tomahawk, and capturing two cubs.

SOMETHING FOR GIRLS.—Men who are worth having, want women for wives. A bundle of gewgaws, bound with a string of flats and quavers, sprinkled with cologne and set in a carmine saucer—this is no help for a man who expects to raise a family of boys on veritable bread and meat.

DEATH OF A FUGITIVE SLAVE.—A colored man, named James Marshal, died on Friday, at the House of Correction in Boston. On his death bed he made declaration that he was a slave, and ran away from Baltimore. He was, sent to that institution for six months, for assault. His sentence would have expired in nine days.

Among the complaints brought to the Mayor of New York, last week, was one by a woman that a neighbor annoyed her very much by scolding. The Mayor said he did not see how he could help the complainant, for he could not undertake to stop women from talking.

ALTERED BILLS.—Ones on the City Bank, Manchester, altered to tens, are in circulation. They are badly executed, and can be easily detected by close observation.

A CLERGYMAN'S OPINION OF THE VEGETABLE PULMONARY BALSAM. The Rev. JOSIAH LITCH, of Philadelphia, Pa., writes:—"I was in 1838 entirely cured of a cough which had reduced me almost to a skeleton, by the use of the Vegetable Pulmonary Balsam. I have continued to use and recommend it ever since, and I regard it as one of our great staple family medicines for coughs. I do not think it second to any pulmonary medicine before the public." AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS.

They don't help complaints, but they cure them.
One Box has cured Dyspepsia.
Three Boxes have cured the worst cases of Scrofula
Two Boxes have cured Erysipelas.
One Box always cures the Jaundice.
Three Boxes are sure to cleanse the system from Boils—often less than one does it.
Two Boxes have completely cured the worst of ulcers on the leg.
Small doses seldom fail to cure the Piles.
One dose cures the headache arising from a foul stomach.
Strong doses often repeated expel every worm from the body. They should be given to children, who are always more or less afflicted with this scourge.
As a gentle Physic they have no equal.
One Box cures derangement of the Liver.
Half a Box cures a Cold.
They purify the Blood, and thus strike at the foundation of every disease.
As a Dinner Pill there is not their equal in the world.
They are purely vegetable, and can do no harm, but do accomplish an unaccountable amount of good.

SUPPOSED CASE OF MURDER.—The examination of Coroner Smith into the circumstances attending the sudden death of the wife of Aaron Sias, keeper of the St. Lawrence House, Boston, as before stated, resulted in ascertaining that her neck was dislocated and that there were marks of violence about her neck, as if made by a person's thumb and fingers is choking. Suspicion rests upon her husband and a warrant has been issued for his arrest. He is now slightly indisposed at his house. It is stated that Sias and his wife have not lived happily together for some time past.—Boston Journal.

BOSTON MURDER.—The papers of Saturday say, Sias was found quite sick, having drank liquor very freely, and subsequently taken an emetic, so that he was not immediately removed to prison, but remains at his house in charge of officer Turner.

NEW ORLEANS, March 12.—It is reported that Santa Anna had returned to the capital, after having defeated the insurgents under Morenes, and forced the main body, under Alvares, to retire after a desperate battle.

On the 7th, a Mexican steamer was at the mouth of the Rio Grande, taking on board troops for Vera Cruz and Tampico.

THE RECIPROCITY TREATY.—A telegraphic despatch from Washington to I. D. Andrews, Esq., Consul General for the British Provinces, states that the President's proclamation, carrying into full effect the Reciprocity Treaty between Great Britain and the United States, will be issued today, March 17th.

NEW YORK, March 16.—The celebrated clipper bark Grapeshot leaves this port tomorrow, in pursuit of the murderer Baker. Cyrus Shay, brother in law of Bill Poole, and one of his warmest friends, has been arrested on a charge of receiving and appropriating several hundred dollars, the contents of a tin box stolen from Lovejoy's hotel in July, 1853.

BALTIMORE, March 16.—The Washington correspondent of the Baltimore Sun telegraphs that the Russian Minister considers the reported death of the Czar to be a most unmitigated hoax.

The United States steamer San Jacinto is reported to be below.

LOUISVILLE, March 16.—The Democratic State Convention met at Frankfort, yesterday, and nominated Beverly L. Clark as their candidate for Governor, and Benah McGoffin for Lieutenant Governor. They passed resolutions strongly denouncing the Know Nothings.

In the matter of Henry O. Weed and wife versus the Panama Railroad Company, for wilful detention all night in the cars on the Isthmus, and the consequent sickness of the lady, the jury returned a verdict of $2000 for the plaintiff.

ANOTHER COLORED LAWYER.—On Thursday, in the U. S. District Court, on motion of B. F. Hallett, Esq., Rufus W. Suter and Macon B. Allen were admitted to practice as counsellors and attorneys in the Circuit Court of the United States. Mr. Allen is a colored man.—Atlas.

The Pittsburg Gazette states that there is a regularly organized association of blacks in that city, bound together by the most solemn oaths, and meeting in secret, whose object is the abduction of colored servants traveling with their masters, who are suspected to be slaves.

New Bounty Land Law.
160 ACRES.

ONE HUNDRED AND SIXTY ACRES of Bounty Land procured for all Soldiers, Marines, and other persons (or widows or minor children of such as are deceased) who have performed duty for only 14 days, in the Naval or Military service of the United States since 1790; also Bounty Land sufficient to make up the number of 160 acres, in all cases where only 40 or 80 acres have been obtained—on application in person or by letter to I. Real Estate at Auction.

WILL be sold at Public Auction, on MONDAY, March 19, 1855, the BRICK TAVERN stand situated at EPPING CORNER Said House is two stories high, and has been built but sixteen years, is in thorough repair, and convenient for a Public House. It also has a STABLE attached to it, 94 feet long and 40 wide. The House has been kept for the last ten years by H. G. O. RUNDLETT, and has a good share of patronage. An excellent chance for a profitable investment, for any one wishing to keep a Public House in the country.

Also, at the same time a lot of WOOD LAND, lying partly in Brentwood and partly in Epping, containing six acres, more or less. There is about one hundred cords of wood standing on the same. The growth is mostly hard wood and is only one mile from the Depot of the Portsmouth & Concord Railroad, where there is a ready market for its sale.

Also, at the same time, one lot of TILLAGE LAND lying on the road leading to Chester.—This lot contains about thirty-five acres of land, and would make a good farm for any one wishing to build, as there is a very desirable site on the same for building, and it is situated only about one hundred rods from Epping Corner where there are good schools, three meeting houses, &c.—a good chance for a mechanic to purchase and build. There are two ever-failing springs of water on the said lot. The land is in a high state of cultivation, and mostly fenced in by a stone wall. This affords a rare chance for any one to invest, and get a good interest for his money.

Also, at the same time and place, 3 yoke of good working Oxen—one yoke, five years old, 6 ft 9 in. girth; one yoke, 4 years old, girt 6 ft 7 in.; one yoke, 6 years old, girt 7 ft One Ox-cart nearly new (a good one); 1 Harrow; 1 Plow; 6 Chains; 40 feet cable Chain; 3 ox Yokes, 2 Cows, 7 single Harnesses; 4 sets double harnesses, brass mounted; 4 stage do. brass mounted; 1 Stage Coach (9 passe-ger); 1 Chaise and Harness, (nearly new); 2 Concord Wagons; 1 Pleasure Wagon, 1 top-Buggy and Harness. 4 Butcher's Carts (2 of them new and built by Abbott of Concord), 4 single Sleighs, 1 Butcher's Sleigh (new), 1 Pung Sleigh, 2 new ox-Sleds, 1 Trotting Gig, 6 Buffalo Robes, 1 Job Wagon (iron axle), 5 Shoats, 100 cords Manure now under stable.

Also, 4 good Horses—one of them a valuable Stud Horse, called the "Young Messenger," and is the best Stock horse in the State, as his stock will show for itself.

Also various other articles too numerous to mention.

All the above named property will be sold to the highest bidder and without reserve.

Terms made known at the sale. The property can be examined at any time before the sale by calling on the subscriber on the premises.
H. G. O. RUNDLETT.

The Great Specific of the Age.
OXYGENATED BITTERS!
THE ONLY SURE AND SAFE REMEDY EVER DISCOVERED
For the cure of
DYSPEPSIA,

IN ALL ITS VARIOUS FORMS, As well as Liver Diseases, Fever and Ague, Bilious Complaints, Bronchitis, General Debility, and all diseases of a kindred nature.

Read the following testimony from Dr. Henry E. Morrell, a skillful physician of N. Y. city. He says:—"The most effectual medicine to improve the tone and energy of the stomach is that prepared by Dr. George B. Green, of Windsor, Vt., and called the Oxygenated Bitters."

The Oxygenated Bitters do not contain a particle of alcohol in their composition, and are, of necessity, highly concentrated, to prevent the injurious action of the temperature of different climates. Each bottle, when diluted according to the directions, contains nearly half a gallon of medicine, as pleasant to the taste as lemonade; and as to quantity, quite the CHEAPEST MEDICINE.

I have employed them in a multitude of cases, and have uniformly found that, when used according to the directions, they gradually, but surely, remove, one by one, the various distressing symptoms which cluster around the confirmed Dyspeptic, restore the stomach to its lost energies, and thus lead the patient back to the enjoyment of permanent health and strength.

It has also been used by the following persons, and received their unqualified approbation:—
Prof. A. A. Hayes, M. D., State Assayer, Boston
Prof. E. E. Phelps, M. D., of Therapeutics and Materia Medica, Dartmouth College.
Hon. Myron Lawrence, Ex-President of Massachusetts Senate.
Hon. I. H. Arnold, formerly Governor of Rhode Island, now member of Congress.
Hon. J. F. Simmons, U. S. Senator from R. I.
Hon. Samuel S. Phelps, U. S. Senator from Vt.
Hon. W. W. Upham, U. S. Senator from Vt.
Hon. Solomon Foote, Member of Cong. from Vt.
Hon. H. D. Foster, Member of Cong. from Pa.

AMUSING AND INSTRUCTIVE.

PRESIDENT HITCHCOCK'S
History of the Zoological Temperance Convention held in Central Africa, CONTAINING THIRTY ILLUSTRATIONS.

READ the following notice from a distinguished Clergyman:—

"We are not accustomed to laugh outright, or be convulsed with laughter, yet we have never found it more difficult to restrain our risibilities than while perusing this most ingenious satire; and yet with all its comical, diverting, and laughable scenes, the most solemn, important and instructive lessons are couched in every page.—Youth should read it—parents, teachers, preachers everybody."

Patents.

AMERICAN AND FOREIGN OFFICE.
Agency for business with U. S. Patent Office, Washington,
76 State st, oppo. Kilby st, Boston.

INFORMATION TO INVENTORS. The Subscriber (late Agent of the U. S. Patent Office, under the Act of 1837) determined to present advantages, in applying for Patents, superior to those offered by inventors by others, has made arrangements whereby on applications prepaid and conducted by him, THIRTY DOLLARS (instead of twenty, as paid back by others,) will be remitted by him in case of failure to obtain a patent, and the withdrawal through him of any day after rejection. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments and all necessary papers and drawings, for procuring patents in this and foreign countries prepared, and advice rendered on legal and scientific matters respecting inventions, and infringement of patents.

Inventors can not only here obtain their specifications on the most reasonable terms, but can here avail themselves of the experience of 20 years' practice, an extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and correct accounts of patents granted in this and other countries: besides being saved a journey to Washington, the usual great delay there, as well as all personal trouble in obtaining their patents. Copies of claims of any patent furnished by remitting one dollar.—Assignments recorded at Washington.

R. H. EDDY,
Solicitor of Patents.

"During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, did business at the Patent Office, as Solicitor of Patents. There were few, if any persons acting in that capacity, who had so much business before the Patent Office: and there were none who conducted it with more skill, fidelity, and success. I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the best informed and most skilful Patent Solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents."

HERTS BROTHERS
AMALGAMATED IRIDIUM ZINC & PLATINA
PENS.
WARRANTED NOT TO CORRODE.

HERTS BROTHERS, having been many years engaged in the manufacture of Metallic Pens, and during that time, having devoted their unceasing attention to improving and perfecting that useful and necessary article, the result of their unceasing efforts and numerous experiments has been the construction of a Pen on a principle entirely new, combining all the advantages of the elasticity and clearness of the Gold Pen, with six times the durability of the Steel Pen; and thus entirely obviating the only objection that has hitherto existed against the use of Steel Pens.

This Pen will be found an invaluable article in Offices, as they never need wiping. Also to Banks and Schools, as they will not spatter nor rut the thinest paper, and are warranted anti-corrosive.

CAUTION.—The universal celebrity of these Pens having induced several disreputable Makers to foist upon the public a spurious imitation, it will please to be observed that each genuine Pen is stamped, "HERTS BROTHERS' PATENT, 1858," and each box of Genuine Pens will contain a label with a fac-simile of the Manufacturers' name.

DR. J. B. MARCHISI'S
Celebrated Catholicon,
FOR THE
RELIEF & CURE OF SUFFERING FEMALES.

DEPOTS.

It stands pre-eminent for its curative powers in all the diseases for which it is recommended, usually called

FEMALE COMPLAINTS.

Of these are PROLAPSUS UTERI, or Falling of the Womb; FLUOR ALBUS, or Whites; CHRONIC INFLAMMATION OF THE WOMB; INTERMENSTRUAL HEMORRHAGE OF Flooding; PAINFUL, SUPPRESSED, AND IRREGULAR MENSTRUATION, &c., with all their accompanying evils. (Cancer excepted) no matter how severe or of how long standing.

Let all interested call and obtain a pamphlet (free) containing ample proof, from the most respectable sources, of the beneficial results of its use; together with testimony of experienced Physicians, who have used it in their practice, and speak from their own observations.

A WORD TO THE LADIES.

Should any entertain doubts as to the efficacy of the UTERINE CATHOLICON, I would respectfully state that I have for many years past, as my friends can well attest, been troubled with the disease for which this medicine is recommended, in its worst forms, and that by its use I am now been entirely cured, and thus induced to accept an agency, and offer it for the benefit of others.

MRS. S. GAIT, 38 South street, Boston.

I feel it my duty to make known to the afflicted the virtues of Marchisi's Uterine Catholicon, which has relieved me of Female Complaints of fifteen years' standing, and of so serious a nature, that latterly my physician suspected Cancer of the Womb. I suffered excessively, and at last was entirely disabled from attending to my usual avocations. . . . . It has given me more relief than any thing I have ever used for these difficulties. I will take pleasure in giving further details of my case to any lady who will call on me at 67 Mill street.

MORNING CHRONICLE.

BY MILLERS & GRAY. PORTSMOUTH, N. H., TUESDAY, MARCH 20, 1855. VOLUME 6. NO. 41.

THE DAILY MORNING CHRONICLE

FRANK W. MILLER, SAMUEL GRAY, & THOS. W. MILLER,

At No. 4 Exchange Buildings,

Pleasant Street,.....PORTSMOUTH, N. H.

TERMS $4 a year, or $3 if paid strictly in advance.

The Weekly Chronicle,

A family newspaper, containing the news of the week, with carefully selected miscellany, &c., is published as above, every Saturday morning.

TERMS $1 a year, in advance. Delivered on any railroad or stage route leading from Portsmouth, free of expense to subscribers. Postage in Rockingham County, free.

ADVERTISING.

For a Square (sixteen lines nonpareil) or less, one insertion 50 cts., three insertions $1, and liberal terms for continuance.

Yearly, quarterly or monthly advertisers liberally accommodated.

Unless otherwise ordered, all advertisements inserted in the Daily, also receive two or three insertions in the Weekly Chronicle, without extra charge.

Both papers having large circulation in Portsmouth, Kittery, New Castle, Greenland, Epping; on the Eastern and the Portsmouth & Concord Railroads, &c., renders the Chronicle an excellent advertising medium.

☞ Obituary Communications charged as advertisements. Notices of Funerals, 25 cts. each. Advertisements of articles lost, 25 cents if not found, 50 cts. if found.

☞ All accounts settled semi-annually!

JOB AND CARD PRINTING promptly executed.

NOTICE TO CABINET MAKERS.

THE Subscriber, wishing to introduce into Portsmouth and vicinity, the use of his

PATENT SELF ACTING

TABLE LEAF SUPPORT,

would ask the attention of Cabinet Makers and others interested to this very desirable improvement in the mode of supporting Table Leaves. It is a substitute for the Fly Rail and Swivel now in use for that purpose,—it is as simple in its construction, as cheap, and much more convenient, requiring no stooping to raise or lower the Leaf.

Wishing to sell exclusive Rights to use them in that vicinity, any letters addressed to me desiring information as to terms, prices, &c., or Circulars and description, will be promptly attended to.

One or more persons could do a good business putting them on from house to house. To such they will be furnished at a discount from the retail price, which is 30 cents per Table. To those owning "Rights" they will be furnished at cost if desired. CHARLES PHELPS, jl9eod&w* Salem, Mass.

IMPORTANT IMPROVEMENT

—IN—

Rotary Planing, Tonguing and Grooving Machines.

PATENTED NOVEMBER 21st, 1854.

THIS Improvement has been thoroughly tested and found to possess just what is necessary to perfect the rotary planer.

My machine will plane very much faster and better than any other now in use. I would particularly call the attention of those in want of machines for nice work, or for planing very thin, cross-grained or knotty material, to these machines, as it is impossible for them to tear or throw out loose knots.

My Clapboard Machine will plane and joint as fast as the clapboards can be put into the machine, and perform the work without sorting them so as to plane with the grain, upon any quality of clapboards, in a very superior manner, without tearing the thin edge.

Applications for rights and machines, or for further particulars, can be made to the Patentee,

JAMES A. WOODBURY.

TUESDAY, MARCH 20, 1855.

POST ROAD TO CALIFORNIA.

A letter written by Hon. Thomas H. Benton to the editor of the St. Louis Democrat on the night preceding the 3d of March, contains an account of two amendments inserted at his instance in two of the Appropriation bills, which in point of fact provide the initiatory steps for the construction of the railroad to the Pacific, in the most rational and prudent manner in which that enterprise can be undertaken.

These amendments provide, first, for the legal establishment by Congress, of a post route from Independence, Mo., across the continent to Stockton, in California, by a route, two or three points of which are indicated—and, secondly, give the contractor who shall engage to convey the mail by this route, (or any other route now existing or which may be hereafter established in any of the territories) the preemption right to 640 acres of land at each of his mail-stations, distant from each other not less than twenty miles. These provisions are expected to ensure the immediate establishment of a regular line of communication across the continent by the ordinary modes of transportation, and to cause settlements to spring up at important points upon the road, where supplies may be grown and furnished.

It will be long after this, (says the Boston Advertiser,) much longer probably than the sanguine Col. Benton expects—that the railroad is built; but a vast deal of actual experience of the journey will be gained at once by the numerous parties passing over the route, and an actual exploration of the country will thus be effected, less satisfactory of course than could be obtained by the equally thorough reconnaissances of engineers, but nevertheless valuable; and it will be gained at a very inconsiderable expense. And when the time shall come for the constuction of the railroad, it will be built through a country not wholly unknown, and one which will be able to furnish some part of the support of the laborers engaged upon the work. It is idle to endeavor to force the course of civilization into such unnatural growth that the railroad shall be the foundation instead of the apex. But, there is no harm in attempting to encourage and stimulate the stages of the natural growth in the natural order.

PITRAT'S REVIEW.—We have received from the publishers, Edward W. Hinks & Co. Boston, a pamphlet of 72 pages, entitled, Review of the Speech of Hon. J. R. Chandler, of Pennsylvania, on the Political Power of the Pope: delivered in the House of Representatives, Jan. 10, 1855. By John Claudius Pitrat, a Member of the University of France; Founder and Ex Editor of the Journal 'La Presse du Peuple,' in Paris; author of 'Jesuitism Unveiled,' also of 'Paul and Julia;' and formerly a Roman Catholic Priest.

This is an exceedingly fair and thorough review. Mr. Pitrat copies the whole of Mr. Chandler's speech, and annexes his comments to the several paragraphs, sentences, and clauses. We regard it, also, as conclusive. Extracts from such a book give only a very imperfect idea of it. We make only one, from the 71st page.

Mr. Chandler should not call these apprehensions nervous, but serious and grounded. The American people are a reading and observing people; and the whole history of Romanism, and its actual doings in Europe and in America, lead them to the unavoidable conclusion that Romanism is the deadliest foe to religious, social, and political liberty; the deadliest foe to democratic principles, and therefore, to their Republican institutions.—Consequently their "apprehensions that the prevalence of the Catholic religion will be dangerous to the country" ought not to be called nervous, but serious and grounded.

ST. PATRICK FIGURES.—The number of arrests, for the twenty four hours ending yesterday morning, was 88. Of this number, seventy-eight were Irish, who had been celebrating their patron Saint, "ould Patrick."—They drank to his health, and got drunk—very drunk.—Boston Bee, of Monday.

A great pity this. St. Patrick is one of the best historic characters of his class. Drunken rows are not in good keeping for his anniversary.

SPECULATION.—Many years ago a man named Wm. Bennett entered a half quarter section of land in South Chicago. He was afterwards compelled to leave the State for some crime. Rumor said he was in the Missouri Penitentiary, and many efforts have been made to find him by those who desired to purchase the land. Meantime it has been improved, and has passed through various hands, and is now worth a million and a half of dollars. The Chicago Press says a well known gentleman of that city has been down south, somewhere, has found Bennett, and has obtained a deed for the entire tract. He will commence actions of ejectment against those who are on the land.

WILL WAIT.—The Boston Post says:—"We are much obliged to various editors for their polite attention in furnishing us with 'extras' about the New Hampshire election, but are willing to wait for further intelligence until next year."

For the Chronicle.

CRIME AND PAUPERISM AMONG EMIGRANTS.—The assertions of a certain party that the penitentiaries and almshouses of the various States of the Union are almost exclusively populated by foreigners, not only is not authenticated by the census of the United States, just published; but this official document even proves that in the States below mentioned, Americans emigrated to these States from other parts of the Union, are more numerous in penitentiaries and almshouses than European emigrants,—though they are able to avail themselves of all the advantages which acquaintance with language and resources of the country offer them; not to mention the circumstance that they often evade justice by the influence of powerful friends, while the poor foreign emigrant has but seldom such a chance.

We find in the compendium to the seventh census, which has just been laid before Congress, the following statements:—

In Massachusetts, of 138,419 Americans, emigrated from other States of the Union, there were 130 in the State prison; while at the same time there were 130 foreigners, out of a foreign population of 163,588; among them were 3 Germans and 74 Irishmen.

In Maryland, there were 32 emigrated Americans, out of 57,582, in the State prison; while we only find 11 foreigners out of 22,953,—among them 3 Germans.

In Mississippi, of 154,946 Americans, emigrated from other States of the Union, 76 were in the State prison; of 4,782 foreigners, 5 among them, 1 German.

In Missouri, of 249,223 emigrated Americans, 103 were in the State prison; of 76,570 foreigners, 50 among them, 12 Germans.

In Indiana, we find 105 emigrated Americans out of 390,733, in the State prison; and 27 foreigners, out of 111,860, among them 8 Germans.

In the State prisons of the above States, only four per cent. of the inmates are Germans. The above are the only States of which the census shows the nativity of the criminals. The State prisons of California, Delaware, Iowa, Arkansas, and the District of Columbia, contained not a single foreigner.

In regard to pauperism, we find only in the census of the States of Massachusetts, Maryland, Virginia, Mississippi, Missouri, Indiana and North Carolina, records of the nativity of the inmates of almshouses; according to which these institutions in all the above States contained 6,240 Americans and 1,518 foreigners. Among the latter there were 1,090 Irish, 167 Germans, and 261 coming from other parts of Europe. But little over 2 per cent. of all the inmates were Germans.

The above are facts, and mortifying as they may be, it is well we should know them. L.

☞ It is well to have all the facts we can get; and also statements and arguments on both sides of every important question.

L.'s statements, we take it, are correct: but they need one additional item, viz:—The proportion of our foreign convicts to our foreign population, is immensely larger than the proportion of our native American convicts to the native population.

The American emigrants, as L. calls them, are nothing to the purpose; criminals of this sort, are generally migratory, and commonly commit their burglaries, &c., where they suppose they are unknown.

For the Chronicle.

A MOVEMENT TO PREVENT INTOXICATION FROM EXCESSIVE DRINKING.—If all persons who have occasion to hire, or employ, will come to the conclusion not to employ any person who is in the habit of getting intoxicated:—and, further,—if the said person or persons who are intemperate by drinking should get reduced in their pecuniary circumstances, and should apply to the city or town for assistance that they will not be entitled to that full commiseration and charitable feeling and support, which others of different habits and alike unfortunate, are entitled to; then the writer has no doubt, if the above plan is adhered to, and carried into effect, that it will prove perfectly satisfactory. It will also do away the necessity of having tyrannical laws passed, which a large majority of the citizens detest, and will not put up with. Let all temperance and licence laws be repealed, and let every person stand on his own foundation. A great part of the country, at this time, is in commotion, almost in open rebellion against temperance laws; and it may create a very fearful alternative. Now is the time to prevent it.

Let the editor of every newspaper in the country publish this, and frequently remind persons who need employ of the above resolutions. SENEX.

SUDDEN DEATH.—A man by the name of Reed, died very suddenly at twenty minutes before seven o'clock Saturday morning, while in the Lowell Railroad depot, at Boston.—Deceased was about 55 years of age, and belonged in West Windsor, Vt. He was stopping at the Commercial House, and went to the depot in his usual health this morning, to see about some freight.

LOCAL.

COURT OF COMMON PLEAS.

EXETER, March 19.

The Adjourned Term of the Court of Common Pleas commenced its session at Exeter to-day.

Case No. 155, Jacob P. Bartlett v. Thomas Bassett and Stephen L. Huse, is now on trial. This is an action for trespass. Stanyan & Stickney for Plf.; Marston for Deft.

EXETER TOWN HOUSE.—At a town meeting held in Exeter in March, 1854, it was voted to build a new Town House upon the spot where the present Court House now stands. This situation, however, was objectionable to many persons,—as it is somewhat out of the way,—and last autumn another meeting was called to see if the town would change the location. At this meeting it was voted to postpone all further consideration of the matter until the Spring.

At an adjourned town meeting held on Thursday, 15th inst., it was voted 214 to 105, to change the location. But as some objection was made on the grounds that many persons had voted under a mistake—carrying a vote as they supposed for the same situation, but, as it appeared, in fact for changing it—this vote was reconsidered, but with nearly the same result as before. It was also voted to place it on the "Dean lot," corner of Front and Water streets. The new building is to be of brick, 114 ft. 2 in. long; 50 ft. 2 in. wide and 43 ft. 14 in. to the top of the cornice, and is expected to cost, with the land, about $25,000, of which $2,500 is furnished by the County.

☞ The singers of the ancient Sacred music of Epping and vicinity, held a free public rehearsal on Sunday evening, and had a full house—as is generally the case at entertainments where the price of admission is so low.

MASSACHUSETTS LEGISLATURE.—The Boston Atlas of Saturday, says:

The Indian weed continues to disturb the souls of members. Yesterday, on motion of Mr. Haradon, of Blackstone, the Sergeant-at-Arms was ordered to use all his force, might, power and ability, to prevent the smoking of cigars or pipes within the State House. He was also ordered 'forthwith' to remove the official boxes for snuff and tobacco from the House.

"O now, forever,
Farewell the tranquil quid! farewell the puff,
Farewell the finely cut and the big plugs
That made ambition easy! O farewell,
Farewell the neighing sneeze, and the shrill trump," &c.

The Liquor bill was subjected to debate in the House. Several sparks of eloquence were elicited. Mr. Munroe, of Boston, "suffered a sea change" and addressed the House in the following marine manner: "Ship of State, ahoy! Put your helm hard aport. You are coasting in dangerous waters! If you don't mind you will all be carried down in the political whirlpool. Vote against the bill."

Mr. Pierce, of Boston, having obtained the floor, there was much coughing and talking, with malice prepense. Mr. Pierce, with much fire, declared that he was a Boston boy, and would not be put down.

Mr. Vose, of Boston, was stoical, not to say Spartan, in the ferocity of the penalties for rum selling which he proposed. He was in favor of imposing imprisonment in the State Prison for the first offence, of hanging for the second, of eternal punishment for the third.

We believe all three of these gentlemen are opposed to the bill.

A new Sunday Liquor Law went into operation at Louisville, Ky. on Sunday, 11th inst. The Democrat of the 12th, says:—"The general, if not universal obedience to the law, must have gladdened the hearts of those who love a quiet day of rest."

A lad in a state of mental absence, gave three cheers for the stars and stripes during school hours, and perceived his error when he got the stripes without the stars.

A house in Worcester that has long suffered the reputation of being haunted, was surrounded by the police on Monday evening, and nine spirits, with bodies to match, were taken out and marched to the station house. In the morning they were fined three dollars each.

I have continued to use and recommend it ever since, and I regard it as one of our great staple family medicines for coughs. I do not think it second to any pulmonary medicine before the public." AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS.

They don't help complaints, but they cure them.
One Box has cured Dyspepsia.
Three Boxes have cured the worst cases of Scrofula
Two Boxes have cured Erysipelas.
One Box always cures the Jaundice.
Three Boxes are sure to cleanse the system from Boils—often less than one does it.
Two Boxes have completely cured the worst of ulcers on the leg.
Small doses seldom fail to cure the Piles.
One dose cures the headache arising from a foul stomach.
Strong doses often repeated expel every worm from the body. They should be given to children, who are always more or less afflicted with this scourge.
As a gentle Physic they have no equal.
One box cures derangement of the Liver.
Half a Box cures a Cold.
They purify the Blood, and thus strike at the foundation of every disease.
As a Dinner Pill there is not their equal in the world.
They are purely vegetable, and can do no harm, but do accomplish an unaccountable amount of good.

ONE WEEK LATER NEWS FROM CALIFORNIA.

NEW YORK, March 19.—The Steamship Northern Light, arrived this morning, bringing San Francisco dates to Feb. 26, with 262 passengers and $92,000 in gold dust.

The news is highly important. Business was entirely prostrate, caused by the suspension of five banking houses. On the 22d, " " Page, Bacon & Co. suspended payment, followed on the 23d, by Adams & Co.; Wells, Fargo & Co.; Robinson & Co. and Wright's Miners' Deposit. Adams & Co. closed all their branches without paying a dollar, except at San Francisco, where, on the 22d, they stood a run of $200,000. Wells, Fargo & Co. closed here, but their country branches paid as long as the coin lasted, and were still paying as fast as coin could be procured in exchange for dust and bars. They announced that they would resume payment in San Francisco on the 26th.

It was feared that Adams & Co. could not resume payment under sixty days, if at all.—Page, Bacon & Co. would probably resume payment in a few days, depositors having granted them time on $400,000. Their assets were large. These failures caused the detention of the steamer until the 26th.

Rumors were current of heavy failures among the merchants, but we have nothing authentic on this head.

Owing to the scarcity of water, but little gold had been taken from the mines, but heavy rains commenced falling on the 25th, and still continued when the steamer left.

There has been no election of U. S. Senator, the Joint Convention having adjourned sine die, on the 26th, by a vote of 63 to 44.

The news from Kern River is of an exciting character. The miners are said to be averaging from $10 to $20 per day. The steamers to that point were crowded.

St. Charles Hotel and Williams Hotel, in San Francisco, were burnt on the 18th. Loss $30,000. In Nevada, 16 houses were burned on the 16th, and on the 21st, 25 houses were destroyed in Stockton.

INTERESTING FROM UTAH.—Through the courtesy of our cotemporary of the "Mormon," we have been furnished with slips of recent correspondence from the Great Salt Lake City. The letter bears date Dec. 22d. The Legislative Assembly opened its session on the 11th ult. Unlike every other territory, Utah is allowed but forty days in which to transact its legislative business. The weather was the finest imaginable, with but one slight snow, and clear frosty nights.

Col. Steptoe had sent men to explore a new route to California, which decreases the distance some two hundred and fifty miles below that of the road north of Salt Lake. The city authorities of Salt Lake have abolished all licenses for the sale of spirituous liquors. An effort was being made to push a prohibitory bill through the Legislature, but the chances were that it would fail.

Judge Kenney made a splendid party on Tuesday, Dec. 19th, in which Governor Young and many of the Twelve, with Colonel Steptoe and his officers, participated. The Judges, Colonel Steptoe with his officers, and the United States Territorial officers, and the merchants of the city, had petitioned President Pierce to re-appoint Brigham Young Governor and Superintendent of Indian Affairs for the Territory.—New York Mirror, Match 17.

A Madrid letter says that "the Spanish Government is disposed to admit that the authorities of Cuba exceeded their powers in the affair of the Black Warrior, as regards the two principal points of it—the description of the cargo, and the time allowed for the production of the ship's manifest. In consequence, it is disposed to accord a just indemnity. The presence of Mr. Soule in this city was the great obstacle to this arrangement."

THE "ROARING RIVER."—The Freshet in the river is greater than since 1840. The current rushes and roars at a rate which seems to threaten utter demolition. We trust it will not have any of the constitutional scruples of President Pierce about removing the sandbars at the entrance to the harbor.—Chicago Tribune, March 15.

KILLED BY FALLING DOWN STAIRS.—On Saturday night, Bartholomew Desmond was instantly killed by falling down a flight of stairs in a house known as "Company Block," Second street, South Boston. He was drunk.

REVIEW
The Speech of Hon. J. R. Chandler,
OF PENNSYLVANIA,
On the Political Power of the Pope!
[Delivered in the House of Representatives, Jan. 10, 1855.]

By Rev. John Claudius Pitrat,
A Member of the University of France; Founder and Ex-Editor of the journal "La Presse du Peuple," in Paris; author of "Jesuitism Unveiled," also of "Paul and Julia;" and formerly a Roman Catholic Priest.

Edw. W. Hinks & Co., Publishers,
Joy's Building, 31 Washington street.

THIS Work, from its stern rigidity of logic in meeting the arguments of Mr. Chandler, following him, as it does, step by step through the the entire length of his speech, unveiling in a masterly manner the subtlety of the Roman Catholic Theology in reference to the temporal power of the Pope, is better adapted to the enlightenment of the people upon the political influence of the Papal power, particularly in the United States, than any work heretofore published. Not a line of Mr. Chandler's Speech is suppressed in this review, but the whole is taken up, sentence by sentence, and

His Defence of Papacy is entirely Overthrown.

72 Pages. PRICE—per single copy, 12½ cents; per dozen, $1; per hundred, $7. Persons at a distance inclosing to the Publishers $1.25 (post paid) will receive one doz. copies of the Review free of postage.

The Great Specific of the Age.
OXYGENATED BITTERS!
THE ONLY SURE AND SAFE REMEDY EVER DISCOVERED
For the cure of
DYSPEPSIA,
IN ALL ITS VARIOUS FORMS,

AS well as Liver Diseases, Fever and Ague, Bilious Complaints, Bronchitis, General Debility, and all diseases of a kindred nature.
Read the following testimony from Dr. Henry E. Morrell, a skillful physician of N. Y. city. He says:—"The most effectual medicine to improve the tone and energy of the stomach is that prepared by Dr. George B. Green, of Windsor, Vt, and called the Oxygenated Bitters."
The Oxygenated Bitters do not contain a particle of alcohol in their composition, and are, of necessity, highly concentrated, to prevent the injurious action of the temperature of different climates. Each bottle, when diluted according to the directions, makes nearly half a gallon of medicine, as pleasant to the taste as lemonade; and as to quantity, quite the CHEAPEST MEDICINE.
I have employed them in a multitude of cases, and have uniformly found that, when used according to the directions, they gradually, but surely, remove, one by one, the various distressing symptoms which cluster around the confirmed Dyspeptic, restore the stomach to its lost energies, and thus lead the patient back to the enjoyment of permanent health and strength.
It has also been used by the following persons, and received their unqualified approbation:—
Prof. A. A. Hayes, M. D., State Assayer, Boston
Prof. E. R. Phelps, M. D., Therapeutics and Materia Medica, Dartmouth College.
Hon. Myron Lawrence, Ex-President of Massachusetts Senate.
Hon. I. H. Arnold, formerly Governor of Rhode Island, now member of Congress.
Hon. J. F. Simmons, U. S. Senator from R. I.
Hon. Samuel S. Phelps, U. S. Senator from Vt.
Hon. Wm. Upham, U. S. Senator from Vt.
Hon. Solomon Foote, Member of Cong. from Vt.

AMUSING AND INSTRUCTIVE.

PRESIDENT HITCHCOCK'S
History of a Zoological Temperance Convention held in Central Africa, CONTAINING MANY ILLUSTRATIONS.

READ the following notice from a distinguished Clergyman:—

"We are not accustomed to laugh outright, or be convulsed with laughter, yet we have never found it more difficult to restrain our risibilities than in perusal of this most ingenious satire; and yet with all its comical, diverting, and laughable scenes, the most solemn, important and instructive lessons are couched in every page.—Youth should read it—parents, teachers, preachers evidently."

Patents.

AMERICAN AND FOREIGN OFFICE.
Agency for business with US Patent Office, Washington,
70 State st, oppo. Kilby st, Boston.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION TO INVENTORS. The Subscriber (late Agent of the U. S. Patent Office, under the Act of 1836) determined to present advantages, in applying for Patents, superior to those offered to inventors by others, has made arrangements whereby on applications prepared and conducted by him, THIRTY DOLLARS (instead of twenty, as heretofore paid) will be remitted by him in case of failure to obtain a patent, and the withdrawal through him within thirty days after the rejection. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments and all necessary papers and drawings, for procuring patents in this and foreign countries prepared, and advice rendered on legal and scientific matters respecting inventions, and infringement of patents.

Inventors can not only here obtain their specifications on the most reasonable terms, but can here avail themselves of the experience of 20 years' practice, an extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and correct account of patents granted in this and other countries; besides being saved a journey to Washington, the usual great delay there, as well as all personal trouble in obtaining their patents. Copies of claims of any patent furnished by remitting one dollar.—Assignments recorded at Washington.

R. H. EDDY,
Solicitor of Patents.

"During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, did business at the Patent Office, as Solicitor of Patents. There were few, if any persons acting in that capacity, who had so much business before the Patent Office; and there were none who conducted it with more skill, fidelity, and success. I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the best informed and most faithful Patent Solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them a early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents."

"PATENT OFFICE, ———.

"R. H. EDDY, Esq., Boston, Mass.

"SIR:—Your facilities for the prosecution of any business connected with this Office, are equal to those of any other agent. I am very respectfully, f26 For sale by W. SIMES & CO.

THE GREAT STANDARD REMEDY
FOR ALL PULMONARY DISEASES.

Containing neither Prussic Acid, Tartar Emetic, Opium, or any other deleterious drug. Extensively used, tested and approved in New England, Canada, and the British Provinces during a period of THIRTY YEARS by Eminent Physicians, Clergymen, Professors of Colleges, Theological Seminaries, Scientific and Distinguished Public Men,—and, in fact by all classes in the community. See Pamphlets and wrappers containing Certificates, among which are those of Rev. Dr LYMAN BEECHER, Boston, late President of Lane Theological Seminary, Cincinnati, Ohio.—Late Rev. Dr. LEONARD WOODS, late Prof. of Theology in Andover Theological Seminary, Mass.—Hon. DANIEL P. THOMPSON, Secretary of State of Vermont.—N. F. WILLIAMS, Esq., formerly Collector of the Port of Baltimore, Md.—Rev. JOSIAH LITCH, Philadelphia,—and many others.

HOW EXTENSIVE IS THE PURCHASE?—JOHN A. BERRY, M. D., Saco, Me., says, "During a practice of twenty years, I have seen used all the popular remedies for Coughs, and am well satisfied that your VEGETABLE PULMONARY BALSAM is best, and I hope will be better known and more generally used."

☞ Beware of Counterfeits and Imitations!!

HERTS BROTHERS
AMALGAMATED IRIDIUM ZINC & PLATINA
PENS.
WARRANTED NOT TO CORRODE.

HERTS BROTHERS, having been many years engaged in the manufacture of Metallic Pens, and during that time, having devoted their unceasing attention to improving and perfecting that useful and necessary article, the result of their unceasing efforts and numerous experiments has been the construction of a Pen on a principle entirely new, combining all the advantages of the elasticity and clearness of the Quill, with six times the durability of the Steel Pen; and thus entirely obviating the only objection that has hitherto existed against the use of Steel Pens.

This Pen will be found an invaluable article in Offices, as they never need wiping, also to Banks and Schools, as they will not spatter nor cut the thinnest paper, and are warranted anti-corrosive.

CAUTION.—The universal celebrity of these Pens having induced several disreputable Makers to foist upon the public a spurious imitation, it will please to be observed that each genuine Pen is stamped, "HERTS, BROTHERS' PATENT, 1853," and each box of Genuine Pens will contain a label with a fac-simile of the Manufacturers' name.

MANUFACTORY, BIRMINGHAM, ENGLAND.

DR. J. B. MARCHISI'S
Celebrated Catholicon,
FOR THE
RELIEF & CURE OF SUFFERING FEMALES.

It stands pre-eminent for its curative powers in all the diseases for which it is recommended, usually called

FEMALE COMPLAINTS.

Of these are PROLAPSUS UTERI, or Falling of the Womb; Fluor Albus, or Whites: CHRONIC INFLAMMATION OF THE WOMB; INCIDENTAL HEMORRHAGE or Flooding: PAINFUL, SUPPRESSED, AND IRREGULAR MENSTRUATION, &c., with all their accompanying evils. (Cancer excepted) no matter how severe or of how long standing.

Let all interested call and obtain a pamphlet (free) containing ample proof, from the most respectable sources, of the beneficial results of its use; together with letters from highly experience Physicians, who have used it in their practice, and speak from their own observation.

A WORD TO THE LADIES.

Should any entertain doubts as to the efficacy of the URINEX CATHOLICON, I would respectfully state that I have for many years past, as my friends can well attest, been troubled with a nervous disease for which this medicine is recommended, in its worst forms, and that by its use I have been entirely cured, and thus induced to accept an agency, and offer it for the benefit of others.

MRS. S. GAIT, 38 South street, Boston.

I feel it my duty to make known to the afflicted the virtues of MARCHISI'S URINEX CATHOLICON, which has relieved me of Female Complaints of fifteen years' standing, of a serious nature, that literally my physician suspected Cancer of the Womb. I suffered extremely, and at last was entirely disabled from attending to my usual pursuits. . . .

It has given me more relief than any thing I have exercised for the difficulties. I will take pleasure in giving further details of my case to any lady who will call on me at 67 Mill street.

THOMAS H. BENTON AFTER THE FIRE.—The Globe of the 28th ult., after noticing the destruction of Col. Benton's house by fire, says:

"We think it worthy of note to write down that we saw Col. Benton for a few minutes at a quarter past ten o'clock last night, when he was about sitting down to rewrite for this morning's Globe the speech which he made the day before yesterday on the presentation of Gen. Jackson's sword to Congress, which he had revised, but had returned to our office a part only; the balance he had left in his office, and it was burnt. He said he had it all in his head, and it should come out before he slept.

"We asked him if his house was insured, and he replied, as nearly as we can recollect, as follows:—'No, it was not insured; but I care nothing about that; insurance could not have saved all that I considered valuable—the bed on which my wife died, on which I sleep, her clothes, which were in a trunk sitting at the head of it; the articles which she prized most, around it—the last things I saw at night, and the first in the morning—and the papers in the adjoining room, many of which cannot be supplied. But what I shall most feel—more than I now do—will be the loss of the memorials of my wife, whose body, still above ground, it will be my first care to remove to St. Louis when released from Congress, to be buried in the place in which I had collected the remains of my dead—my mother, children, grandchildren, sister—to take the place by their side which she and I had marked out for ourselves.'

"We then asked him the condition of his pecuniary affairs, and what he thought would be the judgment of the Supreme Court in the case of Fremont and the United States relative to the Mariposa tract of land in California? He answered, 'I have enough to live on. I have paid no attention to the suit about the Mariposa land. Cool and sensible men, who heard the arguments in the case, tell me they think justice and law are on the side of Fremont. But if he shall lose it he will have lost no honor. He has passed the point where his honor was at stake. He borrowed a few years ago large sums of money to pay for beef which he purchased for the use of the United States in California, and drew bills on the government to pay for a great portion of it. These bills were protested, and he could not raise the money to take them up. Congress last session made an appropriation for his relief, which enabled him to pay all he owed for beef. If he had not paid these debts, he would have considered himself dishonored.'"

A SOLEMN SCENE.—A correspondent of the Dover Enquirer gives a thrilling account of the scene at the death of Col. Cyrus Barton, who it has been mentioned dropped dead in a large political meeting, a week or two since. Mr. Barton had been speaking for about twenty minutes in an animated, powerful and excited manner, to an audience like himself, wrought up to a high state of excitement. Whether he intended to say more, or close his remarks at that moment, there seems to be a diversity of opinion.

His last sentence was in very strong language, and at the close some instantly applauded, others hissed, and two dogs which were in the house sprang into the centre of the hall and barked and howled fearfully. At this moment, after raising to his lips a tumbler part full of water that was upon the table or bench before him, he trembled and commenced sinking to the floor, when Mr. Harriman, his opponent, who had been taking notes to aid himself in replying to Col. B., extended his arms, embraced him, and placed him in a chair that stood near him, when the audience, believing it merely a fainting from excitement, burst into a loud laugh, which was changed into consternation when Mr. H. instantly announced, "He is dead!"

He was dead before he was seated in the chair, and in less than a minute from the closing of the last sentence he uttered against the National Administration, which induced the applauding, and hissing, and barking, amidst which he expired in so dreadful a manner. The excitement of the meeting was up at fever heat when Mr. B. fell, and the loud laugh produced by the scene in the room, when no one thought of Death being an attendant upon the meeting, as Col. B. fell backward, is said to have been a scene not easily described, when it burst upon three hundred men that they had been merry, unconscious of what a scene they were passing through.

THE MEREDITH DISASTER.—The editor of the "Winnipisaukee Gazette," who was one of those who went down with the floor of the town-house on election day, but escaped with slight injuries, writes of the fall, into the chasm below:—"It is impossible for us to describe the sensation produced upon our mind while going down. Half an hour at least seemed the shortest period occupied in the descent, while a whole life of recollections crowded their dreamy visions upon the imagination." He gives a list of 118 victims, only one of whom, Nath. Nichols, is dead, but several are apparently mortally injured, among whom is J. G. M. Ladd, whose back is broken. A great many had broken legs, and some had both limbs broken.

Morning Chronicle.

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 21, 1855.

For the Chronicle.

REVIEW OF THE ELECTION.

Now that our annual political battle is over, and the smoke cleared away, we can look calmly and candidly at the causes of Mr. Baker's defeat and Mr. Metcalf's election.

First among these was the Nebraska bill. Those ods of men who voted for Metcalf, would have gone for Baker, had the latter openly condemned that measure. Privately, it is said, he is no friend to the bill, but had he made his opinions public, he would doubtless have been served as was John Atwood before him, by his own party. He was between two stools, and so fell to the ground.

Next comes the Temperance question. Nobody, to our knowledge, ever has claimed Mr. Metcalf as a teetotaller; yet he received nearly the whole temperance vote, simply because he did what his opponent would not do, viz.: pledged himself to sign a Constitutional Liquor Law, should the Legislature pass one. The temperance men were determined that no man should have their support as Governor, or as Representative to the General Court, who would not pledge himself to use his influence in favor of a Liquor Law. We shall no doubt have one passed early in the session of the Legislature.

Lastly the Roman Catholic excitement operated somewhat in favor of the victorious candidate. But we are satisfied that with the temperance and anti-Nebraska vote against them, no party in New Hampshire can succeed; though the result would have been less decisive had the K. N. issue been left out of the contest. TEMPERANCE.

MAINE.—The Legislature adjourned last Saturday. The amended liquor bill, a little more stringent than before, has become a law, to go into effect May 1. This bill inflicts imprisonment for the first unlawful sale of liquor.

The bill extending lien upon vessels till ten days after they are launched, became a law.

The bill submitting to the people an amendment of the constitution, making sheriffs and various other offices elective, finally passed.—Sheriffs are to be elected once in two years.

The Portland Police Court bill passed, and takes effect on the first day of May next. Its Jurisdiction is extended from $20 to $100, with a session for jury trials once in three months.

PRUSSIAN SCHOOLS.—A writer in the New York Musical Review, writing from Berlin, intimates that our tourists, Mann and Stowe, have given the American people too favorable an idea of the Prussian Schools. The higher schools, for the better and richer classes, are indeed admirable; but the Schools for the poor, to which poor children are compelled to go, by the constable, are represented by the writer in an odious light: The children are taught reading, writing, &c, and as to religion they are daily drilled in three ideas:

1. There is a king, to whom we owe such allegiance that no offering can be too great for him—property, health, strength, life itself, if necessary.

2. There is a God, to whom we owe all honor, praise, and obedience, consistent with our duty to the King.

3. All Catholics must obey their priests and bishops, so long as they teach unlimited obedience to Frederick William, and all Protestants must believe in Martin Luther, who does teach this, or is made to.

Some very good men, preachers of the Gospel too, who have been here, will doubtless be much shocked at the manner in which I speak of what they thought to be religious instructions in the schools. Bless their kind hearts, it was just such as is allowed in Savannah and Mobile, where a white man may preach to the slaves, "Servants, obey your masters." Save the Jews, every child must be baptized, learn certain texts of the Bible and a certain amount of catechism, at fourteen to sixteen be confirmed, and—pay the fees therefor. In nine hundred and ninety-nine cases out of one thousand, that is the end of the religion among the Protestants, except to put up a Christmas-tree on Christmas eve, to get tipsy on punch the last evening of the year, and a few other such observances. You see a vast deal more religious sentiment and feeling in the Catholic than in the Protestant sections—I do not say principle.

The Chief of Police of New York, in his semi annual report, just presented, announces that there were 43 arrests for murder, and 166 for assault with intent to kill, during the six months ending with December last!

Probably no one of all these criminals was a total abstinent, or strictly temperate man: but every one claimed and exercised his right to eat and drink what he pleased: and every one of them thought he could take care of himself.

MR. ANTHONY BURNS IS GOING TO LOCATE IN BOSTON—GOOD.—It is understood that the services of Mr. Anthony Burns, late of Virginia, have been secured by Mr. Wm. Bacon, who keeps an oyster saloon at No. 470 Washington street, and that Mr. Burns is to have charge of the ladies department of the establishment.—Boston Courier.

Not a bad way to advertise the oysters; but otherwise a piece of doubtful intelligence.

COMMENDABLE.—Prof. Wm. B. Bradbury, in a letter to the New York Musical Review, relates an encouraging incident which occurred at one of his Musical Conventions.

One circumstance, the first of the kind I have had the privilege of recording, (though I hope not the last,) I mention as a proof that the churches are not all indifferent to their musical interests. A church in an adjoining town, believing in the doctrine of encouraging singers in their attempts at improvement, unanimously resolved to send their choir to the Convention, defraying all their expenses for the course of lessons. It strikes me that this is a more effective way of correcting existing evils in a choir, than the more common one of habitual neglect and fault-finding. It is certainly worth trying.

To this the editors of the Review add a note, that they will send the pastor of that church their paper, free of charge, for a year.

☞ "Whatsoever thy hand findeth to do, do it with thy might." A friend writing us respecting an old times concert just given in Augusta, Me., says, "There was one old gentleman in the choir, who made quite a sensation. He was utterly unable to stand still and sing, but moved his long arm up and down with the precision of the shaft of a steam engine; and in that fine old piece, Mount Sion, he seemed to be really 'marching, marching, marching through Immanuel's ground'—so entirely was he wrapped up in the music. He was a six footer, and as he sung with voice, head, hands and feet, all 'marching,' the sentiment was conveyed admirably."

ANTIOCH COLLEGE.—We have received from Rev. Thos Holmes, a copy of a handsome Catalogue of this institution for 1853–54–55. Hon. Horace Mann is President, with a full Faculty of male and female teachers—including Rev. Mr. Holmes as Professor of Greek Language and Literature, and his wife, Lettice S Holmes, A. M., as Assistant Teacher in the Preparatory School. The music department is in charge of a gentleman and two ladies. The College is situated at Yellow Springs, Ohio; and both sexes have equal rights and privileges in the institution. The whole number of students for the first two terms of the year 1854–5 was 379.

☞ A Book-Keeper's Institute, and Drawing Academy, has just been opened by Messrs. H. A. Burbank, and C. F. Gerry, at 103 Court street, Boston, for the reception of students of both sexes. The department of Drawing will be under the supervision of our old friend Gerry, who has been long and favorably known as an accomplished teacher of this art. That 'every one can learn to draw,' has been a favorite motto of his for years; but he deems it of the utmost importance that the pupil should receive proper instruction at the commencement.

DEATH OF LADY SUFFOLK.—The New York Spirit of the Times states this celebrated trotting mare died at Edgar Hill's, Bridport, Vt., on the 7th of March, in what was supposed to be a fit, as she was in apparent health but a short time before she died. Thus passes from the Turf to a resting place beneath it, an old familiar. We shall see "The Grey Mare" no more, but her deeds are recorded in the archives of the "Spirit," and will live long after the epitaph of your humble scribbler shall be written; and when our hair shall have grown as white as hers was once gray, we shall look back through the distance to the deeds that she performed The Boston Courier understands that Barnum paid one thousand dollars for her ladyship's skin, to stuff for his Museum.

CREDIT AND CASH.—If you would get rich, don't deal in pass-books. Credit is "the tempter in a new shape" buy dry goods on trust, and you will purchase a thousand articles that cash would never have dreamed of. A dollar in the hand looks larger than ten dollars seen through a sixty days due bill. Cash is practical, while credit takes horribly to taste and romance. Let cash buy a dinner, and you will have a beefsteak flanked with onions. Send credit to market and he will return with eight pairs of woodcock and a peck of mushrooms. Credit believes in double-breasted pins and champagne suppers. Cash is more easily satisfied.

THE DISCONTENTED DEMOCRACY.—The Richmond Enquirer, speaking of the resignation of Mr Soule, says: "If Mr. Soule be not grossly misrepresented, he is lending himself to the discontented democracy, and is abetting a factious war against the administration, to whose generous confidence he is indebted for the highest distinction to which he can aspire."

The inhabitants of Bath, N. H., the residence of Hon. Harry Hibbard, one of the three New England representatives who voted for the Nebraska act, not content with giving a Know Nothing majority at the late election, passed a series of resolutions rebuking the aiders and abettors of the repeal of the Missouri Compromise. Mr. Hibbard addressed the town for nearly an hour in opposition to the resolutions, but they were then passed by a large majority.

POSTAGE.—It is important for every body to remember, that from and after the 1st day of April next, the law requires pre-payment of postage on all letters between places within the United States. Foreign letters will go the same as after. Hence postage under 3000 miles 3 cents, over 3000 miles 10 cents.

POLICE COURT.

On Monday, Frank Gray was arraigned for an assault on Officer Adams, on the 13th inst. It appeared that on town-meeting day, near the meeting in Ward 3, at the Old South, there was some disturbance, which the officer in the discharge of his duty attempted to quell, when he was assaulted and struck by respondent.

Justice Parker bound him over in the sum of $200 for trial at the September term of Court of Common Pleas.

U. S. DISTRICT COURT.—The March Term of the U. S. District Court was held in this city on Tuesday: Hon. Matthew Harvey, Presiding.

The cases of U. S. v. 2000 Spruce logs, seized for breach of revenue laws; and of Burton v. Salter, a libel for seamen's wages, were heard and continued.

Three aliens were naturalized.

COURT OF COMMON PLEAS.

EXETER, March 20.

Case No. 155, Bartlett v. Basset and Huse, on trial yesterday morning, has been settled.

Case No. 167, John S. Wells v. Stephen Scammon was then taken up. This is a suit for the recovery of counsel fees. Wells and Marston for plff.; Stickney and Tuck for deft.

☞ The Lecture before the Mechanics' Lyceum on Tuesday evening, was by Hon. John P. Hale, on the Martyrdom of Telemachus. The orator looks very much as he did twenty years ago, except that he has gained somewhat in weight; but he gave us a better lecture than we ever heard from him before.

Telemachus fell a victim to his own noble efforts, which were put forth in the Roman Coliseum, to stop the last gladitorial fight ever witnessed there. The noble death of this victim, who was a Christian Monk, so moved the Emperor, that he issued an edict, abolishing the cruel custom.

The lecture was a piece of ancient history, with moral lessons so plain that no wakeful mind could fail to learn them: and was fitly closed with the fine sentiment, that no earnest and true man can either live or die in vain.

MAP OF NEW HAMPSHIRE.

Mr. J. F. Dodge, general agent for Dodge's Township & Railroad Map of N. H., is now canvassing this city for the purpose of forming a Club of Subscribers for this valuable Map. Our citizens who are not already provided with a copy, and may wish to obtain so full, plain and reliable a Map of their own State, will gladly avail themselves of the favorable opportunity now furnished. The terms to clubs are liberal, and as the map is much needed by all, we trust a large club will be formed. It is highly recommended by many of the most respectable citizens of the State, as a most valuable production, in several important particulars greatly superior to any map of the State heretofore published. Some of the first cities and towns in the State are placing them in their public schools.

"The Map of New Hampshire, recently published by J. R. Dodge, of Nashua, ought to be placed by school committees, in every school room in the State. The neglect of our own geography, and the consequent ignorance of our people concerning it, in so small a State, is a standing disgrace to us."—Manchester American.

☞ A correspondent who is interested, thinks it unjust and impolitic, that a mason who has a contract here for a large job of plastering, &c., should send to Boston for workmen,—while equally good mechanics at home, ready and willing to work for the same and perhaps less wages, are allowed to remain idle. Other things being equal, it is certainly poor policy to send money out of town for any purpose, that could be kept at home. "Encourage your own."

☞ Gov. Baker has issued his proclamation, appointing Thursday, April 5th, to be observed in this State, as a day of "public fasting, humiliation and prayer."

☞ Rev. Massena Goodrich, of this city, has accepted a call to become pastor of the Universalist Church in Waltham, Mass.

A CLERGYMAN'S OPINION OF THE VEGETABLE PULMONARY BALSAM. The Rev. JOSIAH LITCH, of Philadelphia, Pa., writes:—"I was in 1853 entirely cured of a cough which had reduced me almost to a skeleton, by the use of the Vegetable Pulmonary Balsam. I have continued to use and recommend it ever since, and I regard it as one of our great staple family medicines for coughs. I do not think it second to any pulmonary medicine before the public." The Greatest Medical Discovery of the Age, is

AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS.

They don't help complaints, but they cure them.
One Box has cured Dyspepsia.
Three Boxes have cured the worst cases of Scrofula
Two Boxes have cured Erysipelas.
One Box always cures the Jaundice.
Two Boxes are sure to cleanse the system from Boils—often less than one does it.
Two Boxes have completely cured the worst of ulcers on the leg.
Small doses seldom fail to cure the Piles.
One dose cures the headache arising from a foul stomach.
Strong doses often repeated expel every worm from the body. They should be given to children, who are always more or less afflicted with this scourge.
As a gentle Physic they have no equal.
One Box cures derangement of the Liver.
Half a Box cures a Cold.
They purify the Blood, and thus strike at the foundation of every disease.
As a Dinner Pill there is not their equal in the world.
They are purely vegetable, and can do no harm, but do accomplish an unaccountable amount of good.
Prepared by DR. J. C. AYER, Lowell, Ms., and sold by every respectable Druggist in New England.
Agents in Portsmouth, W. R. PRESTON, J. H. THACHER, and D. KIMBALL, and sold by the Druggists throughout the United States. 2m f1 d&w

BILL POOLE.—The Coroner's Jury, in the Poole tragedy, at New York, on Saturday evening, returned the following verdict:—"We find that the death of William Poole was caused by a gunshot wound from a pistol, in the hands of Lewis Baker. We find that James Turner and Patrick McLaughlin, alias 'Paudeen,' were guilty of aiding and abetting in the murder of William Poole. We find John Hyler, Cornelius Lynn, and Charles Van Pelt, guilty as accessories before the fact. We likewise find John Morrissey guilty of an assault, with an intent to take the life of said William Poole, by association, on the evening preceding the murder. We likewise find James Irvin accessory before the fact."

CINCINNATI, 17th.—SLAVE CASE.—Judge Soer, of the Superior Court, has the case of two negroes brought before him under a writ of habeas corpus, to recover their liberty, on the ground of having been brought into the State, under advice. The trial excites much interest, and Hon. G. P. Chase and Judge Walker appeared for the slaves.

COMMANDER INGRAHAM.—It has recently been stated that Commander Ingraham has lost all his property by the decision of a court of law, and in view of this it is proposed in Charleston to get up a testimonial in cash for him, and a leading firm in that city has started the paper with $200.

A ROGUE ARRESTED.—A few months ago a man named Joseph Ashley, in the employment of a Baltimore gentleman, persuaded the wife of his employer to link her fortunes with his, and then having robbed the husband of some six hundred dollars, started off with the lady on a tour. The deserted husband immediately gave chase. By the assistance of experienced officers he traced the guilty couple first to Rochester, and then to Battle Creek, Michigan. After many annoyances and delays, he procured from the Governor of Michigan an order for the delivery of the fugitive and brought him safely back to Baltimore, where he is now in jail awaiting trial. The unfaithful wife remains in Michigan, and her three children are with the father in Baltimore.

BETS ON THE CZAR'S DEATH.—A New York paper says, commenting on the Czar's death, "the public mind is far from being settled. One bet of $1000, it is said, has been made, that the Czar is not dead, though the bets run 20 to 1 for the accuracy of the intelligence. Then the markets have been affected by it. Cotton has gone up and the flour market is deadened."

ANTI SLAVERY LECTURE.—The Anti-Slavery Society announce that Mr. Sumner will, early in April, deliver in New York his promised lecture upon the necessity, dignity and practicability of the anti-slavery enterprise, with glimpses at the practical duties of the free States. The precise day for its delivery is not yet fixed.

The annual report of the Cincinnati chief of police, states that the effect of the partial enforcement of the liquor law is seen in a falling off of one half the disorderly cases in the police court, especially cases fo wife whipping. Many of the saloons of that city still sell liquor under the name of bitters.

FATAL RAILROAD ACCIDENT.—On Friday afternoon a German, name unknown, was killed on the Boston and Providence Railroad at Hog Bridge, Roxbury. He was walking on the track towards this city, and seeing a train going out on the same track he stepped off on the other track, not seeing the Dedham train for this city. The cow-catcher of the latter train struck him, threw him up against the lantern, completely demolishing it, he fell back, and rolling off, went under the wheels, and the whole train passed over him killing him instantly.

RATHER SUGGESTIVE.—One of the Cochituate water pipes at the Custom House having become clogged so as to prevent the passage of water, a force pump was attached to it, which drew out a large quantity of a substance apparently vegetable in its origin, though some of it was seemingly gelatinous and was semi-transparent.—Boston Chronicle.

A mercantile house in Boston, received a letter from St. Petersburg, dated 22d Feb. which says the influenza was very prevalent and fatal in that city, and that a distinguished merchant and member of the Commercial Court, died with it after about 48 hours illness.

The application of towels, wrung out in hot water, to the forehead and temples, is a speedy and efficacious remedy for headache arising from a neuralgic affection.

The Great Specific of the Age.
OXYGENATED BITTERS!
THE ONLY SURE AND SAFE REMEDY EVER DISCOVERED
For the cure of
DYSPEPSIA,
IN ALL ITS VARIOUS FORMS,

AS well as Liver Diseases, Fever and Ague, Bilious Complaints, Bronchitis, General Debility, and all diseases of a kindred nature.
Read the following testimony from Dr. Henry E. Morrell, a skillful physician of N. Y. city. He says:—"The most effectual medicine to improve the tone and energy of the stomach is that prepared by Dr. George B. Green, of Windsor, Vt., and called the Oxygenated Bitters."
The Oxygenated Bitters do not contain a particle of alcohol in their composition, and are, of necessity, highly concentrated, to prevent the injurious action of the temperature of different climates. Each bottle, when diluted according to the directions, makes nearly half a gallon of medicine, as pleasant to the taste as lemonade; and as to quantity, quite the CHEAPEST MEDICINE.
I have employed them in a multitude of cases, and have uniformly found that, when used according to the directions, they gradually, but surely, remove, one by one, the various distressing symptoms which cluster around the confirmed Dyspeptic, restore the stomach to its lost energies, and thus lead the patient back to the enjoyment of permanent health and strength.
It has also been used by the following persons, and received the following unqualified approbation:—
Prof. A. A. Hayes, M. D., State Assayer, Boston
Prof. E. E. Phelps, M. D., of Therapeutics and Materia Medica, Dartmouth College.
Hon. Myron Lawrence, Ex-President of Massachusetts Senate.
Hon. L. H. Arnold, formerly Governor of Rhode Island, now member of Congress.
Hon. J. F. Simmons, U. S. Senator from R. I.

A New Method of Spreading a Fire. The Buffalo Democracy relates the following incident which occurred at Fort Mackinac in January last, at the time when the barracks were destroyed by fire:

During the progress of the flames, the officer in command thought it would be a good idea, as water was not easily to be obtained, to fire cannon shot into the buildings in such a way as to cut off the communication of the fire with the parts not yet kindled. Accordingly, the field-pieces were ranged on the parade, loaded with shot, and the cannonade was comenced. The shot all told, and perhaps would have fulfilled the expectations of the ingenious officer, had not a slight error in the practice been discovered, too late. To the great astonishment of all beholders, the shot exploded in the buildings, throwing the burning fragments in all directions, and spreading the disaster beyond hopes of remedy. The guns had been loaded with shells instead of solid shot! The result was most unfortunate, for the wooden buildings in the garrison were chiefly destroyed.

Ship Queen of the Seas, which cleared yesterday at this port for San Francisco, had all her berths taken up. Among the passengers are several young ladies. A gentleman wishing very much to take passage in the ship, found there was no room for him, except by marrying one of the young ladies, which he accordingly did; and the berth which was to be occupied by the young lady, will now be filled by (we hope) a happy couple.—Boston Traveller.

HERTS BROTHERS
AMALGAMATED IRIDIUM ZINC & PLATINA
PENS.
WARRANTED NOT TO CORRODE.

HERTS BROTHERS, having been many years engaged in the manufacture of Metalic Pens, and during that time, having devoted their unceasing attention to improving and perfecting that useful and necessary article, the result of their unceasing efforts and numerous experiments has been the construction of a Pen on a principle entirely new, combining all the advantages of the elasticity and clearness of the Quill, with six times the durability of the Steel Pen; and thus entirely obviating the only objection that has hitherto existed against the use of Steel Pens.

This Pen will be found an invaluable article in Offices, as they never need wiping, also to Banks and Schools, as they will not injure or cut the thinest paper, and are warranted anti-corrosive.

CAUTION.—The universal celebrity of these Pens having induced several disreputable Makers to foist upon the public a spurious imitation, it will please to be observed that every genuine Pen is stamped, "Herts Brothers' Patent, 1853," and each box of Genuine Pens will contain a label with a fac-simile of the Manufacturers' name.

DR. J. B. MARCHISI'S
Celebrated Catholicon,
FOR THE
RELIEF & CURE OF SUFFERING FEMALES.

It stands pre-eminent for its curative powers in all the diseases for which it is recommended, usually called

FEMALE COMPLAINTS.

Of these are PROLAPSUS UTERI, or falling out of the Womb: FLUOR ALBUS, or Whites: CHRONIC INFLAMMATION OF THE WOMB; INCIDENTAL HEMORRHAGE or Flooding; PAINFUL, SUPPRESSED, AND IRREGULAR MENSTRUATION, &c., with all their accompanying evils. (Cancer excepted) no matter how severe or of how long standing.

Let all interested call and obtain a pamphlet (free) containing ample proof, from the most respectable sources, of the beneficial results of its use; together with letters from the highly experienced Physicians, who have used it in their practice, and speak from their own observations.

A WORD TO THE LADIES.

Should any entertain doubts as to the efficacy of the Uterine Catholicon, I would respectfully state that I have for many years past, as my friends can well attest, been troubled with the disease for which this medicine is recommended, in its worst form, and that by its use I have been entirely cured, and thus induced to accept an agency, and offer it for the benefit of others.

MRS. S. GAIT, 38 South street, Boston.

I feel it my duty to make known to the afflicted the virtues of Marchisi's Uterine Catholicon, which has relieved me of Female Complaints of fifteen years' standing, all of so serious a nature, that latterly my physician suspected Cancer of the Womb. I suffered excessively, and at last was entirely disabled from attending to my usual pursuits. . . . . It has given me more relief than any thing I have ever used for these difficulties. I will take pleasure in giving further details of my case to any lady who will call on me at 67 Mill street.

Deck-Reefing Gear.

By the application of this GEAR, the Topsails of any vessel may be Reefed from the deck with remarkable facility, and carry sail much longer than when rigged in any other way. This Gear can be readily applied to any old rig, and at less expense than any other now in use.

The following is an extract from a letter recently received from Capt. Pickering, of the ship Ocean Rover, of Portsmouth, concerning its merits:—

"It has given me perfect satisfaction, and I have only to regret that it is not applied to all the top sail yards. On the passage to this port, (Charleston, S C.,) I experienced strong gales from the S W. and had occasion to use it several times, and on every occasion it worked finely."

THE SUCCESSOR OF NICHOLAS.— The Journal of Commerce says:—

"Alexander Nicolaewitch, the successor of Nicholas, was born on the 29th of April, 1818, and will therefore be thirty-seven years old next month. He is more distinguished for his amiability and natural goodness than for the talent and energy that distinguished his father, with whom he was far from being a favorite. Some years ago, Nicholas boxed his ears at a session of the Imperial Council, venting upon him such names as "fool and idiot" (bete), which were none the less offensive because of their truthfulness. Constantine, the second son, born in 1827, is in every respect the superior of his brother, inheriting the indomitable will, moral courage, and wisdom in council of his father. On this account, it has been sometimes supposed that the will of Nicholas would declare him heir to the crown. But this is very improbable. Far the most touching incident in the career of the late Emperor was his refusal to recognize the decree of Alexander excluding his brother Constantine from the throne, even after the voluntary resignation of the latter; and it would be against every principle he is supposed to have held, to have taken a step similar to that which he had condemned in his predecessor. Much as he may have deplored the degeneracy of his elder born, no essential mental defect was apparent to justify the exclusion; and though the laws of Russia are generally supposed to permit the Czar to name his successor, we do not believe the natural order has been violated in the present instance, when it could not be done without danger of revolution."

ANOTHER REMARKABLE FAMILY.—A correspondent of the Woonsocket Patriot, noticing an account published in the Boston Journal a few weeks since, of a family of six ladies in Duxbury, whose united ages were four hundred and seventy years, says that in the town of West Hartford, Ct., there is a family of Seldens, comprising eight brothers and two sisters, whose united ages are about eight hundred years,—the youngest being seventy, and the oldest nearly ninety years of age. A few years ago the members of the family met together at the old homestead, and sang together the good old tunes which their father and mother sang ninety years ago.

The grave and altar of Pope Alexander (a martyr) have been lately discovered at the Via Momentana, at Rome. Pillars richly ornamented support the vault, which is descended to by a flight of steps. Marble slabs with inscriptions of the fourth century, have also been found, and the works are pushing on, in spite of the rains, with great zeal.

A patent has been obtained for the preparation of maize leaf as a substitute for tobacco. The patentees claim for their manufactured weed anti-nervous qualities, and that it is a pleasant tonic, and therefore promotive of good health. It is said to have a sweet and pungent flavor.

A doestickian writes from Cincinnati about hogs: "The only way to see the city is to wait until a military company turns out, and then get between their ranks. They always carry their muskets at a low trail, to clear the streets of the porkers."

Down in Waldo, Me., a sheep was buried under the snow 25 days, last winter, and came out alive and well. When fodder is scarce would it not be well to winter the sheep under snow drifts?

Michael Green, Light House keeper at Bailey's harbor, Wiscosin, was frozen to death while on his way to Green Bay. His body was found by a party of Norwegian immigrants, near Eagle harbor.

"A sea lion," a monster of the seal species, weighing 600 pounds, was killed on Ipswich beach, last week, after a desperate struggle.

The Mimms will case at Mobile, involving $100,000 worth of property, has been decided in favor of his female colored servant.

Obscurity of style usually indicates that the writer is clumsy, or careless, or crude, or insincere, or ashamed of himself.

E. G. Fifield, of Sanbornton, N. H., who went to Boston to get employment, had his pocket picked on Saturday evening of over $100. It was all the money he possessed.

Convince a wise man of his error, and he will thank you; convince a fool, and he will insult you.

READ the following notice from a distinguished Clergyman:—

"We are not accustomed to laugh outright, or be convulsed with laughter, yet we have never found it more difficult to restrain our risibilities than while perusing this most ingenious satire; and yet with all its comical, diverting, and laughable scenes, the most solemn, important and instructive lessons are couched in every page.—Youth should read it—parents, teachers, preachers everybody."

Patents.

AMERICAN AND FOREIGN OFFICE.
Agency for business with US Patent Office, Washington,
76 State st, oppo. Kilby st, Boston.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION TO INVENTORS. The Subscriber (late Agent of the U. S. Patent Office, under the Act of 1837) determined to present advantages, in applying for Patents, superior to those offered to inventors by others, has made arrangements whereby on applications prepared and conducted by him, THIRTY DOLLARS (instead of twenty) paid back by others, will be remitted by him in case of failure to obtain a patent, and the withdrawal through him within thirty days after the rejection. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments and all necessary papers and drawings, for procuring patents in this and foreign countries prepared, and advice rendered on legal and scientific matters respecting inventions, and infringement of patents.

Inventors can not only here obtain their specifications on the most reasonable terms, but can have avail themselves of the experience of 20 years' practice, an extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and correct accounts of patents granted in this and other countries; besides being saved a journey to Washington, the usual great delay there as well as all personal trouble in obtaining their patents. Copies of claims of any patent furnished by remitting one dollar.—Assignments recorded at Washington.

R. H. EDDY,
Solicitor of Patents.

"During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, did business at the Patent Office, as solicitor of Patents. There were few, if any persons acting in that capacity, who had so much business before the Patent Office, and there were none who conducted it with more skill, fidelity, and success. I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the best informed and most rightful Patent Solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them as early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents."

PATENT OFFICE, ——

"R. H. EDDY, Esq., Boston, Mass.

"SIR,—Your facilities for the prosecution of any business connected with this Office, are equal to those of any other agent I am very respectfully, Yours, &c. THOMAS EWBANK, Commissioner of Patents."

HERTS BROTHERS'
AMALGAMATED IRIDIUM ZINC & PLATINA
PENS,
WARRANTED NOT TO CORRODE.

HERTS BROTHERS, having been many years engaged in the manufacture of Metallic Pens, and during that time, having devoted their unceasing attention to improving and perfecting that useful and necessary article, the result of their unceasing efforts and numerous experiments has been the construction of a Pen on a principle entirely new, combining all the advantages of the elasticity and clearness of the Quill, with six times the durability of the Steel Pen; and thus entirely obviating the only objection that has hitherto existed against the use of Steel Pens.

This Pen will be found an invaluable article in Offices, as they never need wiping, also to Banks and Schools, as they will not spatter nor cut the thinest paper, and are warranted anti-corrosive.

CAUTION.—The universal celebrity of these Pens having induced several disreputable Makers to foist upon the public a spurious imitation, it will please to be observed that each genuine Pen is stamped, "HERTS BROTHERS' PATENT, 1853," and each box of Genuine Pens will contain a label with a fac-simile of the Manufacturers' name.

DR. J. B. MARCHISI'S
Celebrated Catholicon,
FOR THE
RELIEF & CURE OF SUFFERING FEMALES.

It stands preeminent for its curative powers in all the diseases for which it is recommended, usually called

FEMALE COMPLAINTS.

Of these are PROLAPSUS UTERI, or Falling of the Womb: FLUOR ALBUS, or Whites: CHRONIC INFLAMMATION OF THE WOMB; INCIDENTAL HEMORRAGE OF Flooding; PAINFUL, SUPPRESSED, AND IRREGULAR MENSTRUATION, &c., with all their accompanying evils. (Cancer excepted) no matter how severe or of how long standing.

Let all interested call and obtain a pamphlet (free) containing ample proof, from the most respectable sources, of the beneficial results of its use: together with letters from highly experienced Physicians, who have used it in their practice, and speak from their own observations.

A WORD TO THE LADIES.

Should any entertain doubts as to the efficacy of the UTERINE CATHOLICON, I would respectfully state that I have for many years past, as my friends can well attest, been troubled with the disease for which this medicine is recommended, in its worst forms, and finding that it has invariably relieved and cured, and thus induced to accept an agency, and offer it for the benefit of others.

MRS. S. GAIT, 38 South street, Boston.

I feel bound in duty to make known to the afflicted the virtues of MARCHISI'S UTERINE CATHOLICON, which has relieved me of Female Complaints of fifteen years' standing, and of so serious a nature, that latterly my physician suspected Cancer of the Womb. I suffered excruciatingly, and at last was entirely disabled from attending to my usual pursuits. . . . . It has given me more relief than any thing I have ever used for these difficulties. I will take pleasure in giving further details of my case to any lady who will call on me 57 Mt Street.

FOSTER'S PATENT
Deck-Reefing Gear.

By the application of this GEAR, the Topsails of any vessel may be Reefed from the deck with remarkable facility, and carry sail much longer than when rigged in any other way. This Gear can be readily applied to any old rig, and at less expense than any other now in use.

The following is an extract from a letter recently received from Capt. Pickering, of the ship Ocean Rover, of Portsmouth, concerning its merits:—

"It has given me perfect satisfaction, and I have only to regret that it is not applied to all the topsail yards. On the passage to this port, (Charleston, S. C.,) it experienced strong gales from the S. W. and had occasion to use it several times, and on every occasion it worked finely."

TEMPERANCE IN HARTFORD, CONN.—At a late meeting in Connecticut, Mr. Hawley, who has been the city missionary for several years in Hartford, said—I know Hartford, and am familiar with its garrets and cellars, and feel more at home in talking to the poor and suffering, than in addressing a public assembly. The report that there is as much liquor and as much drunkenness in Hartford now as ever, is false. Before the law there were one hundred and fifty open rum shops, and now there is not one. I have dealt out between three and four thousand dollars worth of food and fuel to nearly a thousand applicants this winter, and of those applicants not one was intoxicated, and only one brought with him the smell of liquor. The faces that used to be red and bloated, are now becoming bleached and thin.

About three years ago I started a Sabbath school with a dozen scholars, in what is sometimes called Satan's Kingdom, near the great bridge, and have kept it up until now. Up to the first of August there were twelve or fifteen grog shops open every Sabbath, near the school room, and the scholars used to visit them and drink. Little boys would throw up their pennies on to the counter and call for liquor. It was a common occurence for some of my scholars to come into the Sabbath school drunk. And I have had frequently to take boys from ten to eighteen years old, by the collar and lead them out, because they were the worse for liquor. And one day I had a little girl five years old who was so drunk that she could not sit on her seat. The school now numbers one hundred and twenty, and since the 1st of August I have had only one drunken scholar, and that was a boy who had been out at a fire the night before.

The effect of the law upon families is most manifest and happy. One woman, said Mr. Hawley, since the first of August, says, we have paid a debt of fifty dollars which was caused by my husband's drinking; and now only see here, sir, we have a barrel of flour and a ton and a half of coal, and it is all paid for. Why, sir, we never had the like before. Another woman said to me, "when my husband came home my children used to run and hide under the bed in fear. But now when they hear him coming, they run down stairs and out into the street to meet him. They cling to him. They get up into his lap and put their arms around his neck and kiss him, and say, "how good father is now he don't drink."

The business prospects of Newburyport are more promising, as the spring opens, than we had any reason to anticipate three months since. Several contracts have been made by the ship builders, and though wages are reduced, the resident ship carpenters will have work during the season. The tonnage of Newburyport will probably be considerably increased during the year. The stock for the new flour mill having nearly all been taken up, a location will at once be selected, and the works put in operation at the earliest day. The Fishing interest though not materially increased, will be vigorously prosecuted; and the cod-fishing can hardly fail of profit. The repairs on the Globe mill are approaching completion, and its running will give labor to operatives, and increase our money circulation. Should the prices of lumber and other building materials be as low as some expect, there will be as much house building in 1855 as in any season for seven years. Upon the whole we commence with good prospects, and we may look upon the pressure as past. If wages in July next are not what they were in July last year, probably provisions and the necessaries of life will not be high, and industry and economy will give the prosperity we have heretofore enjoyed.—Herald.

In a late speech by Victor Hugo occurs the following, among other remarkable passages: "Justice is a theorem; punishment as exact as Euclid; crime has its angles of reflection; and we men tremble when we perceive in the obscurity of human destiny the lines and figures of that enormous geometry which the crowd call chance and the thinking man calls Providence.

LIQUOR SELLING.—It is not to be wondered at that constant action is demanded to repress liquor selling. The evils arising therefrom are real and intolerably oppressive, demanding all the remedies that can by any means be afforded. It is hardly possible to exaggerate the evil; it not only fills our prisons and almshouses, but crowds our homes with wretchedness and violence, diminishes the value of property, taxes the earnings of industry, and endangers all our interests. It throws a shadow over the smile with which the parent regards the child, and hangs as an actual or apprehended curse over our entire future. There is neither humanity, honor, virtue or patriotism, in any man who would designedly extend so terrible a curse, beside which all others in the community dwindle; and it were vain for any officer, high or low, to boast of the well performance of his duties, when he has not done his utmost to guard the community from this danger.—Newburyport Herald.

Still the Herald thinks the new Massachusetts law cannot be enforced.

FRIDAY, MARCH 23, 1855.

MORE OPINIONS.

The Dover Gazette of Saturday, March 17, says:

The defeat of the democratic party was owing entirely to the secret machinations of one of the most bigoted, intolerant and dangerous organizations ever introduced into this country. The democrats could never have been overthrown in a fair fight between themselves and all the old factions of opposition combined. And they never could have been overthrown in an open fight, where principles could be freely and thoroughly discussed. The secret borers have stifled all discussion both in the lodges and out of them, and made their only appeal to the prejudices and religious bigotry of their dupes. We know of members in their lodges who have been put down for attempting free discussion in opposition to the will of the leaders, and others too have been expelled for the very same purpose. Let the people remember these things until the day of retribution comes, for as sure as there is a God in heaven it will come, and this infamous secret party will feel its power.

We copy the above article entire, with a remark or two.

We can imagine that a secret body can stifle discussion within itself, but we are not able to see readily, how such a body could stifle discussion on the outside. We are certainly not conscious of being stifled at all.

As to secresy in political operations, we were always suspicious of it, and it never had our favor. The only secresy we wish for, in political matters, is the Secret Ballot, by which the timid or poverty stricken voter may be preserved from lordly or insolent espionage.

Not belonging to the new secret party, nor to any other, we can see only this difference, as to the matter of secresy: viz. that in some old parties the wires were pulled in secret, by a few Sachems: while in the new party, all come into the wigwam to see how the Sachem performs his incantations, and all pretend to keep the secrets, though some of them do not do it very thoroughly or closely.

We have no reverence whatever, for any party, new or old; but cherish and maintain the right of private judgment and personal action, on all subjects, political as well as religious. There must needs be parties, while we have an elective republican government; but the integrity of any party, for years together, is as great a fiction as the old maxim, that the King can do no wrong.

The new dominant party in this State, and the soon-to-be dominant party in the Nation, has been called up by the exigencies of the day: it will do its work, and go down again, to be succeeded by other new parties with new or old names, which will be called up by other new exigencies yet to arise, but not now clearly foreseen.

So also, for similar reasons, there must be splits and factions in parties, and also coalitions between them. That man, who has very great fears of opprobrious party names, or of the term coalitionist, bolter, traitor, &c., must have a very soft, low spot in his skull, where the bump of firmness ought to be. And that other man, who believes implicitly in the absolute purity of any one party, or the total depravity of any other, should by all means tarry at Jericho till his beard be grown, and his wisdom teeth have sprouted. U. T.

FREE TRADE.

The President of the United States on the 16th March, issued his Proclamation, announcing the completion of the Reciprocity Treaty, by virtue of which, from this date, the following articles, being the growth and produce of the said provinces of Canada, New Brunswick, Nova Scotia and Prince Edward's Island—to wit: grain, flour and breadstuffs of all kinds; animals of all kinds; fresh, smoked and salted meats; cottonwool; seeds and vegetables; undried fruits; dried fruits; fish of all kinds; products of fish and all other creatures living in the water; poultry; eggs; hides, furs, skins, or tails undressed; stone or marble in its crude and unwrought state; slate; butter, cheese, tallow, lard; horns, manures; ores of metals of all kinds; coal; pitch, tar, turpentine; ashes; timber and lumber of all kinds, round, hewed, and sawed, unmanufactured in whole or in part, firewood, plants, shrubs and trees; pelts; wool, fish oil; rice; broom corn and bark; gypsum, ground or unground; hewn or wrought burr or grindstones; dyestuffs of all kinds; flax, hemp, and tow, unmanufactured; unmanufactured tobacco; rags—shall be introduced into the United States free of duty, so long as the said treaty shall remain in force.

MAINE.—The new prohibitive liquor bill of Maine passed the Senate unanimously, and the House by a vote of 90 to 29. It provides for imprisonment for the first offence, for the third not less than three nor more than six months, and for the fourth and every subsequent conviction, $1,000 fine and one year in the State Prison. The bill received the signature of Governor on Saturday last.

AWFUL SMASH UP!—The whig party, in the late election in New Hampshire, lost about SEVENTY NINE per cent. on their vote of the year. Such a defeat is without parallel in this country. We feel for them profoundly.—Eastern Argus.

THE BOOKS POSTED.

The N. H. Patriot of March 21, contains the fullest returns we have seen, of the late election. They are thus summed up.

				31,636

Nine small towns to be heard from. These towns gave last year as follows:

Baker (dem.)		421
Perkins (abo.) and scat.	33
Bell (fed.)	62—	95
Maj. for Baker,		326

If they come in as before, they will reduce Metcalf's majority to less than 700. In no event, we think, can it exceed 800.

The list of Representatives in the Patriot, embraces 306 members, 81 of whom are democrats, and 225 were elected by the opposition. Four towns remain to be heard from, viz.: Albany, Bartlett, Errol, &c., and Pittsburgh, &c. These have doubtless chosen democrats. If so there will be 85 democrats and 225 others.

The Patriot goes on to remark as follows:

The victory was a 'Hindoo' victory, and nothing else. It was the old whig and free-soil parties, and a small portion of men who have usually voted the democratic ticket, that formed this new party—that banded themselves together, either in their secret dens or otherwise, as best comported with individual tastes, and effected our overthrow. The ticket which was successful was the 'Hindoo' ticket—the organization which has triumphed was the 'Hindoo' organization—and this will not be denied. The old whig party of the State is as dead as the individual men who once composed it ever can be, and of the old free soil party there are not men enough left to form a decent group of mourners. No future remains for either of these parties. They will never again have any more being than a last year's sled track! The principles of these two parties have been trodden beneath the heel of this new organization, and no successful attempt at resuscitation can ever be made.

STATE OF MAINE.
A PROCLAMATION
For a day of Public Humiliation and Prayer.

BY THE GOVERNOR.

The wisdom and goodness of God are manifested in all things around us, admonishing the recipients of manifold mercies, of their obligations to love Him devoutly and serve Him with contriteness of heart.

As a nation, His peculiar care has been over us since our earliest history. When wars have been waged against us, His protecting hand has saved our country from the oppressor's rule; with returning peace, the smiles of Providence have rested upon our land, giving prosperity to all the great interests of the nation. How wise and proper, then, the custom of setting apart seasons each year for public acknowledgement of God's favors, of the common dependence of people and governments on the Divine Being, for direction, forgiveness and manifold blessings.

Influenced by the lessons and admonitions of the Bible, and following the example of our fathers, I hereby, with the advice of the Council, appoint THURSDAY, the 12th day of April next, to be observed in this State as a day of Public Humiliation, Fasting and Prayer; and the people are requested to abstain from all labor and recreation inconsistent with the solemnities of the occasion.

On that day, let us go to the House of Worship and unite in fervent supplication that the blessings we are enjoying, as a people, may be continued unto us. May we deeply reflect on our numerous sins—our many violations of God's laws and the spirit of Christianity—our neglect of the demands of individual duty—and be led to humble ourselves before the Disposer of the Universe and Source of all Goodness, and beseech Him to pardon our offences, and remember in mercy our State and Nation; that war, which threatens to deluge Europe with blood, may not reach our favored country; that the Chief Magistrate of this nation, and all in authority, may be directed by wisdom from on high in the discharge of every duty, and devoutly seek to lead the people in the way of righteousness and peace.

Let us ask Divine aid, that spiritual and temporal prosperity may distinguish this commonwealth—that our institutions of learning, our moral and benevolent enterprises—all exertions for the spread of the Gospel and the amelioration of the oppressed, may be the objects of His continued favor. That all lawful efforts in business and trade, may be rewarded—that commerce, manufactures and the labors of the husbandman, may be abundantly prospered.

Let us supplicate Him that the terrible evils of intemperance may no longer spread destruction, crime and misery, in place of prosperity, improvement and peace.

And as we invoke these blessings, may we realize that God is just,—that he sees the millions of the creatures of His care whom this nation holds in abject servitude—that their prayers continually go up to Him for deliverance—that our guilt is recorded in the Courts of Heaven, whither we go for mercy and protection.

Given at the Council Chamber, at Augusta, this 14th day of March, 1855, and of the Independence of the United States the 79th. ANSON P. MORRILL.

MASSACHUSETTS LAW.—The Boston Bee says of the new prohibitory liquor law,—

The opponents of the bill express not a little satisfaction at the bill, since, as they argue, its very severity will prevent its execution. That remains to be seen.

LOCAL.

☞ The Lecture before the Mercantile Library Association, on Thursday evening, was by Ralph Waldo Emerson; and was eminently Emersonian. The orator did not announce his subject; but he spoke of the Element or Origin of Individual Power. Sometimes this element seemed to be rude health; sometimes iron will; sometimes concentration; and anon it was perseverance. Power, with Emerson, seemed to occupy about the same place as craft does with Barnum. And yet, in this lecture, as in Barnum's book, we come suddenly upon some admirable moral lesson, where least we expect it. Mr. Emerson's lecture closed with one of the best, derived from a broken thread which spoils a web of cloth in the mill, and spoils the week's work of the girl whose carelessness caused the damage. Such is the web of life, in which he who weaves rotten hours or vicious days must infallibly meet the consequence at the hand of a Providence more exact than any human oversight.

☞ Elder J. Adrian will preach at the Advent Chapel this evening; and Elder J. Couch on Sunday next.

☞ We understand that the social Supper advertised in our columns, is to be a grand affair; several gentlemen from Massachusetts, and the interior of this State, are expected to be present.

TEMPER, not TEMPERANCE.—When the lecturer for next Tuesday evening, was announced on last Tuesday evening, we were not surprised to hear the name of Rev. Henry Giles: but when we understood he was to lecture on Temperance, we began to wonder what new thing he could produce on that topic. Being possessed with this thought, we printed his subject Temperance, though it was plainly written Temper. Our readers will please to observe and bear in mind, then, that Mr. Giles is not to enter the crusade against jugs, bottles or demijohns, not to lecture on red noses, black eyes and tottering steps,—but to speak on Temper,—smooth or rough, grave or gay, sharp or mild.

FAST DAY IN MAINE.—For the benefit of our Maine subscribers, we give Gov. Morrill's proclamation for fast. In the last paragraph, it will be seen that the Governor talks like a fanatic about slavery, the justice of God, and our guilt in the matter.

As he read the paragraph, Uncle Toby was heard to remark, that it reminded him of one old Tom Jefferson, a noted fanatic and bigot who flourished fifty years ago, and who said, concerning slavery, "I tremble for my country when I consider that God is just, and that his justice will not sleep forever."

It seems the race of fanatics has not yet run out. Jefferson died; but Morrill still lives.

THE CANADIAN MILITARY BILL.—QUEBEC, March 21.—There was no division on the military bill in the House of Assembly last night, the House having adjourned at midnight, in the midst of a warm debate. The bill is bitterly opposed by the Rouge, or Annexation party in Lower Canada, and a small portion of the Upper Canada Reformers. It will occupy the whole sitting this evening, and pass by a considerable majority.

BAD RUM.—The people of Palmer have voted to abolish their liquor agency, because, says the Boston Journal—"Some of the liquor would not burn, some would freeze, and it was hinted strongly that some would eat holes through a horse blanket and take the hair from the animal."

Sound the Loud Trump; New Hampshire is Free!

A SOCIAL SUPPER

AND interchange of Sentiment, as an occasion of rejoicing for the Brilliant Victory of the Americans, in the late Election, will come off on FRIDAY Evening, March 30.

Tickets, one dollar and fifty cents—must be procured on or before Tuesday next, as preparations will be made for only the number of Tickets disposed of at that time. The place will be named hereafter. For tickets, apply to

Special Notice

TO all who are interested in SMALL'S great $125,000 ENGRAVING SALE. I would say that the rapid sale of Engravings, with other things, has induced me to change the day of the meeting for the final winding up of the matter, to April 16, 1855, instead of June 5, as advertised.—About one half of the shares are already sold, and the balance are fast selling. If you would secure to yourselves a fortune for a very small amount, here is a chance for a profitable investment, and much safer than it would be to go round the Horn to California in search of wealth. A word to the wise is sufficient. "There is a tide in the affairs of men, which, if taken at the flood, leads on to fortune." Trying never was beat, and this is an honorable, straight forward sale.

The reputation enjoyed by the VEGETABLE PULMONARY BALSAM, for Coughs, Colds and Consumption, has been acquired through long years of success, and those troubled with pulmonary Complaints should by all means try it.—Dover Gazette, N. H. [See advertisement in another column.] 2w m22

AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS.

They don't help complaints, but they cure them.
One Box has cured Dyspepsia.
Three Boxes have cured the worst cases of Scrofula
Two Boxes have cured Erysipelas.
One Box always cures the Jaundice.
Three Boxes are sure to cleanse the system from Boils—often less than one does it.
Two Boxes have completely cured the worst of ulcers on the leg.
Small doses seldom fail to cure the Piles.
One dose cures the headache arising from a foul stomach.
Strong doses often repeated expel every worm from the body. They should be given to children, who are always more or less afflicted with this scourge.
As a gentle Physic they have no equal.
One Box cures derangement of the Liver.
Half a Box cures a Cold.
They purify the Blood, and thus strike at the foundation of every disease.
As a Dinner Pill there is not their equal in the world.
They are purely vegetable, and can do no harm, but do accomplish an unaccountable amount of good.
Prepared by DR. J. C. AYER, Lowell, Ms., and sold by every respectable Druggist in New England.

EXCITEMENT IN PROVIDENCE. — MARCH 21.—A foolish attempt was made to get up an excitement about a young lady, said to be confined in the Convent of the Sisters of Mercy. There was no foundation for it except that a young lady has joined the sisterhood against the wishes of her friends.

The Boston Bee thus explains the matter:

The Providence Tribune having asserted that a young lady named Rebecca Newell, had been persuaded by undue influences to enter the Nunnery in that city, the lady comes out in the Journal and denies the story. It seems that she became enamored of Romanism, dressed up priests, and especially Lady Superiors, and determined to become a Nun. This her parents did not like, but she did: and accordingly, of her own free will, has left the world for the Nunnery. She has $5,000 in good coin, which is to be used in the service of the "true church." She intimates that neither "romance nor fascination," but "conviction of right alone," led her to Nunnerize herself. Considering that she has youth, beauty, intelligence, spirit, and cash, we think her decision not at all "the thing," though she should be permitted to do as she pleases.

We think Miss Rebecca is rather a "fast" young lady, who bids fair to become a Lady Superior herself, to be a great favorite of the Ghostly Fathers while she lives, and be canonized as a saint when she dies.

NEW YORK, March 22.—Yesterday afternoon the fireworks manufactory at Greenville, four miles from Jersey City, belonging to G. A. Lilien of this city, blew up, killing Louis Herner, and a lad named Henry Kleiber.—Seven other, all Germans, were seriously burned.

STABBING CASE.—Saturday night about 10 1-2 o'clock, Michael Murphy of Dorchester was stabbed by Dennis Cronan, of Dorchester. Murphy was found at the corner of and Sixth streets, brought to the station house and Dr. York gave it as his opinion that Murphy was mortally wounded. About 3 o'clock Sunday morning Cronan was arrested by officers of the sixth station, at his house, and committed to jail. It is hardly possible for Murphy to recover.

At an early hour Sunday morning Patrick Cronan was taken out of the dock at Monk's wharf, brought to the station house and detained as a witness in the case against Cronan for stabbing Murphy.

MAINE LAW IN STRAFFORD.—On Town Meeting day a barrel of rum was at the meeting, and some of the voters were getting drunk upon it. Some of 'Sams" boys knocked out the bung and let it all run out into the snow! And if there is any more brought there, they are determined to serve it in the same way!—Com. to Dover Enq.

A lady at Columbus, Ohio, recently inquired of the rappers how many children she had. —"Four," rapped the spirit. The husband, startled at the accuracy of the reply, stepped up and inquired — "How many have I?" "Two!" answered the rapping medium. The husband and wife looked at each other for a moment, and retired, non-believers. There has been a mistake made somewhere.

One of the crew of the whale ship James Allen, which arrived at New Bedford on Sunday, had been absent from this country—a stranger in strange lands—for 34 years! He belongs in New Haven, Connecticut.

WHERE DID IT COME FROM?—A few days ago, quite a curiosity was brought up from the bottom of the artesian well in Livingston, Ala. At a distance of 335 feet below the surface, and 300 feet in the rock an egg was found, completely petrified, and perfect in shape, save where the auger had defaced it a little.

The late Senator Norris left his family in indigent circumstances. Quite a handsome sum was subscribed and sent from Washington to Mrs. Norris last week. So says the Newburyport Herald.

A fool in a high station is like a man on the top of a monument—everything appears small to him, and he appears small to every body.

HO! FOR THE BIG COFFEE POT!

THE subscriber begs leave to say that he may be found at his old place of business No 18 Daniel street, and is prepared to execute all orders in his line of business satisfactorily as heretofore, all kinds of Tin, Sheet Iron and Copper Ware made to order, in the most thorough and workmanlike manner. Dairymen and Farmers would find it for their interest to purchase their outfit at this place, as every article is warranted to give satisfaction or the money refunded Particular attention given to all kinds of repairing in this line. The Great Specific of the Age.
OXYGENATED BITTERS!
THE ONLY SURE AND SAFE REMEDY EVER DISCOVERED
For the cure of
DYSPEPSIA,
IN ALL ITS VARIOUS FORMS,

AS well as Liver Diseases, Fever and Ague, Bilious Complaints, Bronchitis, General Debility, and all diseases of a kindred nature.

Read the following testimony from Dr. Henry E. Morrell, a skillful physician of N. Y. city. He says:—"The most effectual medicine to improve the tone and energy of the stomach is that prepared by Dr. George B. Green, of Windsor, Vt., and called the Oxygenated Bitters."

The Oxygenated Bitters do not contain a particle of alcohol in their composition, and are, of necessity, highly concentrated, to prevent the injurious action of the temperature of different climates. Each bottle, when diluted according to the directions, makes nearly half a gallon of medicine, as pleasant to the taste as lemonade; and as to quantity, quite the CHEAPEST MEDICINE.

I have employed them in a multitude of cases, and have uniformly found that, when used according to the directions, they gradually, but surely, remove, one by one, the various distressing symptoms which cluster around the confirmed Dyspeptic, restore the stomach to its lost energies, and thus lead the patient back to the enjoyment of permanent health and strength.

It has also been used by the following persons, and received their unqualified approbation:—

Prof. A. A. Hayes, M. D., State Assayer, Boston
Prof. E. E. Phelps, M. D., of Therapeutics and Materia Medica, Dartmouth College.
Hon. Myron Lawrence, Ex-President of Massachusetts Senate.
Hon. I. H. Arnold, formerly Governor of Rhode Island, now member of Congress.

A trader, who buys his produce in Western New York, saves four dollars a ton by having it come to Boston, and then returned into the country over twenty miles, on the same road! In other words, to carry the freight forty miles less distance, would cost him more money. If left at his depot (instead of going to Boston and back) he would pay four dollars more per ton freight than he now pays. This, we are told, holds true for a still greater distance from the city.—Bunker Hill Aurora.

CHEAP INFANTS.—They give away children now in N. York, on account of the hard times, before they are born. We copy the following notice from the New York Herald:—

"Any lady wishing to adopt an infant from its birth, (in the early part of next month,) may hear of a good opportunity, and have an interview with the mother by addressing E., box 187.

COMMON SENSE is that hort of saving prudence which makes men attentive to their own safety and profit; diligent in the pursuit of their own pleasures and interests, but perfectly at their ease as to what becomes of the rest of mankind; furious, where their own property is concerned; philosophers, when nothing but the good of others is at stake, and perfectly resigned under all calamities but their own.

HERTS BROTHERS, having been many years engaged in the manufacture of Metallic Pens, and during that time, having devoted their unceasing attention to improving and perfecting that useful and necessary article, the result of their unceasing efforts and numerous experiments has been the construction of a Pen on a principle entirely new, combining all the advantages of the elasticity and clearness of the Quill, with six times the durability of the Steel Pen; and thus entirely obviating the only objection that has hitherto existed against the use of Steel Pens.

This Pen will be found an invaluable article in Offices, as they never need wiping, also to Banks and Schools, as they will not spatter nor cut the thinest paper, and are warranted anti-corrosive.

CAUTION.—The several celebrity of these Pens having induced several disreputable Makers to foist upon the public a spurious imitation, it will please to be observed that each genuine Pen is stamped, "HERTS BROTHERS' PATENT, 1853," and each box of Genuine Pens will contain a label with a fac-simile of the Manufacturers' name.

DR. J. B. MARCHISI'S
Celebrated Catholicon,
FOR THE
RELIEF & CURE OF SUFFERING FEMALES.

It stands pre-eminent for its curative powers in all the diseases for which it is recommended, and usually called

FEMALE COMPLAINTS.

Of these are PROLAPSUS UTERI, or Falling of the Womb; WHITES ALBUS, or Whites; CHRONIC INFLAMMATION OF THE WOMB; INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION; Flooding; PAINFUL, SUPPRESSED, AND IRREGULAR MENSTRUATION, &c., with all their accompanying evils. (Cancer excepted) no matter how severe or of how long standing.

Let all interested call and obtain a pamphlet (free) containing ample proof, from the most respectable sources, of the beneficial results of its use; together with letters from highly experienced Physicians, who have used it in their practice, and speak from their own observations.

A WORD TO THE LADIES.

Should any entertain doubts as to the efficacy of the UNRIVALED CATHOLICON, I would respectfully state that I have for many years, as my friends and the world well attest, been troubled with the disease for which this medicine is recommended, in its worst forms, and that by its use I have been entirely cured, and thus induced to accept an agency, and offer it for the benefit of others.

MRS. S. GAIT, 38 South street, Boston.

I feel it my duty to make known to the afflicted the virtues of MARCHISI'S UNRIVALED CATHOLICON, which has relieved me of Female Complaints of fifteen years' standing, and of so serious a nature, that latterly my physician suspected Cancer of the Womb. I suffered extremely, and at last was entirely disabled from attending to my usual pursuits. . . . . It has given me more relief than any thing I have ever used for these difficulties. I will take pleasure in giving further details of my case to any lady who will call on me at 57 Mill street.

FOSTER'S PATENT
Deck-Reefing Gear.

By the application of this GEAR, the Topsails of any vessel may be Reefed from the deck with remarkable facility, and carry sail much longer than when rigged in any other way. This Gear can be readily applied to any old rig, and at less expense than any other now in use.

The following is an extract from a letter recently received from Capt. Pickering, of the ship Ocean Rover, of Portsmouth, concerning its merits:—

"It has given me perfect satisfaction, and I have only to regret that it is not applied to all the topsail yards. On the passage to this port, (Charleston, S. C.,) I experienced strong gales from the S. W. and had occasion to use it several times, and on every occasion it worked finely."

RESULT OF EMANCIPATION.

Mr. Webb, the Secretary of the New England Emigrant Aid Society, writes from Kansas, that the Black law, that is, prohibiting free men of color from citizenship, or the privileges of owning real property, is now taking the lead in politics as the most expedient and in fact the only means of securing Kansas to freedom. A great majority of the Western emigrants seem more in favor of a slave State, than a free State with negroes. This feeling augurs ill for the blacks after slavery is abolished. They will be hunted harder than a wild Irishman by the most intense Native.—Newburyport Herald.

No doubt there is such a prejudice,—we see it in Illinois, very plainly;—but it is an offshoot and product of slavery, projected upon minds which are in favor of freedom by their association and their interest, but not on sound principle and true humanity.

It does not, though, to our view, augur any thing at all for the blacks or against them, after slavery is abolished. In those Southern States where slaves are now the most numerous,—there will their labor be most in demand when free—there will be their attachment to the soil—there less prejudice against them than elsewhere.

We can find in history, many cases, where a new or more grievous oppression caused an emigration of the oppressed. But we do not, at this moment, remember any instance in which an emancipation of slaves, or a lightening of burdens, produced a general stampede of the freedmen or newly favored class. And we cannot exactly see, how or why the case above supposed, should be an exception to the general rule.

☞ The second Concert of the Boston Mendelssohn Quartet Club's series at Newburyport, was given on Tuesday evening. The Herald says, after speaking very highly of the instrumental performances of the Club:

Mrs. Wentworth made her appearance in a solo from the "Messiah"—"Come unto him." How the sweet bird like warbling of her voice convulsed the audience! What an effect there was produced upon the audience by this delightful harmony,—awakening emotions which uptossed themselves like ocean waves! The flashing eye—the compressed lip—the half uttered expression of delight proclaimed the effect produced. "We may be happy yet," a beautiful aria from Balfe, was sung during the evening, together with an English ballad of Barnetts, all of which pieces were loudly encored. We regret that this is the last time that Mrs. Wentworth will sing with the Quintette club in Newburyport, and we feel assured that those who have heard her, have enjoyed a rich musical treat.

ANOTHER SLAVE MADE FREE.—The Ohio Columbian gives an interesting account of the deliverance of a slave girl whom ex-President Tyler had given to his youngest daugter upon the occasion of her marriage with the Rev. Mr. Dennison, an Episcopal clergyman, at Louisville, My., and of course, the son-in-law of the ex-President. Mrs. Dennison having recently died, this slave was returning with her infant child to its grandparents in Virginia. In passing through Ohio, a free State, a colored man in the cars ascertained her condition, and informed her of her right to freedom when brought voluntarily by her master into a free State. She embraced the opportunity, a habeas corpus was obtained for her by her colored friend, at Cincinnati, and her journey to Richmond was arrested until her rights to herself were judicially determined.

CAPT. INGRAHAM.—The Charleston Standard says that while this distinguished officer is receiving from the people of foreign countries flattering testimonials of admiration for his heroic conduct in the Kosta business, his entire property at home is passing under the auctioneer's hammer to satisfy an execution for a security debt. Twenty thousand dollars would preserve the gallant officer's homestead. The debt is no private obligation, but is a liability incurred for the defalcation of an official of the State. The honorable and courageous discharge of public duty might furnish some ground for relief, especially where, by the default of another officer of State, an innocent person was made to suffer, while absent in the public service. Mr. Ingraham's father, an officer under Paul Jones in the Revolutionary Navy, lost his entire fortune by French spoliation. The recent veto of the President will cut Capt. I. off from the last channel by which his fortune might have been repaired. Mr. Ingraham has served his country nobly; he has lost his hereditary rights by the action of the Federal Executive; his debt is one literally to the State, as surety for an officer of hers.

Morning Chronicle.

SATURDAY, MARCH 24, 1855.

DEDICATION.

The New Church Edifice, just completed by the Congregational (Orthodox) Society in Gloucester, Mass., was dedicated on Thursday, the 22d inst. The Religious Services were very interesting, and were attended by a thronged assembly. Introductory services of Scripture Readings and Prayer by Rev. Chas. Porter, formerly pastor of the Gloucester Church, now of South Boston; Sermon by Rev. Mr. Hatch, Pastor; Dedicatory Prayer by Rev. Mr. Moore, of Portsmouth; and Prayer and benediction by Rev. Mr. Gales of Rockport. An efficient choir, accompanied by the skillful playing on the new and beautiful organ, added interest and solemnity to the occasion. The Dedicatory Services took place at two o'clock, P. M. In the evening a crowded audience again assembled for worship. Sermon by Rev. Mr. Moore of this city.

At the close of the sermon, Rev. Mr. Porter, who twenty years ago, was first pastor of the church, delivered a very appropriate and feeling address, in which he briefly glanced at the former history of the Church, and congratulated the Society on the successful prosecution of the work of erecting the new edifice.

Rev. Mr. Hatch, the present pastor, has been untiring in his efforts in behalf of the beautiful structure now completed, and the citizens of Gloucester have now in their midst, one of the most beautiful houses of worship, to be found in all the region round about.

SCRIPTURE.—The Boston Courier has an article on the Ostend Conference, well worth reading, in which the writer says:

Weep, O Democracy—old Hunkerism—weep—like Rachel—not the French lady of that name, but like the respectable lady of "Father Abraham, for your children!

The writer is evidently more at home in modern politics than in biblical biography. If he will examine the "Scriptur" for himself, he will perceive that the Rachel who is figuratively spoken of as weeping for her children, was not the "respectable lady of Father Abraham," but of Father Abraham's Grandson Jacob.

For the Chronicle.

HON. HENRY WILSON.—Much has been published in respect to Senator Wilson's letter, in which he stated that slavery was not in any platform of principles in the K. N. councils of Massachusetts. He need not be censured for telling the truth—but he did not deny that nearly the unanimous voice of Massachusetts, including the American party, was opposed to slavery in all its forms. His recent speech in the Senate, shows that he does not falter at all in his hostility to the institution. But he is censured by some for not voting for the bill to admit Oregon into the Union as a State. The bill was, in substance, an invitation to Oregon to form a constitution and come into the Union. It would be a bad precedent for the future, although there may have been other precedents of the kind. Now we heartily applaud Senator Wilson for his negative vote, and think that the other freesoil Senators misjudged, although acting from pure motives. It will be time enough to admit Oregon when she applies for admission and presents to Congress a constitution guaranteeing "a republican form of government." The constitution of the United States declares that "the United States shall guarantee to every State in this Union, a republican form of government." Upon the Missouri question in 1820, the opponents of slavery contended that a State constitution tolerating slavery was anti-republican. It was a sound position. A precedent for admitting Oregon by invitation, in advance, without any investigation of her form of government, would, in the future, be urged for the admission of slave States. We contend that Congress should first examine the State constitution. Senator Wilson declares himself opposed to the admission of any more Slave States, and we trust that he but echoes the voice of the North. There can be no doubt but that this momentous question will soon agitate the whole nation. The liberties of the country, in the future, will depend upon the result. †

THE UNITED STATES MAGAZINE for March 1855, is No. 11 of the 1st vol. The volume which will close in April, must contain, including cuts, index and title, about 400 pages of matter permanently valuable.—Published in New York by J. M. Emerson & Co.

☞ By the Manchester American of Friday morning, we learn that the "strikers" in that city do not as yet show any disposition to give up. Many of the best hands are leaving the city. The Stark and Amoskeag corporations are running with short hands, while the Manchester has shut down entirely.

A young man in St. Albans, Vt, was married on Saturday the 10th, and became a maniac on the evening of the same day.

A PRESIDENT NOMINATED IN BURLESQUE. A meeting was held in Cochituate Hall, Boston, on Monday evening, at which Dr. G. W. F. Mellen was nominated for President, and Cassius M. Clay for Vice President. The proceedings are soberly reported in most of the Boston papers; nevertheless the whole affair is evidently a broad farce. One of the speakers on the occasion was C. L. Woodbury, Esq., of this city. Under the guise of great respect, Dr. Mellen was really the butt of the meeting, which seems to have been got up to burlesque all National Conventions.

BURLESQUE SPEECH.—We have above noticed the burlesque convention in Boston, which brought out the name of Dr. Mellen in a sham nomination for president. We now copy, from the Mail, a paragraph or two of the report.

The Hon. Chas. Levi Woodbury of New Hampshire, was called upon by the chair to address the meeting.

Mr. Woodbury arose with great embarrassment, and was immediately seized with a sudden fit of coughing; he spoke with much difficulty as foll ws:

Mr. President:—My family physician has informed me that my lungs are diseased, in short, that I am in a decline, and Sir, for the last week I have indulged in nothing stronger than Pure Cod Liver Oil and lime. My ill health has been brought on, Sir, by my arduous labors for the last month in the Granite State. (The chair here interrupted the speaker, and remarked that he was sorry that his labors in behalf of the Invincible Democracy of New Hampshire had been so ineffectual.) Mr. Woodbury resumed: I would like to enquire Sir, of the Doctor, what he intends to do with his friends when he gets elected, in other words, Sir, when we raise him to so high a station above our humble selves, will he be grateful, or look down upon us pigmies with contempt. Mr. Woodbury to further illustrate his questions related the fable of the Hindoo and the Bengal Tiger, and inquired what is the Doctor to do with us when we make a Royal Bengal Tiger of him. The hammer of the Chair here cut short the remarks of Mr. Woodbury.

Clerk G. Nash here obtained the floor, and suggested to the Doctor, that he might conciliate Mr. Woodbury by promising him the appointment of Weigher and GOUGHER in the Custom House.

The Dr. promptly promised Mr. W., the appointment, and a bright gleam of satisfaction shot across the face of our worthy U. S. Commissioner. The Dr. then resumed the thread of his speech, and had got as far as the word Habeas when the hammer informed him that his time was up.

The Boston Post says: Mr. Wilson—our U. S. senator—has "crept into favor" with some southern politicians by his letter to Mr. Ellis and his vote about Oregon. The N. O. Bulletin says—

"We deeply regretted his election. Still, however, we are always willing to judge of a tree by its fruits, instead of indulging, in advance, in indiscriminate denunciation. What is exceedingly unpromising sometimes turns out quite well. It may be so with the Massachusetts senator, although we admit we entertain no very sanguine hopes."

The wise men of the South have had their confidence much abused by some donkeys at the North, who have kept up a terrible braying about the Disunion and Treason of every public man who intimates that there is any law higher than the slave code.

The worthy men of the South, who have met Seward and Hale, Chase and Sumner, Tuck, Perkins and Wilson, at Washington, find them not quite so fierce a set of incendiary cut throats as they expected; and so are agreeably disappointed.

VETO OR NO VETO.—The Newburyport Herald says the passage of the liquor bill was by such a majority as to render useless the veto of the Governor, if he should wish to apply it; for more than two-thirds of the legislature would be likely to vote for it against any veto. There is a singular indifference manifested in relation to the act, both among its friends and foes, nobody seeming greatly pleased or displeased at the result. All men who regard their characters will be likely to avoid selling openly if the law becomes operative, since it will be in the power of any person wishing to do so, to send them to the House of Correction among blacklegs and thieves for such an offence.

The proof of the thing will be in its enforcement and its effect. A fair trial will show whether the new law diminishes the evil against which it is aimed. It surely cannot increase it.

A TERRIBLE EXPLOSION.—BALTIMORE, March 21.—A despatch from Richmond gives the full details of the explosion at the Midlothian coal pits, in Chesterfield. Thirty-four persons were instantly killed—twenty-eight negroes and six white men. Twelve negroes and five white persons were so badly burned, that not more than three or four of them can recover.

The pits were considered perfectly safe; but in making a blast, an old shaft sinking from foul air, a volume of gas poured forth and ignited.

The explosion caused the earth for miles around to wave and rock like a twig in the wind. Over one hundred white miners were fortunately out of the pit at the time. Every effort was made to rescue those who were alive. Dead men were found, with their flesh charred to the bones, holding shovels, picks, and drills, in their hands.

The flesh on those still alive is burned to the bone, as if it had been roasted. The pits are 770 feet deep.

BALTIMORE, March 22.—Two more deaths have occurred from the coal-pit explosion, making 39 in all.

The Trenton Gazette announces the failure of the Bank of Cape May, some one connected with it having absconded with all the funds.

LOCAL.

THE MERCANTILE READING ROOM.—The Mercantile Library Association of this city, are to open their new Reading Room in Exchange Buildings, over J. S. Harvey & Son's store, on Monday morning next, to the public, for one week; after which time it is to be used exclusively by members of the Association and subscribers. The list of papers which they furnish, embraces the most popular leading dailies and weeklies in the Union. We have no hesitation in saying that it will be the Reading Room of the city, if popular journals and magazines, a central, convenient room, well lighted, and talented and liberal young men, with a large list of subscribers, can make it so.

The Association having drawn to a close their successful course of popular lectures, have now, in answer to a public necessity, fitted up this Reading Room. It is hoped that it will meet the wants and receive the patronage of the public. *

☞ On Thursday evening, in the Common Council, A. Q. Wendell, Esq. offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That the thanks of this Council be presented to WM. H. Y. HACKETT, Esq., for the able, judicious and impartial manner in which he has presided over the deliberations of this board this year.

Which being read by the clerk, and advocated in remarks by E. J. Laighton, Esq. passed unanimously.

The President made an appropriate reply.

☞ Rev. Mr. Willis will close his connection as pastor of the Universalist Society in this city, and preach his farewell sermon, tomorrow.

☞ Rev. James Pike, of South New Market, will preach at the Methodist church tomorrow afternoon.

☞ Elder J. Couch will preach at the Advent Chapel to-morrow.

KITTERY, March 21, 1855.

Messrs. Editors:—I perceive by the Chronicle of March 21st, in giving the account of the election in this Town on Monday last, you placed my name in the list of Americans, or Know Nothings.

Will you please do me the justice to correct the error by publishing this, and placing my name with the Democrats, with whom I have always acted in good faith, and where I now belong.

Respectfully, your obt. servant,
OLIVER BERRY.

☞ We suppose this is all right, and so was our statement. Mr. Berry's name was on the American ticket, and he received 154 votes, i. e., about 10 more than the K. N. Selectmen. The regular Democratic candidate, Mr. Parker, opposed to him, received 70 votes. If Mr. B. has any scruples of conscience against receiving K. N. votes, he can easily decline the office.

A BRIDE IN TROUBLE.—A sea captain, who has been married but a few days, was lately rather unexpectedly summoned to take charge of a vessel and sail immediately on a long voyage. His bride did not like the idea of thus losing her husband before the honeymoon was over, and pleaded earnestly that she might accompany her husband. The owner of the vessel refused, but the lady, nothing daunted, snugly stowed herself away in the cabin a short time before the vessel was to sail, determined to go at any rate. The owner got wind of her concealment, however, visited her hiding place, and induced her to go on shore again.—Boston Traveller.

THAT'S THE TALK.—'My son,' said Mr. N., 'how could you marry an Irish girl?'

'Why, father,' said the son, 'I'm not able to keep two women—if I'd married a Yankee girl, I'd had to have hired an Irish girl to take care of her.'

ECCLESIASTICAL.—Rev. Dr. John P. Cleaveland, of Northampton, has received a call from the Appleton Street Church and Society in Lowell, to become their pastor.

Rev. Rufus King, late of Amesbury Mills, has been installed as pastor of the Presbyterian Church in Jamestown, Chautauque county, N. Y.

THE LAST KANSAS PARTY.—A letter from a member of the Kansas party which left Boston on Tuesday, states that when it reached Rutland, Vt., it numbered 145 in all. One hundred and ten left Boston, and thirty-five joined at Fitchburg, Groton, Bellows Falls and Keene.—Journal, 22d.

SUNDAY LAW IN NEW YORK. The ordinance imposing a fine of $10 on liquor dealers for every glass of liquor sold by them on Sunday, which was passed by the Board of Aldermen of New York on Monday evening, has received the signature of the Mayor. The Tribune says it will be enforced in every case where a sale is proved.

A letter from Rome says:—There are various rumors that the city of Catania, in Sicily, has been well nigh destroyed by an eruption of Etna. They come chiefly from Naples, and a gentleman who arrived yesterday from Genoa told me that the same intelligence was received on the day of his departure, by a steamer from Palermo.

Judge Ellsworth has decided that the Hartford Screw Company shall receive $350 in damages of the Porter Manufacturing Company for failing to provide suitable outside conveniences for the female operatives of the former company. The screw company hire their premises of the other.

The Greatest Medical Discovery of the Age, is

AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS.

They don't help complaints, but they cure them.
One Box has cured Dyspepsia.
Three Boxes have cured the worst cases of Scrofula
Two Boxes have cured Erysipelas.
One Box always cures the Jaundice.
Three Boxes are sure to cleanse the system from Boils—often less than one does it.
Two Boxes have completely cured the worst of ulcers on the leg.
Small doses seldom fail to cure the Piles.
One dose cures the headache arising from a foul stomach.
Strong doses often repeated expel every worm from the body. They should be given to children, who are always more or less afflicted with this scourge.
As a gentle Physic they have no equal.
One Box cures derangement of the Liver.
Half a Box cures a Cold.
They purify the Blood, and thus strike at the foundation of every disease.
As a Dinner Pill there is not their equal in the world.
They are purely vegetable, and can do no harm, but do accomplish an unaccountable amount of good.
Prepared by DR. J. C. AYER, Lowell, Ms., and sold by every respectable Druggist in New England.
Agents in Portsmouth, W. R. PRESTON, J. H. THACHER, and D. KIMBALL, and sold by the Druggists throughout the United States. 2m fl d&w

DICTIONARY of the Spanish and English Languages, and Spanish Grammar. For sale by J. H. HEAD, 18 Exch. Buildings.

THE BLACK WARRIOR DIFFICULTY SETTLED.—The N. Y. Evening Post announces from authentic and reliable intelligence, that every demand made by the President upon the Spanish Government, growing out of the Black Warrior difficulty, has been acceded to. The Spanish Government admits that the informality in the Black Warrior's manifest was the fault of the Custom House officers; and also that the consignee of the vessel was entitled to twelve hours after the vessel arrived, in which to amend his manifest. The Government agrees to make compensation for the loss consequent upon the seizure, and also to remove all persons now in office who were implicated in the seizure, and have ordered the revenue officers who participated improperly therein, and who are not now in office, to be tried for their misconduct.

Thus (says the Evening Post) it appears, that without any minister at all at Madrid, and with a simple secretary of legation to communicate and transmit the despatches of their respective governments to each other, this whole war-breeding spectre has been laved, and Spain has promptly and cheerfully offered every indemnification that was asked of her in the letter of the Secretary of State to Mr. Soule, dated 22d June, 1854.

The Post proceeds to show from the official documents relating to the Ostend Conference, that the only reason why this matter was not settled at once, was because Soule obstinately refused to acquaint the government with the grounds of complaint which our government had, and did his utmost to create a new difficulty, instead of settling the old one. "Upon the face of the correspondence, it would appear that his whole motive in accepting the commission to Spain was to get the United States into a war with that power; and his whole employment, after entering upon his duties, was to counteract the efforts of the President to preserve peace."

KISSANE, THE NOTORIOUS FORGER, is descended from one of the noblest families in Ireland. His father held several lucrative government appointments, but becoming implicated in an affair of seduction, in which his life was involved, he fled with his family to Canada. Young William, after the death of his father, no longer contented to remain upon a farm, came to the States, and found employment in the firm of Pugh & Co., Cincinnati. Being a skilful book-keeper, he was implicitly trusted as a confidential clerk. After this he engaged in the pork trade under the firm of Smith & Kissane. He was supposed to be worth $30,000, which he subsequently lost in the Martha Washington case, in which he was implicated. At this time he was a gentleman moving in the first circles. He was on intimate terms with the governor of Indiana, to whose daughter he was attached, but the engagement was broken off at the time of the Martha Washington trial, though his fiance always believed him innocent. He was at the time but twenty-three years old. Ten months after this he was accused of forgeries to the amount of $32,000. At twenty-eight years of age Kissane is one of the most expert forgers and swindlers in America. He is now on trial at New York for participation in the Chemical Bank forgery. He is represented to be extremely modest and sensitive with respect to the publicity of the events of his past career.

INCENDIARY ATTEMPT AT RAYMOND!—A gentleman just from Raymond informs us that on Tuesday evening Mr. Blake, the representative elect from that town, gave an entertainment to his friends in Tripp's Hall. During the progress of the festivities a fire was discovered in a room below the Hall, and before it could be arrested the room was entirely spoilt. The fire must have taken from fire thrown under the building. The fire was burning near the entrance to the Hall, and had it progressed one room farther, would have cut off the escape of those assembled. No doubts are entertained in Raymond that the fire was set by some one of the hunkers. Parties have been very much exasperated in that town, and in the heat of passion, and smarting under the humiliation of defeat, they doubtless took this daring mode of revenge. Manchester American.

TEMPERANCE PROCESSION.—One hundred members of the St. Patrick's Benevolent Association walked in procession in Worcester, on Saturday last, and according to the Spy, were well dressed, and appeared to be respectable and well disposed citizens. The officers of the Society previously called on the Mayor, and inquired whether any objection existed against their walking in procession. They were informed that the city authorities sympathized with the objects of the Society, and would be happy to encourage them in setting an example of sobriety and thrift to their countrymen. As the procession passed the City Hall, one of the city officers remarked to an Irishman on the sidewalk, "Why are you not with them?" He replied, "I drink, sir; but, please God, I will be with them next year." None of these men ever come upon the city to solicit help. None of them are paupers. If all the Irishmen in town were members of the temperance society, they would secure the respect of the community.

The Great Specific of the Age.
OXYGENATED BITTERS!
THE ONLY SURE AND SAFE REMEDY EVER DISCOVERED
For the cure of
DYSPEPSIA,
IN ALL ITS VARIOUS FORMS,

AS well as Liver Diseases, Fever and Ague, Billious Complaints, Bronchitis, General Debility, and all diseases of a kindred nature.
Read the following testimony from Dr. Henry E. Morrell, a skillful physician of N. Y. city. He says:—"The most effectual medicine to improve the tone and energy of the stomach is that prepared by Dr. George B. Green, of Windsor, Vt., and called the Oxygenated Bitters."
The Oxygenated Bitters do not contain a particle of alcohol in their composition, and are, of necessity, highly concentrated, to prevent the injurious action of the temperature of different climates. Each bottle, when diluted according to the directions, makes nearly half a gallon of medicine, as pleasant to the taste as lemonade; and as to quantity, quite the cheapest medicine.
I have employed them in a multitude of cases, and have uniformly found that, when used according to the directions, they gradually, but surely, remove, one by one, the various distressing symptoms which cluster around the confirmed Dyspeptic, restore the stomach to its lost energies, and thus lead the patient back to the enjoyment of permanent health and strength.
It has also been used by the following persons, and received their unqualified approbation:—
Prof. A. A. Hayes, M. D., State Assayer, Boston
Prof. E. E. Phelps, M. D., of Therapeutics and Materia Medica, Dartmouth College.
Hon. Myron Lawrence, Ex-President of Massachusetts Senate.
Hon. I. H. Arnold, formerly Governor of Rhode Island, now member of Congress.

DISTURBANCE AT AN IRISH FUNERAL.—A disturbance occurred on Friday, near the corner of Eliot and Warren streets, Boston, among some Irish who had assembled for the purpose of attending a funeral. The drivers of some the carriages first got into a dispute about the right to carry certain passengers. Soon afterwards some of the passengers began to interfere, and the parties came to blows, but thinking the street was too public a place, they went into an unoccupied tenement, and barricading the door, renewed the fight in good earnest. Information being given to the Police, Capt. Eaton, of the Fourth Station, with a posse of officers, proceeded to the scene of action, burst open the door, and arrested nine of the party, viz: John Clifford, James Clifford, Timothy Cornelis, Daniel O'Keefe, Patrick Shane, Dennis Mahoney, John Murphy, John Brennahan, and Dennis Brown. On Saturday they were brought before the Police Court, and held in $100 each for examination.

AMERICAN AND FOREIGN OFFICE.

Agency for business with US Patent Office, Washington,

76 State st, oppo. Kilby st. Boston.

INVENTORS INFORMED by the INVENTORS OFFICE. The Subscriber (late Agent of the U. S. Patent Office, under the Act of 1837) determined to present advantages, in applying for Patents, superior to those offered to inventors by others, has made arrangements whereby our applications are prepared and conducted by him, THIRTY DOLLARS (instead of twenty, as paid back by others,) will be remitted by him in case of failure to obtain a patent, and the withdrawal through him within thirty days after the rejection. Claims, Specifications, Assignments and all necessary papers and drawings, for procuring patents in this and foreign countries prepared, and advice rendered on legal and scientific matters respecting inventions, and infringement of patents.

Inventors can not only here obtain their specifications on the most reasonable terms, but can here avail themselves of the experience of 20 years' practice, an extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and correct accounts of patents granted in this and other countries: besides being saved a journey to Washington, the usual great delay there, as well as all personal trouble in obtaining their patents. Copies of claims of any patent furnished by remitting one dollar.—Assignments recorded at Washington.

R. H. EDDY,

Solicitor of Patents.

"During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, did business at the Patent Office, as Solicitor of Patents. There were few, if any persons acting in that capacity, who had so much business before the Patent Office; and there none who conducted it with more skill, fidelity, and success. I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the best informed and most skilful Patent Solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.

EDMUND BURKE,

Late Commissioner of Patents."

"PATENT OFFICE,

"R. H. EDDY, Esq., Boston, Mass.

"SIR:—Your facilities for the prosecution of any business connected with this Office, are equal to those of any other agent. I am very respectfully, Yours, &c. THOMAS EWBANK,

HERTS BROTHERS

AMALGAMATED IRIDIUM ZINC & PLATINA

PENS.

WARRANTED NOT TO CORRODE.

HERTS BROTHERS, having been many years engaged in the manufacture of Metalic Pens, and during that time, having devoted their unceasing attention to improving and perfecting that useful and necessary article, the result of their unceasing efforts and numerous experiments has been the construction of a Pen on a principle entirely new, combining all the advantages of the elasticity and clearness of the Quill, with six times the durability of the Steel Pen; and thus entirely obviating the only objection that has hitherto existed against the use of Steel Pens.

This Pen will be found an invaluable article in Offices, as they never need wiping, also to Banks and Schools, as they will not spatter nor cut the thinnest paper, and are warranted anti-corroive.

CAUTION.—The universal celebrity of these Pens having induced several disreputable Makers to foist upon the public a spurious imitation, it will please to be observed that each genuine Pen is stamped, "HERTS BROTHERS' PATENT, 1853," and each box of Genuine Pens will contain a label with a fac-simile of the Manufacturers' name.

DR. J. B. MARCHISI'S

Celebrated Catholicon,

FOR THE

RELIEF & CURE OF SUFFERING FEMALES.

It stands pre-eminent for its curative powers in all the diseases for which it is recommended, and usually called

FEMALE COMPLAINTS.

Of these are PROLAPSUS UTERI, or Falling of the Womb; GLEETS, or Whites; CHRONIC INFLAMMATION OF THE WOMB; INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION; Flooding; PAINFUL, SUPPRESSED, AND IRREGULAR MENSTRUATION, &c., with all their accompanying evils. (Cancer excepted) no matter how severe or of how long standing.

Let all interested call and obtain a pamphlet (free) containing ample proof, from the most respectable sources, of the beneficial results of its use; together with letters from highly experienced Physicians who have tried it in their practice, and speak from their own observations.

A WORD TO THE LADIES.

Should any entertain doubts as to the efficacy of the UTERINE CATHOLICON, I would respectfully state that I have for the last twenty years, as my books can well attest, been troubled with the disease for which this medicine is recommended, in its worst forms, and that by its use I have been entirely cured, and thus induced to accept an agency, and offer it for the benefit of others.

MRS. S. GAIT, 38 South street, Boston.

I feel it my duty to make known to the afflicted the virtues of MARCHISI'S UTERINE CATHOLICON, which has relieved me of Female Complaints of fifteen years' standing, from which I suffered so much, that latterly my physician suspected Cancer of the Womb. I suffered extremely, and at last was entirely disabled from attending to my usual pursuits.

It has given me more relief than any thing I have ever used for these difficulties. I will take pleasure in giving further details of my case to any lady who will call on me at 87 Mill street.

Morning Chronicle.

MONDAY, MARCH 25, 1855.

OLD PARTIES.

The Newburyport Herald of March 21, says—

The town of Raymond, N. H., has been incorporated for 96 years, and until the late election always chosen a democratic representative. Now they have a whig.

The Dover Gazette of the 17th, after complimenting the honorable, steadfast, straight-out whigs, says—

But, the enemy without them, with its banded factions, has gained a temporary triumph in this State, it is true. It is at a time and under circumstances, we confess, when we could not well afford to loose our vantage ground. It is painful; it is mortifying; but thank heaven the reverse is but for a brief season. For the third time in her history only, has the Flag of the democratic party been lowered. And the position in which that party now stands in New Hampshire is one to be more proud of, than often times, when with only ordinary opposition she has come out of the contest victorious.

We suppose Mr. Blake, the representative elect from Raymond, was a whig, and for aught we know he may be called a whig now. But the straight-out whigs of Raymond surely did not elect him without some help: in short it was done by a coalition, fusion, union, or something of that sort. But let that pass.

We will look a moment at the ancient parties. 96 years will carry us back to 1758. Surely there was no democratic party then. Twenty years after that, there were the Whig or Rebel, and the Tory or Royal parties. In '87 there was a Federal party, and in '95 and onward to 1815, there was a Republican party by the side of the Federal, and opposed to it. About this time the Democratic name began to appear; but the Republican was the only party apparent through Mr. Monroe's presidency, the Federal having disappeared. The party which defeated John Q. Adams and elected Gen. Jackson, styled themselves the Democratic party, while their opponents took the name of National Republicans, and afterwards of Whigs.

It will be perceived that the Dover Gazette, very properly, makes the Democratic party a comparatively modern and even juvenile affair, not so ancient as the Herald does. We do not exactly know to what three times, the Dover Gazette refers, when the flag of the Democratic party was lowered.

The third, beyond question, is in 1855.

The second, was it in 1854? when the State Printer was the Old Guard, and when there were no Senators chosen?

Or was it in 1846? when Anthony Colby was Governor, and John P. Hale Senator.

The first, was it in 1823? when Levi Woodbury was chosen Governor, and Samuel Dinsmoor defeated.

These cases carry us back to the time when we date the origin of the Democratic party; and with this date we presume the Dover Gazette of the 17th agrees.

It has sometimes been attempted to carry back the Democratic party so as to make it identical with the Old Republican party which elected President Jefferson.

Even in the Dover Gazette of March 10, we read the following paragraph, which asserts that the parties are the same.

Uncle Toby, of the Portsmouth Chronicle, must, at some period during his life, ha e had his mental vision awfully twisted. Only hear—"Our civil rights are endangered by the awful stretches of the Federal power at Washington," &c. Our "civil rights" endangered. This is an old story. Does Uncle Toby remember when our "civil rights" were endangered by the "infidelity" of Thomas Jefferson, and at a later period by the "usurpation of power" by Andrew Jackson, who by the way was an Irishman? And now he talks about our "civil rights" being endangered by the same party that supported these same administrations. Bless your soul, Uncle Toby, people read now-a-days.

So they do; and some people remember what they read; but others don't. Let us take this statement, that the same party supported Pierce, Jackson and Jefferson, back along with us to the other extract, which says the flag is just now lowered for the third time. If the parties are the same, the flag has been lowered fifteen times besides; for Jeremiah Smith was chosen Governor once by the federalists, and John Taylor Gilman 14 times.

The question of Chronology is of no great consequence to us; but the Dover Gazette will doubtless settle it for its own sake.

Uncle Toby does not see the force of the remarks about the federal usurpations in Jefferson's and Jackson's times. Whatever faults were then committed, or good deeds performed, can not in the least degree affect the character of that most infamous bill passed by the Senate, against which Uncle Toby protested so dangerous to our civil rights—This bill was a mere patch to cover a hole in the fugitive law. Not a word did he say about any party's supporting such a detestable affair. If any party chooses to father such a measure as this, they are welcome to all the honors and profits of the adventure. The bill stopped in the House for lack of time or something else. The next House will not be likely to pass any thing like it.

JUDGE LORING.—In speaking of the movement in the Massachusetts legislature for the removal of Judge Loring, the Washington Union says:—

Judge Loring is eminently possessed of learning and intelligence. He stands high in the estimation and confidence of the bar and the community where he resides. As a professor in the law school at Harvard University, he had an enviable reputation. But since the result of the Burns case he has been the shining mark for the arrows of fanaticism. It remains to be seen whether a know nothing legislature will undertake to exercise a brief authority in the removal of such an honest, high minded, and learned judge. They may take away his office and its emoluments, but they can never deprive him of his spotless character as magistrate through several years of public service. Aristides was ostracised and banished by the ignorance and fanaticism of the Greeks, but history has awarded him the appellation of 'the Just,' to the eternal disgrace of his persecutors.

Well, then;—we suppose if Mr. Loring gets ostracised and banished, History must call him Loring the Just, because he was so very just and legal as to decree Burns to be the slave of Suttle. Is not that fame enough—glory enough for one day or a life time? to be dubbed Loring the Just! But can any body read such stuff without laughing? We do not doubt Mr. Loring is a well meaning man—but he made a sad mistake in the admission of some evidence on the Burns' case, contrary to Law—and as to the Justice of doing any thing against freedom and in favor of oppression,—it is a mere contradiction in terms.

RECRUITING OFFICE FOR THE BRITISH ARMY.—It is stated that the recruiting office opened in New York for the British army, is doing an active business, and that from eighty to ninety men, mostly Germans, have already been sent to Halifax.

It is illegal, however, and will be broken up. Nevertheless, individual men, in any numbers, can go to Halifax and there enlist. This is no crime—but it is a crime to retain or hire men to do so.

NEW YORK POLICEMEN.—Some days ago an investigation was held before the constituted authorities touching several policemen, charged with extorting money from keepers of disorderly houses. Further testimony has since been taken, all of which goes to prove and expose a regular system of levying heavy contributions on the keepers of infamous establishments, and in case of their refusal to pay the sums demanded, promptly, prosecuting the aforesaid keepers, even to causing their indictment by the Grand Jury. Mayor Wood has the matter in hand, and intends to rip it up to the very core.—N. Y Evs. Mirror.

The Mayor is a grand Police Officer.

A large public meeting was held in the City of New York on Wednesday evening, for the purpose of protesting against a measure which has been brought forward in the legislature without any request of the citizens, for remodelling the city government, by placing over it a Board of Commissioners, with a new Chief of Police, to whom the Mayor shall be subordinate. The police system of the city has been lately reorganized under the appointment and superintendence of the Mayor, Recorder and City Judge, whereby its efficiency is greatly increased, and the system promises to work well in all respects.

Several speakers exposed the impolicy of the officious change proposed by the legislature, in strong terms. A series of resolutions, previously prepared, was offered by Mr. Minturn, for the consideration of the meeting, and after an animated discussion, they were unanimously adopted, with three cheers for Mayor Wood.

THE PRESIDENTIAL QUESTION.—The Charleston Mercury thinks that the Southern people have no need of "hunting up a candidate for the Presidency," while they have such a good man as General Pierce. It says:

We have a President who has faithfully performed his duties; who has in no one instance failed to defend the Constitutional rights of the South; and we cannot, if we hunt the whole country over, expect to find a truer man than President Pierce. Why need we trouble ourselves about a candidate? We have tried the President and know what he is.

What pledge could Dr. Dickinson or any other candidate give, that would weigh against the tried firmness and worth of General Pierce?

THE FRANKING PRIVILEGE.—There is at present in the Postoffice in Rome, twenty-one bags of documents, books, &c., sent by mail, for Hon. Caleb Lyon, M. C., from Lewis and Jefferson District. Those documents came from Washington, and are waiting here to be sent north. Each bag will weigh not far from one hundred and fifty pounds—making the whole weight over one and a half tons. It is not supposed that these are all the documents to be forwarded from Washington for the Hon. M. C.; others are daily expected.

The people of Austria are holding public meetings and have proposed laws in the legislature, to prevent an influx of criminals from Van Dieman's land. That is right; a British colony refuses to receive British pardoned criminals; but what a contrast between them and us. We receive the criminals from half the world, the paupers from the workhouses of starving nations; professional pickpockets, beggars, thieves and cut-throats—the vilest scum and offscouring of humanity; and yet Congress refused to pass a law to prevent the ingress of such vileness, that keeps Jails, and Prisons and Alms Houses full, and furnishes a public execution for every other day in the year. There will be a time, when we shall be advanced as far as Australia and the Cape of Good Hope are, and resent such impositions.—Newburyport Herald.

SIR JOHN BISHOP, husband of Madame Bishop, the vocalist, is in bad health and extreme poverty, and subscriptions and a concert were about to be got up for his relief.

LOCAL.

SIDE WALKS AND CROSSINGS.—We need, on Market Square, two new crossings, and one or two old ones altered. During the past winter, a distinct footpath was worn in the snow, from the front of the new North Church, to the S. E. corner of Daniel street. On the line of this foot-path, there should be a crossing, made of two rows of small granite blocks with a foot of space between them paved with small pebbles. There should be another from the corner of High street to meet the sidewalk near the Church. The old and substantial crossing opposite the Brick Market is unnecessarily wide, and the flag stones altogether too wide for a crossing, because horses are liable to slip: though the stones, arranged in a single row, would make a durable sidewalk elsewhere. The diagonal crossing from Congress street towards the square, stops short in the middle of the street.

Hanover street, which was formerly of little consequence and much neglected, has, by the opening of Marlboro' street, been made the principal thoroughfare of foot-passengers from Factories, Spring Market, &c. There are good brick sidewalks about half the length of the street; and the rest of the way the pedestrians trot through the mud. It is hardly to be expected that all the owners of property will presently fill up the muddy gaps: but the city should see to it that one passable sidewalk through the street shall be completed and kept in repair, for so great an amount of foot travel.

A gravel walk, with a single row of flag stones on the outer edge, would answer the purpose, at small cost.

STATE FAIR.

There is a serious proposition for having the State Agricultural Fair held in or near this city, next Fall. We can have it here, if we choose to pay well for it.

The Journal says we have but few places in our vicinity for the accommodation of the Fair: the best are the Plains and Pierce's Island.

Some persons would suggest some elevated grounds on Middle street; others a field on the City Farm, as a place for the Fair. But the main questions are, Will we pay? and will we now promise to do so? The letter of the Secretary speaks for itself.

Dear Sir:—The Executive Board of the N H. State Agricultural Society, you are aware, have decided to hold the next Fair on 12th, 13th, 14th of Sept. at such suitable place in the eastern section of the State as will contribute sufficiently to the Society to meet the expenses. My impression is that $1500 or $2000 will be needed, but that is not for me to say. What will Portsmouth do? A decision will be made April 9th, and offers must be in by the 7th. Yours,

JAMES O. ADAMS, Sec'y.

THE NEW SHIP CATHEDRAL AND THE ENOCH TRAIN.—The Cathedral, a clipper packet-ship of 1,700 tons burden, arrived here last evening, in tow of the new boat Enoch Train. The Cathedral is a beautiful ship, from the yard of Mr. Samuel Badger, in Portsmouth, N. H. She was fully sparred and rigged—her sails not bent, however,—and was brought up by the steamer in eight hours. The Enoch Train left with the Cathedral at 11.30 yesterday, A. M., and reached Constitution wharf at 7.30 P. M.—thus accomplishing a distance of seventy-three miles at an average rate of over nine miles per hour, with a heavy vessel in tow. Capt. Howard, of the new ship, and Capt. Marcy, part owner and the superintendent of her construction, together with several other gentlemen on board, expressed their great satisfaction with the performance of the Enoch Train. Her achievement, we believe, has not yet been surpassed, if it has been equalled.—Boston Courier.

THREE DAYS LATER NEWS FROM CALIFORNIA.

SANDY HOOK, March 24.—The steamship George Law has arrived, with California date to March 1.

She brings 234 passengers, brought down to Panama by the Golden Gate in 11 days and — hours running time. The outward passengers by the Geo Law were landed at Aspinwall on the 16th, and sailed same day from Panama.

The Geo. Law brings $317,800. Among her passengers is Col. Fremont.

Wells, Fargo & Co. resumed payment on the 27th, and all demands had been promptly paid.

Adams & Co. had filed a petition for insolvency, and their schedule of assets and liabilities show a balance on the right side of about $100,000. Mr Woods had given all his personal property, estimated at $250,000.

The failure of Robinson & Co. is a bad one. The resumption of Page, Bacon & Co. had not been fully completed, but it was expected they would be in a condition to resume in a few days.

Read & Co. of Sacramento, had applied for the benefit of the Insolvent act.

A. S. Wright, of the Miners' Savings Bank was in expectation of resuming.

Of the generality news, there is nothing of the least interest. Copious rains had fallen, much to the gratification of the miners and agriculturists, who would be largely benefitted.

The bill introduced into the Legislature for a Prohibitory Liquor Law, submits the matter to a vote of the people, at the election in 1855.

The new king of the Sandwich Islands is evidently a very gallant man. He has determined to give all the females in the city, each a new black silk or satin dress pattern, in order that they may appear in respectable and fitting costume at his father's funeral.

The reputation enjoyed by the VEGETABLE PULMONARY BALSAM, for Coughs, Colds and Consumption, has been acquired through long years of success, and those troubled with pulmonary Complaints should by all means try it.—Dover Gazette, N. H. [See advertisement in another column.] 2w m22

AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS.

They don't help complaints, but they cure them.
One Box has cured Dyspepsia.
Three Boxes have cured the worst cases of Scrofula
Two Boxes have cured Erysipelas.
One Box always cures the Jaundice.
Three Boxes are sure to cleanse the system from Bolls—often less than one dose it.
Two Boxes have completely cured the worst of ulcers on the leg.
Small doses seldom fail to cure the Piles.
One dose cures the headache arising from a foul stomach.
Strong doses often repeated expel every worm from the body. They should be given to children, who are always more or less afflicted with this scourge.
As a gentle Physic they have no equal.
One Box cures derangement of the Liver.
Half a Box cures a Cold.
They purify the Blood, and thus strike at the foundation of every disease.
As a Dinner Pill there is not their equal in the world.
They are purely vegetable, and can do no harm, but do accomplish an unaccountable amount of good.
Prepared by DR. J. C. AYER, Lowell, Ms., and sold by every respectable Druggist in New England.
Agents in Portsmouth, W. R. PEARSON, J. H. THACHER, and D. KIMBALL, and sold by the Druggists throughout the United States. 2m f1 d&w

ARREST OF AN ALLEGED PICKPOCKET.—Thursday morning, Mrs. James Elkins, of Plymouth, N. H., temporarily sojourning in Boston, went to the Auction Store of Messrs. Thompson & Hennessy, where a sale was going on. A well dressed man stationed himself near her, having hanging over one of his arms a coat, under cover of which, as is alleged, he insinuated his hand into the pocket of the lady. She felt his hand and immediately stepped aside, examined her pocket, and found that her pocket-book was gone. Pointing to her neighbor, she charged him with taking it, when he started for the door, but was detained by the persons present until officer Ham and Constable Hopkins arrived and took him into custody. The pocket book which contained but a small sum of money, was afterwards picked up on the floor of the auction room. The accused gave the name of Joseph Montrion, of Hempstead, Long Island. He had considerable money on his person, and was locked up for examination in the Police Court.

MAILS BURNED.—A heavy mail reached here yesterday from California, for this and other Western cities. When the train reached White Pigeon, it was discovered that the car was on fire, and by great exertion the mail was got out—the greater part of it much scorched, but not destroyed. On last Sunday morning at the first stopping place this side of Toledo, it was discovered that the mail car was on fire inside, and before the mail could be got out, some eighteen bags of newspapers and documents were burned mostly entirely destroyed. No letter bags were injured. In both cases the mails were the through mails, in closed cars, and it is supposed the fires were caused by sparks from the engine, entering the car and communicating with the canvass bags.—Chicago Times.

FALLING OF A LARGE PIECE OF ROCK ON THE HUDSON RIVER RAILROAD—NARROW ESCAPE OF THE NOON TRAIN FROM NEW YORK.—The passengers by the noon train from New York, and which was due here at 5.15 o'clock, had a narrow escape when near Rhinebeck. As the train was passing into a curve, a piece of rock, at least two tons in weight, fell upon the track and rolled over so that only a small part of it lay upon the rail. The engineer fortunately saw it fall, and instantly set about checking the motion of the train, which was then going at full speed. So sudden was it checked and so quick the jerk, that the passengers were all thrown from their seats, and for a time the utmost confusion prevailed. The cow catcher hit the rock, which lay so nicely poised, that the locomotive rolled it off without receiving any injury, and with apparent ease. Upon learning the cause of the sudden stoppage, the passengers became calmed down and in a few minutes the train was under motion. It was a narrow but fortunate escape.—Albany Journal, Tuesday.

LAND SALE IN VIRGINIA.—On Wednesday, W. B. Sorey, auctioneer, made a sale of real estate about twelve miles from Norfolk, in Norfolk county, belonging to Dr. J. H. Williamson, containing two thousand acres, at $25,000—$12 50 per acre. The property was purchased by Moses Sweetser, of Newburyport, Mass., who has obtained the best bargain that has been made for some time in this section of country, so say the knowing ones. Mr. Sweetser intends settling in Virginia with several other gentlemen, for the purpose of conducting the ship building business, &c.—Norfolk Beacon, March 16.

CININNATI, March 22.—Judge Prior, of Kentucky, decided, at Covington, today, that the makers of notes given for stock in the Kentucky Trust Co. Banks, are not liable for the payment of those notes unless it can be shown that they combined to defraud the public. This decision reduces the assets of the Bank nearly $700,000. The weather continues cold.

SLAVE SALES.—Slaves are looking up in the Southern markets. In New Orleans, on the 14th inst., there were sold 175 negroes for the sum of $113,750, being an average of $650 each. A day or two previous 124 slaves were sold for $76,855, an average of $620 to each, and 51 were sold for $36,895, which would give an average of $723 each.

A VESTIGE OF THE ALBANY.—The Havana correspondent of the New York Express writes that: "By a recent arrival in port, we have received a report which is of importance to those who are interested in the fate of the Albany. A mast has been picked up near "Turks Island" whose shape and dimensions have led to the belief that it belonged to this unfortunate vessel. Accurate measures have been taken of it, and it may prove a clue to the fate of those we mourn."

The Great Specific of the Age.

OXYGENATED BITTERS!

THE ONLY SURE AND SAFE REMEDY EVER DISCOVERED For the cure of

DYSPEPSIA,

IN ALL ITS VARIOUS FORMS, as well as Liver Diseases, Fever and Ague, Bilious Complaints, Bronchitis, General Debility, and all diseases of a kindred nature.

Rev. the following testimony from Dr. Henry E. Morrell, a skillful physician of N. Y. city. He says:—"The most effectual medicine to improve the tone and energy of the stomach is that prepared by Dr. George B. Green, of Windsor, Vt., and called the Oxygenated Bitters."

The Oxygenated Bitters do not contain a particle of alcohol in their composition, and are, of necessity, highly concentrated, to prevent the injurious action of the temperature of different climates. Each bottle, when diluted according to the directions, makes nearly half a gallon of medicine, as pleasant to the taste as lemonade; and as to quantity, quite the CHEAPEST MEDICINE.

I have employed them in a multitude of cases, and have uniformly found that, when used according to the directions, they gradually, but surely, remove, one by one, the various distressing symptoms which cluster around the confirmed Dyspeptic, restore the stomach to its lost energies, and thus lead the patient back to the enjoyment of permanent health and strength.

It has also been used by the following persons, and received their unqualified approbation:—

Prof. A. A. Hayes, M. D., State Assayer, Boston
Prof. E. E. Phelps, M. D., of Therapeutics and Materia Medica, Dartmouth College.
Hon. Myron Lawrence, Ex-President of Massachusetts Senate.
Hon. I. H. Arnold, formerly Governor of Rhode Island, now member of Congress.

IMPORTANT IMPROVEMENT

—IN—

Rotary Planing, Tonguing and Grooving Machines.

PATENTED NOVEMBER 21st, 1854.

THIS Improvement has been thoroughly tested and found to possess just what is necessary to perfect the rotary planer

My machine will plane very much faster and better than any other now in use. I would particularly call the attention of those in want of machines for nice work, or for planing very thin, crossgrained or knotty material, to these machines, as it is impossible for them to tear or throw out loose knots.

My Clapboard Machine will plane and joint as fast as the clapboards can be put into the machine, and perform the work without sorting them so as to plane with the grain, making a superior quality of clapboards, in a very superior manner, without tearing the thin edge.

Applications for rights and machines, or for further particulars, can be made to the Patentee,

READ the following notice from a distinguished Clergyman:—

"We are not accustomed to laugh outright, or be convulsed with laughter, yet we have never found it more difficult to restrain our risibilities than while perusing this most ingenious satire; and yet with all its comical, diverting, and laughable scenes, the most sober, important and instructive lessons are coached in every page—Youth should read it—parents, teachers, preachers everybody."

NOTICE TO CABINET MAKERS.

THE Subscriber, wishing to introduce into Portsmouth and vicinity, the use of his

PATENT SELF ACTING

TABLE LEAF SUPPORT,

would ask the attention of Cabinet Makers and others interested to this very desirable improvement in the mode of supporting Table Leaves. It is a substitute for the Fly Rail and Swivel now in use for that purpose,—it is as simple in its construction, as cheap, and much more convenient, requiring no stooping to raise or lower the Leaf.

Wishing to sell exclusive Rights to use them in that vicinity, any letters addressed to me desiring information as to terms, prices, &c., or Circulars and description, will be promptly attended to.

One or more persons could do a good business putting them on from house to house. To such they will be furnished at a 25 cent from the retail price, which is 30 cents per Table. To those owning "Rights" they will be furnished at cost if desired.

THE GREAT STANDARD REMEDY

FOR ALL PULMONARY DISEASES.

Containing neither Prussic Acid, Tartar Emetic, nor any other deleterious drug. Extensively used, tested and approved by the Eclat Cures in Canada, and the British Provinces during a period of THIRTY YEARS by Eminent Physicians, Clergymen, Professors of Colleges, Theological Seminaries, Scientific and Distinguished Public Men,—and, in fact by all classes in the community. See Pamphlets and wrappers containing Certificates, among which are those of Rev. Dr Lyman Beecher, Boston, late President of Lane Theological Seminary, Cincinnati, Ohio.—Late Rev. Dr. Leonard Woods, Abbott Prof. of Theology in Andover Theological Seminary, Mass.—Hon. Daniel P. Thompson, Secretary of State of Vermont.—S. F. Williams, Esq., formerly Collector of the Port of Baltimore, Md.—Rev. Josiah Litch, Philadelphia,—and many others.

How Esteemed by Physicians.—JOHN A. BERRY, M. D., Saco, Me., says, "During a practice of twenty years, I have seen used all the popular remedies for Coughs, and am well satisfied that your Vegetable Pulmonary Balsam is best, and I hope will be better known and more generally used."

☞ Beware of Counterfeits and Imitations!!

Enquire for the article by its Whole Name, "VEGETABLE PULMONARY BALSAM."

Prepared only by REED, CUTLER & CO., Druggists, 33 India street, Boston, Mass., and sold by Apothecaries and Country Merchants generally. Price New Style, large bottles, containing nearly four times the quantity of the small, $1. Old Style, small bottles 50 cents.

HERTS BROTHERS, having been many years engaged in the manufacture of Metalic Pens, and during that time, having devoted their unceasing attention to improving and perfecting that useful and necessary article, the result of their unceasing efforts and numerous experiments has been the construction of a Pen on a principle entirely new, combining all the advantages of the elasticity and clearness of the Quill, with six times the durability of the Steel Pen; and thus entirely obviating the only objection that has hitherto existed against the use of Steel Pens.

This Pen will be found an invaluable article in Offices, as they never need wiping, also to the Bank and Schools, as they will not spatter nor cut the thinnest paper, and are warranted anti-corrosive.

Caution.—The universal celebrity of these Pens having induced several disreputable Makers to foist upon the public a spurious imitation, it will please to be observed that each genuine Pen is stamped, "Herts Brothers' Patent, 1853," and each box of Genuine Pens will contain a label with a fac-simile of the Manufacturers' name.

DR. J. B. MARCHISI'S

Celebrated Catholicon,

FOR THE

RELIEF & CURE OF SUFFERING FEMALES.

It stands pre-eminent for its curative powers in all the diseases for which it is recommended, usually called

FEMALE COMPLAINTS.

Of these are Prolapsus Uteri, or Falling of the Womb: Fluor Albus, or Whites: Chronic Inflammation of the Womb; Incidental Hemorrhage or Flooding; Painful, Suppressed, or Irregular Menstruation, &c., with all their accompanying evils, (Cancer excepted) no matter how severe or of how long standing.

Let all interested call and obtain a pamphlet (free) containing ample proof, from the most respectable sources, of the beneficial results of this medicine; together with letters from highly experienced Physicians, who have used it in their practice, and speak from their own observations.

A WORD TO THE LADIES.

Should any entertain doubts as to the efficacy of the Uterine Catholicon, I would respectfully state that I have for many years past, as my friends can well attest, been troubled with the disease for which this medicine is recommended, in its worst form, and that by its use I have been entirely cured, and thus induced to accept an agency, and offer it for the benefit of others.

MRS. S. GAIT, 38 South street, Boston.

I feel it my duty to make known to the afflicted the virtues of Marchisi's Uterine Catholicon, which has relieved me of Female Complaints of fifteen years' standing, and of so serious a nature, that latterly my physician suspected Cancer of the Womb. I suffered extremely, and at last was entirely disabled from attending to my usual avocations.

It has given me more relief than any thing I have ever used for these difficulties. I will take pleasure in giving further details of my case to any lady who will call on me at 67 Mill street.

Deck-Reefing Gear.

By the application of this GEAR, the Topsails of any vessel may be Reefed from the deck with remarkable facility, and carry sail much longer than when rigged in any other way. This Gear can be readily applied to any old rig, and at less expense than any other now in use.

The following is an extract from a letter recently received from Capt. Pickering, of the ship Ocean Rover, of Portsmouth, concerning its merits:—

"It has given me perfect satisfaction, and I have only to regret that it was not applied to all the sail yards. On the passage to this port, (Charleston, S. C.,) I experienced strong gales from the S. W. and had occasion to use it several times, and on every occasion it worked finely."

OPIUM EATING.—The New York Dutchman says—We never could understand how people can get a taste of opium fastened on them. We tried a small quantity of it the other day, for a 'pain internally.' We were ordered to take two pills a day four days.—'The first dose was really delicious. It gave us a pink tinged sleep, filled to the brim with girls made of rose leaves. We indulged in dreams of the most oriental order. In one of them we had a mother-of-pearl hand sled, with golden runners. With this we glided down a rainbow made of ice cream, and brought up on a terrace, the supporters of which were spars of emerald. The second night things began to change. About the supports of the terrace, anacondas began to appear, while in the distance a lot of green monkeys, with their tails burnt off, were quarrelling about the propriety of making a pin cushion of us. The third evening matters grew appalling. The terrace had gone and so had the rainbow, and the girls made of rose leaves; and in their stead we had a bed filled with grizzly bears pulling at a hawser, one end of which was fastened on our neck and the other to an iceberg. That men should use opium for a day does not surprise us in the least; that they should do so, however, for a month, seems really wonderful. Rather than become a confirmed opium eater, we would throw ourselves into Etna. We can imagine nothing more terrible.

HASTILY MADE LAWS.—The laws passed at the recent session of Congress are now in course of publication, and great complaint is made of their defective construction, which illustrates the loose and dangerous manner in which legislation is conducted near the end of the session, and particularly at the conclusion of a Congress. The Naval Appropriation bill authorizes the expenditure of $18,412,000, but between three and four millions of this is stated to be errors. Thus an appropriation is made for building the six steamers of $3,000,000, and then an appropriation of $3,000,000 more for continuing them, which would make them cost a million dollars each. Three sections making appropriations for the marine corps, are repeated, word for word. A clause relative to the floating docks at Pensacola and San Francisco, proves to have been inserted in terms exactly opposite of what were designed by the mover. The true amount of the naval act would appear to be $15,175,000; but before calculating it we must await the result of a revision and correction of errors by competent authority.

A cursory examination of the Civil and Diplomatic Appropriation act, shows its amount to be not far from $14,000,000. The Army bill, independently of the new regiments, provides for an annual expenditure of about $10,000,000. Its aggregate amount is $12,500,000;—within a few dollars of the total disbursements for a whole year of John Quincy Adams's administration, which was hunted from office on the cry of extravagance and corruption.—Newburyport Herald.

MAPLE SUGAR.—The Spring has opened very favorably for our New England sugar makers. Mild days and clear and frosty nights have started the sap in the maple trees, and the sugar camps are now doubtless in full blast. Maple sugar is one of the staple products of New England. There were produced during the year ending June 1, 1850, according to the United States census, 8,588,111 pounds of sugar, as follows: Maine, 93,542 lbs.; New Hampshire, 1,293,863; Vermont, 6,349,357; Massachusetts, 795,555; Rhode Island, 28,000; Connecticut 50,769. At nine cents per pound, the value of the annual product of Maple sugar in New England would be $772,929.

Sunday liquor traffic has been effectually suppressed in Chicago. The six hundred places where grog is usually sold, were all closed last Sabbath.

There is said to be in Illinois at least twenty per cent. more acres in wheat at the present time than in any previous year. The winter has been exceedingly favorable.

We understand that a sporting gentleman in this city, who has for some time past paid great attention to the culture of rats, offers to make a bet of considerable amount, that he will during the coming summer, before a light wagon built on purpose, drive from the Astor house up Broadway to Union Square. He estimates that he can accomplish the task with one hundred rats in harness. It will be a novel sight and will take down any show ever made by Kipp & Brown with one of their fancy teams. New York will be on hand at the ratification of this affair. A posse of police will be detailed for the occasion, to clear the track, and all omnibuses will be required to take the back streets.—N. Y. Atlas.

Morning Chronicle.

TUESDAY, MARCH 27, 1855.

WAS MOSCOW BURNT.

We had all along supposed this to be settled, positively, that it was burnt,—as certainly as that Bonaparte was starved and frozen out of it. But Senator Douglass, it seems, asserts that it was not. Now, a writer in the Boston Advertiser contradicts Senator D. as follows.

Years roll away and with them many events are forgotten, while others of great and stirring interest are so deeply engraven on our minds, that they lay buried until something or a casual or incidental nature reminds us of them; so it happens that within a few days I have been led to reminiscences, and recalled to mind the burning of Moscow in 1812, by a remark attributed to Senator Douglass, "that the world had been deceived, that Moscow was never burned!" This assertion of his has been ably answered and refuted, by an observing and sensible writer, under the signature of "An Old Traveller," in the Philadelphia North American, who visited that once famous city in 1814, two years after the conflagration. His remarks must satisfy any one of the false impressions that S nator Douglass's declaration might otherwise give. The remarks of this writer are generally correct, and such as I can confirm. I resided there a large portion of three years in succession, previously to the entry of the French army, likewise passing several months in Moscow after its destruction, being called there to look after property left in the city some months before. I arrived in Moscow only some ten or twelve days after it was abandoned by the French. It was well understood at that time, and until now I had supposed it was a matter of history, that the Emperor and nobles of the empire had resolved on its destruction the moment it was desecrated by the footsteps of the invader, thereby destroying all chances of their holding the place during the winter, or making influence with the peasantry to sustain the army in food and forage. Moscow was therefore doomed to destruction the moment of its entry by the French troops; to this purpose plans were laid and carried into execution by the Governor Rostopchin, and he himself by his own hands set the example, by firing his beautiful estates, leaving on the walls, as a lasting memorial of his determined hostility, an inscription to those who had dared profane his hearths. The mode and plan was no less novel than certain—promising liberty to all the felons then imprisoned, on condition that they would fire the city in every possible way. They were accordingly liberated. How effectually they did their work, in proof I need only say that seven-eighths of this beautiful city was laid in ashes, and with it nearly or quite all the stores and grain deposited there, thus depriving the French army of the means of existence, that Napoleon had so surely calculated upon to feed his famished troops. For three days and nights, the fire raged with unabated fury, and no orders were given to arrest its progress. In addition to the horrors of the flames, the soldiery, it was said, had unlimited power to pillage and plunder indiscriminately. Too late Napoleon was convinced of the deep design and purpose of the Russian government, to sacrifice all for the freedom of the country, and that it was necessary to stop the farther advance of the devouring element. This was done by concentrating and quartering some of his most reliable troops in the best and richest part of the city as yet partially burned, giving orders at the same time to shoot down every one found plundering or burning. His orders were executed in the most rigorous and severe manner, soldiers and peasants being alike treated. This alone saved the small remnant of the great city of Moscow, that but a few days previously contained probably not less than 400,000 inhabitants.

These are good witnesses: but we have had the testimony of a better. Jacob Treadwell, a native of Portsmouth, was a resident in Moscow for many years, and was a member of the Greek church and a devout christian. He was a successful trader in Moscow, and had his store and goods destroyed in the grand conflagration there, reducing him at once from affluence to extreme poverty. He found his way home to this place, lived among us many years, and always bore his testimony to the general accuracy of the usual accounts of the fire, adding the remark that the best and most accurate of them fell short of the dreadful reality of the scene. He was an interested eye witness of the conflagration. His testimony is worth more than a regiment of Douglasses. He has been dead only a few years, and many of our citizens have heard his story.

The Liquor Bill.—It has been ascertained that there is a blunder in the 'perfect bill,' and that two or three sections in it conflict with certain provisions of the Revised Statutes. The 'friends of temperance,' in the House of Representatives, through Mr. Slack, attempted to have it assigned for 12 o'clock to-day; but the proposition was voted down. It is still in the calendar.—Boston Courier, Saturday.

At a meeting of ministers and others of Cincinnati, it was voted to call a great national convention of Christians of evangelical denominations to be held in that city on the first Wednesday of May next, for the purpose of discussing the best mode of freeing the country from slavery.

The whole amount actually received by Gardiner or three fourths of his fraudulent Mexican claim, was about $320,000. Of this the government has recovered about $230,000. Of the residue a considerable portion went into the hands of lawyers and agents. There is not much likelihood that any portion of this will be recovered.

For the Chronicle.

THE FUGUE, IN MUSIC & NATURE.

Messrs. Editors:—The great reason for the lively and general interest manifested in the concerts of ancient sacred music all over New England, and their consequent success, is in my opinion found in the fact that this music is mostly fugue. This is the secret of the enthusiasm kindled by it, in singer and hearer, in a greater degree than by any other music.

"The fugue is, has been and ever will be, popular. It is the sublimest form of music. In point of artistic skill, it is the difficult and learned citadel of musical composition.—There is no form in nature, in which life, force, passion, genius, more spontaneously clothes itself, than in this which is the fugue in music, and which in other arts has manifestations perfectly analagous. Nature's forms of motion, as waves, fountains, waving fields of grain, the upward flickerings of flame, and the spiral tendency in plants, are types of it, both variable and constant, on all sides of us.

"The fugue is the orderly whirlwind of passionate enthusiasm, of religious rapture, raised by the feelings of the Infinite; and stirring with exhaustless energy, renewed like the eagle's, to reach the throne of the One.—A fugue seems never finished—it is a typical form of the infinite. More or less of it, its spiral tendency, enters into all art; and in music, we are disposed to think it the inspired part of all form—the very heart-secret and most unteachable and esoteric method of genius. It is as wave after wave of being, pouring in to swell the ocean triumphs of God."

The oldest tunes in the 'Ancient Harmony Revived', from which the Concerts referred to are given, are fugue. Enough of the sublime minors and majestic old chorals are interspersed in the book and the programmes, to make a charming variety. "Most of the fugues start from the base, with the swift theme or subject of the fugue; the soprani follow, then the alti, and the tenor—and all there go up in spiral chase, kindling with new enthusiasm, and weaving, in their eager individualities, a perfect unitary whole—which rises as reverently as if there were no rivalry, no mutual pursuit and flight, among its members—such the admirable balance resulting from the very furor of their emulation."

The 'Old Folks' Concerts have cost much labor and expense. The third in Portsmouth takes place on Wednesday evening, for the benefit of the poor. The programme is excellent. In itself and its object, this third and last Concert for the season, richly merits a full house and happy greeting—and will have it.

This statement shows one of two things—either an alarming extent of crime, or an extraordinary increase of vigilance on the part of the Police. The Temperance Journal, unless we mistake, is of opinion that the present city government is not very efficient in the execution of the laws—particularly the Liquor Law; and in this opinion we believe the Inquirer coincides. If we accept this view of the case, we must believe that we are fast losing that character for good conduct and respect for law which has heretofore been attached to this community. If we do not accept it, but look upon this increase of committal as the result of increased vigilance, we are forced into the conviction that the papers alluded to have not given a fair representation of the police doings. People can choose either horn of the dilemma.—State of Maine.

The Temperance Journal says, we see no dilemma here; and we think the people will find no difficulty in deciding the question as to where blame belongs.

We have never accused the present police force, especially the deputies, of any delinquency in prosecuting drunkenness. They are swift of foot in this direction, but a very slow coach in pursuit of the rumseller. This report of Deputy Marshal Mason speaks for itself.

Drunkenness, 409—Selling liquor, and keeping with intent to sell, 45.

Snow.—There is an unusual depth of snow for the season of the year, on the highlands in New Hampshire, between the Connecticut and Merrimack rivers. Along the valleys of those streams the snow has nearly disappeared. For some distance on the line of the Northern Railroad above Franklin, N. H., the snow is now nearly three feet deep. In the eastern part of Maine, the snow was as deep at the last accounts as during any part of the winter.

A Southerner, on Wednesday, in New York, drew a bowie-knife upon the boot-black of the Irving House. The artist in Day & Martin dejended himself with the coal scuttle, and the knight of the knife was escorted to the Tombs.

POLICE COURT.

Monday, March 26.

Before Justice Parker: John Johnson complains against Wm. Robinson, for an assault on Margaret L. Davis, all of Greenland.

On the part of the complainant it was testified that the assault was committed on Friday afternoon last, at the Greenland Depot on the Portsmouth & Concord Railroad.—Mr. Johnson was about to purchase tickets for himself and Mrs. D. to go to Portsmouth; when Robinson ordered the Depot Master not to sell a ticket for Mrs. D. whom he claimed as his wife, (but which claim she denied)—ordered the woman not to go, and took hold of her to enforce the order. Johnson interfered and floored Robinson. Afterwards, on the platform before the Depot, Robinson again attempted by a forcible seizure to detain Mrs. D., and her baggage, but was again repulsed, and the train moved off.

The defence set up was that Robinson used no more force than was necessary or proper for a husband to use in detaining an absconding wife from an excursion which was to end in her wedding to another husband.

The defence also introduced the testimony of Levi Robinson, brother of the Respondent, who testified that Wm. B. Robinson and wife (who was formerly Mrs. Davis and afterwards Mrs. Woodman,) had been married 10 years, and had been at his (witness's) house in Haverhill, Mass. as husband and wife, within three months.

The prosecution requested a continuance until Wednesday, to prove a divorce between Robinson and Mrs. D.; but it was not granted, and the case was dismissed.

Rollins for prosecution; Hackett for the defence.

☞ In the Board of Aldermen, Tuesday, March 26, on motion of Alderman Colcord, it was

Resolved, That the thanks of this Board be presented to his Honor Mayor Walker, for the able and impartial manner in which he has presided over its deliberations the past year.

To which the Mayor responded with suitable remarks,—and the Board adjourned without day.

☞ The new City Government meet this forenoon at 10 o'clock, at the Court House, for the purpose of organization.

☞ A man by the name of Lucas, delivered a lecture on Church Music, at the Temple on Sunday evening. He advocated heavy choirs, congregational singing, and solemn sacred music, untainted with secular associations:—and condemned hired singing, artistic quartet choirs, &c., &c.

His audience was composed principally of noisy boys and loafers, who were constantly running up and down stairs, slamming the doors, &c., making such a disturbance that it was difficult to keep the thread of his discourse. The best method to secure an attentive and respectable audience, is to have a small admission fee.

Sudden Death.—It becomes our painful duty to record the death of Mr. Joshua W. Bazin. He died at his father's residence, No. 12 North Russell street, Saturday afternoon at about six o'clock, after a short illness of twelve days. He was a printer, and the second son of George W. Bazin, Esq. the printer of the Trumpet, with whom he learned his trade, and in which office he had worked for nearly nineteen years. He was a man greatly beloved by everybody who knew him. He has for some time past been connected with the Boston Journal Office, having the charge of the delivery of the Morning Edition of that paper.

He was an active member of the old Washington Phalanx, and was Clerk of that company for some years. He leaves a fond and affectionate wife, father, mother, brothers, and sister, and a very large circle of friends and acquaintances to mourn his sudden and untimely death. His age was 33 years and three months.—Sunday News.

$63,000 in Bonds Lost.—Mr. Gilmore, of Concord, N. H., came up from New York in the Friday evening express train. He had a carpet bag containing $63,000 in Railway Bonds, which he placed on the rack over his seat. He got out at the station here and took his carpet bag (as he supposed,) but when he arrived at the Hotel found that he had another carpet bag almost precisely like his own. Whether the change was made by mistake or by some adroit rogue, is not known. As yet no clue is obtained of Mr. G.'s carpet bag and bonds.—Hartford Times.

In raising the cupola of a Baptist Church, in Martinsville, Ind., a few days since, the scaffold gave way, carrying timbers, roof, and joists down to the cellar, together with twelve of the workmen. Four were fatally, and the others very seriously injured.

The Greatest Medical Discovery of the Age, is

AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS.

They don't help complaints, but they cure them.
One Box has cured Dyspepsia.
Three Boxes have cured the worst cases of Scrofula
Two Boxes have cured Erysipelas.
One Box always cures the Jaundice.
Three Boxes are sure to cleanse the system from Boils—often less than one does it.
Two Boxes have completely cured the worst of ulcers on the leg.
Small doses seldom fail to cure the Piles.
One dose cures the headache arising from a foul stomach.
Strong doses often repeated expel every worm from the body. They should be given to children, who are always more or less afflicted with this scourge.
As a gentle Physic they have no equal.
One Box cures derangement of the Liver.
Half a Box cures a Cold.
They purify the Blood, and thus strike at the foundation of every disease.
As a Dinner Pill there is not their equal in the world.
They are purely vegetable, and can do no harm, but do accomplish an unaccountable amount of good.
Prepared by DR. J. C. AYER, Lowell, Ms., and sold by every respectable Druggist in New England.

THE TROUBLES IN MANCHESTER.—The Manchester Mirror says that at a crowded meeting of the citizens of that place, in the City Hall, on Thursday evening, a resolution was passed to the effect that "we, as citizens of Manchester, knowing the injurious effects of the long hours of labor proposed by the corporations of this place, will use all fair and honorable means to induce the next Legislature of this State to give us a system that will stay the tide of avarice, and thereby promote the physical, mental and moral condition of the operatives."

On Friday morning, a procession, composed of about thirty seven hundred persons, marched through the streets, escorted by the cornet band. At ten o'clock the operatives assembled at City Hall, and listened to a number of addresses and the reports of several committees. In the afternoon they formed another procession, much larger than that of the morning, and at last accounts were marching to their rendezvous at the City Hall to hold another meeting. The Manchester Mills stopped running for the present on Thursday night, and the Stark mills on Friday noon. The only mills now running are the Amoskeag, and but one third of the machinery in those is in operation. Girls are leaving the city in every train of cars, and the Mirror says that probably at least two thousand will have left before Tuesday.

P. S. The Strike still continues.

ELECTIONS IN KANSAS.—The St. Louis papers have the following telegraphic despatch, which comes from Independence, Mo., dated March 15:

We have just received by express the proclamation of Gov. Reeder. The most important are the following paragraphs relative to election:

A voter must dwell here at the time of offering his vote. He must then have commenced an actual inhabitancy, which he intends to continue permanently; and he must have made the territory his dwelling, to the exclusion of any other home. In case any election is contested, the parties aggrieved must bring the matter before the Governor, who shall determine the case between the parties contesting. He thus makes himself legislator, judge and executive.

The election takes place on Friday, March 30th.

KISSANE THE FORGER.—On Friday in New York, Wm. Kissane, convicted of forgery, was sentenced. When asked if he had any thing to say why the sentence of the law should not be pronounced upon him, he said with a trembling voice:—

"I fully deserve any penalty which may be inflicted upon me. Two years ago I was living happy with my family in Ohio, respected by all. But in one fatal hour I committed that for which I am now, to receive my sentence, and my family to be cast upon the world, who will shudder at the name I bear. Yet it is not my fault. Had I paused and pondered, I should not have been here, and you would have been saved the unpleasant duty which you are compelled to do. I must have been in a dream when I committed the crime."

His "dream" was over. In reply to him the Judge said he had intended to sentence him for the longest term which the law allows; but in consideration of the feelings he had expressed in view of his crime, he should sentence him for only two years and six months.

THE BRITISH RECRUITING OFFICE IN NEW YORK CITY.—The U. S. District Attorney has addressed a letter to the Marshal for this district, calling his attention to the fact that a recruiting office has been established in New York, for the British army, which he considers to be a violation of the neutrality laws of 1818, and consequently directs the Marshal's attention to the penalties, and promises his cooperation in any measures that may be taken for the suppression of the office.—*N. NEW YORK, March 24.—A Washington despatch published in the Times and Tribune, says:—It is rumored here to-day, that Gov. Prince, of New Jersey, who was formerly a Purser in the Navy, is ascertained to be a defaulter to the government to the amount of $75,000.

CINCINNATI, March 24.—The democrats of this city have nominated James J. Farrar, for Mayor. The convention passed resolutions denunciatory of the Know Nothings. All the candidates for nomination were required to give assurances that they were not Know Nothings. The contest between the Know Nothings and the old line Democrats is getting decidedly warm.

WASHINGTON, March 24.—The old line Whigs in Virginia, who seceded from the recent Whig and K. N. convention met this P. M. and adopted resolutions denouncing secret political organizations, and recommending the entire separation of the Whig party from the order which has already succeeded in corrupting all political action.

PORTLAND, March 24.—At a large and harmonious meeting of citizens, on Saturday evening, Jas. T. McCobb, Esq. was nominated for Mayor in opposition to Neal Dow.

UTICA, March 25.—Jos. Ward, drover, of Mansfield, Ohio, was killed this morning by jumping from a freight train at Oriskany Corners.

The Great Specific of the Age.

OXYGENATED BITTERS!

THE ONLY SURE AND SAFE REMEDY EVER DISCOVERED
For the cure of

DYSPEPSIA,

IN ALL ITS VARIOUS FORMS, as well as Liver Diseases, Fever and Ague, Bilious Complaints, Bronchitis, General Debility, and all diseases of a kindred nature.

Read the following testimony from Dr. Henry E. Morrell, a skillful physician of N. Y. city. He says:—"The most effectual medicine to improve the tone and energy of the stomach is that prepared by Dr. George B. Green, of Windsor, Vt., and called the Oxygenated Bitters."

The Oxygenated Bitters do not contain a particle of alcohol in their composition, and are, of necessity, highly concentrated, to prevent the injurious action of the temperature of different climates. Each bottle, when diluted according to the directions, makes nearly half a gallon of medicine, as pleasant to the taste as Lemonade; and as to quantity, quite the CHEAPEST MEDICINE.

I have employed them in a multitude of cases, and have uniformly found that, when used according to the directions, they gradually, but surely, remove, one by one, the various distressing symptoms which cluster around the confirmed Dyspeptic, restore the stomach to its lost energies, and thus lead the patient back to the enjoyment of permanent health and strength.

It has also been used by the following persons, and received their unqualified approbation:—

Prof. A. A. Hayes, M. D., State Assayer, Boston
Prof. E. E. Phelps, M. D., of Therapeutics and Materia Medica, Dartmouth College.
Hon. Myron Lawrence, Ex-President of Massachusetts Senate.
Hon. L. H. Arnold, formerly Governor of Rhode Island, now member of Congress.

THE CATECHISM REVISED.—In a household where the good old puritan custom of catechising the family is still observed, the following amusing incident is said to have lately occurred:—

The father asked his eldest son, a boy of about fifteen summers, who had just finished reading "The Conflict of Ages," "John, who was the first man?"

The boy hesitated a moment, and then said, "Dr. Edward Ward Beecher, of Boston."

"What!" thundered the old gentleman in astonishment.

"Father," said John, "I should think he was, for he claims to have existed long before God created Adam."—Boston Post.

A VOLUNTEER UNDERTAKER.—A shrewd and bold young thief lately, in Philadelphia, made his appearance at a house where a funeral was to take place, and went to work receiving umbrellas and hats and superintending the funeral arrangements in the most workman-like manner. He was taken to be the undertaker's assistant. He tinkered the fire, borrowed chairs, and made himself generally useful and at home. After the funeral the handy young man was sought for in vain. He had disappeared, and so had a valuable watch, chain and seal ring.

A GRANDSON OF SHERIDAN.—In the Island of Capri, in the Bay of Naples, resides a son of the Hon. Mrs. Norton, the English poetess. He fell in love with a Neapolitan peasant girl, poor, lively and pretty. He turned Catholic and married her. This grandson of the great Sheridan now lives in very humble style, on his island home.

AMERICAN AND FOREIGN OFFICE.
Agency for business with Patent Office, Washington, D. C.
7½ State st., oppo. Kilby st. Boston.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION TO INVENTORS. The Subscriber (late Agent of the U. S. Patent Office, under the Act of 1836) determined to present advantageous terms in applying for Patents, superior to those offered to inventors by others, has made arrangements whereby on applications prepared and conducted by him, THIRTY DOLLARS (instead of twenty, as paid back by others,) will be remitted by him to the inventor, if failure to obtain a patent, and the withdrawal through him within thirty days after the rejection. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments and all necessary papers and drawings, for procuring patents in this and foreign countries prepared, and advice rendered on legal and scientific matters respecting inventions, and infringement of patents.

Inventors can not only here obtain their specifications on the most reasonable terms, but can here avail themselves of the experience of 20 years' practice, an extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and correct accounts of patents granted in this and other countries; besides being saved a journey to Washington, the usual great delay there, as well as all personal trouble in obtaining their patents. Copies of claims of any patent furnished by remitting one dollar.—Assignments recorded at Washington.

R. H. EDDY,
Solicitor of Patents.

"During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, did business at the Patent Office, as Solicitor of Patents. There were few, if any persons acting in that capacity, who had so much business before the Patent Office; and there were none who conducted it with more skill, fidelity, and success. I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the best informed and most faithful Patent Solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents."

HERTS BROTHERS'
AMALGAMATED IRIDIUM ZINC & PLATINA
PENS.
WARRANTED NOT TO CORRODE.

HERTS BROTHERS, having been many years engaged in the manufacture of Metalic Pens, and during that time, having devoted their unceasing attention to improving and perfecting that useful and necessary article, the result of their unceasing efforts and numerous experiments has been the construction of a Pen on a principle entirely new, combining all the advantages of the elasticity and clearness of the Quill, with six times the durability of the Steel Pen; and thus entirely obviating the only objection that has hitherto existed against the use of Steel Pens.

This Pen will be found an invaluable article in Offices, as they never need wiping, also to Banks and Schools, as they will not spatter nor cut the thinest paper, and are warranted anti-corrosive.

CAUTION.—The universal celebrity of these Pens having induced several disreputable Makers to foist upon the public a spurious imitation, it will please to be observed that each genuine Pen is stamped, "HERTS BROTHERS' PATENT, 1853," and each box of Genuine Pens will contain a label with a fac-simile of the Manufacturers' name.

DR. J. B. MARCHISI'S
Celebrated Catholicon,
FOR THE
RELIEF & CURE OF SUFFERING FEMALES.

It stands pre-eminent for its curative powers in all the diseases for which it is recommended, usually called

FEMALE COMPLAINTS.

Of these are PROLAPSUS UTERI, or Falling of the Womb; FLOW ALBUS, or Whites; CHRONIC INFLAMMATION OF THE WOMB; INCIDENTAL HEMORRHAGE or Flooding; PAINFUL, SUPPRESSED, AND IRREGULAR MENSTRUATION, &c., with all their accompanying evils. (Cancer excepted) no matter how severe or of how long standing.

For all interested call and obtain a pamphlet (free) containing ample proof, from the most respectable sources, of the beneficial results of its use; together with letters from highly experienced Physicians, who have used it in their practice, and speak from the fullest observation.

A WORD TO THE LADIES.

Should any entertain doubts as to the efficacy of the UTERINE CATHOLICON, I would respectfully state that I have for many years past, as my friends can well attest, been troubled with the disease for which this medicine is recommended, in its worst forms, and that by its use I have been entirely cured, and thus induced to accept an agency, and offer it for sale to the public.

MRS. S. GAIT, 38 South street, Boston.

I feel it my duty to make known to the afflicted the virtues of MARCHISI'S UTERINE CATHOLICON, which has relieved me of Female Complaints of fifteen years' standing, &c., of a serious nature, that latterly my physician suspected Cancer of the Womb. I suffered extremely, and at last was entirely disabled from attending to my usual pursuits.

It has given me more relief than any thing I have ever tried before. Feeling this I will take pleasure in giving further details of my case to any lady who will call on me at 67 Mill street.

FOSTER'S PATENT
Deck-Reefing Gear.

By the application of this GEAR, the Topsails of any vessel may be Reefed from the deck with remarkable facility, and carry sail much longer than when rigged in any other way. This Gear can be readily applied to any old rig, and at less expense than any other now in use.

The following is an extract from a letter recently received from Capt. Pickering, of the ship Ocean Rover, of Portsmouth, concerning its merits:—

"It has given me perfect satisfaction, and I have only to regret that it is not applied to all the topsail yards. On the passage to this port, (Charleston, S. C.,) I experienced strong gales from the S. W. and had occasion to use it several times, and on every occasion it worked finely."

The Puritan Recorder enlarges upon the Pope's troubles. It says the Sardinian alliance with France and England will "extract all the terrors from the threatened thunderbolt" of the Pope against Sardinia, and that alliance will give the Pope no remedy. "Napoleon," says the Recorder, "has not yet suffered the decree of the Immaculate Conception to be published in his empire, and it is not probable that he will."

Austria is even more open in her opposition to this favorite measure of the Pope. The priests in Lombardy have been commanded to keep silence respecting it; and Austria's alliance with the Western Powers is tending to diminish the influence of the Pope at her court.

Even Naples has begun to raise a question as to the limits of the Pope's power. Well may the Pope say "Et tu Brute?" Yes, in Naples it is felt that the yoke presses too heavily, and the king has entered his dissent, in express terms, against the doctrine of the Jesuits, that the authority of the Pope is above that of the King.

In Spain, the Pope's affairs are getting worse and worse. The present attempt at a reconstruction of the constitution of that nation, is bringing its relations with the Pope under a more exact scrutiny. The nation has grown weary of feeding thousands of idle men, and has commenced the work of suppressing the Convents. The Bishops are up in arms, but Espartero stands firm.

The Recorder adds that the fortunes of Papacy in this country have suffered a strange reverse, just about the time that the Immaculate Conception was bruited abroad.

It is stated that the Pope has issued his "admonition" to the government of Piedmont.

Zion's Herald has a leader upon the policy of the slave power and the discipline of the M. E. Church, in which it says: "The broadest, blackest brand written on the brow of slavery by the Discipline, is found in the General Rules. In them every member of the church is enjoined, as condition of membership, to avoid 'the buying and selling of men, women and children, with an intention to enslave them.'"

The Herald then says:

"This rule, as now interpreted by the Church South, condemns nothing beyond the original enslavement of negroes by the foreign slave trade. This, however, is manifestly a false interpretation. It is rejected both by the preachers and people in the M. E. Church generally, not excepting those who live in slave States. They very pertinently inquire how a human being can be bought or sold until he has been first enslaved."
